AUTHORITY: §§ 468.21 to 468.41 issued under sec. 4, 62 Stat. 1070, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 714b. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 62 Stat. 1072, secs. 702-709, 68 Stat. 910-912; 15 U. S. C. 714c, 7 U. S. C. 1781-1787, 1446.

§ 468.21 Administration. The program will be carried out by CSS under the general supervision and direction of the Executive Vice President of CCC. In the field, the program will be administered through the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (hereinafter referred to as ASC) State and County Offices. ASC State and county offices do not have authority to modify any of the provisions of this subpart or any of the amendments or supplements thereto. Neither are they authorized to waive any such provisions unless the power to waive is expressly included in the pertinent provision.

§ 468.22 Support level and payments. For the 1955 marketing year (beginning April 1, 1955, and ending March 31, 1956, both dates inclusive, § 468.40), the price level which has been determined to meet the requirements of the National Wool Act of 1954 is 70 cents per pound of mohair, grease basis. This price is approximately 91 percent of the parity price as of September 15, 1954. Announcement of this price was made by the Department of Agriculture on October 12, 1954, in accordance with section 703 of the National Wool Act of 1954, which states that the Secretary shall, to the extent practicable, announce the support price levels for mohair sufficiently in advance of each marketing year as will permit producers to plan their production for such marketing year. For the 1955 marketing year, price support on mohair will be furnished by means of payments to the producer on the mohair he markets.

§ 468.23 Eligibility for payments. Before payments under this program can be approved pursuant to any application for payment covering any lot or lots of mohair, the following general requirements must be satisfied:

(a) Except as provided in §§ 468.34 and 468.35, the applicant must be the producer (as defined in § 468.40) of the mohair.

(b) The mohair must have been shorn in the continental United States, its territories, or possessions on or after January 1, 1955, and must have been marketed within the 1955 marketing year.

(c) The mohair as well as the goats (defined in § 468.40) from which it was shorn, must have been owned by the producer at the time of shearing, and the goats must have been owned by him for not less than 30 days at any time prior to the application for payment (§ 468.28).

(d) Beneficial interest in the mohair must always have been in the producer from the time the mohair was shorn up to the time of its sale. A producer has beneficial interest in mohair (1) when he owns it without any other person being entitled to the mohair or its proceeds and without his having authorized any other person to sell or otherwise dispose of the mohair, or (2) when the producer has authorized another person to sell or otherwise dispose of the mohair, even transferring legal title to such other person, but the producer continues to be entitled to the proceeds from such sale or other disposal of the mohair. If the producer has such beneficial interest, the fact that the mohair may be mortgaged or subject to another lien does not change his position as having a beneficial interest.

§ 468.24 Marketing within the 1955 marketing year. (a) The National Wool Act of 1954 provides that price support under that Act shall be limited to wool and mohair marketed during the period beginning April 1, 1955, and ending March 31, 1959. Since this program covers only the 1955 marketing year, payments under this program will be limited to mohair marketed during the period beginning April 1, 1955, and ending March 31, 1956.

(b) Marketing shall be deemed to have taken place in the 1955 marketing year if, pursuant to a sale or a contract to sell, the following three events occurred in that year: (1) Title passed to the buyer; (2) the mohair was delivered to the buyer (physically or through documents which transfer control to the buyer); and (3) the last of the factors (such as price per pound, weight, grade) needed to determine the total purchase price payable by the buyer became available. Such a factor is considered available when it is known to the applicant's marketing agency if he markets through a marketing agency or it is known to the applicant if he markets directly.

(c) Delivery of mohair on consignment to a marketing agency (defined in § 468.40) to be sold for the producer's account does not constitute a marketing. This is so even though the consignee may guarantee the producer a minimum sales price or may give him an advance against the prospective sales price or may do both. Mohair delivered on consignment shall not be deemed marketed by the producer until it has been marketed by the marketing agency. When a producer transfers title to his mohair to a marketing agency and provides that such agency shall market the mohair and that the producer shall be entitled to the proceeds of such marketing, the producer shall be deemed to have consigned the mohair.

§ 468.25 Sales in good faith. Payments provided for under this program shall be made on the basis of sales executed in good faith, and no payment shall be made on that part of any sale which has been cancelled or on the basis of sales at prices increased in bad faith for the purpose of obtaining higher payments under this program. Examples of sales in bad faith are those wherein the purchaser obtains back a rebate or any benefit in form of money, property, or otherwise. Application for payment on the basis of a sale in bad faith may also subject the parties involved to civil and criminal liability.

§ 468.26 Rate of payment. Upon expiration of the 1955 marketing year and after the Department of Agriculture has determined the national average price for mohair received by producers in that marketing year, the Department will announce the rate of the payment under this program. The rate of payment will be the percentage of the national average price received by producers required to bring such national average price up to the announced support price. For example, if the reported national average price received by producers for mohair sold during the 1955 marketing year should be 66 cents, the difference between that figure and the support price of 70 cents previously announced (§ 468.22) would be 4 cents, and this figure would constitute approximately 6 percent of the national average price of 66 cents. In such a case, the rate of payment would be 6 percent of the net sales proceeds received by each producer.

§ 468.27 Computation of payment. (a) In order to determine the amount of the payment due to a producer on the mohair he marketed during the 1955 marketing year, the percentage computed pursuant to § 468.26 will be applied to the net proceeds received by him and adjusted so as to express the net proceeds receieved at his farm, ranch, or local shipping point (defined in § 468.40). The determination of such net proceeds shall be made by deducting from the gross proceeds from the sale of the mohair all marketing expenses, such as for transportation from the local shipping point; handling charges (including commissions); charges for grading or scouring; or storage charges. For example, if the producer marketed his clip of 500 pounds at 65 cents per pound, he received $325 as gross proceeds and, if the marketing deductions totaled $25, his net proceeds of sale (after marking deductions) amounted to $300. For the purpose of this program, the producer is expected to deliver his mohair packed in bags to his local shipping point. Consequently, charges made for furnishing bags or transporting mohair to the producer's local shipping point shall not be considered marketing charges. Neither are other charges, not directly related to marketing of the mohair, such as interest on advances or dues owing an association, to be considered marketing charges.

§ 468.28 Application for payment—(a) Filing. The application for payment shall be filed by the producer entitled thereto with the ASC county office serving the area where the headquarters of the applicant's farm or ranch is located. Applications by producers located in the territories or possessions shall be filed with the Washington State ASC office, Spokane, Washington. The application shall be filed as soon as possible after the marketing of the mohair and must be filed not later than 30 days after the end of the 1955 marketing year, that is, not later than April 30, 1956. The ASC county committee may waive this 30-day limitation on applications filed before July 31, 1956 if delayed filing is due to causes beyond the control of the applicant or other good causes.

(b) Form. The application for payment shall be made on CCC Mohair Form 50, "Application for Payment—Mohair." Copies of this form will be available in the ASC county offices. The application will be filed in the original only. It shall be supported by the original sales document (defined in § 468.40) for the mohair sold. If the applicant does not wish the original sales documents to remain with the ASC county office, he may submit photostats or similarly reproduced or carbon copies of the original documents. However, he must show the original documents to the ASC county office where the statements on the copies will be confirmed by comparison with the originals. The original sales documents will be appropriately stamped or marked to indicate that they had been used in support of an application for payment under this program and will be returned to the applicant. He will be required to retain them in accordance with § 468.39. If the original sales document has been lost or destroyed, the applicant may submit a copy certified by the buyer or the applicant's marketing agency, and such certified copy shall be treated like an original for the purposes mentioned in this paragraph (b).

(c) Contents of sales documents. The sales documents attached to each application for a payment must contain a complete accounting for the mohair covered by the document. Contracts to sell as well as tentative or pro forma settlements will not be acceptable as sales documents meeting the requirements of this paragraph. Except as provided in §§ 468.34 and 468.35, sales documents must cover mohair sold by the applicant and must be prepared by the purchaser or the applicant's marketing agency. Each sales document, except those covering an outright sale at the producer's farm, ranch, or local shipping point mentioned in paragraph (d) of this section, must contain at least the following information:

(1) Name and address of seller.

(2) Date of sale. In case the producer's shipment to a marketing agency is sold in parts within the 1955 marketing year, the date within that marketing year when final settlement is made for the mohair that was sold within that marketing year may be shown on the sales document as the date of sale.

(3) Net weight of mohair sold. If the mohair was sold as scoured mohair, the original grease weight must be shown as well as the scoured weight.

(4) The gross sales proceeds.

(5) Marketing deductions, if any, see § 468.27 (a). They should be itemized, but where mohair of more than one producer is commingled and the marketing agency prorates the charges on a weight basis, the deductions may be shown on the sales document as a composite figure for all marketing charges with an explanation of what charges were included in that figure. If a sales document indicates charges without specifying their nature they will be considered marketing charges and will thus diminish the net proceeds on which the payment is computed.

(6) Net proceeds after marketing deductions.

(7) Non-marketing deductions, such as those for bags, interest, or association dues.

(8) Amount paid to the seller.

(9) Name and address of the purchaser and signature of purchaser or his agent. In the case of mohair sold on consignment the account of sale signed by the applicant's marketing agency will be acceptable.

(10) A sales document issued by a marketing agency shall contain a statement that the mohair was marketed during the 1955 marketing year as required by the regulations issued pursuant to the National Wool Act of 1954.

(d) Sales at farm, ranch, or local shipping point. Each sales document, covering an outright sale at the producer's farm, ranch, or local shipping point, attached to an application for payment shall be prepared by the purchaser and must contain at least the following information: Name and address of seller, date of sale, net weight of mohair sold, the net amount received by the producer for the mohair, any applicable nonmarketing deductions, such as association dues or interest on advances, and the signature of the purchaser or his agent.

§ 468.29 Preparation of application. (a) The "Application for Payment—Mohair," CCC Mohair Form 50, consists of two parts. Part I is designed to give the ASC county office general information about the mohair production of the applicant and contains his certification as to facts relating to the production and ownership of the mohair marketed. Part II contains details about the marketing of the mohair which is the basis for the application and contains another certification which covers those details. If the applicant paid any marketing charges (§ 468.28 (c) (5)) not shown on the sales document, such as for scouring, grading, or freight from the applicant's local shipping point, such charges should be added to the marketing charges shown on the sales document in arriving at the net proceeds.

(b) The applicant may, in his discretion, fill out both parts and sign both certifications. He may, however, fill out only Part I, sign the certification included therein, forward the application to his marketing agency, and request it to fill out Part II, to sign the certification included in this part, and to file the application with the required attachments on behalf of the applicant in the appropriate ASC county office in accordance with § 468.28 (a). If the applicant chooses this method of submitting his application, he will be responsible for the correctness of the information furnished by the marketing agency as well as for compliance by it with the requirements as to time and manner of filing the application.

§ 468.30 Signature of applicant. No payment will be made unless an application for payment is signed. The ASC county office will determine with respect to each person who signs an application for payment, or other document on the basis of which payment is made, in a representative or fiduciary capacity as agent, attorney in fact, officer, executor, etc., whether he was properly authorized to sign in such capacity.

§ 468.31 Payment. After the ASC county office has reviewed the application and documents attached thereto and approved it for payment in whole or in part and after the appropriate rate of payment has been announced by the Department of Agriculture, the ASC county office will make payment by sight draft to the order of the applicant. Payment of $3.00 or less to an applicant will not be made. If the ASC county office determines that for any reason the application for payment should be rejected in whole or in part, including the reason that it was not filed within the 30-day period in accordance with § 468.28 (a), the ASC county office shall mail a notice to the applicant that his application has been rejected for a specified reason and shall retain a copy of such notice.

§ 468.32 Deductions for promotion. If the Department of Agriculture has approved deductions for an advertising and sales promotion program in accordance with section 708 of the National Wool Act of 1954, the rate of such deductions will be announced and deductions will be made by the ASC county office.

§ 468.33 Appeals—(a) To ASC State Committee. Within 15 days from the date of mailing of the notice that the application has been rejected in whole or in part (see § 468.31), the applicant may appeal in writing, to the ASC State committee, stating the number of pounds of mohair marketed, the net proceeds involved in the application, and such pertinent facts as he may deem proper, and indicating in what respect the action of the ASC county office was erroneous. If the appeal is from the failure of the ASC county office to waive the 30-day limitation, the applicant shall also state the reason for his delay in filing the application.

(b) To Washington office. If the ASC State committee sustains the decision of the ASC county office, it shall mail a notice to the applicant that his appeal has been denied and shall retain a copy of the notice. Within 15 days from the date of mailing of such notice, the applicant may appeal in writing to the Director, Livestock and Dairy Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C. On this appeal, a determination by the Director as to a question of fact shall be deemed final and conclusive, unless it is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to have been fraudulent, arbitrary, capricious, or so grossly erroneous as necessarily to imply bad faith, or is not supported by substantial evidence.

§ 468.34 Indians residing on reservations. An Indian residing on an Indian reservation may file an application for payment, or the Superintendent of the Indian Field Service of the reservation where the Indian resides may file the application for him, in the ASC county office serving the county in which such Superintendent maintains his office, irrespective of the county in which the Indian resides. If the Superintendent wishes to file the application, he shall prepare it, attach to it the necessary documents, submit it for signature by the producer, and file the application with the ASC county office. In the case of Indians who are incompetent, the Superintendent may secure the information necessary for the preparation of the application for payment, sign it and file it in the ASC county office. When signing, he should indicate his capacity, for instance, Martin S. Cooper, Superintendent, Quapaw Agency, Guardian ex-officio of Pocahontas, incompetent Indian.

§ 468.35 Death, incompetency, or other disability of the applicant. (a) Except as provided in § 468.34, in case of death, incompetency, or disappearance of a producer entitled to payment, application for any payment hereunder may be made by any person who would be entitled to such producer's payment under the regulations contained in ACP-122, as amended, 7 CFR Part 1108, "Payments of Amounts Due Persons who Have Died, Disappeared, or Have Been Declared Incompetent," except as follows: References in § 1108.1 of those regulations to section 8 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended, and to statutes authorizing parity payments, shall be deemed to refer to payments authorized pursuant to the National Wool Act of 1954. The reference in the last sentence of § 1108.2 of those regulations to the Agricultural Conservation Program Service shall be deemed to refer to Commodity Credit Corporation. The number and heading of Standard Form 1055 in the last sentence of § 1108.7 shall be deemed to read, "Standard Form No. 1055—Revised, Claim Against the United States for Amounts Due in the Case of a Deceased Creditor."

(b) In cases of infancy, bankruptcy, dissolution, or other disability, payments will be made to a representative only in accordance with specific instructions issued by CCC.

§ 468.36 Set-off. (a) If the applicant for payment is indebted to CCC or any other agency within the United States Department of Agriculture on any accrued obligation, or is indebted to any other agency of the United States and such indebtedness is listed on the county debt register, the ASC county office will set off such indebtedness against the payment due to the applicant. Such set-off shall not deprive the applicant of the right to contest the justness of the indebtedness involved, either by administrative appeal or by legal action.

(b) If the payment due to the applicant has been assigned by him, the ASC county office will approve the assignment subject to setting off such debts as exist at the time of the approval by the ASC county office.

§ 468.37 Assignments. The producer may assign all payments which may be determined to be due him under this program for the 1955 marketing year by filing with the ASC county office the original and two copies of CCC Wool Form 49, "Assignment of Payment under National Wool Act of 1954," duly executed by both parties. Such assignment shall be null and void unless it is freely made and (a) is executed in the presence of at least two attesting witnesses, neither of whom shall be an employee or agent of, or by consanguinity or marriage related to, the assignee, or (b) is acknowledged by the producer before a notary public, a member of the ASC county committee, the ASC county office manager, or a designated employee of the ASC county office. This assignment may only be given as security for cash advanced or to be advanced by a financing agency (defined in § 468.40) or a marketing agency on goats or mohair. The producer shall not execute more than one assignment covering payments due him under this program for payments on mohair. CCC will make payment pursuant to an accepted assignment unless the ASC county office was furnished evidence of a mutual cancellation of the assignment by both parties thereto.

§ 468.38 Instructions and interpretations. CCC shall have the right to clarify any provision of this subpart by the issuance of instructions or interpretations.

§ 468.39 Records and inspection thereof. The applicant and his marketing agency shall maintain books, records, and accounts showing the marketing of mohair on which an application for payment is based, until April 1, 1959, and CCC shall at all times during regular business hours have access to the premises of the applicant or his marketing agency to inspect, examine, and make copies of their books, records, accounts, and other written data.

§ 468.40 Definitions. As used in this subpart, the terms enumerated in this section have the following meaning.

(a) "Financing agency" means any bank, trust company, or Federal lending agency. It also includes any other financing institution which customarily makes loans or advances to finance production of goats or mohair.

(b) "Goat" means an Angora goat and the term also includes a kid of an Angora goat.

(c) "Local shipping point" means the point to which the producer normally brings his mohair for delivery, either to a carrier for further transportation, or to his marketing agency or a purchaser in case either of them has designated that point as a collection point.

(d) "Marketing agency" means a person or firm that sells a producer's mohair for his account.

(e) "1955 marketing year" means the period beginning April 1, 1955, and ending March 31, 1956, both dates inclusive.

(f) "Mohair" means the hair of the Angora goat and also includes the hair of a kid of the Angora goat.

(g) "Producer" of mohair under this program means a producer of goats who shears his animals. A producer may be an individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, or any organized group of persons which is not incorporated, and includes a State and any subdivision thereof.

(h) "Sales document" means the account of sale, bill of sale, invoice, and any other documents evidencing the sales transaction.

§ 468.41 Forms. CCC Mohair Form 50, "Application for Payment—Mohair"; CCC Wool Form 49, "Assignment of Payment under National Wool Act of 1954," and other forms issued by the United States Department of Agriculture for use in connection with this program may be obtained from ASC county offices. These forms may be reproduced, provided they retain the same language, format, and size, except that the printer's identification must not be reproduced.

NOTE: The record-keeping and reporting requirements of these regulations have been approved by, and subsequent reporting requirements will be subject to, the approval of the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 30th day of March 1955.

[SEAL] TRUE D. MORSE,
Under Secretary of Agriculture and President of Commodity Credit Corporation.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

Subchapter A—Marketing Orders

[Docket No. AO-171-A13]

PART 975—MILK IN THE CLEVELAND, OHIO, MARKETING AREA

ORDER AMENDING ORDER, AS AMENDED, REGULATING HANDLING

§ 975.0 Findings and determinations. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and each of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Cleveland, Ohio, marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the said marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk and be in the public interest; and

(3) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

(b) Additional findings. It is hereby found and determined that good cause exists for making this amendatory order effective on April 1, 1955. Such action is necessary in the public interest in order to reflect current marketing conditions and to facilitate the orderly marketing of milk produced for the Cleveland, Ohio, marketing area. Accordingly, any further delay in the effective date of this order will seriously threaten the orderly marketing of milk in the marketing area. The provisions of this amendatory order are well known to handlers and producers, the public hearing having been convened on November 30, 1954, and lasting through December 9, 1954, and a decision containing the terms and provisions of the order having been issued on March 23 and 25, 1955. Reasonable time under the circumstances has been afforded persons affected to prepare for its effective date. Therefore, it would be contrary to the public interest to delay the effective date of this amendment for 30 days after its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. (See section 4 (c), Administrative Procedure Act, Public Law 404, 79th Congress, 60 Stat. 237.)

(c) Determinations. It is hereby determined that handlers (excluding cooperative associations of producers who are not engaged in processing, distributing or shipping milk covered by this order amending the order, as amended), of more than 50 percent of the volume of the milk covered by this order amending the order, as amended, which is marketed within the said marketing area, refused or failed to sign the proposed marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the said marketing area, and it is hereby further determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of such handlers to sign said marketing agreement tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

(2) The issuance of this order amending the order, as amended, is the only practical means, pursuant to the declared policy of the act, of advancing the interests of producers of milk which is produced for sale in the said marketing area; and

(3) The issuance of this order amending the order, as amended, is approved or favored by at least two-thirds of the producers, who participated in a referendum on the question of its approval and who, during the determined representative period (January 1955), were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the said marketing area.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered that on and after the effective date hereof the handling of milk in the Cleveland, Ohio, marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, and the aforesaid order, as amended, is hereby further amended as follows:

1. Amend § 975.62 by adding a paragraph (c) as follows:

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section the price of skim milk and butterfat in Class II during the month of April 1955 shall be the same, respectively, as the price of skim milk and butterfat in Class III computed pursuant to § 975.63 (c) for such month.

2. Amend § 975.63 by adding a further proviso as follows: "Provided further, That the foregoing proviso shall not apply to milk received during April 1955."

3. Amend § 975.63 by adding a paragraph (c) as follows:

(c) If, during the month of April 1955, the average (computed to the nearest tenth of a cent) of the basic (or field) prices per hundredweight reported to the market administrator or to the Department of Agriculture to have been paid, or to be paid, for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received from farmers during the month at the plants of the Defiance Milk Products Company at Defiance, Ohio; Pet Milk Company at Coldwater, and Delta, Ohio, Angola and Garrett, Indiana, and Hudson, Michigan; Nestles Milk Products Company (uninspected milk price) at Marysville, Ohio; Fisher Dairy and Cheese Company at Wapakoneta, Ohio; Swift and Company at Lima, Ohio; and Kraft-Phenix Cheese Corp. at Kendallville, Ind., is less than the price per hundredweight of milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content computed on the basis of the butterfat and skim values determined pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section (exclusive of the first proviso in paragraph (a)) the price for April 1955 per hundredweight of butterfat computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section shall be reduced by an amount obtained by multiplying such difference by 14.28571 and the price for April 1955 per hundredweight of skim milk computed pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section shall be reduced by an amount obtained by multiplying such difference by 0.51813.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 29th day of March 1955, to be effective on and after the 1st day of April 1955.

[SEAL] EARL L. BUTZ,
Assistant Secretary.

AUTHORITY: § 978.0 to 978.111 issued under sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c.

§ 978.0 Findings and determinations. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and each of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held upon a proposed tentative marketing agreement and order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Nashville, Tennessee, marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order, as amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply of and demand for milk in the marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the order, as amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(3) The said order, as amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity, specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

(b) Additional findings. It is necessary in the public interest to make this order, as amended, effective not later than April 1, 1955. Any delay beyond that date in the effective date of this order, as amended, will impair the proper operation of the order and will seriously threaten the orderly marketing of milk in the Nashville, Tennessee, marketing area. The provisions of the said order are well known to handlers—the recommended decision having been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on March 1, 1955 (20 F. R. 1243) and the final decision having been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on March 30, 1955. Therefore, reasonable time has been afforded persons affected to prepare for its effective date. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby found and determined that good cause exists for making this order, as amended, effective April 1, 1955. (See sec. 4 (c), Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.)

(c) Determinations. It is hereby determined that handlers (excluding cooperative associations of producers who are not engaged in processing, distributing, or shipping milk covered by this order, as amended) of more than 50 percent of the milk covered by this order, as amended, which is marketed within the Nashville, Tennessee, marketing area refused or failed to sign the proposed marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the said marketing area and it is hereby further determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of such handlers to sign said proposed marketing agreement tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

(2) The issuance of this order, as amended, is the only practical means pursuant to the declared policy of the act of advancing the interests of producers of milk which is produced for sale in the marketing area; and

(3) The issuance of this order, as amended, is approved or favored by at least three-fourths of the producers who, during the determined representative period January, 1955, were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the said marketing area.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered that on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Nashville, Tennessee, marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the following terms of this order, as amended, to read as follows:

DEFINITIONS

§ 978.1 Act. "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.).

§ 978.2 Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture or any officer or employee of the United States authorized to exercise the powers and to perform the duties of the Secretary of Agriculture.

§ 978.3 Department of Agriculture. "Department of Agriculture" means the United States Department of Agriculture or any other Federal agency as may be authorized by act of Congress, or by Executive order, to perform the price reporting functions of the United States Department of Agriculture.

§ 978.4 Person. "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other business unit.

§ 978.5 Nashville, Tennessee, marketing area. "Nashville, Tennessee, marketing area", hereinafter called the "marketing area", means all the territory within the boundaries of Davidson County, Tennessee, including but not limited to the cities of Nashville and Belle Meade.

§ 978.6 Cooperative association. "Cooperative association" means any cooperative marketing association of producers which the Secretary determines to be qualified pursuant to the provisions of the act of Congress of February 18, 1922, as amended, known as the "Capper-Volstead Act," and is authorized by its members to make collective sales or to market milk or its products for the producers thereof.

§ 978.7 Producer-handler. "Producer-handler" means any person who produces Grade A milk under a dairy farm inspection permit issued by any duly constituted health authority, and who processes milk from his own production, all or a portion of which is distributed within the marketing area as Class I milk, but who receives no milk from producers.

§ 978.8 Fluid milk plant. "Fluid milk plant" means all the premises, buildings and facilities of any milk receiving, processing or packaging plant from which plant:

(a) Any fluid milk product is disposed of during the month on routes (including routes operated by vendors, and sales through plant stores) to retail or wholesale outlets (except fluid milk plants) in the marketing area;

(b) Grade A milk or skim milk is shipped during the month for any of the months of January through August to a plant (except any portion thereof from which no fluid milk product may be disposed of under a Grade A label) specified under paragraph (a) of this section, or;

(c) Grade A milk or skim milk equal to more than 70,000 pounds is shipped during the month for any of the months of September and December to plants (except any portions of such plants from which no fluid milk product may be disposed of under a Grade A label) specified under paragraph (a) of this section.

§ 978.9 Nonfluid milk plant. "Nonfluid milk plant" means any milk manufacturing, processing, or packaging plant other than a fluid milk plant described in § 978.8.

§ 978.10 Handler. "Handler" means (a) any person in his capacity as the operator of one or more fluid milk plants, or (b) any cooperative association of producers with respect to producer milk diverted by it from a fluid milk plant to a nonfluid milk plant for the account of such association.

§ 978.11 Producer. "Producer" means any person, except a producer-handler, who produces milk in compliance with the Grade A inspection requirements of a duly constituted health authority which milk is received at a fluid milk plant: Provided, That if such milk is diverted for his account by a handler from a fluid milk plant to any other milk plant any day during the months of March through August, or on not more than 10 days during any other month, the milk so diverted shall be deemed to have been received by the diverting handler at a fluid milk plant at the location of the plant from which it was diverted.

§ 978.12 Producer milk. "Producer milk" means only that skim milk or butterfat contained in milk (a) received at the plant directly from producers, or (b) diverted from a pool plant to a nonpool plant (except a nonpool plant which is fully subject to the pricing provisions of another order issued pursuant to the act) in accordance with the conditions set forth in § 978.11.

§ 978.13 Fluid milk product. "Fluid milk product" means milk, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk, flavored milk drinks, yogurt, cream or any mixture in fluid form of milk, skim milk and cream (except sterilized products packaged in hermetically sealed containers, eggnog, ice cream mix and aerated cream).

§ 978.14 Other source milk. "Other source milk" means all skim milk and butterfat contained in: (a) Receipts during the month of fluid milk products except (1) fluid milk products received from other fluid milk plants, or (2) producer milk; and (b) products, other than fluid milk products, from any source (including those from a plant's own production), which are reprocessed or converted to another product in the fluid milk plant during the month.

§ 978.15 Base milk. "Base milk" means milk received at fluid milk plants from a producer during any of the months of March through August which is not in excess of such producer's daily average base computed pursuant to § 978.60 multiplied by the number of days in such month.

§ 978.16 Excess milk. "Excess milk" means milk received at fluid milk plants from a producer during any of the months of March through August which is in excess of the base milk of such producer for such month, and shall include all milk received during such months from a producer for whom no daily average base can be computed pursuant to § 978.60.

MARKET ADMINISTRATOR

§ 978.20 Designation. The agency for the administration of this part shall be a market administrator, selected by the Secretary, who shall be entitled to such compensation as may be determined by, and shall be subject to removal at the discretion of, the Secretary.

§ 978.21 Powers. The market administrator shall have the following powers with respect to this part:

(a) To administer its terms and provisions;

(b) To receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violations;

(c) To make rules and regulations to effectuate its terms and provisions; and

(d) To recommend amendments to the Secretary.

§ 978.22 Duties. The market administrator shall perform all duties necessary to administer the terms and provisions of this part, including, but not limited to, the following:

(a) Within 45 days following the date on which he enters upon his duties, or such lesser period as may be prescribed by the Secretary, execute and deliver to the Secretary a bond, effective as of the date on which he enters upon his duties, and conditioned upon the faithful performance of such duties, in an amount and with surety thereon satisfactory to the Secretary;

(b) Employ and fix the compensation of such persons as may be necessary;

(c) Obtain a bond in a reasonable amount and with reasonable surety thereon covering each employee who handles funds entrusted to the market administrator;

(d) Pay, out of the funds provided by § 978.85, (1) the cost of his bond and of the bonds of his employees, (2) his own compensation, and (3) all other expenses, except those incurred under § 978.86, necessarily incurred by him in the maintenance and functioning of his office and in the performance of his duties;

(e) Keep such books and records as will clearly reflect the transactions provided for in this part, and, upon request by the Secretary, surrender the same to such other person as the Secretary may designate;

(f) Publicly disclose to handlers and producers, at his discretion, the name of any person who, within 5 days after the day upon which he is required to perform such acts, has not made (1) reports pursuant to §§ 978.30 and 978.31, or (2) payments pursuant to §§ 978.80, 978.83 and 978.85;

(g) Submit his books and records to examination by the Secretary, and furnish such information and reports as may be required by the Secretary;

(h) Prepare and make available for the benefit of producers, consumers, and handlers, general statistics and information concerning the operation of this part;

(i) Verify all reports and payments by each handler by audit, if necessary, of such handler's records and the records of any other handler or person upon whose utilization the classification of skim milk and butterfat for such handler depends; and

(j) On or before the date specified, publicly announce by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate the following: (1) The 6th day of each month, the Class II price and the Class II butterfat differential, both for the preceding month; and (2) the 5th day of each month, the Class I price, and the Class I butterfat differential, both for the current month; and (3) the 10th day after the end of each month, the uniform price(s) for each handler, computed pursuant to § 978.71 or § 978.72, and the producer butterfat differential for the preceding month.

REPORTS, RECORDS AND FACILITIES

§ 978.30 Reports of receipts and utilization. On or before the 6th day after the end of each month each handler, except a producer-handler, shall report for each of his fluid milk plants for such month to the market administrator in the detail and on forms prescribed by the market administrator:

(a) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in receipts of producer milk;

(b) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in fluid milk products received from other fluid milk plants;

(c) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in other source milk;

(d) Inventories of fluid milk products on hand at the beginning and end of the month; and

(e) The utilization of all skim milk and butterfat required to be reported pursuant to this section.

§ 978.31 Other reports. (a) Each producer-handler shall make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may request.

(b) Each handler, except a producer-handler, shall report to the market administrator, in the detail and on forms prescribed by the market administrator as follows:

(1) On or before the 6th day after the end of each month for each producer from whom milk was received (i) his name and address, (ii) the total pounds and butterfat content of milk received from such producer during the month, (iii) for the months of March through August his total pounds of base milk and excess milk separately, and (iv) the amount of any deductions authorized in writing by such producer to be made from payments due for milk delivered;

(2) On or before the 21st day of each month, the name and address of each producer from whom milk was received during the first 15 days of such month; and the pounds of milk so received during said period from such producer; and

(3) On or before the first day in any month during which other source milk is received in the form of fluid milk products his intention to receive such milk, and on or before the last day such milk is received his intention to discontinue such receipts.

§ 978.32 Records and facilities. Each handler shall keep adequate records of receipts and utilization of skim milk and butterfat and shall, during the usual hours of business, make available to the market administrator, or his representative, such records and facilities as will enable the market administrator to, (a) verify the receipts and utilization of all skim milk and butterfat and, in case of errors or omissions, ascertain the correct figures; (b) weigh, sample and test for butterfat content all milk and milk products handled; (c) verify deductions authorized by producers and the disbursement of moneys so deducted; and (d) make such examinations of operations, equipment, and facilities as the market administrator deems necessary.

§ 978.33 Retention of records. All books and records required under this part to be made available to the market administrator shall be retained by the handler for a period of 3 years to begin at the end of the calendar month to which such books and records pertain: Provided, That if within such 3-year period the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that the retention of such books and records, or of specified books and records, is necessary in connection with a proceeding under section 8c (15) (A) of the act or a court action specified in such notice the handler shall retain such books and records, or specified books and records, until further written notification from the market administrator. In either case the market administrator shall give further written notification to the handler promptly upon the termination of the litigation, or when the records are no longer necessary in connection therewith.

CLASSIFICATION OF MILK

§ 978.40 Skim milk and butterfat to be classified. The skim milk and butterfat to be reported for fluid milk plants pursuant to § 978.30 shall be classified each month by the market administrator, pursuant to the provisions of §§ 978.41 through 978.45.

§ 978.41 Classes of utilization. Subject to the conditions set forth in §§ 978.42 through 978.45, the classes of utilization shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk. Class I milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat; (1) disposed of in the form of fluid milk products, except those classified pursuant to paragraph (b) (3) of this section, and (2) not specifically accounted for as Class II milk.

(b) Class II milk. Class II milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat; (1) used to produce any products other than fluid milk products; (2) contained in inventories of fluid milk products on hand at the end of the month; (3) disposed of and used for livestock feed; and (4) in shrinkage not to exceed 3 percent respectively of the skim milk and butterfat contained in producer milk (except that diverted pursuant to § 978.11) and other source milk: Provided, That if shrinkage of skim milk or butterfat is less than 3 percent of such amounts it shall be assigned pro rata respectively to the skim milk and butterfat contained in such producer milk and other source milk.

§ 978.42 Responsibility of handlers. All skim milk and butterfat to be classified pursuant to this part shall be classified Class I milk unless the handler who first receives such skim milk and butterfat establishes to the satisfaction of the market administrator that it should be classified Class II milk.

§ 978.43 Transfers. (a) Skim milk and butterfat transferred to the fluid milk plant of another handler (except a producer-handler) in the form of fluid milk products shall be classified Class I milk unless the operators of both plants claim utilization thereof in Class II milk in their reports submitted pursuant to § 978.30: Provided, That the skim milk or butterfat so assigned to Class II milk for any month shall be limited to the amount thereof remaining in Class II milk in the fluid milk plant(s) of the transferee for such month after the subtraction of other source milk pursuant to § 978.45, and any additional amounts of such skim milk or butterfat shall be assigned to Class I milk.

(b) Skim milk and butterfat transferred to the plant of a producer-handler in the form of fluid milk products, shall be classified as Class I milk.

(c) Skim milk and butterfat transferred or diverted in bulk form as milk, skim milk or cream to a nonfluid milk plant located less than 100 miles from the State Capitol at Nashville, Tennessee, by the shortest hard-surfaced highway distance, as determined by the market administrator, shall be classified Class I milk unless, (1) the transferring or diverting handler claims classification in Class II milk in his report submitted to the market administrator pursuant to § 978.30 for the month within which such transaction occurred, (2) the operator of the nonfluid milk plant maintains books and records showing the utilization of all skim milk and butterfat at such plant which are made available if requested by the market administrator for the purpose of verification, and (3) not less than an equivalent amount of skim milk and butterfat was actually utilized in the nonfluid milk plant in the use indicated in such report: Provided, That if it is found that an equivalent amount of skim milk and butterfat was not actually used in such plant during the month in such indicated use the pounds transferred in excess of such actual use shall be classified Class I milk.

(d) Skim milk and butterfat transferred in bulk form as cream to a nonfluid milk plant located 100 miles or more from the State Capitol in Nashville, Tennessee, by the shortest hard-surfaced highway distance, as determined by the market administrator, shall be classified Class I milk unless, (1) the transferring handler claims classification in Class II milk in his report submitted to the market administrator pursuant to § 978.30, (2) such cream is disposed of and used as other than Grade A under a Grade A certification or label, (3) the handler attaches tags or labels to each container of such cream bearing the words "for manufacturing uses only," (4) the handler gives the market administrator sufficient notice to allow him to verify or inspect such shipment, and (5) the operator of the nonfluid milk plant maintains books and records showing the utilization of all skim milk and butterfat at such plant which are made available if requested by the market administrator for the purpose of verification.

§ 978.44 Computation of skim milk and butterfat in each class. For each month, the market administrator shall correct for mathematical and other obvious errors the reports of each handler submitted pursuant to § 978.30 and compute the total pounds of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in Class I milk and Class II milk in the fluid milk plant(s) of such handler.

§ 978.45 Allocation of skim milk and butterfat classified. After making the computations pursuant to § 978.44, the market administrator shall determine the classification of producer milk for each handler as follows:

(a) Skim milk shall be allocated in the following manner:

(1) Subtract from the total pounds of skim milk in Class II milk the pounds of skim milk in producer milk classified pursuant to § 978.41 (b) (4);

(2) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II milk the pounds of skim milk in other source milk: Provided, That if the pounds of skim milk in other source milk are greater than the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II milk, an amount equal to the excess shall be subtracted from the pounds of skim milk in Class I milk;

(3) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II milk the pounds of skim milk contained in inventory of fluid milk products on hand at the beginning of the month: Provided, That if the pounds of skim milk in such inventory are greater than the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II milk, an amount equal to the excess shall be subtracted from the pounds of skim milk in Class I milk;

(4) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in each class the pounds of skim milk transferred from the fluid milk plants of other handlers in the form of fluid milk products according to the classification thereof as determined pursuant to § 978.43 (a);

(5) Add to the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II milk the pounds of skim milk subtracted pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph; and

(6) If the remaining pounds of skim milk in both classes exceed the pounds of skim milk contained in producer milk, subtract such excess from the remaining pounds of skim milk in series beginning with Class II milk. Any amount so subtracted shall be known as "overage."

(b) Butterfat shall be allocated in accordance with the same procedure outlined for skim milk in paragraph (a) of this section; and

(c) Add the pounds of skim milk and the pounds of butterfat allocated to producer milk in each class, pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, and determine the percentage of butterfat in each class.

MINIMUM PRICES

§ 978.50 Basic formula price. The basic formula price shall be the highest of the prices per hundredweight for milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content computed pursuant to paragraphs (a), (b), (c) or (d) of this section, rounded to the nearest whole cent.

(a) To the average of the basic (or field) prices reported to have been paid or to be paid per hundredweight for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received from farmers during the month at the following milk plants for which prices have been reported to the market administrator or to the Department of Agriculture on or before the 5th day after the end of the month:

add an amount computed by multiplying the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 978.82 by 5.

(b) The price per hundredweight obtained by adding any plus amounts obtained pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph:

(1) Multiplying by 4.0 the average as computed by the market administrator of the daily wholesale selling prices (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of 92-score bulk creamery butter per pound at Chicago, as reported by the Department of Agriculture during the month, and add 20 percent thereof;

(2) From the weighted average of the carlot prices per pound for nonfat dry milk solids, spray and roller process, respectively, for human consumption, f. o. b. manufacturing plants in the Chicago area, as published for the period from the 26th day of the immediately preceding month through the 25th day of the current month by the Department of Agriculture, subtract 5 cents and multiply by 7.5.

(c) The average of the basic (or field) prices reported to have been paid or to be paid per hundredweight for milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content received from farmers during the month at the following milk plants for which prices have been reported to the market administrator or to the Department of Agriculture on or before the 6th day after the end of the month;

(d) The price per hundredweight computed as follows:

(1) Multiply by 6 the average daily wholesale price per pound of 92-score butter in the Chicago market, as reported by the Department of Agriculture during the month;

(2) Add 2.4 times the average of the weekly prevailing price per pound of "Twins" during the month on the Wisconsin Cheese Exchange at Plymouth, Wisconsin: Provided, That if the price of "Twins" is not quoted on such Exchange, the weekly prevailing price per pound of "Cheddars" shall be used; and

(3) Divide by 7, add 30 percent thereof, and then multiply by 4.

§ 978.51 Class prices. Subject to the provisions of §§ 978.52 and 978.53, the class prices per hundredweight for the month shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk price. The Class I milk price shall be the basic formula price for the preceding month, plus $1.40 during the months of September through February, and plus $1.10 during all other months, plus or minus a supply-demand adjustment calculated for each month after December 1955 as follows:

(1) Divide the total hundredweight of producer milk of all fluid milk plants for the twelve-month period ending with the beginning of the preceding month, by the net hundredweight of Class I milk disposed of from all fluid milk plants during the same period and multiply by 100. The resulting figure rounded to the nearest whole percentage shall be known as the utilization ratio.

(2) For each percentage by which the utilization ratio calculated for the month pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph exceeds 130 subtract from, or for each percentage by which it is less than 125 add to, the Class I price, 1 cent.

(b) Class II milk price. The Class II milk price shall be the price determined pursuant to § 978.50 (c) plus 15 cents during the months of February through August, and plus 25 cents during all other months: Provided, That in no case shall such price exceed the basic formula price.

§ 978.52 Butterfat differentials to handlers. For milk containing more or less than 4.0 percent butterfat, the class prices for the month calculated pursuant to § 978.51 shall be increased or decreased, respectively, for each one-tenth percent variation in butterfat content at the appropriate rate determined as follows:

(a) Class I price. Multiply by 0.12 the average of the daily wholesale prices (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of 92-score bulk creamery butter per pound at Chicago, as reported by the Department of Agriculture during the previous month, and round to the nearest one-tenth cent.

(b) Class II price. Multiply by 0.115 the average of the daily wholesale prices (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of 92-score bulk creamery butter per pound at Chicago, as reported by the Department of Agriculture during the month, and round to the nearest one-tenth cent.

§ 978.53 Location differentials to handlers. For that milk which is received from producers at a fluid milk plant located outside the marketing area and 50 miles or more from the State Capitol, Nashville, Tennessee, by shortest hard-surfaced highway distance, as determined by the market administrator, and which is transferred to another fluid milk plant in the form of fluid milk products and assigned to Class I milk pursuant to the proviso of this section, or otherwise classified as Class I milk, the price specified in § 978.51 (a) shall be reduced at the rate set forth in the following schedule according to the location of the fluid milk plant where such milk is received from producers:

Distance from the State Capitol, Nashville, Tenn. (miles):	Rate per hundredweight (cents)
50 but not more than 60	10.0
For each additional 10 miles or fraction thereof an additional	1.5

Provided, That for purpose of calculating such location differential, fluid milk products which are transferred between fluid milk plants shall be assigned to any remainder of Class II milk in the plant to which transferred after making the calculations prescribed in § 978.45 (a) (1), (2) and (3), and the comparable steps in § 978.45 (b) for such plant, such assignment to the plant from which transferred to be made in sequence according to the location differential applicable at each plant, beginning with the plant having the largest differential.

DETERMINATION OF BASE

§ 978.60 Computation of daily average base for each producer. Subject to the rules set forth in § 978.61, the daily average base for each producer shall be an amount calculated by dividing the total pounds of producer milk received from such producer at all fluid milk plants during the months of September through February immediately preceding, by the number of days from the first day of delivery by such producer during such months to the last day of February, inclusive, or by 120, whichever is more.

§ 978.61 Base rules. The following rules shall apply in connection with the establishment and assignment of bases:

(a) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section, the market administrator shall assign a base as calculated pursuant to § 978.60 to each person for whose account producer milk was delivered to fluid milk plants during the months of September through February.

(b) An entire base or any portion thereof shall be transferred from a person holding such base to any other person effective as of the end of any month during which an application for such transfer is received by the market administrator, such application to be on forms approved by the market administrator, and signed by the baseholder, or his heirs, and by the person to whom such base is to be transferred: Provided, That if a base is held jointly, the entire base or any portion thereof shall be transferrable only upon the receipt of such application signed by all joint holders or their heirs.

§ 978.62 Announcement of established bases. On or before March 25, of each year, the market administrator shall notify each producer and the handler receiving milk from such producer of the daily average base established by such producer.

DETERMINATION OF UNIFORM PRICES

§ 978.70 Net obligation of handlers. The net obligation of each handler for producer milk received at his fluid milk plant(s) each month shall be a sum of money computed by the market administrator as follows: (a) Multiply the total pounds of such milk in each class by the applicable class price; (b) add together the resulting amounts; (c) add the amounts computed by multiplying the pounds of overage deducted from each class pursuant to § 978.45 (a) (6) and (b) by the applicable class price; and (d) add the amount computed by multiplying the difference between the appropriate Class II price for the preceding month and the appropriate Class I price for the current month by the hundredweight of skim milk and butterfat in Class II milk after making the calculations for such handler pursuant to § 978.45 (a) (4) and (b) for the preceding month, or by the hundredweight of milk subtracted from Class I milk pursuant to § 978.45 (a) (3) and (b) for the current month, whichever is less.

§ 978.71 Computation of uniform prices for handlers. For each of the months of September through February the market administrator shall compute a uniform price for the producer milk received by each handler as follows:

(a) Add to the amount computed for such handler pursuant to § 978.70 the sum of the location differential deductions to be made pursuant to § 978.82 (b);

(b) Add or subtract for each one-tenth percent that the average butterfat content of producer milk received by such handler is less or more, respectively, than 4.0 percent, an amount computed by multiplying such difference by the butterfat differential to producers, and multiplying the result by the total hundredweight of his producer milk;

(c) Add the amount remaining in the reserve fund for such handler; and

(d) Divide the resulting amount by the total hundredweight of producer milk received by such handler; and

(e) Subtract not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents. The resulting figure shall be known as the uniform price for such handler for milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content, f. o. b. marketing area.

§ 978.72 Computation of the uniform prices for base milk and for excess milk for handlers. For each of the months of March through August, the market administrator shall compute uniform prices for base milk and for excess milk received by each handler as follows:

(a) Add to the amount computed for such handler pursuant to § 978.70 the sum of the location differential deductions to be made pursuant to § 978.82 (b);

(b) Add or subtract for each one-tenth percent that the average butterfat content of producer milk received by such handler is less or more, respectively, than 4.0 percent, an amount computed by multiplying such difference by the butterfat differential to producers, and multiplying the result by the total hundredweight of his producer milk;

(c) Add the amount remaining in the reserve fund for such handler;

(d) Subject to the conditions set forth in paragraph (e) of this section, compute the value of excess milk received by such handler from producers by multiplying the quantity of such milk by the Class II price;

(e) Compute the value of base milk received by such handler from producers by subtracting the value obtained pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section from the total value obtained pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section: Provided, That if such resulting value is greater than an amount computed by multiplying the pounds of such base milk by the Class I price, such excess value shall be added to the value computed pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section;

(f) Divide the value obtained pursuant to paragraph (e) of this section by the hundredweight of base milk for such handler;

(g) Subtract not less than 4 cents, nor more than 5 cents. This result, less any fraction of a cent per hundredweight, shall be known as the uniform price for such handler for base milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content, f. o. b. marketing area; and

(h) Divide the value obtained pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section by the hundredweight of excess milk in the producer milk of such handler. This result, less any fraction of a cent per hundredweight, shall be known as the uniform price for such handler for excess milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content, f. o. b. marketing area.

§ 978.73 Notification of handlers. On or before the 10th day after the end of each month, the market administrator shall mail to each handler, at his last known address, a statement showing:

(a) The amount of his producer milk allocated to each class;

(b) The calculation of such handler's net obligation pursuant to § 978.70;

(c) The uniform price(s) computed for such handler pursuant to §§ 978.71 and 978.72 and the producer butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 978.82 (a); and

(d) The amounts to be paid by such handler pursuant to §§ 978.80, 978.85 and 978.87.

PAYMENTS

§ 978.80 Payments to market administrator. (a) On or before the 25th day of each month each handler shall pay to the market administrator for deposit into the reserve fund for such handler a sum of money calculated by multiplying the hundredweight of producer milk received by him during the first 15 days of such month by the Class II price for the preceding month.

(b) On or before the 12th day after the end of each month each handler shall pay to the market administrator for deposit into the handler's reserve fund an amount of money equal to such handler's net obligation for such month as determined pursuant to § 978.70 less payments made pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section for such month and less proper deductions authorized in writing by producers from whom such handler received milk.

§ 978.81 Payments to producers. (a) On or before the last day of each month the market administrator shall make payment to each producer for milk received from such producer during the first 15 days of such month by handlers from whom the appropriate payments have been received pursuant to § 978.80 (a) at not less than the Class II price per hundredweight for the preceding month.

(b) On or before the 15th day after the end of each month the market administrator shall make payment to each producer for milk received from such producer during the month by handlers from whom the appropriate payments have been received pursuant to § 978.80 (b) for each of the months of September through February, at not less than the uniform price for such handler computed pursuant to § 978.71, or for each of the months of March through August, for base milk and excess milk received from such producer at not less than the uniform price(s) of such handler for base milk and excess milk, respectively, computed pursuant to § 978.72, subject to the following adjustments: (1) Butterfat and location differentials pursuant to § 978.82, (2) less payments made pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, (3) less marketing service deductions pursuant to § 978.86, (4) less proper deductions authorized in writing by the producer, and (5) adjusted for any error in calculating payment to such individual producer for past months: Provided, That if the market administrator has not received full payment from any handler for such month pursuant to § 978.80, he shall reduce uniformly per hundredweight his payments due such handler's producers for milk received by such handler by a total amount not in excess of the amount due from such handler: Provided further, That the market administrator shall make such balance of payment to such producers on or before the next date for making payments pursuant to this paragraph following that on which such balance of payment is received from such handler.

(c) In making payments to producers pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section the market administrator shall pay, on or before the second day prior to the date payments are due to individual producers, to a cooperative association which is authorized to collect payment for milk of its members and from which a written request for such payment has been received, a total amount equal to but not less than the sum of the individual payments otherwise payable to such producers pursuant to this section.

§ 978.82 Butterfat and location differentials to producers. (a) The applicable uniform prices to be paid each producer pursuant to § 978.81 (b) shall be increased or decreased for each one-tenth of one percent which the average butterfat content of his milk is above or below 4.0 percent, respectively, at the rate determined by multiplying the average of the daily wholesale prices per pound of 92-score butter in the Chicago market as reported by the Department of Agriculture during the month in which the milk was received by 0.12 and adjusting to the the nearest even one-tenth of a cent.

(b) In making payment to producers pursuant to § 978.81 (b), the applicable uniform prices to be paid for producer milk received at a fluid milk plant located 50 miles or more from the State Capitol, Nashville, Tennessee, by the shortest hard-surfaced highway distance, as determined by the market administrator, shall be reduced according to the location of the fluid milk plant where such milk was received at the following rate:

Distance from the State Capitol, Nashville, Tenn. (miles):	Rate per hundredweight (cents)
50 but not more than 60	10.0
For each additional 10 miles or fraction thereof an additional	1.5

§ 978.83 Statement to producers. In making payments required by § 978.81 (b) the market administrator shall furnish each producer or cooperative association with a supporting statement in such form that it may retained by the producer or cooperative association which shall show:

(a) The month and the identity of the handler and of the producer;

(b) The total pounds and the average butterfat content of milk delivered by the producer including for the months of March through August, the pounds of base milk and excess milk;

(c) The minimum rate or rates at which payment to the producer or cooperative association is required under the provisions of §§ 978.81 and 978.82;

(d) The amount or the rate per hundredweight of each deduction claimed by the handler including any deduction made pursuant to § 978.86 together with a description of the respective deductions; and

(e) The net amount of payment to the producer or cooperative association.

§ 978.84 Reserve funds. The market administrator shall maintain for each handler a reserve fund into which he shall deposit the appropriate payments made by such handler pursuant to §§ 978.80 and 978.87, and out of which he shall make the appropriate payments required for such handler pursuant to §§ 978.81 and 978.87.

§ 978.85 Expense of administration. As his pro rata share of this part, each handler shall pay to the market administrator, on or before the 15th day after the end of each month, 4 cents per hundredweight or such lesser amount as the Secretary may prescribe, with respect to receipts, during the month, of (a) producer milk (including such handler's own production), and (b) other source milk allocated to Class I milk pursuant to § 978.45.

§ 978.86 Marketing services (a) Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, the market administrator in making payments to producers pursuant to § 978.81, shall deduct an amount not exceeding 6 cents per hundredweight or such lesser amount as the Secretary may prescribe, with respect to milk received by handler(s) from producers during the month. Such moneys shall be used by the market administrator to provide market information and to check the accuracy of the testing and weighing of their milk for producers who are not receiving such service from a cooperative association. Such services shall be performed in whole or in part by the market administrator or by an agent engaged by and responsible to him.

(b) In the case of producers who are members of a cooperative association which the Secretary determines is performing the services specified in paragraph (a) of this section for its members, the market administrator shall, in lieu of the deductions provided in paragraph (a) of this section, make such deductions as are authorized by such producers, and on or before the 15th day after the end of each month, pay the money so deducted to such cooperative association.

§ 978.87 Adjustment of accounts. Whenever audit by the market administrator of any handler's reports, books, records, or accounts or other verification discloses errors, resulting in money due the market administrator from such handler, or due such handler from the market administrator, the market administrator shall promptly notify such handler of any amount so due and payment thereof shall be made on or before the next date for making payments set forth in the provisions under which such error occurred.

§ 978.88 Termination of obligations. The provisions of this section shall apply to any obligation under this part for the payment of money irrespective of when such obligation arose, except an obligation involved in an action instituted before March 1, 1950, under section 8c (15) (A) of the act or before a court.

(a) The obligation of any handler to pay money required to be paid under the terms of this part, shall, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, terminate two years after the last day of the calendar month during which the market administrator receives the handler's utilization report on the milk involved in such obligations, unless within such two-year period the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that such money is due and payable. Service of such notice shall be complete upon mailing to the handler's last known address, and it shall contain but need not be limited to the following information:

(1) The amount of the obligation;

(2) The month(s) during which the milk, with respect to which the obligation exists, was received or handled; and

(3) If the obligation is payable to one or more producers or to an association of producers, the name of such producer(s) or association of producers, or if the obligation is payable to the market administrator, the account for which it is to be paid.

(b) If a handler fails or refuses, with respect to any obligation under this part, to make available to the market administrator or his representatives all books and records required by this part to be made available, the market administrator may, within the two-year period provided for in paragraph (a) of this section, notify the handler in writing of such failure or refusal. If the market administrator so notifies a handler the said two-year period with respect to such obligation shall not begin to run until the first day of the calendar month following the month during which all such books and records pertaining to such obligation are made available to the market administrator or his representative.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, a handler's obligation under this part to pay money shall not be terminated with respect to any transaction involving fraud or willful concealment of a fact, material to the obligation, on the part of the handler against whom the obligation is sought to be imposed.

(d) Any obligation on the part of the market administrator to pay a handler any money which such handler claims to be due him under the terms of this part shall terminate two years after the end of the calendar month during which the milk involved in the claim was received if an underpayment is claimed or two years after the end of the calendar month during which the payment (including deduction or set-off by the market administrator) was made by the handler if a refund on such payment is claimed, unless such handler, within the applicable period of time, files, pursuant to section 8c (15) (A) of the act, a petition claiming such money.

APPLICATION OF PROVISIONS

§ 978.90 Producer-handlers. Sections 978.40 through 978.45, 978.50 through 978.53, 978.60 through 978.62, 978.70 through 978.73, and 978.80 through 978.87 shall not apply to a producer-handler.

§ 978.91 Plants subject to other Federal orders. A plant specified in paragraph (a) or (b) of this section shall be treated as a nonfluid milk plant except that the operator of such plant shall, with respect to the total receipts and utilization or disposition of skim milk and butterfat at the plant, make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may require (in lieu of the reports required pursuant to § 978.30), and allow verification of such reports by the market administrator.

(a) Any plant qualified pursuant to § 978.8 (a) which would otherwise be subject to the classification and pricing provisions of another order issued pursuant to the act, unless a greater volume of Class I milk is disposed of from such plant to retail or wholesale outlets (except fluid milk plants) in the Nashville marketing area than in the marketing area regulated pursuant to such other order.

(b) Any plant qualified pursuant to § 978.8 (b) or (c) which would be subject to the classification and pricing provisions of another order issued pursuant to the act, unless such plant qualified as a fluid milk plant pursuant to § 978.8 (c) for each of the preceding months of September through December.

EFFECTIVE TIME, SUSPENSION OR TERMINATION

§ 978.100 Effective time. The provisions of this part or any amendments to this part shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated.

§ 978.101 Suspension or termination. The Secretary shall suspend or terminate any or all of the provisions of this part, whenever he finds that it obstructs or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. This part shall, in any event, terminate whenever the provisions of the act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

§ 978.102 Continuing power and duty of the market administrator. (a) If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all of the provisions of this part, there are any obligations arising under this part, the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any handler, by the market administrator, or by any other person, the power and duty to perform such further acts shall continue notwithstanding such suspension or termination: Provided, That any such acts required to be performed by the market administrator, shall, if the Secretary so directs, be performed by such other person, persons, or agency as the Secretary may designate.

(b) The market administrator, or such other person as the Secretary may designate, shall (1) continue in such capacity until discharged by the Secretary; (2) from time to time account for all receipts and disbursements and deliver all funds or property on hand, together with the books and records of the market administrator, or such person, to such person as the Secretary shall direct; and (3) if so directed by the Secretary execute such assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to vest in such person full title to all funds, property, and claims vested in the market administrator or such person pursuant thereto.

§ 978.103 Liquidation after suspension or termination. Upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions of this part, the market administrator, or such person as the Secretary may designate, shall, if so directed by the Secretary, liquidate the business of the market administrator's office, and dispose of all funds and property then in his possession or under his control, together with claims for any funds which are unpaid or owing at the time of such suspension or termination. Any funds collected pursuant to the provisions of this part, over and above the amounts necessary to meet outstanding obligations and the expenses necessarily incurred by the market administrator, or such person in liquidating and distributing such funds, shall be distributed to the contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 978.110 Separability of provisions. If any provision of this part, or its application to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the application of such provision, and of the remaining provisions of this part, to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

§ 978.111 Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this part.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 29th day of March 1955, to be effective on and after April 1, 1955.

PART 1066—IRISH POTATOES

POTATO REGULATION NO. 1; CHANGE OF EFFECTIVE DATE OF AMENDMENT

On March 21, 1955, Amendment 2 to Potato Regulation No. 1, Part 1066 (20 F. R. 175, 484, 1761), was issued to become effective at 12:01 a. m., March 28, 1955. Pursuant to the authority vested in me under section 8e of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1933, as amended and as recnacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 907, 1047), said amended order is hereby amended by changing the effective date from "12:01 a. m. March 28, 1955" to "12:01 a. m. April 6, 1955."

Findings. It is hereby found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this amendment until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that (a) the requirements established by said amendment have imposed hardships upon persons affected by the regulation which are unreasonable under the circumstances; (b) compliance with this amendment to the potato import regulation will not require any special preparation by the persons affected which cannot be completed by the amended effective date; (c) this amendment relieves restrictions on imports of potatoes; and (d) the postponement, as provided herein, of the effective date of Amendment 2 of Potato Regulation No. 1 is necessary to effectuate the purposes of said section 8e.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter I—Civil Aeronautics Board

[Civil Air Regs., Amdt. 1-3]

PART 1—CERTIFICATION, IDENTIFICATION, AND MARKING OF AIRCRAFT AND RELATED PRODUCTS

AIRWORTHINESS CERTIFICATES FOR IMPORT AIRCRAFT

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 28th day of March 1955.

At the present time the United States has in effect bilateral agreements with eight foreign countries which provide for the reciprocal recognition of certificates of airworthiness for imported aircraft. Most of these agreements provide for the issuance of United States airworthiness certificates for aircraft imported from any of these countries, provided that the competent authority of the exporting country issues a certificate of airworthiness for the aircraft.

Although the United States has benefited substantially by these agreements, in that aircraft of United States manufacture have been readily accepted by foreign countries parties to such agreements as virtually meeting their airworthiness standards, this country has not been called upon, to any substantial degree, until relatively recently to reciprocate by issuing airworthiness certificates to aircraft of foreign manufacture. A resurgence of civil aircraft design and manufacture since World War II, particularly in Europe, has resulted in requests to the United States Government for the certification or approval of foreign manufactured aircraft and related products.

As a policy of the United States, the import of foreign manufactured aircraft and related products meeting United States levels of airworthiness has been encouraged as part of the expansion of two-way trade with friendly nations. This policy required compliance with the provisions of the applicable airworthiness parts of the Civil Air Regulations or with such other standards as would provide an equivalent level of airworthiness, regardless of the terms of the pertinent bilateral agreement.

The certification of aircraft under the bilateral agreements has caused administrative difficulties because these agreements provide only for the issuance of airworthiness certificates and not type certificates, whereas the Civil Aeronautics Act specifically requires a type certificate as a prerequisite for the issuance of an airworthiness certificate for aircraft.

Formerly the Civil Air Regulations made no provision for the issuance of certificates or approvals for foreign manufactured aircraft and related products in accordance with bilateral agreements. In order that these agreements can be carried out by the United States Government consistent with the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938 and in a uniform manner with respect to all foreign manufactured aircraft and related products, certain provisions had to be incorporated into the Civil Air Regulations. Further there was a need for provisions for the issuance of approvals for all foreign manufactured materials, parts, and appliances.

New Part 10 of the Civil Air Regulations establishes rules for the issuance of type certificates for foreign aircraft and related products under the terms of reciprocal agreements with foreign countries. In addition, rules for approval of related products (engines, propellers, etc.) which are manufactured in a foreign country with which the United States is party to a reciprocal agreement, and rules for approval of materials, parts, and appliances, which are manufactured in a foreign country are included in new Part 10. At the same time amendments were necessary to the present rules for aircraft airworthiness certification contained in Part 1 of the Civil Air Regulations.

New Part 10 and amendments to Part 1 permit the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics to issue certificates and approvals upon certification of a foreign government with which the United States has a reciprocal agreement that the aircraft, product, etc., meets the standards prescribed in the Civil Air Regulations for aircraft, products, etc., built in the United States or other standards which give the same level of airworthiness. The Administrator is also authorized to approve materials, parts, and appliances manufactured in a foreign country under the same standards. Aircraft, related products, etc., which become so certificated or approved are required by Part 10 to be designated as "import" and clearly labeled as such. Part 10 permits the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics to require any technical data respecting the foreign manufactured aircraft, related product, etc., which he might find necessary to carry out his responsibilities.

By the adoption of new Part 10 it is not intended that this part contain administrative requirements for import aircraft and related products which wholly replace the administrative requirements in Part 1. The latter are intended to be applicable except as they may be inconsistent with corresponding provisions of Part 10. For example, the requirements for identification markings, special flight permits, etc., contained in Part 1 are equally applicable to import aircraft. Also, the requirements for production certification and for changes in type design are also applicable, except that their application to any specific aircraft or related product depends upon the extent of technical data made available to the Administrator.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of this regulation and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented. Since this amendment is one relieving restriction with regard to administrative requirements of the Civil Air Regulations, and imposes no additional burden on any person, it may be made effective immediately.

In consideration of the foregoing, the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby amends Part 1 of the Civil Air Regulations as follows, effective March 28, 1955:

1. By amending § 1.66 by adding the following sentence at the end thereof: "This provision shall also apply to import aircraft certificated in accordance with Part 10 of this chapter and § 1.67 (c)."

2. By amending § 1.67 by deleting from the introductory sentence the words "paragraphs (a) and (b)" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "paragraphs (a) through (c)", and, also by adding a new paragraph (c) to read as follows:

§ 1.67 Airworthiness certificate; requirements for issuance. • • •

(c) Import aircraft. An applicant for the original issuance of an airworthiness certificate for an import aircraft type certificated in accordance with Part 10 of this chapter shall be issued such certificate when the government of the country where the aircraft was manufactured certifies, or the Administrator finds, that the aircraft conforms to the type design and is in a condition for safe operation.

3. By amending § 1.68 by adding the following sentence at the end thereof: "This section shall also apply to import aircraft certificated in accordance with Part 10 of this chapter and § 1.69."

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interpret or apply secs. 601, 603, 1102, 52 Stat. 1007, 1009, 1026, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 551, 553, 672)

PART 10—CERTIFICATION AND APPROVAL OF IMPORT AIRCRAFT AND RELATED PRODUCTS

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 28th day of March 1955.

At the present time the United States has in effect bilateral agreements with eight foreign countries which provide for the reciprocal recognition of certificates of airworthiness for imported aircraft. Most of these agreements provide for the issuance of United States airworthiness certificates for aircraft imported from any of these countries, provided that the competent authority of the exporting country issues a certificate of airworthiness for the aircraft.

Although the United States has benefited substantially by these agreements, in that aircraft of United States manufacture have been readily accepted by foreign countries parties to such agreements as virtually meeting their airworthiness standards, this country has not been called upon, to any substantial degree, until relatively recently to reciprocate by issuing airworthiness certificates to aircraft of foreign manufacture. A resurgence of civil aircraft design and manufacture since World War II, particularly in Europe, has resulted in requests to the United States Government for the certification or approval of foreign manufactured aircraft and related products.

The certification of aircraft under the bilateral agreements has caused administrative difficulties because these agreements provide only for the issuance of airworthiness certificates and not type certificates, whereas the Civil Aeronautics Act specifically requires a type certificate as a prerequisite for the issuance of an airworthiness certificate for aircraft.

Formerly the Civil Air Regulations made no provision for the issuance of certificates or approvals for foreign manufactured aircraft and related products in accordance with bilateral agreements. In order that these agreements can be carried out by the United States Government consistent with the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938 and in a uniform manner with respect to all foreign manufactured aircraft and related products, certain provisions had to be incorporated into the Civil Air Regulations. Further there was a need for provisions for the issuance of approvals for all foreign manufactured materials, parts, and appliances.

New Part 10 of the Civil Air Regulations establishes rules for the issuance of type certificates for foreign aircraft and related products under the terms of reciprocal agreements with foreign countries. In addition, rules for approval of related products (engines, propellers, etc.) which are manufactured in a foreign country with which the United States is party to a reciprocal agreement, and rules for approval of materials, parts, and appliances, which are manufactured in a foreign country, are included in new Part 10. At the same time amendments were necessary to the present rules for aircraft airworthiness certification contained in Part 1 of the Civil Air Regulations.

New Part 10 and amendments to Part 1 permit the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics to issue certificates and approvals upon certification of a foreign government with which the United States has a reciprocal agreement that the aircraft, product, etc., meets the standards prescribed in the Civil Air Regulations for aircraft, products, etc., built in the United States or other standards which give the same level of airworthiness. The Administrator is also authorized to approve materials, parts, and appliances manufactured in a foreign country under the same standards. Aircraft, related products, etc., which become so certificated or approved are required by Part 10 to be designated as "import" and clearly labeled as such. Part 10 permits the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics to require any technical data respecting the foreign manufactured aircraft, related product, etc., which he might find necessary to carry out his responsibilities.

By the adoption of new Part 10 it is not intended that this part contain administrative requirements for import aircraft and related products which wholly replace the administrative requirements in Part 1. The latter are intended to be applicable except as they may be inconsistent with corresponding provisions of Part 10. For example, the requirements for identification markings, special flight permits, etc., contained in Part 1 are equally applicable to import aircraft. Also, the requirements for production certification and for changes in type design are also applicable, except that their application to any specific aircraft or related product depends upon the extent of technical data made available to the Administrator.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of this regulation and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented. Since this rule is one relieving restriction with regard to administrative requirements of the Civil Air Regulations, and imposes no additional burden on any person, it may be made effective immediately.

In consideration of the foregoing, the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby makes and promulgates a new Part 10 of the Civil Air Regulations to read as follows, effective March 28, 1955:

AUTHORITY: §§ 10.1 to 10.31 issued under sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interpret or apply secs. 601, 603, 1102, 52 Stat. 1007, 1009, 1026, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 551, 553, 672.

APPLICABILITY AND DEFINITIONS

§ 10.0 Applicability of this part. This part establishes administrative requirements for the issuance of type and airworthiness certificates for aircraft, and of type certificates and approvals for related products, when such aircraft or product is manufactured in a foreign country with which the United States has concluded an agreement concerning the acceptance thereof for the purpose of export and import. In addition, this part establishes administrative requirements for the issuance of approvals for materials, parts, and appliances other than those sold in conjunction with a type certificated aircraft or related product when such material, part, or appliance is manufactured in a foreign country.

§ 10.1 Definitions. As used in this part, terms are defined as follows:

(a) Administration—(1) Administrator. The Administrator is the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics.

(2) Approved. Approved, when used alone or as modifying terms such as means, devices, specifications, etc., shall mean approved by the Administrator.

(b) Design—(1) Aircraft. An aircraft means any contrivance now known or hereafter invented, used, or designed for navigation of or flight in the air.

(2) Aircraft engine. An aircraft engine means an engine used, or intended to be used, for propulsion of aircraft and includes all parts, appurtenances, and accessories thereof other than propellers.

(3) Appliances. Appliances means instruments, equipment, apparatus, parts, appurtenances, or accessories, of whatever description, which are used, or are capable of being or intended to be used, in the navigation, operation, or control of aircraft in flight (including parachutes and including communication equipment and any other mechanism or mechanisms installed in or attached to aircraft during flight), and which are not a part or parts of aircraft, aircraft engines, or propellers.

(4) Product. The term product, as used in this part, means:

(i) An aircraft,

(ii) An aircraft engine,

(iii) A propeller, or

(iv) Any appliance specified in the Civil Air Regulations as eligible for a type certificate.

(5) Propeller. A propeller includes all parts, appurtenances, and accessories thereof.

TYPE CERTIFICATES

§ 10.10 Eligibility. A product which is manufactured in a foreign country with which the United States has concluded an agreement concerning the acceptance thereof for the purpose of export and import, is eligible for the issuance of a type certificate under this part. The application for a type certificate for a specified product shall be made upon a form and in a manner prescribed by the Administrator.

§ 10.11 Requirements for issuance. A type certificate for a product shall be issued to an applicant when the government of the country in which the product was manufactured certifies that the product has been examined, tested, and found to comply with either paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) of this section.

(a) The airworthiness requirements prescribed in the Civil Air Regulations applicable to the product involved.[1]

(b) The applicable airworthiness requirements of the government of the country in which it was manufactured together with such other requirements as may be prescribed by the Administrator to provide a level of safety equivalent to the requirements prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section.

AIRWORTHINESS CERTIFICATES AND OTHER APPROVALS

§ 10.20 Airworthiness certificates. The requirements for the original issuance of airworthiness certificates for aircraft shall be in accordance with § 1.67 (c) of this chapter.

§ 10.21 Approval of materials, parts, and appliances. (a) Materials, parts, and appliances manufactured in a foreign country shall be approved upon a basis and in a manner found necessary by the Administrator to implement the pertinent provisions of the Civil Air Regulations. The Administrator may adopt and publish such specifications as he finds necessary to administer this regulation, and shall incorporate therein such portions of the aviation industry, Federal, and military specifications respecting such materials, parts, and appliances as he finds appropriate.

NOTE: The provisions of this paragraph are intended to allow approval of materials, parts, and appliances under the system of Technical Standard Orders, or in conjunction with type certification procedures for an aircraft, or by any other form of approval by the Administrator.

(b) Any material, part, or appliance shall be deemed to have met the requirements for approval when the government of the country of manufacture certifies that the material, part, or appliance meets the pertinent specifications adopted by the Administrator, unless the Administrator finds, on the basis of data submitted in accordance with § 10.31, that the material, part, or appliance is otherwise inconsistent with the intent of the pertinent Civil Air Regulations.

APPLICABLE REQUIREMENTS

§ 10.30 Designation. All aircraft, products, materials, parts, and appliances certificated or approved in accordance with this part shall be designated as "import" and clearly labeled as such.

§ 10.31 Data required. Such technical data respecting the aircraft, product, material, part, or appliance, for which certification or approval is sought, shall be submitted as the Administrator finds necessary.

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

[SEAL] JOHN B. RUSSELL,
Acting Secretary.

[F. R. Doc. 55-2704; Filed, Mar. 31, 1955; 8:50 a. m.]

[1] Separate airworthiness requirements are effective for various categories of aircraft, for aircraft engines, and for propellers in different parts of the Civil Air Regulations. When any one part is applicable all provisions therein including the administrative provisions are applicable.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 721; 15 U. S. C. 46. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 45) [Cease and desist order, Permanent Stainless Steel, Inc. (Houston, Tex.) et al., Docket 6010, February 14, 1955.]

In the Matter of Permanent Stainless Steel, Inc., a Corporation, and Pressed Steel Car Company, Inc. (Now Known as U. S. Industries, Inc.), a Corporation

This proceeding was heard by Abner E. Lipscomb, hearing examiner, upon the complaint of the Commission which charged the two respondents with making false representations and disparaging statements relative to aluminum cooking ware, in connection with the sale and distribution of stainless steel cooking utensils, in violation of the Federal Trade Commission Act; respondents' answers; the reception of evidence in support of and in opposition to the allegations of the complaint; and a stipulation as to the facts which was entered into by and between counsel for respondents and counsel supporting the complaint.

Under the terms of said stipulation, all the factual issues in controversy were resolved except that pertaining to the responsibility of respondent Pressed Steel Car Company, Inc. (now known as U. S. Industries, Inc.), for the false representations and disparaging statements made orally by the salesmen employed by respondent Permanent Stainless Steel, Inc., in connection with the sale of stainless steel cooking utensils, in which connection the evidence concerning said issue, consisting of certain specified exhibits and the testimony of certain specified witnesses, was adopted by reference in the stipulation, and the initial responsibility for the factual interpretation thereof entrusted to the hearing examiner.

Thereafter said hearing examiner made his initial decision[1] comprising certain findings as to the facts—the exclusive basis for which was the foresaid stipulation, including the aforesaid evidence; his conclusions[1]—similarly based—that the methods, acts, and practices of respondents, as theretofore found, were all to the prejudice and injury of the public and of respondents' competitors, and constituted unfair and deceptive acts and practices and unfair methods of competition in commerce within the intent and meaning of the Federal Trade Commission Act; that accordingly the proceeding was in the public interest; and that respondent should be required to cease and desist from such practices; and order to cease and desist.

Thereafter, following the appeal from said initial decision by respondent Pressed Steel Car Company, Inc., now known as U. S. Industries, Inc., the matter was disposed of by "Decision of the Commission and Order to File Report of Compliance", Docket 6010, February 14, 1955, which, for the reasons stated in the accompanying opinion, denied said appeal, but held that the Commission's decision should take cognizance of certain subsequent changes in appellant's corporate structure and name, etc., as follows:

This matter came on to be heard by the Commission upon the appeal filed by the respondent Pressed Steel Car Company, Inc., now known as U. S. Industries, Inc., from the initial decision of the hearing examiner.

Having considered the record herein, the Commission, for reasons stated in its accompanying opinion, has determined that the exceptions interposed under the appeal are without merit and should be denied.

The Commission is of the further view that its decision here should take cognizance of certain changes in the appellant's corporate structure and name which have occurred since this proceeding was instituted, and that it should modify the order to cease and desist to the end that such order contain reference to appellant under its present name of U. S. Industries, Inc.

It is ordered, That the appeal of respondent U. S. Industries, Inc., formerly known as Pressed Steel Car Company, Inc., be, and the same hereby is denied.

It is further ordered, That the preamble of the order to cease and desist contained in the initial decision be, and it hereby is, modified by striking the words "Pressed Steel Car Company, Inc., a corporation," and substituting in lieu thereof the words "U. S. Industries, Inc., a corporation, formerly known as Pressed Steel Car Company, Inc."

It is further ordered, That the initial decision, as modified herein be, and it hereby is, adopted as a part of the decision of the Commission.

It is further ordered, That the respondents Permanent Stainless Steel, Inc., and U. S. Industries, Inc., formerly known as Pressed Steel Car Company, Inc., shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with the order to cease and desist.

The cease and desist order in said initial decision, modified as thus ordered so as to refer to appellant under its present name of U. S. Industries, Inc., is as follows:

It is ordered, That the respondents, Permanent Stainless Steel, Inc., a corporation, and Pressed Steel Car Company, Inc., a corporation, and their officers, agents, representatives and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale or distribution in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, of cooking utensils made of stainless steel, or any other products of substantially similar composition, design, construction or purpose, do forthwith cease and desist from representing, directly or by implication:

1. That the consumption of food cooked or kept in aluminum utensils will cause cancer, or is in any way detrimental or hazardous to the health of the users.

2. That the preparation of food in aluminum utensils causes the formation of poisons.

3. That cooking food in utensils in which water is used, or by any method or process other than in respondents' utensils, will, by reason of the heat or otherwise, result in appreciable damage or destruction to minerals.

4. That the use of respondents' cooking utensils will promote or insure health, or is any more conducive to health than the use of any other recognized cooking utensils.

5. That the use of respondents' said products will be of any benefit in the prevention of gall stones or stomach troubles, or in building up a good digestive system.

6. That the sulphur, phosphorus, chlorine, fluorine, iodine, or any other mineral elements contained in food intended for human consumption, are destroyed, damaged or injured by the heat resulting from cooking methods other than respondents'.

7. That silicon is essential for proper human nutrition.

8. That sodium or chlorine has any specific effect on the complexion or the skin; iodine, calcium or phosphorus on the heart; chlorine or sodium on the joints; phosphorus on the nails; fluorine on the bones; potassium or chlorine on shapeliness; magnesium, sulphur, sodium or iron on the digestion; phosphorus, iodine or manganese on the nerves; magnesium or phosphorus on the blood; or sodium on the ligaments.

9. (a) That sulphur purifies or tones the human system, or intensifies feeling or emotions.

(b) That phosphorus nourishes the brain cells, has any effect on the power of thought, or on the growth of the hair.

(c) That calcium has any effect on vitality or endurance, heals wounds, or counteracts acids.

(d) That magnesium has any effect on the nerves, refreshes the human system, or prevents, or, as contained in human food, will relieve constipation.

(e) That potassium is a liver activator, makes tissues elastic or muscles supple, creates grace or beauty or has any influence on one's disposition.

(f) That chlorine cleanses, freshens, purifies, disinfects, or expels waste matter from the human system.

(g) That fluorine strengthens, cements, hardens or builds the resistance of the lungs, tendons or veins.

(h) That sodium in human food aids digestion, counteracts acidosis, halts fermentation, purifies blood or dissolves congestion.

(i) That iodine normalizes glands or cell action, or will eject or counteract poisons.

(j) That silicon has any effect upon the hearing, the eyes, the teeth, the nails, the hair, or any other organ or function of the body, or tones the human system.

(k) That manganese increases resistance, strengthens or coordinates thought or action, or has any effect on the memory.

TITLE 21—FOOD AND DRUGS

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare

PART 19—CHEESES; PROCESSED CHEESES; CHEESE FOODS; CHEESE SPREADS; AND RELATED FOODS; DEFINITIONS AND STANDARDS OF IDENTITY

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

In the matter of amending the definitions and standards of identity for muenster cheese, munster cheese; monterey cheese; pasteurized process cheese food; pasteurized process cheese food with fruits, vegetables, or meats; pasteurized process cheese spread; pasteurized cheese spreads; pasteurized process cheese spread with fruits, vegetables, or meats; pasteurized cheese spread with fruits, vegetables, or meats; cold-pack cheese food; and cold-pack cheese food with fruits, vegetables, or meats:

On November 27, 1954, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (19 F. R. 7695) setting forth proposals to amend the definitions and standards of identity for the foods named above. The notice allowed 30 days for interested persons to submit in writing their views regarding these proposals. Upon consideration of the views presented and other relevant information, it is concluded that honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers will be promoted by ordering that the proposed amendments to the definition and standard of identity for muenster cheese, munster cheese (21 CFR, 1953 Supp., 19.550) not be made, and that the proposed amendments to the definitions and standards of identity for monterey cheese, pasteurized process cheese food, pasteurized process cheese spread, and cold-pack cheese food (21 CFR, 1953 Supp, 19.550, 19.580, 19.765, 19.775, 19.787) be made as hereinafter set forth.

Therefore, pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare by the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 401, 52 Stat. 1046, as amended 68 Stat. 54, 55; 21 U. S. C. 341 and Supp.), the following order is made:

1. It is ordered, That § 19.550 Muenster cheese, munster cheese; identity be not amended.

2. It is ordered, That § 19.580 Monterey cheese; identity be amended in the following respects:

a. In paragraph (a), delete the second sentence reading, "Monterey cheese is made in sizes not exceeding 12 pounds in weight."

b. In paragraph (b), change the fifth and sixth sentences to read: "The curd is drained and placed in a muslin or sheeting cloth, formed into a ball, and pressed; or the curd is placed in a cheese hoop and pressed. Later, the cloth bandage is removed, and the cheese may be covered with paraffin or dipped in vegetable oil, and may have rice flour sprinkled on the surface."

3. It is ordered, That paragraph (d) of § 19.765 Pasteurized process cheese food; identity; label statement of optional ingredients be amended by adding "skim-milk cheese for manufacturing" to the list of optional dairy ingredients. The paragraph then reads as follows:

(d) The optional dairy ingredients referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are cream, milk, skim milk, cheese whey, or any mixture of two or more of these, or any of the foregoing from which part of the water has been removed, albumin from cheese whey, and skim-milk cheese for manufacturing.

4. It is ordered, That paragraph (d) of § 19.775 Pasteurized process cheese spread; identity; label statement of optional ingredients be amended by adding "skim-milk cheese for manufacturing" to the list of optional dairy ingredients. The paragraph then reads as follows:

(d) The optional dairy ingredients referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are cream, milk, skim milk, cheese whey, or any mixture of two or more of these, or any of the foregoing from which part of the water has been removed, albumin from cheese whey, and skim-milk cheese for manufacturing.

5. It is ordered, That paragraph (d) of § 19.787 Cold-pack cheese food; identity; label statement of optional ingredients be amended by adding "skim-milk cheese for manufacturing" to the list of optional dairy ingredients. The paragraph then reads as follows:

(d) The optional dairy ingredients referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are cream, milk, skim milk, cheese whey, or any mixture of two or more of these or any of the foregoing from which part of the water has been removed, skim-milk cheese for manufacturing, and albumin from cheese whey. All optional dairy ingredients used in cold-pack cheese food are pasteurized or made from products which have been pasteurized.

Amendments 3, 4, and 5, above ordered, have the effect of amending, by reference, the definitions and standards of identity for pasteurized process cheese food with fruits, vegetables, or meats; pasteurized cheese spread; pasteurized process cheese spread with fruits, vegetables, or meats; pasteurized cheese spread with fruits, vegetables, or meats; and cold-pack cheese food with fruits, vegetables, or meats, by permitting skim-milk cheese for manufacturing as an optional dairy ingredient. (See 21 CFR, 1953 Supp., 19.770, 19.776, 19.780, 19.781, 19.788.)

Any person who will be adversely affected by the foregoing order may at any time prior to the thirtieth day from the date of publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER file with the Hearing Clerk, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Room 5440, Health, Education, and Welfare Building, 330 Independence Avenue SW., Washington 25, D. C., written objections thereto. Objections shall show wherein the person filing will be adversely affected by the order, shall specify the provisions of the order deemed objectionable and the grounds for the objections, and shall request a public hearing upon the objections. Objections may be accompanied by a memorandum or brief in support thereof. All documents shall be filed in quintuplicate.

Effective date. This order shall become effective on the sixtieth day after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, except as to any of its provisions that may be stayed by the filing of objections thereto and request for a public hearing. Notice of such filing, or lack thereof, will be announced by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Dated: March 28, 1955.

TITLE 38—PENSIONS, BONUSES, AND VETERANS' RELIEF

Chapter I—Veterans' Administration

PART 13—DEPARTMENT OF VETERANS BENEFITS, CHIEF ATTORNEYS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

1. Section 13.210 is revised to read as follows:

§ 13.210 Bond of custodian. The Chief Attorney, or the Deputy Administrator, Department of Veterans Benefits, or his designee, may require the person to be recognized as legal custodian of a beneficiary or as custodian-in-fact under the provisions of section 21 (3), World War Veterans Act, 1924, as amended (38 U. S. C. 450 (3)), and § 13.205 (a) to furnish a corporate surety bond before payments are made to such person on behalf of the claimant. Said bond shall run to the Administrator of Veterans Affairs for the use and benefit of ---------- When the benefits to be paid equal the maximum amounts set forth in § 13.205, such bond will be required, unless the proposed legal custodian agrees to invest the surplus funds in the manner and with the safeguards set forth in § 13.321 (b) (6). (See § 13.312.)

2. Section 13.312 is revised to read as follows:

§ 13.312 Legal custodian may be required to furnish bond. In any case, the Chief Attorney, or Deputy Administrator, Department of Veterans Benefits, or his designee, may require that a legal custodian furnish a corporate surety bond in an amount sufficient to protect the estate of the beneficiary. Bond will not be required of legal custodians for the amount of the United States savings bonds on deposit in a Federal Reserve bank and which may be withdrawn only with the written approval of the Chief Attorney or the amount of United States savings bonds registered in the form set forth in § 13.321 (b) (6), or the amount authorized as provided in that section to be invested in savings accounts in banks, building and loan associations, or Federal savings and loan associations, with an agreement same will be withdrawn only with written approval of the Chief Attorney. (See § 13.210.)

3. In § 13.321, paragraph (b) (6) is amended to read as follows:

§ 13.321 Investments, inspection of assets. * * *

(b) * * *

(6) The Chief Attorney will instruct legal custodians to invest all funds received from the Veterans' Administration not needed for the current or contemplated support of the beneficiary. Preferred investments are United States savings bonds, which in order to avoid necessity for a corporate surety bond should be registered only in this form:

----------, a minor, under legal (Ward's name)
custodianship by designation of the Veterans' Administration. ----------
(Ward's address)

The amount of the investments in United States savings bonds which are so registered will be excluded in determining the penal sum of a corporate surety bond otherwise required by §§ 13.210 and 13.312. The Chief Attorney will not object to investment of surplus funds by a legal custodian in interest or dividend paying accounts in banks, shares or deposits in building and loan associations or Federal savings and loan associations, provided the accounts, shares or deposits are insured by the corporations and under the laws cited in paragraph (d) (1) of this section, or comparable insurance protection authorized by State law. In such cases, when a corporate surety bond would otherwise be required by §§ 13.210 and 13.312, the legal custodian may be authorized, in lieu of furnishing such bond, to make arrangements with the bank, building and loan association, or Federal savings and loan association, whereby the funds so invested may be withdrawn only with the written approval of the Chief Attorney. A copy of the agreement made by the legal custodian with the bank, building and loan association, or Federal savings and loan association will be filed in the records of the particular case in the Chief Attorney's office.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Agricultural Marketing Service

[7 CFR Part 912]

[Docket No. AO 29-A9]

MILK IN DUBUQUE, IOWA, MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF HEARING AND PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT AND TO ORDER, AS AMENDED, REGULATING HANDLING

Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and in accordance with the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held in the Federal Building, Dubuque, Iowa, beginning at 10:00 a. m., c. s. t., April 21, 1955.

Subject and issue involved in the hearing. This public hearing is for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to economic and marketing conditions which relate to the handling of milk in the Dubuque, Iowa, milk marketing area and to the provisions specified in the proposals listed below or some appropriate modifications thereof.

Amendments to the order (No. 12), as amended, were proposed as follows:

Proposed by the Beatrice Foods Company:

1. Amend § 912.1 (c) "Dubuque, Iowa, marketing area," so as to include the city of East Dubuque, Illinois, in the marketing area.

2. Delete § 912.1 (h) and insert in lieu thereof as § 912.1 (h), the following:

(h) "Producer" means any approved dairy farmer, other than a producer-handler, whose milk is received at a pool plant or is diverted from a pool plant by the handler who operates such pool plant, or by a cooperative association, to a plant which is not a pool plant for the account of such handler or cooperative association. "Producer" does not mean any approved dairy farmer with respect to milk received by a handler who is partially exempted from the provisions of this order pursuant to § 912.6 (b)'.

3. Add a new paragraph to § 912.1 as follows:

(m) "Approved dairy farmer" means any person who holds a currently valid permit issued by the Health Department of the City of Dubuque, Iowa, for the production of milk to be disposed of as Grade A milk and which is received at a plant disposing of Class I milk in the marketing area.

4. Add a new paragraph to § 912.1 as follows:

(n) "Approved plant" means any plant, approved by the health authorities of the City of Dubuque, Iowa, for the handling of milk to be disposed of for fluid consumption as milk in the marketing area, at which milk is received from approved dairy farmers.

5. Add a new paragraph to § 912.1 as follows:

(o) "Pool plant" means any approved plant other than that of a producer-handler:

(1) During any of the months of March, April, May, or June within which such plant disposes of as Class I milk an amount equal to 40 percent or more of such plant's total receipts of milk from approved dairy farmers and disposes of as Class I milk on routes, plant stores, or through vendors in the marketing area an amount equal to 20 percent or more of such plant's total receipts from approved dairy farmers;

(2) During any of the other months within which such plant disposes of as Class I milk an amount equal to 50 percent or more of such plant's total receipts of milk from approved dairy farmers and disposes of as Class I milk on routes, plant stores, or through vendors in the marketing area an amount equal to 25 percent or more of such plant's total receipts from approved dairy farmers; and

(3) For the purpose of this definition, the following shall apply:

(i) Milk diverted from an approved plant for the account of the handler operating such approved plant shall be considered a receipt at the approved plant from which it was diverted; and

(ii) Milk diverted from an approved plant to an unapproved plant for the account of a cooperative association which does not operate a plant shall be deemed to have been received by such cooperative association at a pool plant.

6. Delete § 912.4 (a) and (b) and insert in lieu thereof the following:

§ 912.4 Classification. (a) "All skim milk and butterfat" received within the delivery period by a handler which is required to be reported pursuant to § 912.3 (a) shall be classified by the market administrator pursuant to the provisions of this section.

(b) "Classes of utilization" are subject to the conditions set forth in paragraphs (d) and (e) of this section. The classes of utilization shall be:

(1) Class I milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat (i) disposed of as fluid milk in the form of milk, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk, flavored milk drinks, yogurt, cream, cultured sour cream, any mixture (except bulk ice cream mix) of cream and milk containing in excess of 6 percent butterfat, (ii) used to produce concentrated milk, flavored milk or flavored milk drinks disposed of for fluid consumption neither sterilized nor in hermetically sealed cans, and (iii) all other skim milk and butterfat not specifically accounted for as Class II milk; and

(2) Class II milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat (i) used to produce butter, cheese (including skim milk and butterfat used to produce cottage cheese), plain or sweetened condensed or evaporated milk, spray or roller process nonfat dry milk solids, powdered whole milk, ice cream, ice cream mix, frozen desserts, aerated cream, eggnog, casein or margarine, (ii) used for starter churning, wholesale baking and candy making, (iii) disposed of as livestock feed, (iv) in skim milk dumped after prior notification to and opportunity for verification by the market administrator, (v) in shrinkage up to 2 percent of producer receipts, (vi) in shrinkage of other source milk, and (vii) in inventory variation.

7. Amend § 912.4 (g) to provide that in any delivery period that producer receipts are not equal to 115 percent of Class I utilization, priority in the allocation to Class I utilization shall be given to other source milk to the extent and in the amount equal to the difference between actual producer receipts and 115 percent of Class I utilization.

8. Amend § 912.5 by deleting all of the present paragraph (a) and inserting in lieu thereof, the following:

§ 912.5 Minimum prices—(a) Class prices. Subject to the provisions of paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, the minimum prices per hundredweight to be paid by each handler for milk received at his plant from an approved dairy farmer during the delivery period shall be as follows:

(1) Class I milk. The price established per hundredweight of Class I Grade A milk under Order No. 91, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Rockford-Freeport, Illinois, marketing area.

(2) Class II milk. The price established per hundredweight of Class II milk shall be the average of the prices reported to have been paid or to be paid for ungraded milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received from farmers during the delivery period at the following plants for which prices have been reported to the market administrator or the United States Department of Agriculture:

Present Operator and Location

Amboy Milk Products Co., Amboy, Ill.
Borden Co., Dixon, Ill.
Borden Co., Sterling, Ill.
Carnation Co., Morrison, Ill.
Carnation Co., Oregon, Ill.
Carnation Co., Waverly, Ky.
United Milk Products Co., Argo Pay, Ill.

9. Delete § 912.5 (b) (3).

10. Delete § 912.6 (b) (2).

11. Amend § 912.6 by adding the following paragraph:

(c) Handler operating an approved plant which is not a pool plant. Each handler who operates an approved plant which is not a pool plant during a month, shall in lieu of the payments required pursuant to § 912.7 through § 912.8, pay to the market administrator, for the producer-settlement fund, on or before the 25th day after the end of such month, the amount resulting from the computations of either subparagraph (1) or (2) of this paragraph, whichever is less.

(1) The product of the quantity of milk received by such handler which was disposed of in the marketing area on routes or in plant stores as Class I milk during the month multiplied by the difference between the price for Class I milk pursuant to § 912.5 (a) (1) (adjusted for butterfat content and value pursuant to § 912.5 (b) (1)) and the price for Class II milk pursuant to the requested amended § 912.5 (a) (2) (adjusted for butterfat content and value pursuant to § 912.5 (b) (2)).

(2) Any plus amount resulting from the following computation: From an amount equal to the net pool obligation which would be computed pursuant to § 912.7 (a) for such handler for such month if such handler operated a pool plant, deduct the gross payments made by such handler to approved dairy farmers for milk received during such month.

12. Amend other sections of the order necessary to conform to a two-class qualified pool plant type of order.

13. The necessary sections of the order shall be opened for the purpose of receiving evidence to examine the advisability of an individual handler pool.

Proposed by Dean Milk Company:

14. Delete § 912.6 (b) (2).

Proposed by Dubuque Cooperative Dairy Marketing Association:

15. Delete § 912.5 (a) (1) and substitute therefor the following:

(1) Class I milk. The price established per hundredweight of Class I milk under Order No. 44, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Quad Cities marketing area.

16. Delete § 912.5 (a) (3) and substitute therefor the following:

(3) Class III milk. The price for Class II milk, less 10 cents.

Copies of this notice of hearing may be procured from the Market Administrator, 335 Federal Building, 16th Street and 2d Avenue, Rock Island, Illinois, or from the Hearing Clerk, Room 112, Administration Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., or may be there inspected.

Dated: March 29, 1955, at Washington, D. C.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Office of the Secretary

[Gen. Order 85]

SOLICITOR OF LABOR

PERFORMANCE OF CERTAIN FUNCTIONS OF SECRETARY IN EVENT OF VACANCY IN OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATOR OF WAGE AND HOUR AND PUBLIC CONTRACTS DIVISIONS

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by the act of March 4, 1913 (5 U. S. C. 611), section 4 of the act of June 30, 1936, as amended (41 U. S. C. 38), the act of June 25, 1938, as amended (29 U. S. C. 201 et seq.), Reorganization Plan No. 6 of 1950 (64 Stat. 1263, 5 U. S. C. 611, note), and R. S. 161 (5 U. S. C. 22):

It is hereby ordered, That in the event of a vacancy occurring in the office of Administrator of the Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions of the Department of Labor, the Solicitor of Labor, until such time as the vacancy shall be filled by a duly appointed and qualified successor to the office, shall have authority to perform, in addition to the functions which he would otherwise perform, the following functions of the Secretary of Labor:

1. All functions under the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act, as amended, which such Administrator is authorized to perform by virtue of the provisions of General Order No. 25 and pursuant to the provisions of Reorganization Plan No. 6 of 1950;

2. All functions under the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended, which such Administrator is authorized to perform by virtue of the provisions of General Order No. 45A and pursuant to the provisions of Reorganization Plan No. 6 of 1950.

The Solicitor of Labor in such event shall have authority to perform any of these functions in the same manner and to the same extent as the Administrator is authorized to do under the provisions of General Order No. 25 or General Order No. 45A, and shall have authority, on behalf of the Secretary, to sign documents and correspondence in the course of his performance of any such function in his own name and title in the following form:

James P. Mitchell
Secretary of Labor

By [s] Stuart Rothman
Solicitor of Labor

It is further ordered, That all orders, regulations, interpretations, delegations, subdelegations, or agreements issued, made, or entered into under any authority conferred by either act referred to in this order shall remain in effect as orders, regulations, interpretations, delegations, subdelegations, or agreements of the Secretary of Labor during any period in which the Solicitor of Labor performs functions of the Secretary as provided herein, except to the extent that amendments, modifications, or rescissions thereof may be made by the Secretary or under authority conferred by him as provided in General Order No. 25 or General Order No. 45A.

This order shall become effective immediately as an amendment to General Order No. 25 and to General Order No. 45A, and shall supersede all prior orders, instructions, regulations or memoranda of the Secretary of Labor to the extent that they are inconsistent herewith.

Signed and effective March 26, 1955, Washington, D. C.

JAMES P. MITCHELL,
Secretary of Labor.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. G-3123]

NATURAL GAS PIPELINE COMPANY OF AMERICA

ORDER DENYING MOTION TO DISMISS AND PROVIDING FOR RECONVENING OF HEARING

Pursuant to the provisions of the order issued March 18, 1955, the Presiding Examiner certified to the Commission the motion to dismiss made by Illinois Commerce Commission (Illinois Commission) on December 9, 1954, during course of hearing and joined in by City of Chicago, Illinois (Chicago), including the record upon which such motion was based.

By the motion to dismiss it appears that Illinois Commission and Chicago raise the question whether or not in view of the decision in Phillips Petroleum Company v. Wisconsin, et al., 347 U. S. 672, fair field price provides a reasonable and proper basis for determining the proper cost to be reflected as an expense item in the cost of service of Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America (Natural) for the gas which it produces.

A proper and reasonable allowance in the cost of service of Natural for gas which it produces cannot be determined in advance of a complete and full record upon this issue. The hearing in this proceeding is currently in recess pending further order of the Commission. At such time as the hearing is reconvened all parties will have an opportunity to present all pertinent and relevant evidence upon the issue thus presented.

The Commission finds: Good cause exists for denying the motion to dismiss made by Illinois Commission.

The Commission orders:

(A) The motion to dismiss this proceeding made on December 9, 1954, by Illinois Commerce Commission be and it is hereby denied.

(B) The hearing in this proceeding shall be reconvened at a time and place to be fixed by further notice from the Secretary of the Commission.

Adopted: March 23, 1955.

Issued: March 24, 1955.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

[Docket No. G-3598]

KANSAS NATURAL GAS, INC.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING

MARCH 28, 1955.

Take notice that Kansas Natural Gas, Inc. (Applicant), a Kansas corporation, with a principal office in Hays, Kansas, filed on September 29, 1954, an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity and a supplement thereto on November 29, 1954 pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing Applicant to render service as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully represented in the application which is on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

Applicant produces natural gas from the Hugoton Gas Field, Morton, Finney, Kearney, Stanton, Haskell, Stevens and Grant Counties, Kansas, which is sold in interstate commerce to Kansas Colorado Utilities Company, Kansas-Nebraska Natural Gas Company, Inc., and Cities Service Gas Company for resale.

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on April 15, 1955, at 9:30 a. m., e. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a noncontested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before April 5, 1955. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

[SEAL] J. H. GUTRIDE,
Acting Secretary.

[Docket No. G-4371]

EL PASO NATURAL GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING

MARCH 28, 1955.

Take notice that El Paso Natural Gas Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation whose address is El Paso, Texas filed application on November 1, 1954 which was supplemented on November 26, 1954, and February 26, 1955, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing Applicant to render service as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission all as more fully represented in the application which is on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

Applicant proposes to sell and deliver natural gas to Arizona Public Service Company (Public Service) at Applicants existing Avondale Meter Station for resale by Public Service in and adjacent to the towns of Wickenburg, El Mirage, Surprise, and Youngtown, and in the Dysart School Community, all in Maricopa County, Arizona. These towns and communities are located along the route of a proposed pipeline to be constructed by Public Service at an estimated cost of $490,000. Applicant will finance 72.33 percent of the construction cost of this line from funds on hand as a contribution to Public Service in aid of construction.

Applicant has requested omission of the intermediate decision procedure and that its application be heard under the shortened procedure provided by § 1.32 (b) (18 CFR 1.32 (b)) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on April 22, 1955, at 9:30 a. m., e. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C. concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before April 15, 1955.

[Docket No. G-4372]

EL PASO NATURAL GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING

MARCH 28, 1955.

Take notice that El Paso Natural Gas Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation whose address is El Paso, Texas, filed on November 1, 1954, an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing Applicant to render service as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully represented in the application which is on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

Applicant proposes to operate four constructed taps, together with metering facilities, for the sale of natural gas to General Utiliites, Inc., for resale along Applicant's pipelines in the vicinity of the taps. The pipeline taps are designated Cliff-Layton, Lee Station, U. S. Indian Service at Bylas, and Moody Station, and are located in Graham County, Arizona.

Applicant has requested omission of the intermediate decision procedure and that its application be heard under the shortened procedure provided by § 1.32 (b) (18 CFR 1.32 (b)) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on April 25, 1955, at 9:30 a. m., e. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before April 15, 1955.

CONTINENTAL OIL CO. ET AL.

ORDER CONSOLIDATING PROCEEDINGS, FIXING DATE OF HEARING, AND SPECIFYING PROCEDURE

In the matters of Continental Oil Company, Docket No. G-6503; Knox Oil Company, Docket No. G-6821; Wyopark Oil Company, Docket No. G-6823; Oxford Oil Company, Docket No. G-6824; Fred M. Manning, Docket No. G-7771; Estate of E. E. Brown, Docket No. G-7772; Fred Goodstein, d/b/a Trigood Oil Company, Docket Nos. G-6624 and G-7407.

By orders heretofore issued in the above-entitled proceedings, the Commission, pursuant to authority contained in sections 4 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, ordered that hearings be held concerning the lawfulness of increased rates and charges contained in proposed changes in rate schedules for sales of natural gas to Montana-Dakota Utilities Company subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. These orders provided that, pending the hearing and decision thereon, the proposed rate schedules involved, and the increased rates and charges therein proposed, be suspended and the use thereof deferred until March 1, 1955, and for such further time as they are made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

The orders and rate schedules involved are as follows:

Docket No.	Date order adopted	Rate schedules involved
G-6503	Dec. 22, 1954	Continental Oil Co., supplement No. 1 to FPC gas rate schedule No. 2; and supplement No. 1 to supplement No. 1 to FPC gas rate schedule No. 2.

G-6824	....do.....	Oxford Oil Co., supplement No. 1 to FPC gas rate schedule No. 1; and supplement No. 1 to supplement No. 1 to FPC gas rate schedule No. 1.
G-7771	Jan. 19, 1955	Fred M. Manning, supplement No. 1 to FPC gas rate schedule No. 1; and supplement No. 1 to supplement No. 1 to FPC gas rate schedule No. 1.
G-7772	....do.....	Estate of E. E. Brown, supplement No. 1 to FPC gas rate schedule No. 1; and supplement No. 1 to supplement No. 1 to FPC gas rate schedule No. 1.
G-6624	Dec. 29, 1954	Fred Goodstein, d/b/a Trigood Oil Co., supplement No. 1 to FPC gas rate schedule No. 1.
G-7407	Jan. 13, 1955	Fred Goodstein, d/b/a Trigood Oil Co., supplement No. 1 to FPC gas rate schedule No. 3; and supplement No. 1 to supplement No. 1 to FPC gas rate schedule No. 3.

The Commission finds: It is appropriate and in the public interest in carrying out the provisions of the natural Gas Act, and good cause exists, to consolidate the above-entitled proceedings for the purposes of hearing and to prescribe the procedure to be followed at the hearing as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 4, 15, and 16 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's general rules and regulations (18 CFR, Chapter I), the proceedings in the above-entitled docket Nos. G-6503, G-6821, G-6823, G-6824, G-7771, G-7772, G-6624, and G-7407 be and the same are hereby consolidated for the purposes of hearing; and, further, such hearing be held commencing on May 10, 1955, at 10:00 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved and the issues presented in the above-entitled proceedings.

(B) At the hearing, Continental Oil Company, Knox Oil Company, Wyopark Oil Company, Oxford Oil Company, Fred M. Manning, Estate of E. E. Brown, and Fred Goodstein, d/b/a Trigood Oil Company (hereinafter referred to as "Applicant") shall first present and complete their cases-in-chief before cross-examination is undertaken. Upon completion of the presentation of Applicants, the other parties to the proceedings, including Commission Staff Counsel, may proceed with preliminary cross-examination respecting the matters and issues involved in the proceedings. Upon request of any party to the proceedings, including Commission Staff Counsel, the hearing shall be recessed by the Presiding Examiner for such time or times as the Examiner may find appropriate and reasonable to permit proper preparation for full cross-examination. Following the presentation by Applicants, and cross-examination as provided above, opportunity shall then be afforded to the other parties to present testimony and evidence. Any such testimony and evidence shall then be subject to cross-examination. Following such cross-examination, opportunity shall be afforded Commission Staff Counsel (after recess, if requested) to present evidence. Such testimony and evidence as the Staff offers shall then be subject to cross-examination, after which an opportunity shall be afforded Applicants to offer rebuttal evidence.

(C) Upon completion of the proceedings as provided for in paragraph (B), the Presiding Examiner shall fix the dates for the filing of briefs, if not waived by the parties, including Commission Staff Counsel.

(D) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

Adopted: March 23, 1955.

Issued: March 24, 1955.

By the Commission.

[Docket No. G-6863]

GULF INTERSTATE GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING

MARCH 28, 1955.

Take notice that Gulf Interstate Gas Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation whose address is P. O. Box 1916, Houston, Texas, filed on January 10, 1955, an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, as supplemented on February 28, 1955 and March 16, 1955, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing Applicant to operate facilities as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully represented in the application which is on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

Applicant proposes to construct and operate an experimental compressor station near Stanton, Kentucky. The compressor station will be constructed at the site of what will be its Compressor Station No. 1 and will be operated as a "satellite", being controlled exclusively by personnel at Applicant's Station No. 2 eighty miles distant at Clementsville, Kentucky. The experimental station will be a centrifugal instead of a reciprocal station. Applicant proposes to operate the station on an experimental basis for 15 months to determine the economics and feasibility of the non-attended operation. It is represented that the presently existing operations will not be changed in any manner and that the experimental station will not be used to increase the capacity of Applicant's facilities or the daily or annual volumes of gas to be transported.

The estimated total cost of the facilities is $730,000 to be financed from current funds available to the Applicant.

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on April 20, 1955, at 9:30 a. m., e. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before April 12, 1955. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 70-3348]

WEST TEXAS UTILITIES CO.

ORDER REGARDING ISSUANCE AND SALE OF FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS AT COMPETITIVE BIDDING

MARCH 28, 1955.

West Texas Utilities Company ("West Texas"), an electric utility subsidiary of Central and South West Corporation, a registered holding company, has filed a declaration and amendments thereto with this Commission pursuant to the provisions of sections 6 (a) and 7 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") and Rule U-50 promulgated thereunder with respect to the following proposed transaction:

West Texas proposes to issue and sell $7,500,000 principal amount of first mortgage bonds, Series D, __ percent, to be dated April 1, 1955, and to mature April 1, 1985. Said bonds will be issued under and secured by an Indenture of Mortgage dated August 1, 1943, to Harris Trust and Savings Bank and Harold Eckhart, as Trustees, as amended by existing Indentures supplemental thereto, and by a proposed supplemental Indenture to be dated April 1, 1955, between West Texas and Harris Trust and Savings Bank and W. H. Milsted (successor to Harold Eckhart). The price to be paid to the company for the bonds (which, exclusive of accrued interest thereon, shall be not less than 100 percent nor more than 102.75 percent of the principal amount of the bonds) and the interest rate (which shall be a multiple of ⅛ of 1 percent will be determined by competitive bidding pursuant to Rule U-50.

The net proceeds (exclusive of accrued interest) to be received by West Texas from the issuance and sale of the $7,500,000 principal amount of its Series D bonds will be applied by the company, to the extent of $5,500,000, to the prepayment of bank loans, and the balance thereof will be used by West Texas to pay a part of the cost of its 1955 and 1956 construction programs which it estimates will amount to approximately $11,400,000 in the aggregate.

No State commission and no Federal regulatory agency, other than this Commission, has jurisdiction over the proposed transaction.

The fees and expenses incurred and to be incurred and paid in connection with the proposed transaction are estimated as follows:

S. E. C. filing fee	$780
Federal issue stamp tax	8,250
Printing and engraving	10,100
Recording fees	1,200
Trustee's fee: Harris Trust and Savings Bank	4,250
Accountant's fee: Arthur Andersen & Co	1,500
Service company fee: Middle West Service Co.	[1] 3,500
Counsel fees:
Stevenson, Dendtler, Bailey & McCabe	[1] 6,000
Wagstaff, Harwell, Alvis & Pope	[1] 500
Reimbursement of underwriters for "Blue Sky" expense	2,500
Miscellaneous expense	1,420
Total	40,000

[1] Portion of annual retainer allocated by West Texas as applicable to the issuance and sale of the bonds.

The fee of Isham, Lincoln & Beale, independent counsel for the underwriters, estimated at $4,500, and related expenses of $250, will be paid by the successful bidder or bidders.

West Texas has requested that there be no waiting period between the issuance of the Commission's order herein and the effective date thereof.

Due notice of the filing of said declaration having been given in the manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated under the act, and no hearing having been requested of or ordered by the Commission; and the Commission finding that the applicable provisions of the act and of the rules promulgated thereunder are satisfied; that the fees and expenses are not unreasonable; that the declaration, as amended, should be permitted to become effective forthwith.

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, that said declaration, as amended, be, and the same hereby is, permitted to become effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rules U-24 and U-50.

By the Commission.

MISSOURI EDISON CO.

NOTICE OF FILING REGARDING ISSUANCE AND SALE OF BANK LOAN NOTES

MARCH 28, 1955.

Notice is hereby given that Missouri Edison Company ("Missouri Edison"), a public-utility subsidiary of Union Electric Company of Missouri, a registered holding company, has filed a declaration with this Commission pursuant to the provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"). Declarant has designated sections 6 (a) and 7 of the act and Rules U-50 (a) (2) and (a) (4) promulgated thereunder as applicable to said filing.

All interested persons are referred to said declaration which is on file in the offices of the Commission for a statement of the transaction proposed therein, which is summarized as follows:

Missouri Edison proposes to borrow from The Boatmen's National Bank of St. Louis amounts aggregating up to $600,000 and to evidence said borrowings by the issuance of promissory notes maturing nine months from the dates of the borrowings and bearing interest at the rate of three percent per annum.

Missouri Edison states it will use the sums to be borrowed, together with cash available in its treasury, to finance its necessary and urgent construction program.

Missouri Edison represents that the funds necessary to repay the borrowings to be made, to retire a demand note in the principal amount of $138,000 issued and delivered to The Boatmen's National Bank of St. Louis on February 15, 1955, and to provide additional funds for construction purposes will be obtained from the issuance and sale of additional first mortgage bonds or other securities later in 1955.

Missouri Edison states that no State commission and no Federal regulatory agency, other than this Commission, has any jurisdiction over the proposed transaction.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, at any time prior to April 11, 1955, at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on this matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reason for such request, and the issues of fact or law, if any, raised by said declaration which he proposes to controvert, or he may request to be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should bear the caption of this Notice and should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date, said declaration, as filed or as it may hereafter be amended, may be granted pursuant to Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the transaction proposed therein may be exempted as provided by Rules U-20 (a) and U-100.

AMERICAN RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT CORP. AND PAUL VALVE CORP.

NOTICE OF FILING REQUESTING ORDER EXEMPTING CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS BETWEEN AFFILIATES

MARCH 28, 1955.

Notice is hereby given that American Research and Development Corporation ("Research"), a registered, closed-end non-diversified investment company, and its affiliated company, Paul Valve Corporation ("Paul"), have filed a joint application pursuant to section 17 (b) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("act") seeking an order exempting certain transactions contained in section 17 (a) from the prohibitions of the act.

Paul, a New Jersey corporation organized in 1947, is engaged in the sale of valves for use in pulp mills, chemical process plants, product pipe lines and other industrial applications.

The application states that Paul has presently outstanding, 122,917 shares of common stock, par value 10 cents per share, of which 96,884 shares are subject to a voting trust agreement; 2,199 shares of $100 per value non-cumulative preferred stock; $24,656.47 of sinking fund notes due 1957; and an aggregate of $195,395.28 of 5 percent debentures due 1960. The common stock normally has sole voting power; the preferred stock does not have voting rights until the debentures have been paid in full and default has been made in the payment of four consecutive quarterly dividends.

Of the 122,917 shares of common stock outstanding, 91,901 shares were issued and sold at par as part of package sales in connection with the sales of the preferred stock and debentures. Paul's outstanding securities are held by 77 persons.

Research holds 26,040 shares or 21.18 percent of the common stock outstanding, of which 16,800 shares are subject to the voting trust agreement. One of the three voting trustees is a nominee of Research. In addition, $62,000 of the debentures are also held by Research.

Pursuant to the proposed plan of reorganization all of the presently outstanding securities of Paul will be exchanged for new 10¢ par value common stock on the following terms:

1. Notes and debentures of the corporation amounting to $218,872.65 plus accrued interest thereon, together with 83,105 shares of common stock purchased therewith in a "package," will be exchanged for 80,000 shares (80 percent) of the new common stock to be issued on the basis of the unpaid principal of the notes and debentures (approximately 36.55 shares of new common stock for each $100 in notes and debentures).

2. The 2,199 outstanding shares of the preferred stock of the corporation with a total par value of $219,900 together with the 8,796 shares of common stock purchased therewith in a "package," will be exchanged for 10,000 shares (10 percent) of the new common stock to be issued (approximately 4.55 shares of new common stock for each share of preferred stock).

3. Common stock purchased without an accompanying purchase of other securities of the corporation, in general purchased by the management, the inventor and those rendering services, totalling 31,000 shares, will be exchanged for 10,000 shares (10 percent) of the new common stock to be issued (approximately 0.32 share of new common stock for each share of old common stock. The directors' 16 qualifying shares will not participate in the plan of reorganization.

Under the proposed plan Research will receive a total of 22,661 shares of new common stock or 22.6 percent of the shares to be outstanding. It is stated, however, that it is contemplated that stockholders will approve an option to the President of Paul to purchase 10,000 shares of new common stock over a five-year period. If such option is exercised, Research's interest in Paul would be reduced to 20.5 percent.

It is represented that the plan will be consummated only upon receiving the written consents of all holders of the debt securities, two-thirds of the preferred stockholders and two-thirds of the common stockholders.

Applicants assert that the plan of reorganization has been proposed as a means of improving the credit position of Paul. A balance sheet of Paul as of October 31, 1954, shows a cumulative earnings deficit of $428,858 and a capital deficit of $197,002 as of that date.

The directors of Paul are of the opinion that despite these deficits the patents pending are of substantial value to a sound going concern and for that reason considers it necessary, desirable and fair both to recognize the management's past contribution and to assure its continued interest in the future of the enterprise.

Generally speaking, section 17 (a) of the act prohibits an affiliated person of a registered investment company from purchasing from, or selling to, such registered investment company, any security, with certain exemptions, unless the Commission upon application pursuant to section 17 (b) of the act, grants an exemption from section 17 (a) of the act after finding that the terms of the proposed transaction, including the consideration to be paid, are reasonable and fair and do not involve overreaching on the part of any person concerned, that the proposed transaction is consistent with the policy of each registered investment company concerned, as recited in its registration statement and reports filed under the act, and is consistent with the general purposes of the act.

Research and Paul are affiliated persons of each other, as defined in the act, hence the transactions between them pursuant to the proposed plan of reorganization are prohibited under section 17 (a) unless the Commission grants the application pursuant to section 17 (b) of the act.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than April 11, 1955, at 5:30 p. m., submit to the Commission in writing any facts bearing upon the desirability of a hearing on the matter and may request that a hearing be held, such request stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such communication or request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date, the application may be granted as provided in Rule N-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act.

By the Commission.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

[MC-C-1520]

MULTIPLE PICK-UPS AND DELIVERIES; NEW ENGLAND

ORDER DIRECTING PENDING INVESTIGATION TO BE BROADENED

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 2, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 21st day of March A. D. 1955.

Upon consideration of the pending investigation into the rules, regulations, and practices affecting rates and charges insofar as they authorize or permit consignment to one or more than one consignee of single shipments of all property except household goods as defined in Practices of Motor Common Carriers of Household Goods, 17 M. C. C. 467, livestock, automobiles, dangerous explosives, and commodities of unusual size or value, by motor common carriers, in interstate and foreign commerce, between points within an area embracing all of the States of Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, and Vermont, and between points within that territory, on the one hand, and, on the other, points within the State of New Jersey in Hudson, Passaic, and Somerset Counties and points within the State of New York in Albany, Schenectady, and Orange Counties; and of a petition requesting that the investigation be broadened; and good cause appearing therefor:

It is ordered, That the pending investigation be, and it is hereby, broadened to include the reasonableness and lawfulness otherwise of the rules, regulations and practices affecting rates and charges so far as they authorize or permit single shipments to be picked up at more than one location when such shipments of the property described, and between the points referred to in the preceding paragraph of this order, move in interstate or foreign commerce, with a view to the making of such findings and orders in the premises as the facts and circumstances shall appear to warrant.

It is further ordered, That all common carriers of property by motor vehicle subject to the Interstate Commerce Act, operating between the points and participating in the transportation referred to in this order be, and they are hereby, made respondents to this proceeding; that a copy of this order be served upon each of the said respondents; and that notice to the public be given by posting a copy of this order in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of Federal Register, Washington, D. C.

Commodities involved: Sulphuric acid, in tank-car loads.

From: East St. Louis, Ill.

To: Springfield, Mo.

Grounds for relief: Circuitous routes.

Schedules filed containing proposed rates: W. J. Prueter, Agent, I. C. C. No. A-3991, sup. 54.

Any interested person desiring the Commission to hold a hearing upon such application shall request the Commission in writing so to do within 15 days from the date of this notice. As provided by the general rules of practice of the Commission, Rule 73, persons other than applicants should fairly disclose their interest, and the position they intend to take at the hearing with respect to the application. Otherwise the Commission, in its discretion, may proceed to investigate and determine the matters involved in such application without further or formal hearing. If because of an emergency a grant of temporary relief is found to be necessary before the expiration of the 15-day period, a hearing, upon a request filed within that period, may be held subsequently.

By the Commission.

AUTHORITY: §§ 421.1126 to 421.1132 issued under sec. 4, 62 Stat. 1070 as amended; 15 U. S. C., 714b. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 62 Stat. 1072, secs. 401, 408, 63 Stat. 1054, 68 Stat. 904; 15 U. S. C. 714c, 7 U. S. C. 1421, 1428, 7 U. S. C. 1374.

§ 421.1126 Administration. The program will be carried out under the general supervision and direction of the President, Commodity Credit Corporation, by the Commodity Stabilization Service (hereinafter referred to as CSS) through State and County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committees (hereinafter referred to as State and county committees).

§ 421.1127 Applicability of §§ 421.1126 through 421.1132. Sections 421.1126 through 421.1132 state the eligibility requirements applicable to producers and corn under the 1955 corn price support program with respect to compliance with farm acreage allotments for corn, and are in addition to other regulations to be issued by the Commodity Credit Corporation governing eligibility for price support.

§ 421.1128 Definitions. As used in this subpart and in all instructions, forms and documents in connection herewith, the words and phrases defined in this section shall have the meaning herein assigned to them unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires.

(a) "Farm" means all adjacent or nearby farm or range land under the same ownership which is operated by one person, including also:

(1) Any other adjacent or nearby farm or range land which the county committee determines is operated by the same person as part of the same unit in producing range livestock or with respect to the rotation of crops, and with work-stock, farm machinery, and labor substantially separate from that for any other land; and

(2) Any field-rented tract (whether operated by the same or another person) which, together with any other land included in the farm, constitutes a unit with respect to the rotation of crops.

A farm shall be regarded as located in the county in which the principal dwelling is situated or, if there is no dwelling thereon, it shall be regarded as located in the county in which the major portion of the farm is located.

(b) "Person" means an individual, partnership, association, corporation, estate, trust, or other business enterprise or legal entity, and wherever applicable, a State, political subdivision of a State, or any agency thereof.

(c) "Operator" means the person who is in charge of the supervision and conduct of the farming operations on the entire farm and has an interest in crops produced on the farm.

(d) "Producer" means any person having an interest in the corn crop as landlord, tenant, sharecropper, or farm owner.

(e) "Corn acreage" means the number of acres of land on which field corn, including sweet corn produced for feed or silage, is planted alone or interplanted with other crops. Acreage planted to field corn, as described in the first sentence of this paragraph, in excess of the farm acreage allotment will not be deemed to be corn acreage if, on or before a date established by the county committee and approved by the State committee, the product of such excess acreage (1) is plowed or disced under, or (2) is totally destroyed by causes beyond the control of the operator, unless the operator indicates in writing to the county committee, or an authorized representative thereof, that such destroyed acreage should be classified as corn acreage. The aforementioned date to be established by the county committee shall be not later than the date that corn normally starts to tassle in the county or areas within the county. Unless all producers on a farm have indicated in writing to the county committee that they do not desire price support, the county committee shall mail to the operator on whose farm excess corn acreage has been determined written notice of such final date at least 15 days in advance thereof, together with a notice of the measured acreage. The State ASC Committee shall notify the Director of the Grain Division of the dates established for the county or areas within a county for adjusting corn acreage to the farm acreage allotment.

(f) "Farm acreage allotment" means that corn acreage allotment established for the farm under 7 CFR Part 721—Corn, Subpart—Farm Acreage Allotments for 1955 Crop, as published in the FEDERAL REGISTER under date of November 16, 1954 (19 F. R. 7374).

(g) "Commercial corn-producing area" means the area designated by the Secretary of Agriculture pursuant to section 301 (b) (4) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, and includes all counties in which the average production of corn (excluding corn used for silage) during the 10 calendar years, 1945–54, after adjustment for abnormal weather conditions, is 450 bushels or more per farm and 4 bushels or more for each acre of farm land in the county, and also any county bordering on such commercial corn-producing area which the Secretary finds is likely to produce 450 bushels or more per farm and 4 bushels or more for each acre of farm land in 1955, or in which there is a minor civil division which the Secretary finds is likely to produce 450 bushels or more per farm and 4 bushels or more for each acre of farm land in 1955. The designation of the commercial corn-producing area for 1955 appears in 7 CFR 721.611 (o) (19 F. R. 7374).

§ 421.1129 Compliance requirements; producers—(a) Commercial corn-producing area. (1) A producer shall not be eligible for price support on corn produced in 1955 on a farm in the commercial corn-producing area unless the county committee determines that the 1955 crop corn acreage on such farm is not in excess of the farm acreage allotment: Provided, That if a producer has an interest in the 1955 corn crop produced on more than one farm in the commercial corn-producing area of the State, he shall not be entitled to price support on any corn unless the total of the corn acreage of all such farms in the State does not exceed the total of the farm acreage allotments established for such farms, as determined by the county committee to which application for price support is made: Provided further, That a producer shall not be entitled to price support on any corn if the State committee of the State in which application for price support is made determines that the total of the corn acreage of all farms wherever located in the commercial corn-producing area in which he has an interest exceeds the total of the farm acreage allotments established for such farms.

(2) A producer shall not be eligible for price support on corn produced on a farm for which a farm acreage allotment has not been established.

(b) Outside commercial corn-producing area. Compliance with farm acreage allotments will not be a factor in determining the eligibility for price support of producers outside the commercial corn-producing area.

§ 421.1130 Compliance requirements; corn—(a) Commercial corn-producing area. Corn produced in the commercial corn producing area shall not be eligible for price support unless it is produced by a producer eligible for price support on a farm on which the county committee determines that the 1955 crop corn acreage is not in excess of the farm acreage allotment. Corn produced on a farm for which a farm acreage allotment is not established shall not be eligible for price support.

(b) Outside commercial corn-producing area. Compliance with farm acreage allotments will not be a factor in determining the eligibility for price support of corn produced outside the commercial corn-producing area.

§ 421.1131 Effect of unknowingly exceeding farm acreage allotment; method of determination. The corn acreage on a farm shall not be deemed to be in excess of the farm acreage allotment unless the operator knowingly exceeded such allotment. If the farm acreage allotment is, in fact, exceeded, such allotment shall be considered as having been knowingly exceeded unless it is determined by the county committee on the basis of evidence submitted to it that the farm acreage allotment was unknowingly exceeded. The operator of a farm will only be considered to have unknowingly exceeded the farm acreage allotment if through no fault of his (a) the corn acreage(s) was not measured or he was not notified of the measured acreage(s) in time to dispose of the excess acreage in the manner specified in § 421.1128 (e) on or before the date established pursuant to such section, or (b) he received an erroneous notice of his measured acreage and acted in good faith on the basis of such notice, and was not notified of the corrected acreage in time to dispose of the excess acreage in the manner specified in § 421.1128 (e) on or before the date established pursuant to such section, and, with respect to both paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, the operator made a reasonable effort by measuring or otherwise to comply with the farm acreage allotment.

§ 421.1132 Appeals. Any producer who is dissatisfied with any determination of the county committee respecting his compliance or eligibility, may, within 15 days after notification to him of such determination by the county committee, appeal to the State committee in writing. Such appeal should contain all the facts constituting the basis of his claim that the county committee determination is improper.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 30th day of March 1955.

Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Navel Orange Reg. 54]

PART 914—NAVEL ORANGES GROWN IN ARIZONA AND DESIGNATED PART OF CALIFORNIA

LIMITATION OF HANDLING

§ 914.354 Navel Orange Regulation 54—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 14, as amended (7 CFR Part 914; 19 F. R. 2941), regulating the handling of navel oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California, effective September 22, 1953, under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Navel Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such navel oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The Navel Orange Administrative Committee held an open meeting on March 31, 1955, after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for navel oranges and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein was promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such navel oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of navel oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., April 3, 1955, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., April 10, 1955, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: 92,400 boxes;
(ii) District 2: 369,600 boxes;
(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement;
(iv) District 4: Unlimited movement.

(2) Navel oranges handled pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be subject to any size restrictions applicable thereto which have heretofore been issued on the handling of such oranges and which are effective during the period specified herein.

(3) As used in this section, "handled," "boxes," "District 1," "District 2," "District 3," and "District 4" shall have the same meaning as when used in said amended marketing agreement and order.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

Dated: April 1, 1955.

[Orange Reg. 276]

PART 933—ORANGES, GRAPEFRUIT, AND TANGERINES GROWN IN FLORIDA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 933.732 Orange Regulation 276—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 33, as amended (7 CFR Part 933), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, and tangerines grown in the State of Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the committees established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of all Florida oranges, except Temple oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective not later than April 4, 1955. Shipments of all oranges, except Temple oranges, grown in the State of Florida, are presently subject to regulation by grades and sizes, pursuant to the amended marketing agreement and order, and will so continue until April 4, 1955; the recommendation and supporting information for continued regulation subsequent to April 3, 1955, was promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Growers Administrative Committee on March 29; such meeting was held to consider recommendations for regulation, after giving due notice of such meeting, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including the effective time hereof, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter set forth so as to provide for the continued regulation of the handling of all oranges, except Temple oranges, and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of the persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., April 4, 1955, and ending at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., April 18, 1955, no handler shall ship:

(i) Any oranges, except Temple oranges, grown in the State of Florida, which do not grade at least U. S. No. 1 Russet;

(ii) Any oranges, except Temple oranges, grown in the State of Florida, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 288 oranges, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box; or

(iii) Any oranges, except Temple oranges, grown in the State of Florida, which are of a size larger than a size that will pack 150 oranges, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box.

(2) As used in this section, the terms "handler," "ship," and "Growers Administrative Committee" shall each have the same meaning as when used in said amended marketing agreement and order; and the terms "U. S. No. 1 Russet," "standard pack," and "standard nailed box" shall have the same meaning as when used in the revised United States Standards for Florida Oranges (§§ 51.1140 to 51.1186 of this title).

Shipments of Temple oranges, grown in the State of Florida, are subject to the provisions of Orange Regulation 274 (§ 933.728; 20 F. R. 1359).

[Grapefruit Reg. 221]

PART 933—ORANGES, GRAPEFRUIT, AND TANGERINES GROWN IN FLORIDA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 933.733 Grapefruit Regulation 221—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 33, as amended (7 CFR Part 933), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, and tangerines grown in the State of Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the committees established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of grapefruit, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 7 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective not later than April 4, 1955. Shipments of grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, are presently subject to regulation by grades and sizes, pursuant to the amended marketing agreement and order, and will so continue until April 4, 1955; the recommendation and supporting information for continued regulation subsequent to April 3, 1955, was promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Growers Administrative Committee on March 29; such meeting was held to consider recommendations for regulation, after giving due notice of such meeting, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including the effective time hereof, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such grapefruit; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter set forth so as to provide for the continued regulation of the handling of grapefruit; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., April 4, 1955, and ending at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., April 18, 1955, no handler shall ship:

(i) Any white seeded grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, which do not grade at least U. S. No. 1 Russet;

(ii) Any pink seeded grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, which do not grade at least U. S. No. 2;

(iii) Any white seedless grapefruit, grown in "Regulation Area I," which do not grade at least U. S. No. 2;

(iv) Any white seedless grapefruit, grown in "Regulation Area II," which do not grade at least U. S. No. 2 Russet;

(v) Any pink seedless grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, which do not grade at least U. S. No. 2 Russet;

(vi) Any white seeded grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 70 grapefruit, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box;

(vii) Any pink seeded grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 80 grapefruit, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box;

(viii) Any seedless grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 112 grapefruit, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box; or

(ix) Any white seedless grapefruit, grown in "Regulation Area I," that grade U. S. No. 2 Bright, or U. S. No. 2, which are of a size larger than a size that will pack 54 grapefruit, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box.

(2) As used in this section, "handler," "ship," "Growers Administrative Committee," "Regulation Area I," and "Regulation Area II" shall have the same meaning as when used in said amended marketing agreement and order; and the terms "U. S. No. 1 Russet," "U. S. No. 2 Bright," "U. S. No. 2," "U. S. No. 2 Russet," "standard pack," and "standard nailed box" shall have the same meaning as when used in the revised United States Standards for Florida Grapefruit (§§ 51.750 to 51.790 of this title).

[Lemon Reg. 583]

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATIONS OF SHIPMENTS

§ 953.690 Lemon Regulation 583—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR Part 953; 19 F. R. 7175), regulating the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such lemons which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. Shipments of lemons, grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, are currently subject to regulation pursuant to said amended marketing agreement and order; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein was promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Lemon Administrative Committee on March 30, 1955, such meeting was held, after giving due notice thereof to consider recommendations for regulation, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such lemons; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time thereof.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., April 3, 1955, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., April 10, 1955, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: 7 carloads;

(ii) District 2: 318 carloads;

(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement.

(2) As used in this section, "handled," "carloads," "District 1," "District 2," and "District 3" shall have the same meaning as when used in the said amended marketing agreement and order.

TITLE 9—ANIMALS AND ANIMAL PRODUCTS

Chapter I—Agricultural Research Service, Department of Agriculture

Subchapter A—Meat Inspection Regulations

PART 40—IDENTIFICATION SERVICE FOR MEAT AND OTHER PRODUCT

FEES AND CHARGES

Pursuant to the authority of sections 203 and 205 of the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (7 U. S. C. 1622, 1624), and section 520 of the Revised Statutes (5 U. S. C. 511), the Meat Inspection Regulations (9 CFR Chapter I, Subchapter A) as amended, are amended as follows:

Section 40.7 (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) Fees and charges. The fees to be charged and collected for service under the regulations in this part shall be at a uniform hourly rate fixed by the Chief, Meat Inspection Branch, to cover the costs of the service and shall be charged for the time required to render such service, including but not limited to the time required for the travel of the inspector or inspectors in connection therewith during the regularly scheduled administrative workweek.

Finding. The cost of furnishing the identification service must be covered by fees collected from those receiving the service. It is imperative that the billing rate be adjusted without delay whenever it is found necessary to adequately finance the cost. It is found therefore that the notice, public rule making procedure, and effective date requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (Pub. Law 404, 79th Congress, 60 Stat. 237) are impractical and contrary to the public interest with respect to this regulation.

PART 230—GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS SECURITIES ACT OF 1933

SECURITIES EXEMPTED; AMOUNT; CORRECTION

In Part 230 (F. R. Doc. 54-8641) appearing at page 7129 of the November 3, 1954 issue, the amendatory language in paragraph 1 should read as follows:

[F. R. Doc. 55-2725; Filed, Apr. 1, 1955; 8:47 a. m.]

PART 240—GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS, SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

SECURITIES EXEMPTED FROM REGISTRATION

On February 21, 1955 the Commission published a proposal to amend paragraphs (a) and (d) of its § 240.12a-5 (Rule X-12A-5) and to adopt a form for notices given by securities exchanges under the rule. All interested persons were invited to comment thereon. The Commission has considered the comments and suggestions received and has adopted the amendment in the form set out below. Form 26 (17 CFR 249.226) has also been adopted, in the form proposed except that only one copy need be manually signed.

Section 240.12a-5 provides a conditional temporary exemption from registration for certain classes of securities, comprising, generally, securities which the holders of other securities already admitted to trading on an exchange have become entitled to acquire, by operation of law or otherwise, in substitution for, or in addition to, the original security, as in the case of mergers, consolidations, reorganization plans, exchange offers, etc. The rule also provides a conditional temporary exemption from registration for trading in such securities on a when-issued basis before they are issued.

The amendments to paragraph (a) of the rule specifically provide a temporary conditional exemption for transactions on a when-issued basis in additional amounts of a class of security already admitted to trading, as in the case of securities to be issued as a stock dividend or to effect a stock split. This paragraph is also recast and clarified in other respects.

The amendments to paragraph (d) and the adoption of Form 26 provide a simplified procedure for use by exchanges in reporting the admission of securities to trading under the rule.

Paragraphs (b), (c) and (e) of the rule are unchanged.

Statutory basis. The Securities and Exchange Commission has taken the action described in this release pursuant to the provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, particularly sections 3 (a) (12), 12, and 23 (a) thereof, the Commission deeming such action necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors and necessary to carry out its function under the act.

Text of amendments. Paragraphs (a) and (d) of § 240.12a-5 are amended to read as follows:

§ 240.12a-5 Temporary exemption of substituted or additional securities. (a) (1) Subject to the conditions of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, whenever the holders of a security admitted to trading on a national securities exchange (hereinafter called the original security) obtain the right, by operation of law or otherwise, to acquire all or any part of a class of another or substitute security of the same or another issuer, or an additional amount of the original security, then:

(i) All or any part of the class of such other or substituted security shall be temporarily exempted from the operation of section 12 (a) to the extent necessary to render lawful transactions therein on an issued or "when-issued" basis on any national securities exchange on which the original, the other or the substituted security is lawfully admitted to trading; and

(ii) The additional amount of the original security shall be temporarily exempted from the operation of section 12 (a) to the extent necessary to render lawful transactions therein on a "when-issued" basis on any national securities exchange on which the original security is lawfully admitted to trading.

(2) The exemptions provided by subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall be available only if the following conditions are met:

(i) A registration statement is in effect under the Securities Act of 1933 to the extent required as to the security which is the subject of such exemption, or the terms of any applicable exemption from registration under such act have been complied with, if required;

(ii) Any stockholder approval necessary to the issuance of the security which is the subject of the exemption, has been obtained; and

(iii) All other necessary official action, other than the filing or recording of charter amendments or other documents with the appropriate State authorities, has been taken to authorize and assure the issuance of the security which is the subject of such exemption.

(d) The Exchange shall file with the Commission a notification on Form 26 [1] promptly after taking action to admit any security to trading under this section: Provided, however, That no notification need be filed under this section concerning the admission or proposed admission to trading of additional amounts of a class of security admitted to trading on such exchange.

Since the amendments of § 240.12a-5 (Rule X-12A-5) and the adoption of Form 26 are intended to simplify and clarify requirements and procedures under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, they have been declared effective immediately, March 24, 1955, except that any exchange which so desires may give notices to the Commission in the manner provided in paragraph (d) of § 240.12a-5 (Rule X-12A-5) as previously in effect, in lieu of using Form 26, until April 1, 1955.

[1] Copy of Form 26 filed as part of F. R. Doc. 55-1731, 20 F. R. 1254.

(Sec. 23, 48 Stat. 901, as amended, 15 U. S. C. 78w)

By the Commission.

Secretary.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter VI—Department of the Navy

Subchapter D—Procurement, Property, Patents, and Contracts

PART 744—POLICIES AND PROCEDURES FOR THE PROTECTION OF PROPRIETARY RIGHTS IN TECHNICAL INFORMATION PROPOSED FOR RELEASE TO FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS

Sec.
744.1 Purpose.
744.2 Interchange agreements.
744.3 Proprietary information.
744.4 Navy policy.
744.5 Release procedures.
744.6 Problems and reports.
744.7 Action.

AUTHORITY: §§ 744.1 to 744.7 issued under R. S. 1547; 34 U. S. C. 591. Interpret or apply 68 Stat. 832; 22 U. S. C. 1811.

§ 744.1 Purpose. This part prescribes Department of the Navy policies and procedures for the protection of proprietary rights in technical information proposed for release to foreign governments and informs Department of the Navy activities and personnel of certain agreements between the United States and foreign governments for the interchange of patent rights and technical information from which these policies and procedures are in part derived.

§ 744.2 Interchange agreements. In order to facilitate the interchange for defense purposes of patent rights and technical information of a proprietary nature, the United States has entered into certain interchange agreements with the United Kingdom and Italy and is negotiating similar agreements with other foreign countries. These agreements, among other things, are intended to facilitate the interchange of technical information of a proprietary nature by:

(a) Recognizing the rights of owners in such technical information disclosed by the United States Government to foreign governments;

(b) Assuring owners that foreign governments will treat such technical information as disclosed in confidence and that their rights will not be prejudiced; and

(c) Recognizing the right of owners to receive compensation if damage to the owners results from an unauthorized disclosure or use of such information.

§ 744.3 Proprietary information. Proprietary information whether disclosed in equipment, technical reports, drawings, blueprints, or however presented may include patentable or copyrightable subject matter or may include subject matter which is not patentable but is in the exclusive possession of the owner and those in privity with him and is subject to protection as property under recognized legal principles. If damage to the owner results from the unauthorized disclosure of the information by reason of acts of the United States or its officers or employees, the United States Government may be liable.

§ 744.4 Navy policy. In order to provide for the recognition and protection of proprietary rights contained in technical information, however presented, and to minimize any liability for the unauthorized disclosure of proprietary information, technical information known or claimed to be proprietary normally will be released to foreign governments through commercial channels. Where, however, the use of commercial channels might impair the defense program or violate security requirements the use of government channels is authorized for the release of the information.

§ 744.5 Release procedures. Where the use of government channels is required for the release of technical information to foreign governments, the following procedures will be observed in order to provide for the recognition and protection of any proprietary rights and to minimize any liability for the unauthorized disclosure or use of proprietary information.

(a) Unclassified information. In the case of unclassified technical information private sources supplying the information will be notified by publication of this part in the FEDERAL REGISTER that present and future acquisitions by the Navy are subject to release to foreign governments without any further action on the part of the Department of the Navy except where the technical information is known or claimed to be proprietary.

(b) Classified information. In the case of classified technical information private sources supplying the information shall be notified by a separate communication prior to each proposed release to foreign governments and written permission for the release obtained if proprietary rights in the information are claimed. The communication should also include the conditions of release and offer such assistance in filing foreign patent applications as may be appropriate.

(c) Release without consent. Where consent cannot be obtained to the proposed release of classified or unclassified technical information known or claimed to be proprietary, the information may be released to foreign governments if authorized by paragraph (d) of this section without the consent of the owner provided the owner is given:

(1) Notice of the disclosure;

(2) Identity of the recipient unless prevented by security regulations; and

(3) Notice that recipient has been informed, if practicable, that the disclosed information is or may be privately owned and contains or may contain proprietary rights or commercial reservations and is only usable for indicated purposes.

(d) Authorization for release without consent of the owner. (1) Military equipment, including the information essential for its operation, maintenance, and repair, known or claimed to be proprietary and for which consent for release cannot be obtained may be furnished to foreign governments in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (c) of this section without further legal authorization, provided such release is made pursuant to the grant aid provisions of the Mutual Security Act of 1954 (22 U. S. C. 1811 et seq) and provided further, there is no acceptable substitute equipment or information for which consent for release is obtainable or which is not proprietary.

(2) Military equipment, including the information essential for its operation, maintenance, and repair, and any other technical information, known or claimed to be proprietary and for which consent for release cannot be obtained and which is considered for release to a foreign government for purposes other than that set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall not be released in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (c) of this section unless the chief of the bureau or office having primary interest therein, determines that the benefits accruing to the United States from the release clearly warrants the assumption of the financial liability that may be incurred. Authority for determining such benefits shall not be delegated below an assistant or deputy chief of a bureau or office.

§ 744.6 Problems and reports. All patent problems and problems involving proprietary information arising in connection with the release of technical information to foreign governments should be referred to appropriate Navy patent personnel. However, all releases of technical information to foreign governments where consent of the owner could not be obtained and all claims for compensation for the unauthorized disclosure or use of technical information will be reported to the Chief of Naval Research for such action as may be appropriate.

§ 744.7 Action. The Chief of Naval Operations, the Commandant of the Marine Corps and the chiefs of bureaus and offices, Navy Department, are requested to review existing directives, instructions and regulations governing the release of technical information to foreign governments, and where necessary effect appropriate changes to insure that they conform with the policy and procedures stated in this part.

Dated: March 28, 1955.

By direction of the Secretary of the Navy.

IRA H. NUNN,
Rear Admiral, U. S. Navy,
Judge Advocate General of the Navy.

TITLE 33—NAVIGATION AND NAVIGABLE WATERS

Chapter I—Coast Guard, Department of the Treasury

[CGFR 54-32]

PART 8—REGULATIONS, UNITED STATES COAST GUARD RESERVE

PAY, ALLOWANCES, AND COMPENSATION

By virtue of the authority contained in the act of July 9, 1952 (66 Stat. 481) and the act of October 12, 1949, as amended (63 Stat. 764), the following amendments are hereby prescribed and shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

1. Section 8.7106, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 8.7106 Travel and transportation allowances. (a) Officers and enlisted personnel of the Reserve while serving on active duty or active duty for training, with pay, shall be entitled to receive travel, transportation, and other allowances as are prescribed in Joint Travel Regulations.

(b) Officers and enlisted personnel of the Reserve while serving on active duty or active duty for training, without pay, shall be entitled to transportation in kind, or to a monetary allowance in lieu thereof, for travel to and from such duty, and shall be entitled to subsistence en route or reimbursement in lieu thereof as prescribed in the Joint Travel Regulations.

2. Section 8.7107 Travel allowances, enlisted men is deleted in its entirety.

3. Section 8.7111 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 8.7111 Quarters allowances. (a) Officers and enlisted personnel of the Reserve while serving on active duty or active duty for training, with pay, shall be entitled to receive Government quarters or basic allowance for quarters as are prescribed for members of the uniformed services in the act of October 12, 1949, as amended.

(b) Officers and enlisted men of the Reserve while serving on active duty or active duty for training, without pay, shall be entitled to receive quarters in kind or an allowance commuted at the rate prescribed in the act of October 12, 1949, as amended, for members of the uniformed services without dependents.

4. A new § 8.7117 is hereby added as follows:

§ 8.7117 Duty without pay and allowances. Notwithstanding the provisions of §§ 8.7106, 8.7110, and 8.7111, officers and enlisted personnel of the Reserve may, at their own request, perform active duty or active duty for training, without pay and allowances.

(Sec. 501, 63 Stat. 825, as amended, sec. 251, 66 Stat. 495; 37 U. S. C. 301, 50 U. S. C. 1002)

Approved: February 7, 1955.

Chapter I—Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior

Appendix C—Public Land Orders

[Public Land Order 644, Amdt.]

ALASKA

WITHDRAWING CERTAIN LAND AS ADMINISTRATIVE SITE FOR ALASKA ROAD COMMISSION; AMENDMENT

MARCH 29, 1955.

The description of lands withdrawn for use of the Alaska Road Commission by Public Land Order No. 644 of May 9, 1950, appearing in 15 F. R. 2877 of the issue of May 13, 1950, is hereby amended to read as follows:

SEWARD MERIDIAN

T. 12 N., R. 3 W.,
Sec. 33, lots 181 and 202.

The area described contains 6.70 acres.

W. G. GUERNSEY,
Acting Director.

[Public Land Order 1107]

UTAH

REVOKING EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 3743 OF SEPTEMBER 30, 1922

By virtue of the authority vested in the President by section 1 of the act of June 25, 1910, c. 421 (36 Stat. 847; 43 U. S. C. 141), and pursuant to Executive Order No. 10355 of May 26, 1952, it is ordered as follows:

Executive Order No. 3743 of September 30, 1922, temporarily withdrawing the following-described public land in Utah for examination is hereby revoked:

SALT LAKE MERIDIAN

T. 42 S., R. 5 W.,
Sec. 7.

The area described contains 674.36 acres.

The land is grazing land in Kane County, Utah. The topography is rolling and the soil is of a sandy type. Vegetation consists of sage brush and juniper. The land lies at an elevation of 5,600 feet and the average annual precipitation amounts to approximately ten inches.

No application for the restored land may be allowed under the homestead, desert-land, small tract, or any other nonmineral public-land law unless the land has already been classified as valuable or suitable for such type of application, or shall be so classified upon the consideration of an application. Any application that is filed will be considered on its merits. The land will not be subject to occupancy or disposition until it has been classified.

This order shall not otherwise become effective to change the status of the restored land until 10:00 a. m. on the 35th day after the date of this order. At that time the said land shall become subject to application, petition, location and selection, subject to valid existing rights, the provisions of existing withdrawals, the requirements of applicable laws, and the 91-day preference-right filing period for veterans and others entitled to preference under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279-284), as amended.

Veterans' preference-right applications under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279-284), as amended, may be filed on or before 10:00 a. m. on the 35th day after the date of this order, and those covering the same land shall be treated as though simultaneously filed at that time. Applications filed under the act after that time and during the succeeding 91 days shall be considered in the order of filing. Applications by the general public under the public-land laws, filed on or before 10:00 a. m. on the 126th day after the date of this order shall be treated as though simultaneously filed at that time, where the applications are for the same land; otherwise, priority of filing shall govern.

Inquiries regarding the land shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Salt Lake City, Utah.

ORME LEWIS,
Acting Secretary of the Interior.

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter II—Alaska Game Commission, Department of the Interior

PART 161—GUIDES

PART 164—FUR MANAGEMENT AREAS

QUALIFICATIONS FOR GUIDE LICENSES AND ISSUANCE THEREOF; KOYUKUK FUR MANAGEMENT AREA

Basis and purpose. 1. To provide for more exacting qualifications for eligibility for a guide license, and a better means to evaluate such qualifications, also a basis on which to revoke or withhold such licenses from those whose conduct would adversely reflect on the Commission.

2. To redescribe the Koyukuk Fur Management Area so as to include the headwaters of the Kanuti River which area is trapped by the residents of the nearby village of Alatna, in common with adjacent part of the Koyukuk Fur Management Area as formerly described.

1. Section 161.2 is amended to read as follows:

§ 161.2 Qualifications for guide licenses and issuance thereof. (a) Only resident citizens over 21 years of age, of good moral character and who have not evidenced a lack of personal or business integrity related to matters of guiding non-resident hunters, and have resided in the Territory for the 5 years immediately preceding application for registration and a guide license, and who are in sound physical condition and have had practical field experience in the handling of firearms, hunting, judging trophies, first aid, field preparation of trophies, and photography, and who are familiar with the terrain and transportation problems involved in the district for which application for such license is made, and who have further successfully passed oral and written examination prepared by the Commission will be registered and licensed to act as guides for nonresidents and aliens taking big game animals for any purpose, or going afield to photograph large brown or grizzly bears.

(b) The Alaska Game Commission will establish guide districts and maintain a register of such persons as are duly qualified and licensed to act as guides in such districts.

(c) Applications for such registration and guide license shall be made to an enforcement agent employed in the guide district in which the applicant resides, on a form issued by the Commission and shall state applicant's citizenship and resident status, age, physical characteristics, permanent address, and district or districts in which he desires to operate, together with full information relative to his qualifications to act as guide, and shall be subscribed and sworn to by the applicant before an officer authorized to administer oaths.

(d) Upon receipt of such application by the enforcement agent, he shall conduct such written and oral examinations and make such investigations as the Commission shall require to determine the qualifications of the applicant to act as a guide.

(e) The enforcement agent who conducts such examination shall promptly file his report thereof with the executive officer of the Commission, together with his recommendations thereon, which report and recommendation shall be attached to the application and considered and determined at a regular or special meeting of the Commission.

(f) The executive officer of the Commission may, after investigation and satisfying himself of an applicant's qualifications, issue a guide license to him upon payment of the required fee, authorizing him to act as a guide under the terms of the license, subject to approval of the Commission at its next meeting.

(g) A registered guide license must bear the signature of the executive officer of the Commission. Each license shall expire on June 30 next succeeding its issuance, and shall not be transferable.

(h) Each licensed guide shall submit to the Commission, immediately upon completion of a hunting or photographing trip, a separate report on each hunter containing the name and address of the nonresident or alien hunter for whom he or any of his resident assistants acted as guide, period covered by his or his assistant's services, number and species of animals taken, wounded and not secured, numbers and locations of each species of big game animal observed on the trip, and such other information as the Commission may require.

(i) Guide licenses may be revoked or denied for a period of not more than five years at the discretion of the Commission for violation or noncompliance with any provision of § 161.1 and this section.

2. Section 164.1 is amended to read as follows:

§ 164.1 Koyukuk Fur Management Area. (a) There is hereby set aside an area that hereafter, and for the purpose of this section, shall be known as the Koyukuk Fur Management Area, more particularly described as follows: That portion of the drainage into the Koyukuk River which lies between the mouth of Dalby Slough and a point 10 statute airline miles upstream from Alatna.

(b) The seasons and limits on fur animals as prescribed in the annual regulations of the Secretary of the Interior under the Alaska Game Law shall be effective on the Koyukuk Fur Management Area. In that part of the area located within Fur District 6 the seasons and limits as prescribed by the Secretary, and then in effect, and for that district shall be applicable. In the remainder of the aforesaid area those seasons and limits as established for Fur District 7 shall prevail.

(c) No fur animals may be taken except by the methods, means, and numbers provided in the general regulations of the Secretary of the Interior:

(1) No person shall take any fur animal within the Koyukuk Fur Management Area without first having resided within the boundaries of this area continuously for not less than one year; and

(2) Except as to native Indians, Eskimos, and residents under 16 years of age, be in possession of a current resident license to take fur animals in the Territory of Alaska at large.

(Sec. 10, 43 Stat. 744, as amended; 48 U. S. C. 199)

These amendments shall become effective July 1, 1955.

In testimony whereof, we have set our hands and have caused the official seal of the said Commission to be affixed in the City of Juneau, Alaska, this 15th day of February 1955.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Agricultural Marketing Service

[7 CFR Part 1004]

[Docket No. AO-271]

HANDLING OF MILK IN CENTRAL ARIZONA MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF HEARING ON PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held in the YMCA Building, 315 North First Avenue, Phoenix, Arizona, beginning at 10:00 a. m., m. s. t., April 19, 1955.

Subjects and issues involved in the hearing. The hearing is for the purpose of receiving evidence as to the economic and marketing conditions relating to the handling of milk for the Central Arizona marketing area and to the issuance of a marketing agreement and order to regulate the handling of milk in such marketing area. The proposed marketing agreement and order provisions set forth below have not received the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture. At the hearing evidence will be received relative to all aspects of the marketing conditions which are dealt with by the proposals and any appropriate modifications thereof.

The hearing on the proposed marketing agreement and order proposals is to determine whether (1) the handling of milk in the area proposed to be regulated is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate or foreign commerce, (2) the issuance of one or more marketing agreements or orders regulating the handling of milk in the proposed area is justified, and (3) the provisions specified in the proposals or some other provisions (including the possible adoption of provisions for the payment to all producers and associations of producers delivering milk to the same handler of uniform prices for all milk delivered by them, commonly known as "individual-handler pools") appropriate to the terms of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act, as amended, will best tend to effectuate the declared policy of such act.

For the purpose of this hearing the definition for the proposed Central Arizona marketing area shall be all the territory within the counties of Maricopa, Pima, Pinal, Yuma, and Graham, all in the State or Arizona. Various parties submitted proposals to define the marketing area to include the entire State of Arizona. Preliminary investigation, including examination of available information relative to the supply of milk and the distribution of milk throughout the State establishes a fair presumption, at least, that the marketing area for milk produced for sale in the principal fluid milk markets in Arizona may be limited for all practical purposes to the five counties named above.

The intent of the act would best be effectuated by limiting consideration at this time to a marketing agreement and order in which the marketing area is defined as not greater than all the territory within the five counties of Maricopa, Pima, Pinal, Yuma and Graham. However, if evidence adduced at the hearing indicates that it would not be feasible to promulgate an order(s) for this more limited area, or that additional territory should properly be included under any proposed order(s), the hearing will be reopened for the purpose of giving further consideration to appropriate extensions of the marketing area as proposed herein.

Proposal No. 1: The following marketing agreement and order has been proposed by the Arizona Dairymen's League:

DEFINITIONS

SECTION 1. Act. "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as re-enacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended.

SEC. 2. Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture or any officer or employee of the United States who is authorized to exercise the powers and to perform the duties of the Secretary of Agriculture.

SEC. 3. Central Arizona Milk Marketing Area. "Central Arizona Milk Marketing Area" means all territory included within the counties of Maricopa, Pima, Pinal, Yuma and Graham, all in the State of Arizona.

SEC. 4. Person. "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association or any other business unit.

SEC. 5. Producer. "Producer" means any person other than a producer-handler, who produces milk in compliance with Grade A inspection requirements of a duly constituted health authority and whose milk is received at an approved plant or is diverted from an approved plant by the handler who operates such approved plant, or by a cooperative association, to a plant which is not an approved plant for the account of such handler or cooperative association. "Producer" does not mean any dairy farmer with respect to milk received by a handler who is partially exempted from the provisions of this order.

SEC. 6. Approved plant. "Approved plant" means any milk plant:

(a) Approved or recognized by any health authority having jurisdiction within the marketing area for the receipt or processing of Grade A milk and from which Class I milk is disposed of on route(s) in the marketing area;

(b) Supplying to any agency of the United States Government located within the marketing area Class I milk products;

(c) Approved by any health authority having jurisdiction in the marketing area which serves as a receiving station by receiving, weighing, and commingling producer milk and from which such milk is normally transferred to a plant specified in paragraph (a) of this section; and

(d) For the purpose of this definition, milk diverted from an approved plant to an unapproved plant for the account of a cooperative association which does not operate an approved plant shall be deemed to have been received by such cooperative association at an approved plant.

SEC. 7. Handler. "Handler" means:

(a) Any person in his capacity as the operator of an approved plant.

SEC. 8. Cooperative association. "Cooperative association" means any cooperative association of producers which the Secretary determines:

(a) To be qualified under the provisions of the act of Congress of February 18, 1922, as amended, known as the "Capper Volstead Act"; and

(b) To have and to be exercising full authority in the sale of milk to its members.

SEC. 9. Producer-handler. "Producer-handler" means any producer who operates an approved plant, but who receives no milk from other producers.

SEC. 10. Market administrator. "Market administrator" means the person designated pursuant to section 20 as the agency for the administration of this part.

SEC. 11. Producer milk. "Producer milk" means all skim milk and butterfat produced by a producer, which is received at an approved plant either directly from such producer or from other handlers.

SEC. 12. Other source milk. "Other source milk" means all skim milk and butterfat other than that contained in producer milk.

SEC. 13. Route. "Route" means any delivery (including delivery by a vendor or a sale from a plant or a plant store) of milk or any milk product classified as Class I milk pursuant to section 41 (a) other than a delivery to any milk processing plant.

SEC. 14. Base milk. "Base milk" means producer milk received by handlers from a producer during the months of December through June which is not in excess of such producer's daily base determined pursuant to section 90, multiplied by the number of days during the month for which milk was received from such producer.

SEC. 15. Excess milk. "Excess milk" means producer milk received by handlers from a producer which is in excess of base milk received from such producer during the months of December through June of each year.

MARKET ADMINISTRATOR

SEC. 20. Designation. The agency for the administration of this part shall be a market administrator who shall be a person selected by the Secretary. Such person shall be entitled to such compensation as may be determined by, and shall be subject to removal at the discretion of the Secretary.

SEC. 21. Powers. The market administrator shall have the following powers with respect to this part:

(a) To administer its terms and provisions;

(b) To receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violations;

(c) To make rules and regulations to effectuate its terms and provisions; and

(d) To recommend to the Secretary amendments thereto.

SEC. 22. Duties. The market administrator shall perform all duties necessary to administer the terms and provisions of this part, including but not limited to the following:

(a) Within 45 days following the date upon which he enters upon his duties execute and deliver to the Secretary a bond, conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties, in the amount and with surety thereon satisfactory to the Secretary;

(b) Employ and fix the compensation of such persons as may be necessary to enable him to administer its terms and provisions;

(c) Obtain a bond in a reasonable amount and with reasonable surety thereon covering each employee who handles funds entrusted to the market administrator;

(d) Pay out of funds provided by section 87 the cost of his bond and of the bonds of his employees, his own compensation, and all other expenses (except those incurred under section 86) necessarily incurred by him in the maintenance and functioning of his office and in the performance of his duties;

(e) Keep such books and records as will clearly reflect the transactions provided for in this part and surrender the same to his successor or to such other person as the Secretary may designate;

(f) Submit his books and records to examination by the Secretary and furnish such information and reports as the Secretary may request;

(g) Verify all reports and payments by each handler by inspection of such handler's records and of the records of any other handler or person upon whose utilization the classification of skim milk or butterfat for such handler depends;

(h) Publicly announce at his discretion, unless otherwise directed by the Secretary, by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate, the name of any person who, within 10 days after the date upon which he is required to perform such acts, has not:

(1) Made reports pursuant to section 30 through section 32, or

(2) Made payments pursuant to section 80 through section 87;

(i) Publicly announce by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate, the prices determined for each month as follows:

(1) On or before the 5th day of each month, the minimum price for Class I milk computed pursuant to section 51 (a) and the Class I butterfat differential pursuant to section 52 (a) both for the current month; and the minimum price for Class II milk computed pursuant to section 51 (b) and the Class II butterfat differential pursuant to section 52 (b), both for the previous month, and

(2) On or before the 12th day of each month the uniform price computed pursuant to section 71 or section 72 and the butterfat differential computed pursuant to section 81, both for the previous month;

(j) Prepare and disseminate such statistics and information as he deems advisable and as do not reveal confidential information; and

(k) On or before the 12th day of each month, report to each cooperative association which so requests, the percentage utilization of milk received from producers in each class by each handler who in the previous month received milk from members of such cooperative association.

REPORTS, RECORDS AND FACILITIES

SEC. 30. Periodic reports. On or before the 7th day after the end of each month, each handler, except a producer-handler, shall report to the market administrator in the detail and form prescribed by the market administrator, as follows:

(a) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in milk received from producers, and the aggregate quantities of base and excess milk;

(b) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in receipts of milk, and milk products from other handlers;

(c) The quantities of skim milk or skim milk equivalent on a direct ratio and butterfat contained in receipts of other source milk (except Class II products disposed of in the form in which received without processing or packaging by the handler);

(d) The utilization of all skim milk and butterfat the receipt of which is required to be reported to this section;

(e) The pounds of skim milk and butterfat contained in all milk, skim milk and cream and other Class I products on hand at the beginning and at the end of the months; and

(f) Such other information with respect to the receipts and use of milk as the market administrator may request, including the separate statement of skim milk and butterfat disposed of as Class I milk on routes outside the marketing area.

SEC. 31. Payroll reports. On or before the 20th day after the end of each month, each handler shall submit to the market administrator his producer payroll for such month which shall show for each producer:

(a) His total deliveries of base milk and total deliveries of milk in excess of base milk, and the number of days for which milk was received from each producer;

(b) The average butterfat content of his milk; and

(c) The amount of such handler's payments to such producer and cooperative association with the prices, deductions and charges involved.

SEC. 32. Other reports. (a) Each producer-handler shall make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator shall require; and

(b) Each handler who causes milk to be diverted to an unapproved plant shall, prior to such diversion, report to the market administrator and to the cooperative association of which such producer is a member, of his intention to divert such milk, the proposed date or dates of such diversion and the plant to which such milk is to be diverted.

SEC. 33. Records and facilities. Each handler shall maintain and make available to the market administrator or to his representative during the regular hours of business such accounts and records of his operations and such facilities as are necessary for the market administrator to verify or establish the correct data with respect to:

(a) The receipts of producer milk and other source milk and the utilization of such receipts;

(b) The weights and tests for butterfat and other content of all milk, skim milk, cream and milk products handled;

(c) Payments to producers and cooperative associations; and

(d) The pounds of skim milk and butterfat contained in or represented by all milk, skim milk, cream and each milk product on hand at the beginning and at the end of each month.

SEC. 34. Retention of records. All books and records required under this part to be made available to the market administrator shall be retained by the handler for a period of three (3) years to begin at the end of the calendar month to which such books and records pertain: Provided, That if, within such three-year period, the market administrator notified the handler in writing that the retention of such books and records, or specified books and records, is necessary in connection with a proceeding under section 8c (15) (A) of the act or a court action specified in such notice, the handler shall retain such books and records, until further written notice from the market administrator. In either case, the market administrator shall give further written notification to the handler promptly, upon the termination of the litigation or when the records are no longer necessary in connection therewith.

CLASSIFICATION

SEC. 40. Skim milk and butterfat to be classified. All skim or skim equivalent and butterfat received within the month by a handler which is required to be reported pursuant to section 30 shall be classified by the market administrator pursuant to the provisions contained in section 41 through section 46.

SEC. 41. Classes of utilization. Subject to conditions set forth in section 43 and section 44 classes of utilization shall be:

(a) Class I milk shall be all skim milk (including reconstituted skim milk) and butterfat (1) disposed of in the form of milk, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk, flavored milk drinks, cream, cultured sour cream, any mixture (except bulk ice cream mix) of cream and milk or skim milk, (2) used to produce concentrated (including frozen) milk, flavored milk or flavored milk drinks disposed of for fluid consumption neither sterilized nor in hermetically sealed cans, and (3) all other skim milk and butterfat not specifically accounted for as Class II milk; and

(b) Class II milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat (1) used to produce any product other than those specified in paragraph (a) of this section; (2) disposed of for livestock feed; (3) in frozen cream placed in storage; (4) in skim milk dumped, after prior notification to and opportunity for verification by the market administrator; (5) in shrinkage up to two (2) percent of receipts from producers; (6) in shrinkage of other source milk; and (7) in inventory at the end of the month in the forms specified in paragraph (a) (1) and (2) of this section.

SEC. 42. Shrinkage. The market administrator shall prorate shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat classified in Class II milk between the receipts of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in milk from producers and from other sources. For the purpose of prorating shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat, skim milk and butterfat in milk diverted directly from producers' farms to another handler shall be included as a receipt of the handler to whom such milk and butterfat was diverted, and excluded from receipts of the diverting handler.

SEC. 43. Responsibility of handlers and reclassification of milk. (a) All skim milk and butterfat shall be Class I milk unless the handler who first receives such skim milk or butterfat can prove to the market administrator that such skim milk or butterfat should be classified otherwise; and

(b) Any skim milk or butterfat classified as Class II milk shall be reclassified if such skim milk or butterfat is later disposed of by such handler or another handler (whether in original or other form) as Class I milk. Any skim milk or butterfat which was classified as Class II in the previous month pursuant to section 41 (b) (7) shall be reclassified as Class I milk if it is subtracted in the current month from Class I pursuant to section 46 (a) (3) or the corresponding step of section 46 (b).

SEC. 44. Transfers. Skim milk and butterfat transferred or diverted from an approved plant shall be classified:

(a) At the class mutually indicated in writing to the market administrator by both handlers on or before the 7th day after the end of the month in which such transaction occurred, otherwise as Class I milk, if transferred or diverted in the form of milk, skim milk or cream to the approved plant of another handler, subject in either event to the following conditions:

(1) The receiving handler has utilization in such class of an equivalent amount of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, and

(2) Such skim milk or butterfat shall be classified so as to allocate to producer milk the greatest possible total Class I utilization in the two plants;

(b) As Class I milk if transferred in the form of milk, skim milk or cream to a producer-handler;

(c) As Class I milk if transferred or diverted in the form of milk, skim milk or cream to an unapproved plant located more than 200 miles from the approved plant by the shortest highway distance as determined by the market administrator, except that (1) cream so transferred may be classified as Class II milk if its utilization as Class II milk is established through the operation of another Federal order for another milk marketing area; or (2) cream so transferred with prior notice to the market administrator, and with each container labeled or tagged with a certificate of the transferor that such cream is sold as "Grade C cream for manufacturing only", may be classified as Class II milk, subject to such verification of alternative utilization as the market administrator may make;

(d) As Class I milk, if transferred or diverted in the form of milk, skim milk or cream to an unapproved plant distributing fluid milk or cream and located less than 200 miles from the approved plant from which transferred, unless the market administrator is permitted to audit the records of receipts and utilization at such unapproved plant, in which case, the classification of all skim milk and butterfat received at such unapproved plant shall be determined and the skim milk and butterfat transferred from the approved plant shall be allocated to the highest use remaining after subtracting, in series beginning with Class I milk, receipts of skim milk and butterfat at such unapproved plant from dairy farmers who the market administrator determines constitute the regular source of supply for fluid usage of such unapproved plant in markets supplied by such plant, and

(e) As Class II milk, if transferred or diverted in the form of milk, skim milk or cream to an unapproved plant, located not more than 200 miles from the approved plant, and which does not distribute fluid milk or cream, except that where such unapproved plant is operated by a person who is also a handler or an affiliate of a handler, (1) the market administrator shall be permitted to audit the records of receipts and utilization at such unapproved plant, and (2) to the extent that skim milk or butterfat so transferred or diverted to such unapproved plant shall be classified as if moved directly from the approved plant to such other milk plant.

SEC. 45. Computation of the skim milk and butterfat in each class. For each month, the market administrator shall correct for mathematical and for other obvious errors the report of receipts and utilization submitted by each handler and shall compute the pounds of skim milk and butterfat in Class I and Class II milk for such handler.

SEC. 46. Allocation of skim milk and butterfat classified. After making the computation pursuant to section 45 the market administrator shall determine the classification of milk received from producers as follows:

(a) Skim milk shall be allocated in the following manner:

(1) Subtract from the total pounds of skim milk in Class II the pounds of skim milk determined pursuant to section 41 (b) (5),

(2) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk, in series beginning with Class II, the pounds of skim milk in receipts of other source milk,

(3) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in series beginning with Class II, the pounds of skim milk in inventory, at the beginning of the month in the form of milk, skim milk, cream (except frozen) or any product specified in section 41 (a).

(4) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in each class the skim milk received from other handlers in the form of skim milk according to its classification as determined pursuant to section 44 (a),

(5) Add to the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II the pounds of skim milk pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, and

(6) (a) If the remaining pounds of skim milk in both classes exceed the pounds of skim milk received from producers, subtract such excess from the remaining pounds of skim milk in series beginning with Class II milk. Any amount so subtracted shall be called "overage";

(b) Butterfat shall be allocated in accordance with the same procedure outlined for skim milk in paragraph (a) of this section; and

(c) Determine the weighted average butterfat content of the Class I and Class II milk computed pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

MINIMUM PRICES

SEC. 50. Basic formula price to be used in determining Class I prices. The basic formula price to be used in determining the price per hundredweight for Class I milk shall be the higher of the prices computed pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

(a) The average of the basic or field prices per hundredweight reported to have been paid or to be paid for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received from farmers during the month at the following plants or places for which prices have been reported to the market administrator or to the Department divided by 3.5 and multiplied by 4.0:

Present Operator and Location

Borden Co., Mount Pleasant, Mich.
Carnation Co., Sparta, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., Hudson, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., Wayland, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., Coopersville, Mich.
Borden Co., Orfordville, Wis.
Borden Co., New London, Wis.
Carnation Co., Richland Center, Wis.
Carnation Co., Oconomowoc, Wis.
Pet Milk Co., New Glarus, Wis.
Pet Milk Co., Belleville, Wis.
White House Milk Co., West Bend, Wis.
White House Milk Co., Manitowoc, Wis.

(b) The price per hundredweight computed by adding together the plus values pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph:

(1) From the simple average, as computed by the market administrator, of the daily wholesale selling prices (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of Grade A (92-score) bulk creamery butter per pound at Chicago as reported by the Department during the month subtract 3 cents, add 20 percent thereof and multiply by 4.0, and

(2) From the simple average, as computed by the market administrator, of the weighted averages of carlot prices per pound for nonfat dry milk solids, spray and roller process, respectively, for human consumption, f. o. b. manufacturing plants in the Chicago area, as published for the period from the 26th day of the immediately preceding month through the 25th day of the current month by the Department, deduct 5.5 cents, multiply by 8.5, and then multiply by 0.96.

SEC. 51. Class prices. Subject to the provisions of Section 52, the minimum prices per hundredweight to be paid by each handler for milk received at his plant from producers during the month shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk. The basic formula price for the preceding month plus $3.05 for all months of the year, provided that for all producer milk received at an approved plant located in Pima County, the sum of thirty-six (36) cents per hundredweight shall be added to this price; and

(b) Class II milk. The price per hundredweight shall be the average of the basic or field prices per hundredweight reported to have been paid or to be paid for milk of 3.8 percent butterfat content received from farmers during the month at the following plants or places for which prices have been reported to the market administrator or to the Department divided by 3.8 and multiplied by 4:

Present Operator and Location

Danish Creamery Association, Fresno, Calif.
King County Creamery Association, Lemmore, Calif.
Dairyman's Cooperative Creamery, Tulare, Calif.
Milk Producers Association of Central California, Modesto, Calif.
Los Vanos Dairymen's Association, Los Vanos, Calif.
East-West Dairymen's Association, Newman, Calif.

SEC. 52. Handler butterfat differential. If the average butterfat test of Class I milk or Class II milk as calculated pursuant to section 46 is more or less than 4 percent, there shall be added to, or subtracted from, as the case may be, the price for such class of utilization for each one-tenth of one percent that such average butterfat test is above or below 4 percent, a butterfat differential computed by multiplying the simple average as computed by the market administrator of the daily wholesale selling price per pound (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of Grade A (92-score) bulk creamery butter at Chicago as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture during the month specified below by the applicable factor listed, and rounding to the nearest one-tenth cent:

(a) Class I milk. Multiply such price for the preceding month by 1.35; and

(b) Class II milk. Multiply such price for the current month by 1.25.

SEC. 53. Use of equivalent price. If for any reason, a price quotation required by this order for computing class prices or for other purposes is not available in the manner described, the market administrator shall use a price determined by the Secretary to be equivalent to the price which is required.

APPLICATION OF PROVISIONS

SEC. 60. Producer-handlers. Sections 40 through 46, 50 through 52, 70, 71, 72 and 80 through 88 shall not apply.

DETERMINATION OF UNIFORM PRICE

SEC. 70. Net pool obligations of handlers operating approved plants. The net pool obligation for milk received during each month by each handler from producers at approved plants shall be a sum of money computed as follows:

(a) Multiply the pounds of milk in each class by the applicable respective prices and add together the resulting amounts;

(b) Add an amount computed by multiplying the pounds of overage deducted from each class pursuant to section 46 (a) (6) by the applicable respective class prices;

(c) Add a reclassification charge computed at a rate equal to the difference between the Class I and Class II prices for the current month for skim milk and butterfat in inventory which is subtracted from Class I pursuant to section 46 (a) (3) and the corresponding step of section 46 (b), which is not in excess of the skim milk and butterfat, respectively, remaining in Class II milk in the previous month pursuant to section 46 (a) (4) and the corresponding step of section 46 (b); and

(d) Add a reclassification charge computed at a rate equal to the difference between the Class I and Class II prices for the current month for other source milk disposed of as Class I milk during the month or reclassified pursuant to section 43 (b).

SEC. 71. Computation of uniform prices for base milk and excess milk. For each of the months of December through June of each year, the market administrator shall compute the uniform prices per hundredweight for base milk and excess milk as follows:

(a) Combine into one total the values computed pursuant to section 70 for all handlers who made the reports prescribed in section 30 and who made the payments pursuant to section 80 and section 83 for the preceding month;

(b) Add an amount equal to not less than one-half of the unobligated cash balance in the producer-settlement fund;

(c) Subtract if the average butterfat content of the milk included in these computations is greater than 4 percent or add if such average butterfat content is less than 4 percent an amount computed by multiplying the amount by which the average butterfat content of such milk varies from 4 percent by the butterfat differential computed pursuant to section 81 and multiplying the resulting figure by the total hundredweight of such milk;

(d) Compute the total value on a 4 percent butterfat basis of the excess milk included in these computations by multiplying the hundredweight of such milk not in excess of the total quantity of Class II milk included in these computations by the price of Class II milk of 4 percent butterfat content, multiplying the hundredweight of such milk in excess of the total hundredweight of such Class II milk by the price of Class I milk of 4 percent butterfat content and adding together the resulting amounts;

(e) Divide the total value of excess milk obtained in paragraph (d) of this section by the total hundredweight of such milk and adjust to the nearest cent. The resulting figure shall be the uniform price for excess milk of 4 percent butterfat content received from producers;

(f) Subtract the value of excess milk obtained in paragraph (d) of this section from the value of all milk obtained in paragraph (c) of this section and adjust to any amount involved in adjusting the uniform price of excess milk to the nearest cent;

(g) Divide the amount obtained in paragraph (f) of this section by the total hundredweight of base milk included in these computations: Provided, That if during any month the total amount of base milk on the market is in excess of the amount of Class I sales during that month, the established base of each producer for that month shall be reduced pro rata to equal the volume of the Class I sales during that month; and

(h) Subtract not less than four (4¢) cents nor more than five (5¢) cents from the amount computed pursuant to paragraph (g) of this section. The resulting figure shall be the uniform price for base milk of 4 percent butterfat content received from producers.

SEC. 72. Computation of uniform price. For each of the months of July through November of each year, the market administrator shall compute the uniform price per hundredweight for milk of 4 percent butterfat content received from producers as follows:

(a) Combine into one total the values computed pursuant to section 70 for all handlers who made the reports prescribed in section 30 and who made the payments pursuant to section 80 and section 83 for the preceding month;

(b) Add not less than one-half of the cash balance on hand in the producer-settlement fund less the total amount of the contingent obligations to handlers pursuant to section 85;

(c) Subtract if the average butterfat content of the milk included in these computations is greater than 4 percent, or add if such average butterfat content is less than 4 percent an amount computed by multiplying the amount by which the average butterfat content of such milk varies from 4 percent by the butterfat differential computed pursuant to section 81 and multiplying the resulting figure by the total hundredweight of such milk;

(d) Divide the resulting amount by the total hundredweight of milk included in this computation; and

(e) Subtract not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents from the amount computed pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section. The resulting figure shall be the uniform price for milk of 4 percent butterfat content received from producers.

PAYMENTS

SEC. 80. Time and method of payment. Each handler operating an approved plant shall make payment as follows:

(a) On or before the 15th day after the end of the month during which the milk was received, to each producer for whom payment is not made pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section, at not less than the applicable uniform prices computed pursuant to section 71 or section 72 adjusted by the butterfat differential computed pursuant to section 81, and less the amount of the payment made pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section. If by such date, such handler has not received full payment pursuant to section 84, he may reduce his total payments uniformly to all producers by not more than the amount of the reduction in payment by the market administrator. He shall, however, complete such payments pursuant to this paragraph not later than the date for making such payments next following receipt of the balance from the market administrator;

(b) On or before the 27th day of each month, to each producer for whom payment is not made pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section, for milk received from him during the first 15 days of such month, at the approximate value of such milk;

(c) (1) Upon receipt of a written request from a cooperative association which the market administrator determines is authorized by its members to collect payment for their milk and receipt of a written promise to reimburse the handler the amount of any actual loss incurred by him because of any improper claim on the part of the cooperative, each handler shall (i) pay to the cooperative association on or before the 13th and 27th day of each month, in lieu of payments pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, respectively, an amount equal to the gross sum due for all milk received from certified members, less amounts owing by each member-producer to the handler for supplies purchased from him on prior written order or as evidenced by a delivery ticket signed by the producer, (ii) submit to the cooperative association on or before the 10th day of each month written information which shows for each member-producer (a) the total pounds of milk received during the preceding month, (b) the total pounds of butterfat contained in such milk, (c) the number of days on which such milk was received, (d) the amount of base and excess milk received and (e) the amounts withheld by the handler in payment for supplies sold, and (iii) submit to the cooperative association on or before the 25th day of each month written information which shows for each such member-producer the total pounds of milk received during the first 15 days, of the current month. The foregoing payment and submission of information shall be made with respect to milk of each producer whom the cooperative association certifies is a member, which is received on and after the first day of the calendar month next preceding receipt of notice from the cooperative association of a termination of membership or until the original request is rescinded in writing by the cooperative association, and

(2) A copy of each such request, promise to reimburse and certified list of members shall be filed simultaneously with the market administrator by the cooperative and shall be subject to verification at his discretion, through audit of the records of the cooperative association, pertaining thereto. Exceptions, if any, to the accuracy of such certification by a producer claimed to be a member, or by a handler shall be made by written notice to the market administrator and shall be subject to his determination.

SEC. 81. Producer butterfat differential. In making payments pursuant to section 80 (a), there shall be added to or subtracted from the uniform prices per hundredweight for each one-tenth of one percent that the average butterfat content is above or below 4 percent an amount computed by multiplying by 1.30 the simple average, as computed by the market administrator, of the daily wholesale selling prices per pound (using the midpoint of any range as one price) of Grade A (92-score) bulk creamery butter at Chicago as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture during the month and rounded to the nearest one-tenth cent.

SEC. 82. Producer-settlement fund. The market administrator shall establish and maintain a separate fund known as the "producer-settlement fund" into which he shall deposit all payments made by handlers pursuant to section 83 and section 85, and out of which he shall make all payments to handlers pursuant to section 84 and section 85: Provided, That the market administrator shall offset any such payment due to any handler against payments due from such handler. Immediately after computing the uniform price for each month, the market administrator shall compute the amount by which each handler's net pool obligation is greater or less than the sum obtained by multiplying the hundredweight of milk of producers by the appropriate prices required to be paid producers by handler, pursuant to section 80 and adding together the resulting amounts, and shall enter such amount on each handler's account as such handler's pool debit or credit, as the case may be, and render such handler a transcript of his account.

SEC. 83. Payments to the producer-settlement fund. On or before the 13th day after the end of each month, each handler shall pay to the market administrator for payment to producers through the producer-settlement fund, the amount by which the net pool obligation of such handler is greater than the sum required to be paid producers by such handler pursuant to section 80.

SEC. 84. Payments out of the producer-settlement fund. (a) On or before the 12th day after the end of each month, the market administrator shall pay to each handler for payment to producers the amount by which the sum required to be paid producers by such handler pursuant to section 80 is greater than the net pool obligation of such handler: Provided, That the market administrator may withhold payments to handlers out of the producer-settlement fund to the extent that such handler is in default on payments to the market administrator under sections 83, 86 and 87; and

(b) If the balance in the producer-settlement fund is insufficient to make all payments pursuant to this paragraph, the market administrator shall reduce uniformly such payments and shall complete such payments as soon as the necessary funds are available.

SEC. 85. Adjustment of errors in payments. (a) Whenever verification by the market administrator of reports or payments of any handler discloses error in payments to the producer-settlement fund made pursuant to section 83, the market administrator shall promptly bill such handler for any unpaid amount and such handler shall, within five (5) days of such billing, make payment to the market administrator of the amount so billed. Whenever verification by the market administrator of the payment by a handler to any producer discloses payment to such producer of any amount which is less than is required by this part, the handler shall make up such payment to the producer not later than the time of making payment to producers next following the disclosure; and

(b) Whenever verification by the market administrator of the payment by a handler to any producer discloses that solely through error in computation, payment to such producer was in an amount more than was required to be paid pursuant to section 80, no handler shall be deemed to be in violation of section 80, if he reduces his payment to such producer next following discovery of such error by not more than such overpayment.

SEC. 86. Marketing services. (a) Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, each handler shall deduct five (5¢) cents per hundredweight, or such lesser amount as the Secretary may prescribe, from the payments made to each producer other than himself pursuant to section 80 (a) with respect to all milk of such producer received by such handler during the month and shall pay such deductions to the market administrator on or before the 15th day after the end of such month. Such monies shall be used by the market administrator to verify weights, samples and tests of milk received from and to provide market information to such producers. The market administrator may contract with a cooperative association or cooperative associations for the furnishing of the whole or any part of such services; and

(b) In the case of producers for whom a cooperative association is actually performing, as determined by the Secretary, the services set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, each handler shall make such deductions from the payments to be made directly to producers pursuant to section 80 (a) as are authorized by such producers, and on or before the 12th day after the end of each month, pay over such deductions to the association of which such producers are members. Such payment shall be accompanied by a statement showing for each producer for which such deduction is made the amount of such deduction, the total delivery of milk, and unless otherwise previously provided, the butterfat test.

SEC. 87. Expense of administration. As his pro rata share of the expense of the administration of this part, each handler with respect to all milk received from producers including a handler's own production and with respect to all receipts of other source milk classified as Class I, shall pay to the market administrator, on or before the 15th day after the end of each month, an amount not exceeding five (5¢) cents per hundredweight, which amount shall be determined by the market administrator subject to review by the Secretary.

SEC. 88. Termination of obligation. The provisions of this section shall apply to any obligation under this part for the payment of money.

(a) The obligation of any handler to pay money required to be paid under the terms of this part shall, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, terminate two years after the last day of the calendar month during which the market administrator receives the handler's utilization report on the milk involved in such obligation, unless within such two-year period, the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that such money is due and payable.

Service of such notice shall contain, but need not be limited to, the following information:

(1) The amount of the obligation,

(2) The month(s) during which the milk, with respect to which the obligation exists, was received or handled, and

(3) If the obligation is payable to one or more producers or to the association of producers, the name of such producer(s) or association of producers, or if the obligation is payable to the market administrator, the account for which it is to be paid;

(b) If a handler fails or refuses, with respect to any obligation under this part, to make available to the market administrator or his representative all books and records required by this part to be made available, the market administrator may within the two-year period provided for in paragraph (a) of this section, notify the handler in writing of such failure or refusal. If the market administrator so notifies a handler, the said two-year period with respect to such obligation shall not begin to run until the first day of the calendar month following the month during which all such books and records pertaining to such obligation are made available to the market administrator or his representative; and

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, a handler's obligation under this part to pay money shall not be terminated with respect to any transaction involving fraud or willful concealment of a fact, material to the obligation, on the part of the handler against whom the obligation is sought to be imposed.

BASE RATING

SEC. 90. Determination of daily base. (a) Effective December 1, 1955, through June 30, 1956, and the same months of each succeeding year, the daily average base of each producer who regularly delivered milk to a handler for ninety (90) days or more during the preceding August 1 through November 30 shall be computed by the market administrator by dividing the total pounds of milk received by a handler from such producer during such months by the number of days within the period for which such producer made deliveries of milk in such months, or ninety (90), whichever is greater; and

(b) The daily average bases of producers belonging to a cooperative association as defined in section 8 and which requested payment from the handler pursuant to section 80 (c) shall be added together for the purpose of computing the total amount of base and excess milk for which each handler shall pay such cooperative association.

SEC. 91. Base rules. The following rules shall apply in connection with the establishment of bases:

(a) A base shall apply to deliveries of milk by the producer for whose account that milk was delivered during the base forming period; and

(b) Bases may be transferred by notifying the market administrator in writing before the last day of any month that such base is to be transferred to the person named in such notice. Person, as used in this paragraph, shall include a cooperative producers association as defined in section 8.

EFFECTIVE TIME, SUSPENSION OR TERMINATION

SEC. 100. Effective time. The provisions of this part, or any amendment to this part, shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended, or terminated, pursuant to section 101.

SEC. 101. Suspension or termination. Any or all of the provisions of this part, or any amendment to this part, may be suspended or terminated as to any or all handlers after such reasonable notice as the Secretary shall give and shall, in any event, terminate whenever the provisions of the act cease to be in effect.

SEC. 102. Continuing power and duty of the market administrator. (a) If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions of this part, there are any obligations arising under this part the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any handler, by the market administrator, or by any other person, the power and duty to perform such further acts shall continue, notwithstanding such suspension or termination: Provided, That any such acts required to be performed by the market administrator shall, if the Secretary so directs, be performed by such other person, persons, or agency as the Secretary may designate; and

(b) The market administrator, or such other person as the Secretary may designate, shall (1) continue in such capacity until removed, (2) from time to time account for all receipts and disbursements and when so directed by the Secretary deliver all funds on hand, together with the books and records of the market administrator, or such person, to such person as the Secretary shall direct, and (3) if so directed by the Secretary execute assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to vest in such person full title to all funds, property and claims vested in the market administrator or such person pursuant thereto.

SEC. 103. Liquidation after suspension or termination. Upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions of this part, the market administrator or such person as the Secretary may designate, shall if so directed by the Secretary, liquidate the business of the market administrator's office and dispose of all funds and property then in his possession or under his control, together with claims for any funds which are unpaid or owing at the time of such suspension or termination. Any funds collected pursuant to the provisions of this part, over and above the amounts necessary to meet outstanding obligations and the expenses necessarily incurred by the market administrator or such person in liquidating such funds, shall be distributed to the contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

SEC. 110. Separability of provisions. If any provision of this subpart or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the application of such provisions and of the remaining provisions of this subpart to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

SEC. 111. Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this subpart.

Copies of this notice of hearing may be procured from the Hearing Clerk, Room 112, Administration Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., or may be there inspected.

Dated: March 29, 1955.

FREQUENCY ALLOCATIONS; CERTAIN PUBLIC RADIO-COMMUNICATION SERVICES; MARITIME SERVICES; PUBLIC SAFETY AND INDUSTRIAL RADIO SERVICES

EXTENSION OF TIME FOR FILING COMMENTS

In the matter of amendment of Parts 2, 6, 11, and 16 of the Commission's rules to reduce separations between assignable frequencies in the 25–50 Mc and 152–162 Mc bands.

Amendment of Parts 2, 6, 7, 8, 10, 11 and 16 of the Commission's rules to reflect conditions concerning international interference in the band 25–50 Mc.

Amendment of Part 6, 10, 11 and 16 of the Commission's rules to provide for the establishment of narrow band technical standards.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 25th day of March 1955:

The Commission having under consideration the comments filed in the above entitled proceedings by the National Committee for Utilities Radio requesting a 60-day extension of time from March 28, 1955, in which to file comments directed to the Commission's Notice of Proposed Rule Making in this docket;

It appearing that good and sufficient reasons have been advanced by the National Committee for Utilities Radio in its request for an extension of time in which to file comments, and that the public interest would be served by a grant of that request;

It is ordered, That the time for filing comments in the above entitled proceedings is hereby extended from March 28, 1955, to May 27, 1955.

Released: March 25, 1955.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[18 CFR Part 154]

[Docket No. R-144]

RATE SCHEDULES AND TARIFFS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

MARCH 23, 1955.

1. Notice is hereby given of proposed rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. On December 17, 1954, the Commission issued its Order No. 174–B prescribing regulations governing the filing of rate schedules and applications for certificates of public convenience and necessity by producers and gatherers of natural gas which are also natural gas companies.

3. The Commission had been urged to limit the applicability of the Natural Gas Act to those operators selling natural gas in interstate commerce after processing and gathering when they were acting for other working interests which were not operators. Accordingly, the following paragraph was added to § 154.91 under which an operator is permitted to file in those situations where the purposes of the statute as to certificate requirements and rate-fixing may be made effective, without calling for separate filings by those having working interests but who are not operators, although such other interests are permitted to file if they care to do so:

(b) The filings with regard to all sales required under § 154.92, § 154.94 and § 157.23 may be made by (1) an operator of one or more wells under co-ownership, (2) an operator where a group of producers are unitized for production and sale, or (3) an operator of a plant processing natural gas and located in the producing area of the gas which it processes and the payments by such operator to the producers represent a percentage of the proceeds of the sale thereof by the operator. Where filings are made by an operator under this paragraph, the parties to the operating arrangement, and those producers who sell to the processing plant described in clause (3) herein, need not file hereunder. When a filing is made by an operator under clauses (1) or (2) herein, he shall submit therewith (i) a list of all persons having working interests involved in the sale of natural gas covered by his filing, (ii) a list of the parties to the operating arrangement, and (iii) a statement of their percentage of their interests. When a filing is made under clause (3) herein, the operator shall file a list of the producers from whom the natural gas is purchased, showing the percentage received by each from the sales. The operator filing hereunder shall submit every twelve months thereafter a statement showing any changes in the several respects since the list was previously submitted.

4. The permissive filing feature of this paragraph, under which an operator may elect either to file for nonoperating working interests as well as for its own opeartions, or to limit its filing only to its own operations, has led to some uncertainty and to misinterpretation of the purpose of this rule, especially in those instances where the operator and the nonoperating working interests are not in agreement, or where the nonoperating working interests do not have a contract to sell natural gas to an interstate pipeline company.

5. It may be in the public interest and may more effectively carry out the purposes of the Natural Gas Act to require operators to file under the circumstances outlined in the above paragraph (b) and to include in each such application all of the natural gas of nonoperating working interests which may be covered by and included within the contracts of the operator for each particular transaction involved.

6. This rule is proposed to be issued pursuant to the authority granted to the Federal Power Commission by the Natural Gas Act, as amended, particularly sections 4, 7, and 16 thereof (52 Stat. 830, 56 Stat. 83; 15 U. S. C. 717c, 717f, and 717o).

7. Any interested person may submit to the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 30 days from the date of the publication of this notice by the FEDERAL REGISTER, data, views and comments in writing concerning the proposed amendments. The Commission will consider these written submittals before acting upon the proposed amendments. An original and nine copies should be filed of any such submittals.

[SEAL] LEON M. FUQUAY,
Secretary.

Part 154—Rate Schedules and Tariffs of Subchapter E, Regulations under the Natural Gas Act, Chapter I of Title 18, Code of Federal Regulations, is amended by changing paragraph (b) of § 154.91 to read as follows:

§ 154.91 Applicability. * * *

(b) The filings with regard to all sales required under §§ 154.92, 154.94 and 157.23 of this chapter shall be made by (1) an operator of one or more wells under co-ownership, (2) an operator where a group of producers are unitized for production and sale, and (3) an operator of a plant processing natural gas and located in the producing area of the gas which it processes and the payments by such operator to the producers represent a percentage of the proceeds of the sale thereof by the operator. Where filings are made by an operator under this paragraph, the parties to the operating arrangement, and those producers who sell to the processing plant described in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph shall not file hereunder. When a filing is made by an operator under subparagraph (1) or (2) of this paragraph, he shall submit therewith (i) a list of all persons having working interests involved in the sale of natural gas covered by his filing, (ii) a list of the parties to the operating arrangement, and (iii) a statement of the percentage of their interests. When a filing is made under subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, the operator shall file a list of the producers from whom the natural gas is purchased, showing the percentage received by each from the sales. The operator filing hereunder shall submit every 12 months thereafter a statement showing any changes in the several respects since the list was previously submitted.

REDELEGATION OF AUTHORITY WITH RESPECT TO CONSTRUCTION, SUPPLY AND SERVICE CONTRACTS AND NEGOTIATING CONTRACTS FOR SERVICES OF ENGINEERING AND ARCHITECTURAL FIRMS

MARCH 29, 1955.

Order No. 566 (19 F. R. 3971) is amended and revised to read as follows:

SECTION 1. Redelegation of authority and designation of contracting officers. The authority delegated to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs by the Secretary of the Interior in Order 2783 (20 F. R. 425) to negotiate, without advertising, in accordance with Title III of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949, as amended (41 U. S. C. 251 et seq.) under section 302 (c) (4) of that act, contracts for services of engineering and architectural firms and Order 2509, as amended, pertaining to construction, supply and service contracts, irrespective of the amounts involved, is redelegated to each of the following officials: The Assistant Commissioner, Administration; the Area Directors; and the Chief, Branch of Buildings and Utilities. Each of those officials is also designated as and is authorized to perform the duties of Contracting Officer.

SEC. 2. Authorized representative of Contracting Officers. The Chief, Branch of Buildings and Utilities, with respect to negotiated contracts for services of engineering and architectural firms and construction, supply and service contracts entered into by the Assistant Commissioner, Administration, and the Assistant Chiefs, Branch of Buildings and Utilities and the Chiefs of the Architectural, Contract, Civil-Sanitary Engineering, Electrical Engineering, and Mechanical Engineering Sections of such Branch with respect to such contracts entered into by the Assistant Commissioner, Administration, or the Chief, Branch of Buildings and Utilities, are severally designated as the authorized representatives of the Contracting Officer as such term is used in such contracts, and are severally authorized to perform the duties of the Contracting Officer except with respect to those functions relating:

(a) To the termination of a contract;

(b) To disputes concerning questions of fact which are not disposed of by agreement.

SEC. 3. Appeals. An appeal from findings of fact or a decision of a contracting officer shall be made by notice of appeal in writing addressed to the Board of Contract Appeals, Office of the Solicitor, Department of the Interior, Washington 25, D. C., and shall be mailed to or filed with the contracting officer, within the time allowed by the contract. The notice of appeal shall specify the portion of the findings of fact or decision from which the appeal is taken, and the reasons why the findings or decision are deemed erroneous. Immediately upon receipt of the notice of appeal, the contracting officer shall inform the Board by air mail that the appeal has been received. (Regulations governing appeals are published in 19 F. R. 9389).

SEC. 4. Authority of Area Director to redelegate. An Area Director may redelegate the authority delegated to him by section 3 of this order. Each redelegation shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Bureau of Land Management

IDAHO

RESTORATION ORDER (AREA II) UNDER FEDERAL POWER ACT

Pursuant to a determination of May 24, 1950, of the Federal Power Commission, Docket No. DA-397-Idaho, and in accordance with Order No. 541, section 1.5 (d) and 2.0 (a) of the Director of the Bureau of Land Management, approved April 21, 1954, it is ordered as follows:

Subject to valid existing rights and the provisions of existing withdrawal, the following described lands, so far as they are withdrawn or reserved for power purposes by Power Site Reserve No. 120, are hereby opened to entry, subject to the provisions of section 24 of the Federal Power Act of June 10, 1920 (41 Stat. 1075; 16 U. S. C. 818), as amended, and subject to the stipulation that if and when the lands are required wholly or in part for purposes of power development, any structure, machinery, or improvements placed thereon which interfere with such development shall be removed or relocated as may be necessary to eliminate interference with the power development without expense to the United States or its permittees or licensees, and subject to the stipulation that there is reserved to the United States, its successors or assigns, the prior right to use any and all portions of the land:

BOISE MERIDIAN, IDAHO

T. 8 S., R. 30 E.,
Sec. 12, Lot 2, SE¼NW¼.

The areas described total 67.50 acres.

The lands are mainly suitable for public recreation purposes. It is unlikely that they will be classified for any other disposition, but any application that is filed will be considered on its merits. The lands will not be subject to occupancy or disposition until they have been classified.

Effective on the date of publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER, the public lands affected by this order shall be subject to application by the State of Idaho for rights-of-way for public highways or as a source of material for the construction and maintenance of such highways pursuant to section 24 of the Federal Power Act, as amended (16 U. S. C. 1946 ed., Supp., V 818).

This order shall not otherwise become effective to change the status of the described lands until 10:00 a. m. on the 91st day after the date of publication. At that time, the said lands shall become subject to application, petition, location and selection, subject to valid existing rights, the provisions of existing withdrawals, the requirements of applicable laws, and the 90-day preference right filing period for veterans and others entitled to preference under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279-284), as amended.

Information showing the periods during which and the conditions under which veterans and others may file application for these lands may be obtained on request from the Manager, Land Office, Box 2237, Boise, Idaho.

J. R. PENNY,
State Supervisor.

IDAHO

ORDER PROVIDING FOR OPENING OF PUBLIC LANDS

The State of Idaho has certified that the hereinafter-described lands patented to the State under the provisions of section 4 of the act of August 18, 1894 (28 Stat. 422; 43 U. S. C. Sec. 641), as amended, commonly known as the Carey Act, have not been reclaimed as required by the Carey Act and that water is not available for the irrigation of these tracts. The State of Idaho, therefore, has reconveyed the lands to the United States:

BOISE MERIDIAN, IDAHO

T. 11 S., R. 36 E.,
Sec. 1, SW¼NE¼, NW¼SE¼, NE¼SW¼;
Sec. 12, NE¼SE¼.
T. 11 S., R. 37 E.,
Sec. 19, NE¼NE¼, E½SE¼, NW¼SE¼;
Sec. 20, W½NW¼.

The areas described total 400 acres.

The lands described are situated in Idaho Grazing District No. 2, and are located northwest of Downey, Idaho, at an elevation of about 4,800 feet. The topography is generally level, but the lands occupy benches of different levels separated by broken steep slopes. The soils are mainly loams to clay loams with considerable gravel and rock content. Vegetative cover is primarily grass with considerable gravel and rock content.

Although some of the land is of arable character, the local annual precipitation is normally too low for successful crop production by dry-farming methods. Apparently, there is no known water supply for the irrigation of these lands. The lands are isolated from other public lands, and are best suited for disposal under the public sale law.

No application for these lands will be allowed under the homestead, desert-land, small-tract, or any other non-mineral public land law, unless the lands have already been classified or shall be so classified upon consideration of an application.

Any application that is filed will be considered on its merits. The lands will not be subject to occupancy or disposition until they have been classified.

This order shall not otherwise become effective to change the status of the described lands until 10:00 a. m. on the 35th day after the date of this order. At that time, the said lands shall become subject to application, petition, location and selection under the applicable public-land laws, subject to valid existing rights, the provisions of existing withdrawals, the requirements of applicable laws and the 91-day preference right filing period for veterans and others entitled to preference under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279-284), as amended. All applications filed pursuant to the Veterans' Preference Act of 1944, on or before 10:00 a. m. of the 35th day after the date of this order shall be treated as though simultaneously filed at that time. All other applications under the public-land laws filed on or before 10:00 a. m. of the 126th day after the date of this order shall be treated as though simultaneously filed at that time.

Inquiries concerning these lands shall be addressed to Manager, Land Office, Box 2237, Boise, Idaho.

J. R. PENNY,
State Supervisor.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

Bureau of Foreign Commerce

KESCO G. M. B. H. ET AL.

ORDER TEMPORARILY DENYING EXPORT PRIVILEGES

In the matter of Kesco G. m. b. H., Hans Kessler, Sr., Hans Kessler, Jr., Mainlust Strasse #8, Frankfurt, West Germany, respondents.

In accordance with the provisions of § 382.11 (b) of the Export Control Regulations (Title 15, Chapter III, Subchapter C, Code of Federal Regulations) the Director, Export Control Investigation Staff of the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, United States Department of Commerce, submitted an application, dated March 21, 1955, requesting that an order temporarily denying all United States export privileges be issued against Kesco G. m. b. H., a corporation, and Hans Kessler, Sr. and Hans Kessler, Jr., individually and as officials of the corporation (hereinafter referred to as the Respondents) alleging that there is reasonable cause to believe that the Respondents have violated the Export Control Act of 1949, as amended, and the regulations promulgated thereunder, that such violations may continue unless the Respondents' export privileges are temporarily curtailed, that an investigation in this country and abroad is now pending into their activities relating to United States exports, and that such curtailment is reasonable and necessary to protect the public interest pending the completion of the investigation or of administrative compliance proceedings to be instituted against them.

The matter was thereupon assigned by the Director, Office of Export Supply, to Compliance Commissioner Paul M. Greene to receive and consider the evidence relating to the alleged violations and to make a report and recommendation thereon. The aforesaid evidence was informally presented to the Compliance Commissioner at an ex-parte hearing held by him in Washington, D. C., on March 23, 1955 at which the Director, Export Control Investigation Staff and the Office of the General Counsel appeared by representatives, and the Compliance Commissioner thereafter submitted his report and recommendation.

The Director, Office of Export Supply has examined the evidence considered by the Compliance Commissioner and the Commissioner's report and recommendation, from which he has concluded that such evidence gives reasonable cause to believe that the Respondents made false representations to the Bureau of Foreign Commerce with respect to the ultimate destination and end-use on four (4) ultimate consignee statements signed and submitted by the Respondents to support United States license applications to export borax products valued in excess of $178,000.00 to West Germany and that they thereafter diverted and transshipped 500 metric tons of boric acid and 100 metric tons of borax to Hong Kong and 300 metric tons of borax to Gdynia, Poland, having a total value in excess of $115,000.00, in knowing contravention of the authority of the export licenses and of the ultimate-destination representations previously made. In addition, the evidence shows that the Respondents were uncooperative with and made misleading statements to United States Foreign Service officials in West Germany in connection with a proposed exportation from the United States of 500 tons of boric acid valued at $62,300.00, as a result of which the license application filed in behalf of the Respondents was denied. It discloses further that the Respondents instructed their United States supplier to omit from the shipping documents relating to the shipments of borax and boric acid as aforesaid, and particularly from the bills of lading, the destination control notice required by the export control regulations. The evidence shows also that the Respondents have admitted making the diversions and transshipments to Hong Kong and Poland as aforesaid and that there are strong indications that such transshipments, with the knowledge of the Respondents, were destined for ultimate delivery in prohibited China.

The evidence considered shows further that in addition to having appeared as parties to applications for United States export licenses the Respondents may be parties to further exportations of commodities from the United States pursuant to validated and general license.

The Director, Office of Export Supply has concluded therefore that there is probable cause to believe that the Respondents have violated the Export Control Act of 1949, as amended, and the regulations issued thereunder, and may continue to violate the same to the detriment of the United States security and economy unless they are estopped from participating further in United States exportations of commodities pending the ultimate disposition of formal charges.

The Director, Office of Export Supply has concluded further that the temporary denial of Respondents' United States export privileges is reasonable and necessary to protect the public interest, is justified by the evidence considered, is in accord with Bureau of Foreign Commerce policy, and that the Compliance Commissioner's recommendation, as appears below, is fair and reasonable and should be adopted.

Now, to achieve effective enforcement of the export control law and regulations: It is hereby ordered:

(1) All outstanding validated export licenses held by or issued in the names of the Respondents, or any of them, or in which they appear or participate as purchaser, intermediate or ultimate consignee, or otherwise, are hereby revoked and shall be returned forthwith to the Bureau of Foreign Commerce for cancellation.

(2) The Respondents, and each of them, their successors or assigns, directors, officers, partners, representatives, agents, and employees, are hereby denied all privileges of participating directly or indirectly in any manner, form or capacity in an exportation of any commodity or technical data from the United States to any foreign destination, including Canada. Without limitation of the generality of the foregoing, participation in an exportation shall include and prohibit said respondents' and such other persons' and firms' participation (a) as a party or as a representative of a party to any validated export license application; (b) in the obtaining or using of any validated or general export license or other export control document; (c) in the receiving, ordering, buying, selling, using, or disposing in any foreign country of any commodities in whole or in part exported from the United States; and (d) in the financing, forwarding, transporting, or other servicing of exports from the United States.

(3) Such denial of export privileges shall apply not only to the named Respondents, but also to any person, firm, corporation, or business organization with which they, or any of them, may be now or hereafter related by ownership, control, position of responsibility, or other connection in the conduct of trade involving exports from the United States or services connected therewith.

(4) This order shall take effect on the date appearing below and shall remain in effect until the administrative compliance proceedings now under preparation by the Bureau of Foreign Commerce against said Respondents, or any of them, shall be ultimately determined and disposed of, except insofar as this order may be hereafter extended, amended, or modified in accordance with the provisions of the export control regulations.

(5) No person, firm, corporation, or other business organization, within the United States or elsewhere, and whether or not engaged in trade relating to exports from the United States, shall, without prior disclosure of the facts to, and specific authorization from, the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, directly or indirectly in any manner, form, or capacity (a) apply for, obtain, transfer, or use any license, shipper's declaration, bill of lading, or other export control document relating to any exportation of commodities from the United States, or (b) order, receive, buy, use, dispose of, finance, transport, forward, or otherwise service or participate in an exportation from the United States, or in a reexportation of any commodity exported from the United States, with respect to which any of the persons or companies within the scope of paragraphs (2) and (3) herein above have any interest or participation of any kind or nature, direct or indirect.

(6) A certified copy of this order shall be served upon the named Respondents by registered mail.

(7) In accordance with the provisions of § 382.11 (c) of the export control regulations, the Respondents, or any of them, may move at any time prior to the entry of a final order of suspension to vacate or modify this temporary suspension order by filing an appropriate motion therefor, supported by evidence, with the Compliance Commissioner and may request oral hearing thereon, which, if requested, shall be held before the Compliance Commissioner at Washington, D. C. at the earliest possible date.

Dated: March 29, 1955.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Office of the Secretary

SOUTH DAKOTA

DESIGNATION OF ADDITIONAL AREA FOR PRODUCTION EMERGENCY LOANS

For the purpose of making production emergency loans pursuant to section 2 (a) of Public Law 38, 81st Congress (12 U. S. C. 1148a-2 (a)), as amended, it is determined that in Perkins County in the State of South Dakota, a production disaster has caused a need for agricultural credit not readily available from commercial banks, cooperative lending agencies or other responsible sources.

Pursuant to the authority as set forth above, such loans will not be made in Perkins County in the State of South Dakota after June 30, 1955, except to borrowers who previously received such assistance.

Also, for the purpose of making emergency loans pursuant to Public Law 727, 83d Congress, it is determined that in Perkins County in the State of South Dakota there is a need for agricultural credit which cannot be met for a temporary period from commercial banks, cooperative lending agencies, the Farmers Home Administration under its regular programs, or under Public Law 38, 81st Congress (12 U. S. C. 1148a-2 (a)), as amended, or other responsible sources.

Pursuant to the authority as set forth above, such loans will not be made in Perkins County in the State of South Dakota after June 30, 1955.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 29th day of March 1955.

[SEAL] TRUE D. MORSE,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. G-8445]

CITIZENS GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

MARCH 29, 1955.

Take notice that Citizens Gas Company (Applicant), an Illinois corporation, address Tuscola, Illinois filed on February 7, 1955, an application pursuant to section 7 (a) of the Natural Gas Act for an order directing Trunkline Gas Company (Trunkline) to extend and improve its transportation facilities, to establish physical connection of its transportation facilities with the facilities of Applicant's proposed natural gas distribution system in the City of Arcola, Illinois, and its environs, and to sell sufficient natural gas to Applicant to meet the fifth year natural gas requirements of Arcola and its environs.

Applicant proposes to interconnect its facilities with those of Trunkline by means of 17,200 feet of 4-inch pipe extending due west of Arcola. The annual natural gas requirements of Arcola are estimated to be 26,763 Mcf for the first year of operation and 76,383 Mcf for the fifth year. Its first year peak day requirement is estimated at 248 Mcf and its fifth year estimated peak day requirement is 719 Mcf.

Estimated cost of the facilities Applicant proposes to construct is $198,204. Applicant proposes to finance the project by a $100,000 issue of 4 percent first mortgage bonds and $100,000 of 5 percent convertible debentures.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before the 20th day of April 1955. The application is on file with the Commission for public inspection.

SOUTHERN PRODUCTION CO., INC.

NOTICE FIXING DATE OF HEARING

MARCH 29, 1955.

Southern Production Company, Inc. (Applicant), a Delaware corporation with its principal office in Fort Worth, Texas, filed an application on August 27, 1954, and supplements thereto on September 20, 1954, and October 18, 1954, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act authorizing the Applicant to sell natural gas (24 sales) to Southern Natural Gas Company, United Gas Pipe Line Company, Tennessee Gas Transmission Company, Arkansas Fuel Oil Corporation, Magnolia Petroleum, Texas Gas Transmission Corporation, Kansas-Nebraska Natural Gas Company, Gaylord Container Corporation, Consolidated Gas Utilities Company, Barnhart Hydrocarbon Corporation, Lone Star Gas Company, Arkansas Louisiana Gas Company, Phillips Petroleum Company, Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully represented in the application which is on file with the Commission, and open for public inspection. Notice of the filing of the application was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER September 21, 1954 (19 F. R. 6071).

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by section 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on April 14, 1955, at 9:30 a. m., e. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before April 4, 1955. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

J. E. JUMONVILLE

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

In the matter of J. E. Jumonville, Plaquemine, Louisiana, order to show cause why the license for radiotelephone station WE-3373 should not be revoked; Docket No. 11304.

There being under consideration the matter of certain alleged violations of the Commission's rules in connection with the operation of Station WE-3373 licensed to J. E. Jumonville, Plaquemine, Louisiana, aboard the vessel Quarter Boat Four.

It appearing that notices of violation of the Commission's rules in connection with the operation of the station were given the licensee as follows:

(a) Notice dated September 1, 1954, specifying failure to identify by call letters (August 20, 1954, 1456 GMT) in violation of § 8.364 (a) of the rules (47 CFR 8.364 (a)).

(b) Notice dated October 7, 1954, specifying failure to respond to the above Official Notice of Violation, in violation of § 8.601 (a) of the rules.

It further appearing that, despite further notices calling attention to the foregoing notices of violation, no satisfactory explanation of the alleged violations has been received from the licensee:

It is ordered, This 24th day of March 1955, pursuant to the provisions of section 312 (c) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, that the said J. E. Jumonville, Plaquemine, Louisiana, show cause why the aforementioned license should not be revoked and appear and give evidence in respect thereto at a hearing[1] to be held before this Commission at Washington, D. C., on the 17th day of May 1955.

It is further ordered, That the Secretary send a copy of this Order to the licensee by Registered Mail—Return Receipt Requested.

Released: March 25, 1955.

[1] Section 1.402 of the Commission's rules provides that in order to have the opportunity to appear before the Commission at the time and place specified in the order to show cause, the licensee shall within thirty (30) days from the date of the receipt of this order submit a written statement informing the Commission whether said licensee will appear at this hearing and present evidence upon the matter specified, or whether the rights to such a hearing are waived. Waiver of the hearing may be accompanied by a statement setting forth the reasons why the licensee believes that an order of revocation should not be issued. A waiver unaccompanied by such a statement will be deemed to be an admission of the allegations specified in the order to show cause. Failure to respond to this order within the above-mentioned thirty (30) day period or failure to appear at the hearing will be deemed to be a waiver of the right to a hearing and an admission of the allegations specified in the order to show cause.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 1-128]

CITY SPECIALTY STORES, INC.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION TO WITHDRAW FROM LISTING AND REGISTRATION, AND OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

MARCH 29, 1955.

In the matter of City Specialty Stores, Inc., 4½ Percent Convertible Preferred Stock, $50 Par Value, File No. 1-128.

The above named issuer, pursuant to section 12 (d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-12D2-1 (b) promulgated thereunder, has made application to withdraw the specified security from listing and registration on the American Stock Exchange.

The reasons alleged in the application for withdrawing this security from listing and registration include the following:

City Stores Company has come to own over 86 percent of the 42,982 outstanding preferred shares of the applicant and public holders of record numbered only 122 on the last record date (October 29, 1954).

Practically all of the recent transactions in this issue on the American Stock Exchange have been purchases by City Stores Company or by City Specialty Stores, Inc. Only one transaction has been reported on this Exchange in 1955 to date, viz: 150 shares bought by the applicant for its sinking fund.

The rules of the American Stock Exchange with respect to delisting have been complied with, and this Exchange will not appear before the Commission in opposition to this application.

The applicant will continue to file reports with the Commission pursuant to section 15 (d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Upon receipt of a request, on or before April 15, 1955, from any interested person for a hearing in regard to terms to be imposed upon the delisting of this security, the Commission will determine whether to set the matter down for hearing. Such request should state briefly the nature of the interest of the person requesting the hearing and the position he proposes to take at the hearing with respect to imposition of terms. In addition, any interested person may submit his views or any additional facts bearing on this application by means of a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. If no one requests a hearing on this matter, this application will be determined by order of the Commission on the basis of the facts stated in the application and other information contained in the official file of the Commission pertaining to the matter.

BELL AIRCRAFT CORP.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR UNLISTED TRADING PRIVILEGES, AND OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

In the matter of application by the Boston Stock Exchange for unlisted trading privileges in Bell Aircraft Corporation, Common Stock, $1 Par Value; File No. 7-1671.

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 29th day of March 1955.

The Boston Stock Exchange pursuant to section 12 (f) (2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-12F-1 thereunder, has made application for unlisted trading privileges in the Common Stock, $1 Par Value, of Bell Aircraft Corporation, a security listed and registered on the New York Stock Exchange. Rule X-12F-1 provides that the applicant shall furnish a copy of the application to the issuer and to every exchange on which the security is listed or already admitted to unlisted trading privileges. The application is available for public inspection at the Commission's principal office in Washington, D. C.

Notice is hereby given that, upon request of any interested person received prior to April 15, 1955, the Commission will set this matter down for hearing. In addition, any interested person may submit his views or any additional facts bearing on this application by means of a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D. C. If no one requests a hearing on this matter, this application will be determined by order of the Commission on the basis of the facts stated in the application, and other information contained in the official file of the Commission pertaining to this matter.

CITY SPECIALTY STORES, INC.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION TO WITHDRAW FROM LISTING AND REGISTRATION, AND OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

MARCH 29, 1955.

In the matter of City Specialty Stores, Inc., Common Stock, $1 Par Value; File No. 1-128.

The above named issuer, pursuant to section 12 (d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-12D2-1 (b) promulgated thereunder, has made application to withdraw the specified security from listing and registration on the American Stock Exchange.

The reasons alleged in the application for withdrawing this security from listing and registration include the following:

City Stores Company has come to own over 98 percent of the 810,104 outstanding common shares of the applicant and public holders of record numbered only 96 at last record date (October 29, 1954).

Practically all of the recent transactions in this issue on the American Stock Exchange have been purchases by City Stores Company. There have been no transactions reported on this Exchange in 1955 to date.

The rules of the American Stock Exchange with respect to delisting have been complied with, and this Exchange will not appear before the Commission in opposition to this application.

The applicant will continue to file reports with the Commission pursuant to section 15 (d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Upon receipt of a request, on or before April 15, 1955, from any interested person for a hearing in regard to terms to be imposed upon the delisting of this security, the Commission will determine whether to set the matter down for hearing. Such request should state briefly the nature of the interest of the person requesting the hearing and the position he proposes to take at the hearing with respect to imposition of terms. In addition, any interested person may submit his views or any additional facts bearing on this application by means of a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. APPALACHIAN ELECTRIC POWER CO. AND AMERICAN GAS AND ELECTRIC CO.

ORDER REGARDING SALE OF UTILITY ASSETS

MARCH 29, 1955.

American Gas and Electric Company, a registered holding company, and Appalachian Electric Power Company ("Appalachian"), its public-utility subsidiary company, having filed with this Commission a declaration, as amended, pursuant to section 12 (d) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") and Rule U-44 promulgated thereunder regarding a proposed transaction which is summarized as follows:

Appalachian proposes to sell to Pocahontas Fuel Company, Inc., a non-affiliated company, certain lines, transformers and conversion equipment, virtually all of which are located on property belonging to the purchaser or its affiliated companies in Virginia and West Virginia and which are used exclusively for the delivery of electric energy by Appalachian to said purchaser. The purchase price for the facilities being sold is to be $1,108,136, which represents the depreciated book cost of such facilities (original cost of $1,335,827, less calculated depreciation to December 31, 1954, of $227,691). Said purchase price is payable, without interest, in monthly installments over a period of not to exceed eight and one-half years.

The State Corporation Commission of Virginia and the Public Service Commission of West Virginia have approved the proposed transaction.

Due notice having been given of the filing of said declaration, and a hearing not having been requested of or ordered by the Commission; and the Commission finding that the applicable provisions of the act and the rules promulgated thereunder are satisfied; and the Commission deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interests of investors and consumers that said declaration, as amended, should be permitted to become effective forthwith, except that the Commission deems it inappropriate to approve or disapprove the accounting treatment applicable to the proposed transaction as set forth in the declaration.

It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, that said declaration, as amended, be, and it hereby is, permitted to become effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24: Provided however, That nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute approval or disapproval of the accounting treatment applicable to the proposed transaction as set forth in the declaration herein, as amended.

LEXINGTON FUNDS, INC.

ORDER DECLARING THAT COMPANY HAS CEASED TO BE AN INVESTMENT COMPANY

MARCH 29, 1955.

Lexington Funds, Inc., a Delaware corporation, having filed a Notification of Registration on Form N-8A on March 22, 1954, and having received extensions from time to time for the filing of its Registration Statement on Form N-8B-1; and

Lexington Funds, Inc., having, on March 4, 1955, filed a request that it be permitted to withdraw its Notification of Registration, or that other appropriate action be taken to terminate its registration and its status as a registered investment company, and such company having represented that it has not made any public offering of securities, that it has issued no shares of stock, that it has returned all funds received on account of prospective subscriptions, and that it has not engaged in business as an investment company; and

It appearing appropriate to the Commission that an order be entered finding and declaring that Lexington Funds, Inc., has ceased to be an investment company, and it appearing that, in view of the request by such company and the fact that such company has no securities outstanding, no purpose would be served by issuing a notice prior to the entry of such order, and that such order may properly be issued forthwith;

It is hereby ordered, And the Commission finds and declares that Lexington Funds, Inc., has ceased to be an investment company, and the registration of such company under the Investment Company Act of 1940 shall no longer be in effect, effective forthwith.

NIAGARA SHARE CORP. AND SCHOELLKOPF, HUTTON & POMEROY, INC.

NOTICE OF FILING OF APPLICATION FOR EXEMPTION OF PURCHASE OF SECURITIES DURING EXISTENCE OF UNDERWRITING SYNDICATE

MARCH 29, 1955.

Notice is hereby given that Niagara Share Corporation ("Niagara"), a registered closed-end, non-diversified investment company, and Schoellkopf, Hutton & Pomeroy, Inc. (S. H. & P.), a company engaged in the business of investment banking and a registered broker-dealer, have filed an application pursuant to sections 10 (f) and 17 (b) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("act") for an order of the Commission exempting from the provisions of sections 10 (f) and 17 (a) the proposed purchase by Niagara of not exceeding 5,000 shares of the common stock, $5 par value, of Corning Glass Works, and the sale by S. H. & P. of 1,500 such shares to Niagara.

The application states that of the outstanding securities of S. H. & P., Niagara owns all the preferred stock, consisting of 145,000 shares, and 14,479 shares of common stock (out of a total of 277,771 shares outstanding). Such preferred and common shares each have one vote per share, and accordingly Niagara owns 37.7 percent of the outstanding voting securities of S. H. & P., so that Niagara and S. H. & P. are affiliated persons of each other by definition under section 2 (a) (3) of the act. The two corporations have a common secretary and two common directors, one of whom is President of Niagara and Vice President of S. H. & P.

S. H. & P. expects to be one of the principal underwriters in a group which is underwriting a secondary offering of 464,700 shares of common stock of Corning Glass Works. The total number of shares of Corning Glass Works which S. H. & P. expects to underwrite is 3,000, and the application states that it had planned to distribute those shares to others before it knew of Niagara's desire to purchase such stock. Niagara proposes to acquire 1500 shares from S. H. & P. and the remaining 3500 shares from other underwriters. The 5000 shares proposed to be purchased by Niagara represents approximately 1.1 percent of the total amount of stock of Corning Glass Works now being offered; on the basis of current market quotations, such 5000 shares represent approximately 0.75 percent of the total assets of Niagara.

The public offering will be made at an offering price based on the most recent market quotations of the Corning Glass Works Common Stock on the New York Stock Exchange, and the purchases by Niagara are proposed to be made at the public offering price. S. H. & P. will receive no greater spread on such shares than on shares sold to other persons.

Section 10 (f) of the act provides, among other things, that no registered investment company shall knowingly purchase or otherwise acquire, during the existence of any underwriting or selling syndicate, any security (except a security of which such company is the issuer) a principal underwriter of which is a person of which a director or member of an advisory board is an affiliated person, unless the Commission by order upon application grants an exemption therefrom. Section 17 (a) (1) of the act prohibits, among other things, an affiliated person of a registered investment company, or an affiliated person of such a person, from selling any security to such registered company, subject to certain exceptions not here material, unless the Commission, upon application pursuant to section 17 (b), grants an exemption from the provisions of section 17 (a). Since Niagara and S. H. & P. are affiliated persons of each other, and since certain directors and officers of Niagara are also affiliated persons of S. H. & P., a member of the underwriting group for such stock, the proposed transaction is subject to the provisions of sections 10 (f) and 17 (a).

The application represents that the proposed purchase by Niagara is consistent with its stated investment policies.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than April 12, 1955, at 5:30 p. m., submit to the Commission in writing any facts bearing upon the desirability of a hearing on the matter and may request that a hearing be held, such request stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such communication or request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date, the application may be granted as provided in Rule N-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act.

By the Commission.

TITLE 3—THE PRESIDENT

PROCLAMATION 3088

PAN AMERICAN DAY AND PAN AMERICAN WEEK, 1955

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS April 14, 1955, will be observed in each of the twenty-one Republics of the Western Hemisphere as Pan American Day, celebrating the sixty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Pan American Union, which is the permanent organ and General Secretariat of the Organization of American States; and

WHEREAS the observances commemorating that occasion will take place throughout the week of April 10 to April 16, 1955; and

WHEREAS the bonds of friendship uniting the Governments and peoples of the United States and those of the other American Republics in their social, cultural, political, and economic relationships continue to be strengthened through their mutually constructive efforts within the framework of the Organization of American States; and

WHEREAS during the past year the Republics of this Hemisphere have again demonstrated their mutual and steadfast determination to withstand aggression from any source, to preserve the peace of the Americas, and to use effectively the machinery for pacific settlement provided in the treaties binding them together in the inter-American system:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim Thursday, April 14, 1955, as Pan American Day, and the period from April 10 to April 16, 1955, as Pan American Week; and I urge that the people of this nation on that day and during that week give particular expression to their fraternal feelings toward the peoples of the other American Republics and to their devotion to the maintenance of the principles which we share with them.

I also invite the Governors of the States, Territories, and possessions of the United States and the Governor of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico to issue similar proclamations; and I call upon all our citizens and all interested organizations to unite in appropriate observance of Pan American Day and Pan American Week, in testimony of the solidarity which characterizes the relationship between the peoples of the United States and those of the other American Republics.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this 31st day of March in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and [SEAL] fifty-five, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and seventy-ninth.

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

PROCLAMATION 3089

EXCLUDING CERTAIN LANDS FROM THE GLACIER BAY NATIONAL MONUMENT AND ADDING A PORTION THEREOF TO THE TONGASS NATIONAL FOREST—ALASKA

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS certain lands comprising a portion of the hereinafter-described Gustavus Area of the Glacier Bay National Monument in Alaska, established by Proclamation No. 1733 of February 26, 1925 (43 Stat. 1988), and enlarged by Proclamation No. 2330 of April 18, 1939 (53 Stat. 2534), are now being used as an airfield for national-defense purposes and are no longer suitable for national-monument purposes; and

WHEREAS the other lands within the Gustavus Area, including several homesteads which were patented prior to the enlargement of the monument by the proclamation of April 18, 1939, are suitable for a limited type of agricultural use and are no longer necessary for the proper care and management of the objects of scientific interest on the lands within the monument; and

WHEREAS the lands comprising the hereinafter-described Excursion Inlet Area of the monument were erroneously excluded from the Tongass National Forest and included in the monument by the proclamation of April 18, 1939, and such lands are suitable for national-forest purposes; and

WHEREAS it appears that it would be in the public interest to exclude the said lands comprising the Gustavus Area and the Excursion Inlet Area from the Glacier Bay National Monument, and to restore the lands within the Excursion Inlet Area to the Tongass National Forest:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, President of the United States of America, under and by virtue of the authority vested in me by section 2 of the act of June 8, 1906, c. 3060, 34 Stat. 225 (16 U. S. C. 431), section 24 of the act of March 3, 1891, 26 Stat. 1103 (16 U. S. C. 471), and section 1 of the act of June 4, 1897, 30 Stat. 34, 36 (16 U. S. C. 473), do proclaim (1) that all of the following-described lands in the Territory of Alaska are hereby excluded from the Glacier Bay National Monument and (2) that, subject to all valid existing rights, those lands designated and described as the Excursion Inlet Area are hereby added to and made a part of the Tongass National Forest and shall be subject to all laws, rules, and regulations applicable to that forest:

GUSTAVUS AREA

COPPER RIVER MERIDIAN

secs. 1 to 3 and 9 to 12, inclusive; fractional secs. 13 and 14;
secs. 15 and 16;
fractional secs. 21 to 23, inclusive.
T. 40 S., R. 59 E.,
fractional sec. 3;
secs. 4 to 8, inclusive;
fractional secs. 9, 10, and 16 to 18, inclusive.

Also, a parcel of unsurveyed land described as follows: Beginning at the northwest corner of sec. 1, T. 40 S., R. 58 E., C. R. M.; thence North 7,920 feet;

East 2,640 feet;
South 45° 00′ East to the northeast corner of sec. 6, T. 40 S., R. 59 E., C. R. M.;
West, along the northern boundary of sec. 6, T. 40 S., R. 59 E., and sec. 1, T. 40 S., R. 58 E., C. R. M., to the point of beginning.

Also, all water and islands lying directly south and offshore between the above-described lands and the center of Icy Passage.

The areas described, including both public and nonpublic lands, aggregate approximately 14,741 acres of land and 4,193 acres of water.

EXCURSION INLET AREA

A tract of unsurveyed land described as follows: Beginning at a point on the center line of the principal channel of Excursion Inlet from which Corner No. 1 M. C. of United States Survey No. 666 bears due east; thence Northerly along the center of the principal channel of Excursion Inlet to a point in approximate latitude 58°30′ N., longitude 135°30′ W.;

East to the east shore of Excursion Inlet;
Northeasterly, southeasterly, and easterly, along a subsidiary divide between two streams flowing into Excursion Inlet, to the divide between the waters of Excursion Inlet and Lynn Canal in approximate latitude 58°29′30″ N., longitude 135°20′ W.;
Southerly along said divide to a point in approximate latitude 58°27′ N., longitude 135°18′ W.;
Westerly along a subsidiary divide between two streams flowing into Excursion Inlet to the east shore of said Inlet;
West to the center of the principal channel of Excursion Inlet;
Northerly along the center of the principal channel of Excursion Inlet to the point of beginning.

The area described, including both public and nonpublic lands, aggregates approximately 10,184 acres.

The lands in the above-described Gustavus Area shall not be subject to application, location, settlement, entry, or other forms of appropriation under the public land laws until further order of an authorized officer of the Department of the Interior.

The said Proclamation No. 2330 of April 18, 1939, is amended accordingly.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this 31st day of March in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-five, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and seventy-ninth.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

TITLE 33—NAVIGATION AND NAVIGABLE WATERS

Chapter II—Corps of Engineers, Department of the Army

PART 203—BRIDGE REGULATIONS

INDIANA HARBOR CANAL, IND.

Pursuant to the provisions of section 5 of the River and Harbor Act of August 18, 1894 (28 Stat. 362; 33 U. S. C. 499), § 203.676 governing the operation of drawbridges across Indiana Harbor Canal and the Lake George Branch of Indiana Harbor Canal to and including the Indianapolis Boulevard Bridge, is hereby prescribed as follows:

§ 203.676 Indiana Harbor Canal, Ind.; drawbridges. (a) The owners of or agencies controlling drawbridges across Indiana Harbor Canal and the Lake George Branch of Indiana Harbor Canal to and including the Indianapolis Boulevard bridge, shall provide the appliances and the personnel necessary for the prompt, safe, and efficient operation of the draws for the passage of vessels.

(b) The draw shall be opened promptly when the signal hereinafter prescribed for the opening of the draw is received from an approaching vessel or other watercraft which cannot pass under the closed draw, excepting when an approaching train is so close to a drawbridge that it cannot be stopped safely before reaching the bridge.

(c) Trains and vehicles shall not be stopped on a drawbridge or within a bridge block interlocking system, nor shall any person or persons assemble, walk, stand, or otherwise interfere with the operation of the draw or be permitted to do so, so as to prevent or delay a required opening, nor shall water craft be navigated so as to hinder or delay the operation of or passage of other vessels through the draw, but all passage over or through a drawbridge shall be prompt in order to prevent delay to either land or water traffic.

(d) Signals:

(1) Call signals for opening of draw—(i) Sound signals. One long blast, one short blast, and one long blast of a whistle, horn or siren, sounded within reasonable hearing distance of the bridge, repeated if necessary, and in time to give due notice to the draw tender.

(ii) Visual signals. A white flag by day or a white light by night, swung in vertical circles at arm's length in full sight of the bridge and facing the draw. This signal to be used in conjunction with sound signals when conditions are such that sound signals may not be heard and at other times if considered desirable.

(2) Acknowledging signals—(i) Sound signals—(a) When draw can be opened immediately. One long blast and one short blast of a whistle, horn, or siren.

(b) When draw cannot be opened immediately or when it is open and must be closed immediately. Five short blasts of a whistle, horn, or siren, repeated at regular intervals until similarly acknowledged by the vessel, or until the vessel has been brought to a stop. Thereafter, as soon as the draw can be opened, the draw tender shall sound a signal of one long blast and one short blast of a whistle, horn, or siren.

NOTE: The term "long blast" means a distinct blast of a whistle, horn, or siren of approximately five seconds' duration, and the term "short blast" means a distinct blast of a whistle, horn, or siren of approximately two seconds' duration.

(ii) Visual signals. The systems of visual signals hereinafter described to be used in each individual case will be subject to the approval of the Division Engineer in charge of the locality. They will be used in conjunction with sound signals when conditions are such that sound signals alone are insufficient. When the flashing red and green lights are in use and an operating failure occurs, the flag and lantern signals shall be used during the emergency.

(a) When the draw can be opened immediately. (1) A white flag by day or a white light by night, swung in vertical circles at arm's length in full sight of the vessel, or

(2) Two green lights, flashed alternately, arranged in a vertical plane approximately 48 inches between centers.

(b) When the draw cannot be opened immediately, or when it is open and must be closed immediately. (1) A red flag by day or a red light by night, swung in vertical circles at arm's length in full sight of the vessel, and repeated until acknowledged by a like signal from the vessel. Thereafter, as soon as the draw can be opened the draw tender shall so indicate with a white flag by day or a white light by night, swung in vertical circles at arm's length in full sight of the vessel, or

(2) Two red lights, flashed alternately, arranged in a horizontal plane approximately 48 inches between centers. Thereafter, as soon as the draw can be opened the draw tender shall so indicate by flashing two green lights.

(e) No vessel shall attempt to navigate the draw of a bridge when audible or visual signals indicate the bridge cannot be opened or if the draw is open it must be closed immediately.

(f) When vessels are approaching a bridge from the same direction, each vessel shall give the call signal for the opening of the draw, and such vessels shall be navigated in accordance with the applicable pilot rules.

(g) Special rules for the Elgin, Joliet and Eastern Railway Company bridge, Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company bridge, New York Central Railroad Company bridges (2), and Indiana Harbor Belt Railroad Company bridge:

(1) An amber light shall be located on the lakeward and landward bridges, and readily visible to approaching vessels, and shall be synchronized with a sound signal system so as to light as each signal blast is sounded.

(2) Upon receipt of call signal for opening of the draws, all bridges which do not have a train in the signal block shall be raised immediately.

TITLE 38—PENSIONS, BONUSES, AND VETERANS' RELIEF

Chapter I—Veterans' Administration

PART 21—VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION AND EDUCATION

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

1. Section 21.400 is revised to read as follows:

§ 21.400 Manager, regional office, authorized to approve institutions. The Manager of a regional office is authorized, with the exception of correspondence courses, to approve public or private educational institutions in his territory to provide courses of training under provisions of Part VII, Veterans Regulation 1 (a), as amended (38 U. S. C. ch. 12), subject to the following conditions:

(a) Inspection and accreditation. The chief, vocational rehabilitation and education division, will certify in writing to the Manager on the basis of adequate investigation that the institution is clearly qualified as to space, equipment, instructional material, and personnel to give the course or courses, and that the institution has agreed to cooperate fully with the Veterans' Administration by reporting trainees' attendance, performance, and progress in training.

(1) Adequate investigation will include a personal investigation of the educational institution by a qualified staff member of the education and training activity. Where the educational institution is recommended favorably by the education and training activity for approval under Part VII, the training facilities activity will prepare a contract for Part VII training or amend an existing Part VIII contract to include provisions for Part VII training.

(2) If an educational institution is accredited by one of the following recognized national or regional educational accrediting associations, such accreditation may be accepted, if desired, in lieu of a personal inspection:

Accrediting Association of Bible Institutes and Bible Colleges (Collegiate Division).
American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education.
American Association of Collegiate Schools of Business.
American Association of Theological Schools.
American Bar Association.
American Council on Education for Journalism.
American Council on Pharmaceutical Education.
American Osteopathic Association.
American Public Health Association.
Board of Education for Librarianship of the American Library Association.
Commission on Accreditation of the Council on Social Work Education.
Committee on Professional Training of the American Chemical Society.
Council on Dental Education, American Dental Association.
Council on Education and Professional Guidance of the American Optometric Association.
Council on Education of the American Veterinary Medical Association.
Council on Education of the National Association of Chiropodists.
Council on Medical Education and Hospitals, American Medical Association.
Engineers Council for Professional Development.
Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.
National Architectural Accrediting Board.
National Association of Schools of Music.
National Nursing Accrediting Service.
New England Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.
New York Board of Regents (For Higher Institutions Within New York State).
North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.
Northwest Association of Secondary and Higher Schools.
Society of American Foresters.
Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.
Western College Association.

(b) Use of schools for Part VII training, when the institution has not been approved for use under Part VIII. If it is desired to place a disabled veteran in a school, the name of which is not on the list of institutions approved by the State approving agency for education and training for Part VIII, the Manager will request a statement from the State approving agency indicating whether it has refused to approve the school. If the school has not been disapproved under Part VIII, the Manager may proceed to approve it. If the State approving agency has refused to approve or has disapproved a school for cause for use for Part VIII trainees the Manager shall not thereafter approve such institution for Part VII trainees unless he determines that it is in the best interests of veterans and the government for such approval to be granted or continued. Authority to approve an institution for use for Part VII trainees will not constitute approval for its use under Part VIII.

2. In § 21.418, paragraphs (a) (2), (b) (2), (c) (1), (2) (i) (d), (3) (iii), (iv), (v) and the introductory portion of paragraph (d) are amended and former paragraph (d) (2) (ii) and (3) is deleted and former paragraph (d) (4) is redesignated (d) (3) so that the amended and redesignated material reads as follows:

§ 21.418 Approval and disapproval of educational institutions and business or industrial establishments by State approving agency or Administrator. • • •

(a) • • •

(2) The appropriate State approving agency, or agencies, will transmit direct to the Assistant Deputy Administrator, Vocational Rehabilitation and Education, Washington 25, D. C., the name and address of each educational institution within the State which has been approved to offer correspondence courses under Part VIII and will indicate the specific course or courses for which the institution has been approved to offer training through correspondence. Likewise, the appropriate State approving agency, or agencies, will furnish the Assistant Deputy Administrator, Vocational Rehabilitation and Education, Washington 25, D. C., the names and addresses of any educational institutions offering correspondence courses, approval of which has been withdrawn.

(b) • • •

(2) In requesting the Administrator's approval of establishments to provide training on the job to veterans under Part VIII, as amended, the Manager shall submit to the Assistant Deputy Administrator, Vocational Rehabilitation and Education, the following information and material:

(i) A copy of the application of the establishment to the State approving agency prepared in accordance with the provision of paragraph 11 (b) 1 of Part VIII.

(ii) A statement from the State approving agency as to the basis for determining that the establishment was not to be approved and was not qualified and equipped to furnish training under Part VIII, together with a copy of the survey report upon which the State approving agency's determination was based.

(iii) A summary prepared by the regional office which will clearly set forth the justification for the request to the Veterans' Administration, the recommendation of the regional office, and the basis for such recommendation.

(c) Limitations on the use of educational institutions under Public Law 610, 81st Congress—(1) General. Under the provisions of section 1, Public Law 610, 81st Congress, the Administrator shall disapprove a course in any institution which has been in operation for a period of less than 1 year immediately prior to the date of enrollment in such course unless such enrollment was prior to August 24, 1949, but this shall not require or permit the disapproval of (i) any course in a public school or other tax-supported school, (ii) any course in an institution which has been in operation for a period of more than 1 year which does not completely depart from the whole character of the instruction previously given by such institution, or (iii) any course in an institution which has been in operation for a period of more than 1 year, by reason of a change in the location of such institution from one point to another within the same general locality: Provided, That upon the certification of any State approving agency that a new or existing institution is essential to meet the requirements of veterans in such State, the Administrator, in his discretion, may approve such an institution notwithstanding the provisions of this section.

(i) • • •

(d) A course in an institution which has been in operation for a period of more than 1 year, which course although not having been in operation for a period of 1 year, does not depart completely from the whole character of the instruction previously given by the institution. (A course will be considered not to depart from the whole character of instruction previously given by the institution when it is intended to provide training in the same general occupational field as courses previously furnished by the institution for a period of more than 1 year and involves the same or related instructional processes, facilities, and equipment. For example, a course in television servicing does not depart from the whole character of instruction in radio servicing, whereas a course in carpentry does depart from the whole character of instruction provided in a course of automobile mechanics.), or

• • • • • •

(3) • • •

(iii) Under the provisions of subdivisions (i) and (ii) of this subparagraph, the Administrator, in his discretion, may concur in the State approving agency's certification that a new course in a new or existing institution is essential to meet the requirements of veterans in a particular State. This authority is not delegated to the Managers of field stations. Upon receipt of a certification of essentiality, in duplicate, with supporting information as stipulated in subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph, from the State approving agency, the regional office will review the material submitted and will forward the original copy of same to the Assistant Deputy Administrator, Vocational Rehabilitation and Education, together with the recommendation of the regional office for favorable or unfavorable action by the Administrator and the reasons therefor. It will be the responsibility of the regional office to check such material for completeness prior to submitting it to central office in the manner prescribed in this subdivision.

• • • • • •

(iv) Upon action by the Administrator, the regional office will be promptly notified of such action and, if favorable, the effective date thereof, and the chief, training facilities activity, regional office, will promptly advise the appropriate State approving agency of such action. It will be the responsibility of that State approving agency to notify the school of such action.

(v) Upon receipt by the regional office of notification that the Administrator has concurred in the State's certification of essentiality that a school or course is essential to meet the requirements of veterans in that State, the training facilities activity, regional offices will provide the educational benefits activity of that regional office with a notification of such action, and, where the action is one of concurrence in the State's certification of essentiality, such notification will include information concerning the course(s) to be provided by the school and the effective date of such action.

(d) Disapproval by State approving agency. Where the State approving agency determines that an educational institution, or a course of instruction in an educational institution or an establishment, in which veterans are enrolled under Part VIII is disapproved, and therefore, is removed from the approved list by the State approving agency, appropriate notice, in duplicate, will be provided to the Manager of the regional office concerned. Upon receiving such a notice, the training facilities activity of the regional office will request a statement from the State approving agency, through the Veterans' Administration liaison representative, as to the reason or reasons for such action, if not already provided.

• • • • • •

(2) • • •

(ii) [Deleted.]

(3) In the event that on institution or establishment which has been disapproved for Part VIII by the State approving agency is also approved for training under Part VII and, despite the action of the State approving agency, the Manager is of the opinion that it would be advisable to continue the approval of the institution or establishment for Part VII training he is authorized to continue such approval when he finds that the best interests of the veterans enrolled therein and the best interests of the Government will be served by such continued approval, and the cause for disapproval by the State approving agency for Part VIII training is not such as to bring into question the value of the training offered by such institution or establishment.

• • • • • •

3. In § 21.419, that portion of paragraph (b) preceding subparagraphs (1) and (2) is amended to read as follows:

§ 21.419 Relation to State approving agency. • • •

(b) Full information concerning the inadequacies of any Part VIII institution or establishment approved by the State approving agency which has been called to the attention of the regional office will be immediately transmitted to the training facilities activity for routing to the State approving agency, through the Veterans' Administration liaison representative, for investigation. Upon investigation at the institution or establishment by a qualified representative of the State approving agency, the State approving agency will be requested to submit a report thereof, to the Manager of the regional office.

• • • • • •

4. Section 21.433 is revised to read as follows:

§ 21.433 Payment to institutions. The Manager of a Veterans' Administration regional office is authorized to pay to the approved institution for each eligible veteran enrolled therein for a full-time or part-time course of education or training the proper charge for tuition and incidental fees or other allowable expense and for such books, supplies, and equipment issued to the trainee as are generally required for the successful pursuit and completion of the course by other students in the institution for the period covered by the properly certified voucher or invoice, subject to the provisions of §§ 21.442 through 21.449 and 21.539 for Part VII trainees, and §§ 21.467 through 21.479, 21.484, 21.485, 21.493 through 21.495, 21.503 through 21.511, 21.517 through 21.520, 21.530, 21.532, 21.539, 21.540, 21.548, 21.549, and 21.557 through 21.559, for Part VIII trainees.

5. In § 21.443, paragraph (a) is amended to read as follows:

§ 21.443 Basis of payments for residence courses—(a) Tuition and fees. Contracts covering courses of vocational rehabilitation for Part VII, Veterans Regulation 1 (a), as amended (38 U. S. C. ch. 12), trainees shall provide for payments on one of the following bases, whichever is applicable under the regulations in this part:

(1) "Customary cost of tuition." Where an institution has a "customary cost of tuition" as defined by § 21.467 (a) (1), payment will be made for Part VII trainees on the same basis as the "customary cost of tuition" authorized for payment for Part VIII trainees or on the same basis as the institution charges similarly circumstanced non-veteran students or Public Law 550 veterans. Where an institution is being paid a "customary cost of tuition," (frozen rate(s)) established in accordance with the provisions of § 21.467 (b) (1) or § 21.530 (a) (5) (iv) or a fixed fair and reasonable charge under § 21.495 (b) (2) (i) or § 21.570 (b) (4) (i), and the Manager desires to utilize the institution for the enrollment of veterans under Part VII, and the institution requests payment on behalf of enrollees under Part VII on the same basis as the institution charges similarly circumstanced non-veteran students or Public Law 550 veterans, the Veterans' Administration may not enter into a supplement to the contract then in effect to provide payment on such basis but in any contract negotiated for periods subsequent to expiration of such existing contracts may provide for payment for Part VII trainees on the same basis as charged by the institution to similarly circumstanced non-veteran students or Public Law 550 veterans. Nothing in this paragraph will be construed as authorizing payments in excess of the "frozen" or "fixed" charges for Part VIII trainees, except as otherwise provided in Veterans' Administration regulations.

(2) Fair and reasonable compensation. Where the institution has no "customary cost of tuition" as defined in § 21.467 (a) (1) but requests payment of tuition for Part VII trainees on the basis of a claimed customary charge, payment will be made for Part VII trainees on the same basis as authorized for payment for Part VIII trainees under the provisions of § 21.530 where a fair and reasonable determination is required for Part VIII trainees.

(3) Optional fees. Optional fees for services not required to be paid by all students may be paid for Part VII trainees if the services covered by such fees are considered by the Manager to be necessary for the vocational rehabilitation of the trainee. (Such optional fees are not authorized for Part VIII trainees.)

(4) Special services. The full agreed cost of any special services or courses furnished at the request of the Veterans' Administration may be paid.

• • • • • •

6. Immediately following § 21.443, the cross reference regarding "correspondence courses" is changed as follows:

CROSS REFERENCE: Rates for correspondence courses. (See §§ 21.625 through 21.627.)

7. Section 21.446 Adjustment of tuition payments to nonprofit educational institutions (see limitations in § 21.479) is revoked.

8. In § 21.467, subparagraphs (1) and (3) of paragraph (b) are amended to read as follows:

§ 21.467 Customary cost of tuition. • • •

(b) Frozen tuition rates. (1) In the absence of a customary cost of tuition as defined in paragraph (a) (1) of this section and except for contracts and payments for courses of less than 30 weeks, correspondence courses, institutional on-farm training courses, and adjusted tuition payments to nonprofit institutions pursuant to paragraph 5, Part VIII, Veterans Regulation 1 (a), as amended, the provisions of section 2, Public Law 610, 81st Congress, freeze as the "customary cost of tuition" the tuition rate established in the most recent contract where one or more contracts under Public Law 16, Public Law 346, or any other agreement in writing, on the basis of which tuition payments have been made from the Treasury of the United States, have been entered into in two successive years for the same courses.

* * * * *

(3) In any case where contracts have been entered into prior to July 13, 1950, for two successive years, as set forth in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph, the tuition rate payable from July 13, 1950, on is the rate of the latest contract, even though that contract may have been in 1948 and may not have been on a negotiated or cost data rate basis, except that if the frozen rate was established under Public Law 266, 81st Congress, the frozen rate will be payable from the date of such establishment under Public Law 266, 81st Congress. The effective date of the frozen rate established by contract for new schools or new courses after July 13, 1950, will be the date as of which such rate is frozen under the law and this section.

9. Section 21.468 is revised to read as follows:

§ 21.468 Definition of noprofit institutions. An educational or training institution offering courses of education and training under Part VIII, Veterans Regulation 1 (a), as amended (38 U. S. C. ch. 12), for the purpose of applying the governing statutes and applicable regulation of the Veterans' Administration respecting the payment of tuition and other charges, will be regarded, by virtue of section 3, Public Law 610, 81st Congress, as a nonprofit institution if it is exempt from taxation under section 501, Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (Public Law 591, 83d Congress). Educational institutions which are instrumentalities of a State or a political subdivision thereof, such as State universities and public schools, do not come within the provisions of section 501, Internal Revenue Code of 1954 but are considered by the Internal Revenue Service and the Veterans' Administration as nonprofit institutions by virtue of the nature of such instrumentalities. The same rule will be applied administratively as to Part VII, Veterans Regulation 1 (a), as amended (Public Law 16, 78th Congress).

10. Section 21.469a is revised to read as follows:

§ 21.469a Tuition charges payable for a revised, improved, or new related course. Where an institution having a customary cost of tuition (whether established by the definition or by the "frozen" rate provision of sec. 2, Public Law 610, 81st Congress) for an existing course subsequent to July 13, 1950, revises or improves the existing course (or establishes a new related course) of substantially the same length and character, the revised or related course will be subject to the same customary cost of tuition rate. If the revised or improved course is not of approximately the same length as the former course or if the new related course is not of approximately the same length as the existing course to which the new one is related, a new fair and reasonable rate must be established pursuant to existing regulations.

11. In § 21.469b, subparagraphs (1) and (3) of paragraph (a) are amended to read as follows:

§ 21.469b Interim payments. (a) * * *

(1) During the negotiations for a contract where it is mutually agreed between the Veterans' Administration and the institution that contract negotiations under §§ 21.530 and 21.613 through 21.619 should continue but cannot be concluded within 30 days subsequent to the expiration of the previous contract.

* * * * *

(3) During the pendency of any appeal which the institution may make to the Veterans' Education Appeals Board, the pendency of an appeal to the Veterans' Education Appeals Board for courses of more than 30 weeks or the making of interim payments does not preclude the negotiation of a contract based upon an agreed rate. When contract negotiations are finally concluded, the contract rate will be effective as of the day following the termination of the previous contract or the first day of the period involved, if no previous signed contract existed.

* * * * *

12. In § 21.471, paragraph (b) (2) is amended to read as follows:

§ 21.471 Payments of tuition and fees to nonprofit educational institutions for courses of 30 weeks or more. * * *

(b) Bases of tuition payments. * * *

(2) Adjusted tuition as provided in § 21.479: Provided, That an institution desiring payment of adjusted tuition will apply in accordance with § 21.478 by letter to the Manager of the Veterans' Administration regional office having jurisdiction over the territory in which the institution is located.

* * * * *

13. The following sections are revoked:

§ 21.473 Tuition on the basis of $15 a month, $45 a quarter, or $60 a semester. [Revoked.]

§ 21.474 Adjusted tuition on the basis of the nonresident tuition. [Revoked.]

§ 21.475 Adjusted tuition on basis of estimated cost of teaching personnel and supplies for instruction. [Revoked.]

§ 21.477 Veterans' Administration consideration of request made by educational institution which has no customary fees but has an over-all customary tuition charge (see limitations in § 21.479). [Revoked.]

14. In § 21.478, paragraphs (c), (d), (e), (f), (g) and (h) are deleted.

§ 21.478 Request for adjusted tuition (see limitations in § 21.479). * * *

(c) through (h). [Deleted.]

15. In § 21.479, paragraphs (b) and (c) are amended to read as follows:

§ 21.479 Limitations on payment of adjusted compensation to nonprofit educational institutions. * * *

(b) Beginning with the school year 1953–54, no adjusted tuition will be paid for disabled veterans enrolled in such institutions under Part VII, Veterans Regulation 1 (a), as amended (including veterans under Public Law 894, 81st Congress, as amended). This provision does not prohibit payment for any special services, as authorized elsewhere under Veterans' Administration regulations, where such special services are required, by reason of the veteran's disability, to accomplish rehabilitation.

(c) Beginning with the school year 1953–54 an educational institution which is eligible for adjusted tuition payments for Part VIII veterans and which applies for adjusted tuition payments for the school year 1953–54 and after, will be paid at the rates applicable to the school year 1952–53, and the 1953 summer session, and will not be required nor permitted to receive any other adjusted rate. It is administratively determined that such rate does not exceed the estimated cost of teaching personnel and supplies for instruction.

16. In § 21.494, paragraph (a) is amended to read as follows:

§ 21.494 Basis for payment to all institutions. * * *

(a) Difference in method of determining fair and reasonable compensation when such determination is necessary. (See § 21.530.)

* * * * *

17. In § 21.495, paragraph (b) (2) is amended to read as follows:

§ 21.495 Amount payable by the Veterans' Administration under Part VIII, Veterans Regulation 1 (a), as amended (38 U. S. C. ch. 12), for a course of less than 30 weeks. * * *

(b) * * *

(2) Fair and reasonable charge. Payment on a fair and reasonable basis under either subdivision (i) or (ii) of this subparagraph will be in lieu of all charges for tuition and fees where an educational institution (not including educational institutions of higher learning) does not have a customary cost of tuition under § 21.467 (a) (1).

(i) The Veterans' Administration will pay a fixed fair and reasonable charge as follows: Except for courses provided by nonprofit institutions of higher learning, institutional on-farm training courses, and correspondence courses, in any case wherein a school has entered into one or more contracts for a period or periods in excess of 12 calendar months (see example in § 21.467 (b) (2)) for a course or courses of education or training of less than 30 weeks, the rate of the last contract shall, without further justification, be paid as a fair and reasonable rate for such course or courses. However, the above shall not preclude an educational institution from requesting a fair and reasonable rate under § 21.530 which will be negotiated and allowed by the Veterans' Administration. Each such request by an educational institution will be submitted to the regional office with cost data provided on VA Form 7–1968 for profit institutions and VA Form 7–1969 for nonprofit institutions prepared in accordance with Veterans' Administration regulations. In any case wherein the Manager believes that the last contract rate for tuition, books, or supplies was obtained as a result of fraud or misrepresentation or was in conflict with the governing regulation, the Manager will carefully reexamine such rate, and if the contract is determined to have been invalid, the Manager will take appropriate action including negotiation of a contract on a proper and legal basis.

(ii) The Veterans' Administration will determine and pay fair and reasonable charges (except for institutions of higher learning) where a customary charge does not exist under § 21.467 (a) (1) or a fixed fair and reasonable charge does not exist under paragraph (b) (2) (i) of this section. In such cases the Veterans' Administration will negotiate with the school and determine a fair and reasonable charge under the provisions of § 21.530 and make a contract as required under § 21.570.

* * * * *

18. Section 21.516 Review of charges is revoked.

19. The centerhead immediately preceding § 21.530 is amended to read as follows: "Method of Determining Fair and Reasonable Compensation".

20. In § 21.530, paragraphs (a) (2) (iii), (vii), (5) (iii) (a), (b), (iv), (v), (vi), (b) (2) (vii), (viii) (a) (c), (4), and (d) are amended to read as follows:

§ 21.530 Determination of fair and reasonable compensation—(a) Nonprofit institutions. The provisions of this paragraph are applicable to nonprofit institutions, as defined in § 21.468, where a fair and reasonable rate determination is required, under the provisions of §§ 21.443, 21.471, and 21.495.

* * * * *

(2) Statement of cost data required. * * *

(iii) Depreciation on buildings and equipment. Nonprofit institutions which are not tax-supported may be allowed depreciation at a rate not in excess of 4 percent on the original cost of the buildings used for instruction. If the nonprofit institution does not depreciate equipment for income tax purposes, up to 10 percent per year on the original cost of the equipment necessary for instruction may be accepted in lieu of Internal Revenue Service rates. Depreciation will be allowed on such items as classroom chairs, desks, lathes, large tools, testing machines, and similar equipment used for instructional purposes. Where the items of capital equipment individually are of small value, it is preferable that such items be grouped together, though this will apply only to those items of a similar nature and items valued individually at $50 or less. For example, 300 miscellaneous classroom chairs whose value varies from $5 to $10 each need not be itemized showing individual values, but the total value of all such chairs would be shown as a 1-line item; thus, if the actual total value of such chairs were $2,000, it would be shown as 300 classroom chairs, value—$2,000. Depreciation on equipment used for administrative purposes shall be listed in the schedule of administrative expenses and will not be listed in the items for instructional equipment. (Item 3—schedule C or optional equivalent schedule.) Notwithstanding the foregoing, where substantial sums are involved in the listing of any item or groups of items and it appears that further information is desirable, the Veterans' Administration may require such additional data which is considered necessary for the determination of reasonable depreciation allowances.

* * * * *

(vii) Allowance for administration and supervision. An allowance to cover the cost of supervisory, administrative, and clerical personnel, and the cost of consumable office supplies and other expenses required for administrative and supervisory offices may be made, including, where applicable, the related expenses of the State agency responsible for conducting the course. An amount not in excess of 5 percent of the cost of items in subdivisions (i), (ii), (v), and (vi) of this subparagraph (items 1, 2, 5 and 6 on VA Form 7–1969) may be included to cover those costs without detailed justification, and in such event, Schedule G will reflect the appropriate calculation without supporting details. However, if the institution requests more than 5 percent allowance for administration and supervision, the educational institution will provide complete details in Schedule G. The chief, training facilities activity, is authorized to include in the fair and reasonable cost such amount in excess of 5 percent as the manager determines justified as reasonable and necessary for the conduct of a satisfactory program. (Item 7—Schedule G or optional equivalent schedule.)

* * * * *

(5) Establishment of customary cost of tuition under section 2, Public Law 610, 81st Congress, and adjustment for surplus or deficit. * * *

(iii) Where surplus or deficit exists school may elect to continue regulatory formula. (a) If a surplus or deficit still exists at the end of any contract or adjustment period which occurs on or after the end of the 24 months' period, the rates in all succeeding contracts may be adjusted to absorb the surplus or return the deficit by continued application of the formula set forth in this paragraph or the institution may elect lump sum settlement of surplus or deficit as provided in (b) of this subdivision. Where the school elects to continue the regulatory formula, the contract will contain a clause for adjusting the tuition rates from time to time as desired by either party as follows:

ARTICLE 1 (f). Revision of rates.

(1) The rates of payment in article 1 (c) may be revised from time to time as provided in this article 1 (f).

(2) Within 30 days after the expiration of four or more calendar months, the contractor will advise the Veterans' Administration, in writing, if the contractor desires any revision of the existing rates of compensation. If the Veterans' Administration desires any revision of the existing rates, written notice to that effect will be given to the contractor within 30 days after the expiration of four or more months. At such time as the contractor or the Veterans' Administration desires a revision of rates, the contractor will furnish the Veterans' Administration statements of the actual cost of operation on VA Form 7–1969 for the period beginning with the effective date of the current contract rate and ending with the last day of the most recent month immediately preceding the date of the request for revision. The contractor will permit such inspections of its books and records as the Veterans' Administration may request.

(3) The Veterans' Administration and the contractor will mutually agree upon the revised rate or rates to be effective as of the beginning of the month in which notice as set forth in (2) above was given and any revised rate or rates shall be embodied in a supplemental agreement to this contract and shall continue in effect until the termination of the contract or until subsequently revised in accordance with the provisions of this article.

Where a change in contract rates is desired by either party, the Veterans' Administration and the contractor will negotiate and mutually agree upon the revised rate or rates. Upon agreement between the contractor and the Veterans' Administration as above specified, the contract will be supplemented to amend the tuition rates. At the termination of contractual relationships under this paragraph, where contracts have been continued under the regulatory formula, a final adjustment will be made, both where money is due the Government and where it is due the school.

(b) At the end of any contract or contract adjustment period a surplus or deficit which resulted from the payment of the agreed fair and reasonable rate of compensation may be settled on a lump-sum basis, provided that appropriate adjustment has been or is made for surpluses or deficits for all previous periods, including surplus which may have been on hand on March 1, 1949. The institution will submit to the regional office on VA Form 7–1969 a certified statement of actual costs and actual hours of instruction for which the institution is entitled to be paid for the period of the most recent contract. Allowable costs will include only those provided in the cost formula in this paragraph. Each such VA Form 7–1969 will include a statement on schedule K, part 2, of the surplus or deficit for the entire period between the effective date of the first contract under this paragraph and the termination date of the most recent contract plus any surplus determined as of March 1, 1949. These cost data will also be used for the determination of a new fair and reasonable rate to be included in the next contract. In no case will compensation for a deficit be made in an amount which when added to the fair and reasonable tuition and other charges for fees, books, and supplies result in the payment of a rate in excess of either the rate of $500 for a full-time course for an ordinary school year ($14.70 per week) or the claimed customary charges of the institution.

(iv) Establishment of customary cost of tuition upon lump-sum adjustment of surplus or deficit. If a surplus or deficit exists, the institution may elect at the expiration of the contract period which occurs on or after 24 months or the expiration of any subsequent contract to make or receive a lump-sum adjustment of surplus or deficit and accept as a customary rate the rate established by the actual allowable cost of the prior contract, and no further adjustments will be required or made. In each case where an institution has a contract which serves as the basis for establishing a customary cost of tuition, the institution will prepare on VA Form 7–1969 a certified statement of actual costs and actual hours of instruction for which the institution is entitled to be paid for the period of such most recent contract. Allowable costs will include only those provided in the cost formula in this paragraph. Each such VA Form 7–1969 will include a statement on schedule K, part 2, of the surplus or deficit for the entire period, between the effective date of the first contract under this paragraph and the termination date of the contract which completed the 24-month period and which established the customary cost of tuition as provided in this subparagraph plus any surplus determined as of March 1, 1949. In each case where a surplus or deficit is determined, the most recent contract will be supplemented (VA Form 7–1972). For payment of surplus by the institution to the Veterans' Administration, the standard clause provided in subdivision (iii) (b) (1) of this subparagraph will be used. For payment of a deficit to the educational institution by the Veterans' Administration, the standard clause provided in subdivision (iii) (b) (2) of this subparagraph will be used. Where the school elects to repay an existing surplus through a lump-sum repayment to the Veterans' Administration as in this subdivision and elects to establish a customary cost of tuition (frozen rate), the chief of the training facilities activity will secure from a responsible official of the institution a statement in writing as to the manner in which the lump-sum repayment will be made and will advise the finance officer accordingly in writing. Where payments of tuition rates under previous contracts have resulted in a deficit to the contractor and the school elects to be paid such deficit in a lump sum and elects to establish a customary cost of tuition (frozen rate), the Veterans' Administration will reimburse the school by lump-sum settlement, as in this subdivision: Provided however, That in no case will compensation for a deficit be made in an amount which when added to the fair and reasonable tuition and other charges for fees, books, supplies, and equipment results in the payment of a rate in excess of either the rate of $500 for a full-time course for an ordinary school year ($14.70 per week) or the claimed customary charges of the institution. The Veterans' Administration will make payment of the approved amount of the deficit upon the submission of a voucher for such lump-sum in accordance with Veterans' Administration regulations, but itemization of charges for individual veterans will not be necessary.

(v) Approval required for final surplus or deficit adjustments. Each case of a final adjustment for surplus, or deficit or supplement to contract (VA Form 7–1972) and each determination of a lump-sum settlement of surplus or deficit as provided in subdivision (iii) (a), (b), and (iv) of this subparagraph will require the approval of the Deputy Administrator for Veterans Benefits prior to distribution by the regional office.

(vi) No allowance for liabilities under section 7, Public Law 610, 81st Congress. In the computation of any tuition rate on a fair and reasonable basis, as in subparagraphs (4) and (5) of this paragraph, or the settlement of surplus or deficit as in this subdivision, no allowance will be made for the expense of liabilities imposed upon the school for overpayments of veterans subsistence pursuant to the provisions of section 7, Public Law 610, 81st Congress. The chief, training facilities activity, will request the finance officer to provide information relative to any such liabilities imposed on a nonprofit school.

* * * * *

(b) Other than nonprofit institutions. * * *

(2) Statement of cost data required. * * *

(vii) Administrative expenses. Actual administrative expenses which are considered by the Manager reasonable and necessary in the operation of the school and are properly allocable to the courses under review. Such expenses may include salaries of administrative and clerical personnel representing reasonable compensation for services actually performed and the cost of such items as postage, telephone and telegraph, travel, interest, legal and accounting fees for actual services (not retainers), stationery and office supplies, and such other similar expenses as are reasonable and necessary for the operation of the school: Provided, That in no case will there be included in the fair and reasonable cost determination a base salary in excess of the rate of $10,000 per annum for an individual who has a proprietary or bonus interest in the institution. The administrative cost must be itemized, and the salary items must be supported by a statement showing for each person, the name, title, annual salary, percentage of time devoted to administration, and the amount of salary allocated to the cost of the courses under review. Supporting details of item 7 will be provided in Schedule G or an optional equivalent schedule.

(viii) Advertising expense. Advertising expense calculated in accordance with the procedure set forth in (a) and (b) of this subdivision and not to exceed the limitations prescribed herein. Supporting details of item 8 will be provided in schedule H of VA Form 7–1968 or an optional equivalent schedule.

(a) Determination of amount allowable for advertising expense. Well-established profit institutions may be permitted to include actual advertising expenses for the period covered by the cost data in determining fair and reasonable costs where the percentage of actual advertising expense in relation to gross income from resident instruction for the period covered by the cost data does not exceed the average percentage of gross income expended by the institution for advertising over the 5-year period immediately preceding June 22, 1944, as evidenced by a certified statement of the institution as to advertising expenses and gross income from resident instruction for the periods covered, and where the percentage of advertising expense in relation to gross revenue from tuition does not exceed the average percentage of advertising costs for other comparable well-established schools in the area. Where the institution has not been established for a period of 5 years prior to June 22, 1944, and therefore does not have a fair standard of experience with relation to advertising costs prior to the enactment of Public Law 346, the institution may be permitted to include advertising expense actually incurred during the period covered by the cost review in an amount not to exceed the average percent of gross income from resident instruction which other well-established comparable schools in the area have expended for advertising for the 5-year period immediately prior to June 22, 1944. If there are no other comparable schools in the area and if the institution does not have a 5-year experience prior to June 22, 1944, the schools may be authorized to include actual advertising costs at a rate shown by their experience, but not in an amount to exceed 8 percent of the total gross income from resident instruction for the period covered by the cost review unless determined by the Manager as reasonable and necessary in the operation of the school. Where there are no other comparable well-established schools in the area and the actual advertising experience of the institution exceeds 8 percent of gross income from resident instruction, more than 8 percent may not be included in the fair and reasonable cost determination unless approval is granted by the Manager for the inclusion of advertising costs in excess of 8 percent. In no event will a newly established school, without actual cost experience for advertising expense, be permitted to include in a fair and reasonable cost statement, advertising expense in excess of 8 percent of gross income from tuition for resident instruction.

* * * * *

(c) VA Form 7–1969 and VA Form 7–1968. * * *

(4) Number of copies and distribution. VA Form 7–1969 or VA Form 7–1968 will be prepared in triplicate by the educational institution. Upon completion of negotiations and the establishment of an agreed contract rate, distribution will be made as follows: The original to the regional office concerned, duplicate to the educational institution, and triplicate to the Deputy Administrator for Veterans Benefits.

(d) When the chief, training facilities activity, has completed his analysis of the cost data. When the chief, training facilities activity, has completed his analysis of the cost data, he will determine on the basis of the total number of all students trained and cost of the items listed in this section, after reflecting known changes in costs, whether the customary charges of the educational or training institution are fair and reasonable. In making this determination, the chief, training facilities activity, will give consideration to the fact that it is not fair and reasonable for the Veterans' Administration to pay a charge based on the full cost of operating an educational institution under abnormal situations, such as periods when enrollments in the institution are far below the normal capacity and expectancy of the institution, or where operating costs are greatly in excess of normal operating costs for other comparable institutions in the same general locality. Contracts, when required, will be negotiated to provide payment not to exceed the amounts determined by the chief, training facilities activity, to be fair and reasonable as provided in this section. In any case where the Manager believes that the last contract rate for tuition, books, or supplies was obtained as a result of fraud, misrepresentation, or was in conflict with governing regulations, the Manager will request the chief, training facilities activity, to carefully reexamine such rate, and, if the contract is determined to have been invalid, the Manager will take appropriate action including the negotiation of a contract on a proper and legal basis under the direction of the chief, training facilities activity.

21. Section 21.531 Adjustment of tuition on the basis of the cost of teaching personnel and supplies for instruction is revoked.

22. In paragraph (b) of § 21.532, that portion of subparagraph (1) preceding subdivision (i) is amended to read as follows:

§ 21.532 Basis of payment for consumable instructional supplies under Parts VII and VIII, Veterans Regulation 1 (a), as amended (38 U. S. C. ch. 12). * * *

(b) Definitions—(1) Consumable instructional supplies. Those supplies which are required for instruction in the classroom, shop (school), and laboratory of the educational institution (see § 21.530 (a) (2), (ii), § 21.530 (b) (2), and § 21.614 (a) (4) (iii)), which are consumed, destroyed, or expended by either the student, the instructor, or both, in the process of use, and which have to be replaced at frequent intervals without adding to the value of the institution's physical property, are defined as consumable in structional supplies. Examples are chalk, nails, sandpaper, paint, and consumable teaching aids. For the purpose of payment by the Veterans' Administration, the term "consumable instructional supplies" may include virtually any items consumed, destroyed, expended, or ruined, in the process of teaching students to perform essential job operations, processes, and skills required in the course of study as recognized by regularly established institutions. Expenses for "Consumable instructional supplies" are operating expenditures as distinguished from capital expenditures for equipment such as lathes, drill presses, etc. Items properly classified as consumable instructional supplies may be grouped under one of the following three classifications:

* * * * *

23. In § 21.539, paragraph (f) is amended, former paragraph (h) is deleted, and former paragraphs (i) through (o) are redesignated (h) through (n), so that the amended and redesignated material reads as follows:

§ 21.539 Books, supplies, and equipment, including tools, for Part VII or Part VIII trainees; furnished by an educational institution. * * *

(f) Billing for "supplies". Charges for "supplies" furnished by an institution to trainees may be billed immediately after such articles are issued or may be included in the billing for tuition and incidental fees.

* * * * *

(h) Compensation for handling and issuing "supplies" for Part VII and Part VIII trainees. (1) Educational and training institutions furnishing to trainees "supplies" which are customarily required to be owned personally by other students pursuing the same or similar courses, may be compensated for such services on the basis of 10 percent of the customary charge for the "supplies" furnished except as provided in subparagraph (10) of this paragraph.

(2) The provision for a 10-percent handling charge applies when the institutions do not customarily furnish such items for all students but which either permit or require all students to purchase "supplies" from any available source of supply.

(3) The provision for a 10-percent handling charge applies also when the institution provides through the operation of an institutional supply store or bookstore for furnishing such "supplies"; or the institutions may arrange with bookstores or agencies not connected with or operated by the institution to furnish "supplies" as authorized by it. In such cases, the institution is entitled to the 10-percent handling charge, provided the billing to the Veterans' Administration for such "supplies" is done by the institution.

(4) Where it is customary in a survey subject to permit all students to obtain the aggregate of books for the subject (referred to as a rental set) on a rental basis and the ownership or permanent possession by the student of such books is not required for the satisfactory completion of the subject, trainees should be granted the rental sets on the same basis as they are rented to other students and the rental instead of purchase price charged to the Veterans' Administration. The 10-percent handling charge applies in such case. Note that this provision is limited to rental sets. (For cases where the institution provides other books by rental, see subparagraph (5) of this paragraph.)

(5) Where the institution customarily furnishes "supplies", or any of these items, for all students enrolled either on a rental charge, or fee basis and either includes the charge for such items in the tuition or collects an additional amount therefor from each student, the provision for a 10-percent handling charge does not apply.

(6) The 10-percent handling charge is not applicable to Government-owned books such as those procured from the Library of Congress since there is a separate provision for compensating the institution for the issuance and handling of these books.

(7) The 10-percent compensation paid to institutions is considered an administrative expense of the Veterans' Administration and not a charge against the period of eligibility of an individual veteran. In those cases where a veteran elects to have his eligibility charged in order to have the Veterans' Administration pay the cost of a course of education in excess of the rate of $500 per year, the 10-percent compensation for handling costs paid to the institution will not be included in the cost of the course. Therefore, it will not be necessary on public vouchers for "supplies" to show the allocation of the 10-percent charge to the materials issued to each individual veteran.

(8) Where the 10-percent handling charge is applicable, it may be shown as one item following the total charges for "supplies" on Standard Form 1034 and need not be entered in the individual supporting schedules.

(9) Where contracts are required for either Part VII or Part VIII, and the institution or establishment is entitled to and requests the 10-percent compensation for furnishing "supplies" to veterans, the contract must provide for such compensation.

(10) It is considered that compensation in the amount of 10 percent of the customary charge is a reasonable reimbursement to colleges, universities, and other schools providing academic courses where there is a small percentage of expensive equipment required to be furnished to veterans. However, in the case of trade and professional schools and, in some instances, professional courses in academic schools where items of equipment costing in excess of $50 are required and issued, the maximum allowance of 10-percent compensation on the customary charge for such expensive equipment may result in compensation in excess of a reasonable allowance for the costs incurred by the institution in procuring, issuing, and billing for such equipment. In view of these facts, Managers will review the handling charges being paid to institutions where expensive items of equipment are required to be issued to veteran-trainees under Parts VII and VIII, Veterans Regulation 1 (a), as amended. However, the institution should not be required to submit detailed billings on books, supplies, and equipment for the purpose of accomplishing this review. If it is considered by the Manager that the allowance of 10 percent is resulting in payment by the Veterans' Administration of more than a reasonable amount of compensation for the costs incurred by the institutions, the Manager may authorize the payment of such lesser sums as may be agreed upon with the institution, based on the customary charges of the items furnished, which will result in reasonable compensation to the institutions for services rendered. In those cases where the rate of compensation is agreed upon between the institution and the Veterans' Administration at a figure less than 10 percent, such adjusted rate will be for prospective application and will not be applied for services rendered prior to the date of the agreement. Where contracts are otherwise required, the agreed rate will be inserted in such contracts when they are negotiated, but existing contracts need not be changed with respect to the percent compensation prior to the termination date of such contracts unless the institution will voluntarily agree to a reduction and amendment to the contract. Where contracts are not otherwise required for payments and a rate of compensation less than 10 percent is agreed upon between the institution and the Veterans' Administration, the finance officer will be furnished with a written memorandum from the vocational rehabilitation and education division setting forth the agreed rate of compensation and the effective date thereof.

(i) Procurement by institution. Institutions will normally furnish, issue, or release the required supplies to the trainee through such channels as it designates.

(j) Limitations on amount for on-the-job training establishments. Establishments providing on-the-job training may furnish the required articles by purchase in accord with current Veterans' Administration regulations.

(k) Release of "supplies" to trainees. "Supplies" will not be marked to indicate ownership by the United States and will be deemed released to the trainee at the time they are furnished.

(l) "Supplies" previously issued to trainee by the institution at Veterans' Administration expense may be returned by the trainee.

(1) As a result of failure to complete or a change of course.

(2) Voluntarily because he has no further need for them.

(m) Limitations on procurement of tools, supplies, and equipment and payment therefor. (1) Under the provisions of paragraph 5, Part VIII, Veterans Regulation 1 (a), as amended, the Administrator may pay for books, supplies, equipment, and other necessary expenses as are generally required for the successful pursuit and completion of the course by other students in the institution. Paragraph (e) (1) of this section provides that the institution will assure itself that the Veterans' Administration is not billed for "supplies" at an unreasonable price and paragraph (e) (6) of this section provides that if the institution furnishes items of "supplies" specifically purchased for trainees only (i. e., not handled through a book or supply store for all students), such items will be billed at cost to the institution. Under paragraph (e) (1) and (6) of this section the Veterans' Administration will pay for "supplies" at prices regularly and customarily charged to other students where there are substantial numbers of students other than those pursuing courses under the provisions of Part VII and Part VIII, Veterans Regulation 1 (a), as amended, and where there is a well-established policy of the institution with respect to the requirement for the student to furnish personally the "supplies".

(2) In all other cases of institutions or courses established subsequent to June 22, 1944, where the enrollment in the institution or courses involved consists solely or primarily of veterans pursuing courses under the provisions of Part VII and Part VIII, as amended, the Veterans' Administration will pay for "supplies" at a price not in excess of the lowest wholesale price at which the "supplies" may be purchased in a competitive market. This policy is for application in the case of all "supplies," including those for which separate reimbursement is made to the institution and those which are included in the over-all tuition or fee charge.

(i) Except as provided in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, effective June 22, 1950, the Veterans' Administration will not agree prospectively to pay for tools, supplies, and equipment, unless such items are provided at the rate established by the lowest of at least three bids or quotations from reputable and reliable established dealers or distributors. Therefore, prior to the negotiation or renewal of any contract and prior to the approval of payment bases for tools, supplies, and equipment for educational institutions receiving payment without a contract, each educational institution affected under this subparagraph will be required to submit or make available to the Veterans' Administration such data and information as will clearly indicate to the satisfaction of the Veterans' Administration that the agreed amount to be paid by the Veterans' Administration for items necessary for veteran training under Part VII and Part VIII is no greater than the lowest price at which such items can be procured in a competitive market. When possible, at least three bids or quotations will be solicited from prime sources of supply. Competition between a manufacturer and his distributors or jobbers or a bid or quotation by a firm debarred by the Veterans' Administration from bidding on Veterans' Administration requirements or affiliates of such firm will not be considered as complying with the intent of this subdivision. Acceptable bids or quotations will show prices for items delivered at the school (i. e., f. o. b. the school) and also will show all trade discounts. Where tools, supplies and equipment are purchased by the Veterans' Administration for veterans who are training on the job, which are the same or comparable to those required by the school to be furnished for veterans, the Veterans' Administration regional office will inform the educational institution that one of the bids or quotations must be from such a Veterans' Administration designated supply source. After the Veterans' Administration has determined that the items have been or will be procured at a reasonable price, the source of supply is not a matter of concern for the Veterans' Administration, except that the cost of supplies procured from a debarred bidder and issued to a veteran in training will not be paid for by the Veterans' Administration unless the price charged by such firm or affiliate for articles of equal quality is lower than any of the bids submitted by qualified bidders.

(ii) Under existing contracts with institutions affected under this subparagraph, the Veterans' Administration will not pay a marked-up price to the institution (whether or not within retail or list price), where the supplies have been procured from or through a dummy corporation or other affiliate of the institution, but will pay for such supplies at an amount not in excess of the cost thereof to such dummy corporation or affiliate.

(iii) In addition to the above limitations in this paragraph respecting the payment for tools, supplies, and equipment, it is emphasized that only the amounts and kind of tools, supplies, and equipment which normally are required by well-established schools offering the same or similar instruction and which are essential to the training process will be provided for training of veterans under Part VII and Part VIII, as amended. Under the provisions of Part VIII, as amended, the Veterans' Administration has no authority to furnish personally to a veteran enrolled in institutional training any tools, supplies, and equipment which have been customarily maintained by well-established educational institutions and issued to students from a central tool room or tool crib as needed during classroom periods; or which are maintained at central points in a classroom or laboratory on tool boards, benches, racks, stands, or in cabinets, where they can be used as needed by individual students without materially delaying or retarding the progress of other students; or which are maintained for the use of instructors to demonstrate processes to groups of students or to check, test, or gage periodically the results of student work. Such tools, supplies, and equipment shall be considered capital equipment to be furnished by the institution as distinguished from those tools, supplies, and equipment each student is customarily required and expected to own and which he needs to have in his possession at all times in his tool kit or on his desk or bench at each class period in order to progress satisfactorily in training without disrupting the work of other students.

(n) Reexamination of charges. In any case where the Manager believes that the last contract rate for tuition, books, or supplies was obtained as a result of fraud, misrepresentation, or was in conflict with the governing regulation, the Manager will carefully reexamine such rate, and, if the contract is determined to have been invalid, the Manager will take appropriate action including the negotiation of a contract on a proper and legal basis.

24. In § 21.541, paragraphs (d) (1) and (e) are amended to read as follows:

§ 21.541 Disposal of returned books, supplies, and equipment furnished through educational institutions to Part VII and Part VIII, Veterans Regulation 1 (a), as amended (38 U. S. C. ch. 12), trainees. * * *

(d) Recovery and sales to institutions. (1) Where the institution does not agree to reissue recovered supplies as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, but does desire to recover and to purchase supplies turned in by veterans enrolled in the institution, the regional office is authorized to negotiate for the sale of such supplies as provided in this paragraph. Sale prices of supplies shall not be less than the current or usual market prices for used supplies of the same type and similar condition but generally not less than 50 percent of the original wholesale cost (actual or estimated). Contracts or supplements to contracts are not required, but the purchase of supplies by the institution may not be effected until the proposed schedule of prices are approved by the Manager on one of the following bases:

* * * * *

(e) Other disposition. Wherever disposition of returned trainee supplies cannot be accomplished under the provisions of paragraphs (c) and (d) of this section, the Veterans' Administration will arrange for disposition in accordance with Veterans' Administration vocational rehabilitation and education procedures.

25. In § 21.548, paragraph (a) is amended to read as follows:

§ 21.548 Payments for cooperative course. (a) Payments to the institution will be only for that portion of training or instruction given by the institution. The basis for charge will be determined in the light of the applicable portion of §§ 21.467 through 21.479, 21.484, 21.485, 21.493 through 21.495, and 21.503 through 21.511.

* * * * *

26. In § 21.549, paragraph (b) is amended to read as follows:

§ 21.549 Payments for related training. * * *

(b) Tuition charges will be determined in accord with applicable portions of §§ 21.467 through 21.479, 21.484, 21.485, 21.493 through 21.495, and 21.503 through 21.511.

* * * * *

27. Section 21.557 is revised to read as follows:

§ 21.557 Payments in lieu of tuition and fees. Hospitals approved by the appropriate State agency for training in connection with residencies for qualified physician veterans enrolled under Part VIII, Veterans Regulation 1 (a), as amended (38 U. S. C. ch. 12), (or Part VII), may be paid as follows: For courses of more than 30 weeks (residency training usually covers 52 weeks) in accord with the bases set forth in §§ 21.467 through 21.479 or 21.484 and 21.485.

28. Section 21.568 is revised to read as follows:

§ 21.568 Agreement for free instruction. Certain public schools make no charges of any kind for instruction, services, or supplies. When it is desired to enter Part VII, Veterans Regulation 1 (a), as amended (38 U. S. C. ch. 12), trainees into such institutions, an agreement will be made in duplicate. The original will be retained in the training facilities activity of the regional office and the copy will be returned to the institution. If any charges whatsoever are to be made, such as for student body fee or for books or supplies, VA Form 7–1903 will be executed.

29. In § 21.569, paragraph (a) is amended to read as follows:

§ 21.569 Authority to make contracts. (a) The Manager, Assistant Manager, and chief, vocational rehabilitation and education division, in a regional office are authorized, with the exception of correspondence courses, to enter into contracts in accordance with existing laws, regulations, and policies with public or private educational or training institutions (other than for training on the job) in the territory of that regional office for the purpose of providing courses of education and training for veterans enrolled under the provisions of Public Laws 16 and 346, 78th Congress, as amended. In addition, the authority to sign contracts as in this paragraph may be delegated by the Manager to the chief, training facilities activity, in those regional offices where the chief, vocational rehabilitation and education division, recommends such action to the Manager.

* * * * *

30. In § 21.570, paragraphs (a), (b) (1), (2), (3) and (d) are amended to read as follows:

§ 21.570 Determination when contract or statement of charges is required. (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) (4) (i) of this section, contracts under Public Law 16, 78th Congress, are required before payment can be made to educational institutions or other than educational institutions for the rehabilitation of eligible veterans.

(b) * * *

(1) With institutions providing institutional on-farm courses see §§ 21.613 through 21.619.

(2) With institutions offering courses of instruction by correspondence, see §§ 21.625 through 21.627.

(3) With nonprofit institutions which elect and are permitted to receive payments of other than customary tuition on the credit-hour rate (§ 21.479). In such cases, contracts will be made effective with the beginning of the first term, semester, or quarter subsequent to the date the institution submits a formal request for payment of adjusted tuition on the basis of § 21.479, provided such request is approved by the Veterans' Administration.

* * * * *

(d) In all cases where a contract on VA Form 7–1903 is not required as in paragraph (c) of this section, the training facilities activity will notify the finance officer, in writing, of the charges for the courses to be offered, including the rate of tuition, reference to the appropriate Veterans' Administration regulation under which such charge or charges are authorized, separate charges, if any, for books, supplies and equipment, school calendar, schedule of classes and hours of training, refund policy, and such other provisions as are required to determine proper payment for the training of veterans. Where it is acceptable to the institution, such information as described in this paragraph will be obtained from the institution on VA Form 7–1957 or an optional equivalent schedule which will provide appropriate details in a similar manner. Where the institution has no customary cost of tuition under § 21.467 and the institution refuses to make a contract as in paragraph (b) (4) (i) of this section, the institution shall be advised, in writing (no form letter prescribed or authorized), by the training facilities activity as to the charges for courses to be offered and all other pertinent data as described in this paragraph, for the purpose of providing the basis upon which the Veterans' Administration will pay. The information for payments under paragraph (b) (4) (i) of this section will be obtained from data in previous contracts, statements of charges, letters, or through further requests from the institution, if necessary, and prior to payment will require the approval by the training facilities activity in the regional office.

31. Section 21.572 is revised to read as follows:

§ 21.572 Renewals or supplements to contracts. Renewals of contracts in lieu of making new contracts may be accomplished by the completion of renewal agreements when no change is made in existing contractual provisions. Supplements to contracts may be negotiated when necessary to extend the period of a contract and to provide for changes in the school calendar or in the schedule of instructional hours, or other matters required by existing Veterans' Administration regulations. Except where a customary cost of tuition has been established under the provisions of § 21.467 (b), or where continued payment of a fair and reasonable tuition is authorized by § 21.495 (b) (2) (i), a contract originally negotiated on the basis of fair and reasonable compensation will not be renewed until the submission of proper cost data required and unless such data justifies a continuation of the terms of the existing contract. (See § 21.530.) If the examination of the cost of operation in accordance with Veterans' Administration requirements indicates that the tuition rate or other provisions are to be changed, a supplement to the old contract or a new contract must be negotiated.

32. In § 21.573, paragraph (a) is amended and paragraphs (c) and (d) are deleted:

§ 21.573 Negotiation—(a) Preliminary negotiations. In all cases in which it is ascertained that a contract will be required, the institution will be notified that payments for veterans may be made only under contracts negotiated in accordance with the provisions of applicable Veterans' Administration regulations and instructions, and negotiations will be initiated with all those institutions desiring to enroll veterans under Public Laws 16 and 346, 78th Congress, as amended. In any case in which a contract is required under Veterans' Administration regulations for the education and training of veterans under the provisions of Public Laws 16 and 346, as amended, no payment will be made to an institution until a contract between the Veterans' Administration and the institution has been completed except as otherwise provided in Veterans' Administration regulations.

(c) [Deleted.]
(d) [Deleted.]

33. Section 21.574 VA Form 7–1903 is revoked.

34. Section 21.575 is revised to read as follows:

§ 21.575 Deviation from contract terms. (a) All charges, services, and other terms shall be stated in the contract, and no deviation will be made therefrom during the period covered by the contract except as authorized.

(b) Except as authorized in Veterans' Administration regulations, contracts may not be accepted in which the printed provisions of the contract form are in any manner amended, modified, or abrogated, unless authorized in advance by central office.

(c) Courses or services and charges therefor, not included in the original contract, may be provided for by the negotiation of a supplement to the contract.

35. Section 21.576 Period covered by contracts is revoked.

36. Section 21.578 is revised to read as follows:

§ 21.578 Contracts signed under mutual mistake of fact. Any contract signed under a mutual mistake of fact consisting in action of a Veterans' Administration contracting officer and an official of any school signing a purported contract subsequent to July 13, 1950, providing for other than an established customary cost of tuition, when in fact at the time the contract was signed the school had a customary cost under existing Veterans' Administration regulations or directives presently provided in § 21.467 (b), will upon request of the school, be reported to the Deputy Administrator for Veterans Benefits, with full statement of facts, for consideration of cancellation of the contract. If canceled, the frozen rate will be payable retroactively and prospectively in lieu of the contract rate, but payment of such contract rate should be made in the interim pending notification as to cancellation, such payment to be without prejudice to the rights of either the school or the Government.

37. In § 21.606, that portion of paragraph (b) preceding subparagraph (1) is amended to read as follows:

§ 21.606 Contracts required. * * *

(b) If a contract proposal for flight courses does not conform to the provision listed in paragraph (a) (1) of this section, but the Manager, nevertheless, considers that the proposal should be accepted, the proposal may be approved if supported by adequate facts and statements to substantiate the proposed charges as fair and reasonable as provided for in § 21.530. Each statement to be submitted must be certified by an official of the school or institution and must include the following:

* * * * *

38. Section 21.607 Preparation of contracts is revoked.

39. The following sections are revoked:

§ 21.609 Payment under contracts. [Revoked.]

§ 21.611 Execution and revision of contracts. [Revoked.]

40. In § 21.612, paragraph (c) (2) is amended to read as follows:

§ 21.612 Payment for flight training in nonprofit institutions. * * *

(c) Payment for required flight courses. * * *

(2) If the nonprofit institution has elected and is permitted to charge the Veterans' Administration on the basis of other than customary tuition charges (§ 21.479), the total payment to the institution for the other than customary tuition will be limited to an amount which together with the customary charges for fees (including flight training), books, supplies, equipment, and other necessary expenses will not exceed the rate of $500 for a full-time course for an ordinary school year. (See §§ 21.470 (b) (2) and 21.517.) If the total customary charges for fees (including flight training), books, supplies, equipment, and other necessary expenses, but exclusive of tuition charges, exceed the rate of $500 for a full-time course for an ordinary school year, the veteran may elect to have the amount of such excess customary charges, exclusive of tuition, paid by the Veterans' Administration and his entitlement charged for the excess or he may elect to pay the excess personally.

* * * * *

41. In § 21.613, paragraph (b) is amended and paragraph (c) is deleted.

§ 21.613 Payments for institutional on-farm training. * * *

(b) Basis for payment. Contracts will be prepared on VA Form 7–1903 and will provide for payment for institutional on-farm training at a fixed monthly rate per student to include the cost of instruction in the classroom, individual instruction on the farm, and supervision, which has been determined to be fair and reasonable by the regional office in accordance with the formula and criteria set forth in § 21.614.

(c) [Deleted.]

42. In § 21.614, subdivisions (v) and (vi) of paragraph (a) (4) are amended to read as follows:

§ 21.614 Determination of fair and reasonable compensation for institutional on-farm training—(a) Certified financial statement required. * * *

(4) * * *

(v) Building operation and maintenance, depreciation, and rent. Cost of the pro rata portion of depreciation on instructional equipment, heat, light, power, water, janitor service, building maintenance, rent of non-publicly owned facilities, and insurance for classroom and laboratory space which may be allocated to these courses on the basis of the time the classrooms are used for these courses in relation to the full-time use of such classrooms and laboratories. A sum not in excess of $1.25 per student per month is acceptable as a fair and reasonable charge for this item without detailed calculation. There must be a clear showing on the part of the institution, where more than $1.25 per student-month is requested for a class of less than 12, that all reasonable efforts have been made to schedule such classroom instruction in an economical manner to prevent any excessive expense involved in the operation of the school plant, or a portion thereof.

(vi) Allowance for administration and supervision. An allowance to cover the cost of supervisory, administrative, and clerical personnel and the cost of consumable office supplies and other expenses for administrative and supervisory offices including related expenses of the State agency responsible for conducting these courses. The salary, or any part thereof, of a regular employee of the local, county, or State school system will not be allowed as a part of the fair and reasonable cost except where the duties of such employee on behalf of the institutional on-farm program are clearly and definitely defined and measured and are performed at times other than during their regular hours of employment for duties other than those pertaining to institutional on-farm program. An amount not in excess of 5 percent of the cost of items in subdivisions (i) through (v) of this subparagraph may be included to cover these costs without detailed justification. However, if the institution requests more than a 5 percent allowance for administration and supervision, the chief, training facilities activity, is authorized to include in the fair and reasonable cost, such amount in excess of 5 percent as may be justified as reasonable and necessary to conduct a satisfactory program. Any request for an amount in excess of 5 percent for administration and supervision must be supported by a detailed schedule of the cost of the items included. Where a request is made for an amount in excess of 5 percent for administration of a class of less than 12, there should be a clear showing on the part of the institution that consideration has been given to the reduced number of trainees and the amount claimed is reasonable and necessary for the operation of the program.

* * * * *

43. In § 21.616, the unnumbered paragraph appearing at the end of paragraph (b) and that portion of paragraph (c) (1) preceding subdivision (i) are amended and a new paragraph (e) is added as follows:

§ 21.616 Review and adjustment of contract rates. * * *

(b) Revision of rates. * * *

Where a change in contract rates is desired by either party, the Veterans' Administration and the contractor will negotiate and mutually agree upon the revised rate or rates. Upon agreement between the contractor and the Veterans' Administration as in this paragraph, the contract will be supplemented to amend the tuition rates.

(c) Lump-sum adjustment of surplus or deficit upon completion of a contract or adjustment period or at the termination of contractual relationships. (1) At the end of any contract or adjustment period a surplus or deficit which resulted from the payment of the agreed fair and reasonable rate of compensation may be settled on a lump-sum basis, provided that appropriate adjustments have been or are made for surpluses or deficits for all previous periods, including surplus which may have been on hand on September 1, 1947. The institution will submit to the regional office on VA Form 7–1969 a certified statement of actual costs and actual months of instruction for which the institution was entitled to be paid for the period of the most recent contract. Allowable costs will include only those provided in the cost formula in §§ 21.613 through 21.619. Each such VA Form 7–1969 will include a statement on schedule K, part 2, of the surplus or deficit for the entire period between the effective date of the first contract for on-farm training under Public Law 377, 80th Congress, and the termination date of the most recent contract plus any surplus determined as of September 1, 1947. These cost data will also be used for the determination of a new fair and reasonable tuition rate to be included in the next contract. In no case will compensation for a deficit be made in an amount which when added to the fair and reasonable tuition and other charges for fees, books, supplies and equipment result in the payment of a rate in excess of either the rate of $500 for a 12-month period ($41.66 per month), or the claimed customary charges of the institution, for contracts entered into subsequent to February 21, 1952. (See § 21.619.) At the termination of contractual relationships under §§ 21.613 through 21.619 a final adjustment will be made, both where money is due the Government and where it is due the school.

* * * * *

(e) Approval required for final surplus or deficit adjustments. Each case of final adjustments for surplus or deficit or supplement to contract (VA Form 7–1972) for a lump-sum settlement of surplus or deficit as provided in paragraph (c) of this section will be submitted to the Deputy Administrator for Veterans Benefits, for approval prior to distribution by the regional office.

44. In § 21.625, paragraph (i) is amended to read as follows:

§ 21.625 Contract negotiations for correspondence courses. * * *

(i) Changes in courses. Changes in courses made by the institution with which a contract has been negotiated during the life of the contract will become effective and a part of the contract only upon negotiation of a supplement to the existing contract. Minor changes in courses or course material not affecting the length of the course or number of lessons and not lowering the educational value of the courses or the quality of the course materials, such as revision of text, the substitution of a newer lesson for an older one, or the substitution of equipment of equal or greater value, are permitted without notice. Such minor changes and revisions shall be placed on file with the Assistant Deputy Administrator, Vocational Rehabilitation and Education, Washington 25, D. C., at the time of the change or revision, in all cases in which the original course material was submitted to the Veterans' Administration for review.

45. In § 21.626, paragraph (c) is amended to read as follows:

§ 21.626 General provisions of correspondence contracts. * * *

(c) Records and reports. The contractor will maintain records of progress of veterans in training under this contract and will make available such records and furnish such reports to the Veterans' Administration at such intervals as may be mutually determined and as may be necessary and required by the Veterans' Administration to administer the training of the veteran as required by the law. The contractor shall preserve all records and books of account pertaining to the contracts: Provided, however, That if the contractor, at any time after 3 years next following the date upon which the final payment under the contract becomes due, desires to dispose of said records and books of account, the contractor shall so notify the Assistant Deputy Administrator, Vocational Rehabilitation and Education, Washington 25, D. C., who shall in writing either authorize destruction of the records or notify the contractor to maintain such records for a further length of time as may be deemed necessary by the Veterans' Administration.

* * * * *

46. In § 21.627, paragraphs (a) and (j) (4) are amended and paragraphs (m), (n), and (o) are deleted:

§ 21.627 Charges and payments for correspondence courses—(a) Contracts required. Payments will be made to approved institutions for correspondence courses in accordance with the rates established in the contracts approved by the office of the Assistant Deputy Administrator, Vocational Rehabilitation and Education. No payment will be made by the Veterans' Administration for correspondence instruction in the absence of such a contract.

* * * * *

(j) Charges not permitted. * * *

(4) The 10 percent compensation described in § 21.539 (h) allowed resident educational and training institutions for handling the issuance of books, supplies, and equipment is not applicable to correspondence courses, and such compensation may not be paid in connection with correspondence courses in addition to the charges for such items set forth in the contract.

(n) [Deleted.]
(o) [Deleted.]

47. Section 21.628 Refunds is revoked.

48. In § 21.638, paragraph (b) is amended to read as follows:

§ 21.638 Termination of contracts under Part VIII, Veterans Regulation 1 (a), as amended (38 U. S. C. ch. 12). * * *

(b) Where the regional office considers that fraud has been committed against the Government, or that the contractor is not furnishing the courses of instruction as required by the terms of the contract and the contractor has refused to correct the condition, or that the best interests of the Government or trainees will be served by a partial or total termination, the full particulars pertaining to the desired termination will be forwarded, together with the recommendations of the regional office to the Deputy Administrator for Veterans Benefits for the authority to terminate the contract.

49. In § 21.655, that portion of paragraph (b) preceding subparagraph (1) and paragraph (b) (6) are amended to read as follows:

§ 21.655 General. * * *

(b) The period for which payment of charges may be made will be the period of the veteran's actual enrollment in the institution under Public Laws 16 or 346, 78th Congress, as amended, and will be subject to the following:

* * * * *

(6) Expiration of entitlement.

50. In § 21.656, the headnotes of subdivisions (i) and (ii) of paragraph (d) (2) are amended to read as follows:

§ 21.656 Time of payment to institutions for residence courses for Parts VII and VIII, Veterans Regulation 1 (a), as amended (38 U. S. C. ch. 12), trainees and basis for determining amount payable. * * *

(d) Provisions for payment to certain nonprofit institutions after expiration of refund period. * * *

(2) * * *

(i) Customary charges or other than customary charges (§§ 21.472 and 21.479). * * *

(ii) Section 21.479; estimated cost of teaching personnel and supplies for instruction. * * *

51. The following sections are revoked:

§ 21.666 Vouchers or invoices for amounts due the institution. [Revoked.]

§ 21.667 Data on voucher, invoice, or supporting schedule. [Revoked.]

52. In § 21.668, paragraph (a) is amended and paragraphs (b) and (c) are deleted:

§ 21.668 Exclusion of Federal admission taxes from payments to educational institutions for education and training under Public Laws 16 and 346, 78th Congress, as amended—(a) Payments to institutions to exclude Federal admission taxes. Section 3 of the act of August 12, 1935, Public Law 262, 74th Congress, provides in part that "* * * payments made to or on account of a beneficiary under any of the laws relating to veterans shall be exempt from taxation • • •" section 1500, title VI, Public Law 346, as amended, provides that, except as otherwise stated, the provisions of Public Law 262 shall be applicable. In view of these provisions of Public Law 262 and Public Law 346, as amended, payments made to institutions for education and training under Public Laws 16 and 346, as amended, are subject to the provisions of section 3 of Public Law 262. Therefore, the tax imposed by section 4231 (1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (Public Law 591, 83d Congress), does not apply to payments made by the Veterans' Administration covering admission charges to athletic and other events on behalf of veterans attending schools and colleges under the provisions of Public Laws 16 and 346, as amended. No admission taxes will be included in bills submitted by educational institutions to the Veterans' Administration where such bills cover the customary charges required to be paid by all students and where the payment of such charges entitles the student (veteran) to admission to athletic and other events. Such admission taxes ordinarily would be included in the required fee designated by the institution as "student activity fee" or in a required customary charge which includes, among other things, the privilege of the students to attend athletic and other events for which admission normally would be charged.

(c) [Deleted.]

53. Section 21.669 Certification by institution is revoked.

54. Section 21.670 is revised to read as follows:

§ 21.670 Irregular items. In those cases where a voucher contains an irregular item, the allowability of which is questionable in the light of existing Veterans' Administration regulations and policies, the finance division will submit the voucher to the chief, training facilities activity, for a determination as to the allowability of the item in question and, if appropriate, an interpretation or amplification of current applicable Veterans' Administration regulations and policies.

55. Section 21.671 Vouchers for a Part VII or Part VIII, Veterans Regulation 1 (a), as amended (38 U. S. C. ch. 12), trainee who transfers from the jurisdiction of one regional office to the jurisdiction of another regional office is revoked.

56. In § 21.680, paragraph (a) is amended to read as follows:

§ 21.680 Authorization for payment or recovery of payment based upon decisions of the Veterans' Education Appeals Board or a court order. (a) Upon issuance of a final decision of the Veterans' Education Appeals Board with respect to an appeal made by an educational institution to the Board, the Deputy Administrator for Veterans Benefits, will issue instructions by letter to the regional office concerned as to the actions to be taken. Accordingly, payment or recovery of payment based upon any such decision will be withheld, pending receipt of instructions from the Deputy Administrator for Veterans Benefits. Present or past contracts will not be amended or supplemented to accord with such decisions. Authority for greater or lesser payments will be the decision itself. In any case wherein the central office directs that action be taken based upon a Board decision, two copies of such decision will be provided by memorandum from the chief, vocational rehabilitation and education division, to the finance officer. If because of such decision money is due the institution, payments will be made in accordance with Veterans' Administration regulations upon the submission of appropriate vouchers by the educational institution. If by virtue of such decision money is due the Government, appropriate action to effect recovery will be taken by the regional office.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Agricultural Marketing Service

[7 CFR Ch. IX]

[Docket No. AO–272]

MILK IN NORTH CENTRAL IOWA MARKETING AREA

PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND PROPOSED ORDER REGULATING HANDLING

Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.) and in accordance with the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of the public hearing to be held in the Federal Court Room, Post Office Building, Waterloo, Iowa, beginning at 10:00 a. m., c. s. t., on April 25, 1955.

Subjects and issues involved in the hearing. This public hearing is for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to economic and marketing conditions which relate to the handling of milk in the North Central Iowa marketing area.

The hearing on the proposed marketing agreement and order proposal therefore is to determine whether (1) the handling of milk in the area proposed to be regulated is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce or directly burdens, or obstructs, or affects interstate or foreign commerce, (2) the issuance of the marketing agreement and order regulating the handling of milk in the proposed marketing area is justified, and (3) the provisions specified in the proposal or some other provisions appropriate to the terms of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, will best tend to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended.

Marketing agreement and order regulating the handling of milk in the North Central Iowa Marketing Area proposed by: Cedar Valley Cooperative Milk Association, Inc., Waterloo, Iowa; Marshall County Milk Dealers Cooperative, Marshalltown, Iowa; North Iowa Cooperative Milk Marketing Association, Mason City, Iowa; Charles City Milk Producers' Association, Charles City, Iowa:

DEFINITIONS

SECTION 1. Act. "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as re-enacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 1940 ed., 601 et seq.).

SEC. 2. Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States or any officer or employee of the United States Department of Agriculture who is authorized to exercise the powers and to perform the duties of the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

SEC. 3. North Central Iowa Marketing Area. "North Central Iowa Marketing Area", hereinafter called the "marketing area", means all the territory within Boone, Bremer, Blackhawk, Cerro Gordo, Floyd, Marshall, Story, and Webster Counties and within the corporate limits of the cities of Clarion, Eagle Grove, Hampton, Humboldt, New Hampton, Osage, Tama, Toledo, Traer, and Webster City, all in the State of Iowa.

SEC. 4. Person. "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any other business unit.

SEC. 5. Producer. "Producer" means any person, irrespective of whether such person is also a handler, who produces milk which is received at a fluid milk plant; Provided, That such milk is produced under a dairy farm permit or rating issued by a municipal or state health authority for the production of milk to be disposed of for consumption as Grade A milk. This definition shall include any such person who is regularly classified as a producer but whose milk is caused to be diverted to a non-fluid milk plant by a handler and milk so diverted shall be deemed to have been received at a fluid milk plant by the handler who caused it to be diverted. This definition shall not include a person with respect to milk produced by him which is received by a handler who is subject to another Federal marketing order and who is partially exempt from the provisions of this order pursuant to section 56.

SEC. 6. Handler. "Handler" means:

(a) Any person, other than a producer-handler, in his capacity as the operator of a fluid milk plant(s); and

(b) Any cooperative association with respect to milk of producers diverted by it from a fluid milk plant to a non-fluid milk plant for the account of such cooperative association.

SEC. 7. Fluid milk plant. "Fluid milk plant" means (a) any plant from which Grade A milk is disposed of as Class I milk on retail or wholesale routes (including plant stores) in the marketing area, or (b) any plant from which skim milk or butterfat is transferred or diverted as Class I milk to a plant described in paragraph (a) of this section; Provided, That any such transferring plant shall not be included in this definition if such transfers or diversions are made only during the months of August, September and October.

SEC. 8. Non-fluid milk plant. "Non-fluid milk plant" means any milk processing plant other than a fluid milk plant.

SEC. 9. Producer-handler. "Producer-handler" means any person who is both a producer and a handler and who receives no milk from other producers or associations of producers; Provided, That the maintenance, care and management of the dairy animals and other resources necessary to produce the milk and the processing, packaging and distribution of the milk are the personal enterprise and the personal risk of such person.

SEC. 10. Cooperative association. "Cooperative association" means any cooperative association of producers which the Secretary determines (a) has its entire activities under the control of its members, and (b) has and is exercising full authority in the sale of milk of its members.

SEC. 11. Producer milk. "Producer milk" means any skim milk or butterfat contained in milk received at a fluid milk plant directly from the farms of producers.

SEC. 12. Other source milk. "Other source milk" means any skim milk or butterfat received at a fluid milk plant, other than that contained in producer milk.

SEC. 13. Butter price. "Butter price" means the simple average of the daily wholesale selling prices (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of Grade A (92-score) bulk creamery butter at Chicago as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture during the delivery period.

SEC. 14. Delivery period. "Delivery period" means the calendar month or the total portion thereof during which this order is in effect.

MARKET ADMINISTRATOR

SEC. 20. Designation. The agency for the administration of this order shall be a market administrator who shall be a person selected by the Secretary. Such person shall be entitled to such compensation as may be determined by, and shall be subject to removal at the discretion of the Secretary.

SEC. 21. Powers. The market administrator shall have the following powers with respect to this order:

(a) To administer its terms and provisions;

(b) To receive, investigate and report to the Secretary complaints of violations;

(c) To make rules and regulations to effectuate its terms and provisions; and

(d) To recommend amendments to the Secretary.

SEC. 22. Duties. The market administrator shall perform all duties necessary to administer the terms and provisions of this order, including but not limited to the following:

(a) Within 45 days following the date upon which he enters upon his duties, execute and deliver to the Secretary a bond conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties in an amount and with surety thereon satisfactory to the Secretary;

(b) Pay out of the funds provided by section 71 the cost of his bond, his own compensation and all other expenses necessarily incurred in the maintenance and functioning of his office;

(c) Keep such books and records as will clearly reflect the transactions provided for in this order, and surrender the same to his successor or to such other person as the Secretary may designate;

(d) Unless otherwise directed by the Secretary, publicly disclose to handlers and producers the name of any person who, within 10 days after the date upon which he is required to perform such acts, has not (1) made reports pursuant to section 30 or (2) made payments pursuant to section 65;

(e) Promptly verify the information contained in reports submitted by handlers;

(f) Publicly announce by such means as he deems appropriate the prices determined for each delivery period as follows:

(1) On or before the 3d day after the end of each delivery period (i) the minimum price for Class I milk computed pursuant to section 51 (a) and the butterfat differential computed pursuant to section 52 (a), both for the current delivery period; and (ii) the minimum price for Class II milk computed pursuant to section 51 (b) and the butterfat differential computed pursuant to section 52 (b), both for the preceding delivery period.

(2) On or before the 9th day after the end of each delivery period, the uniform price computed pursuant to section 61, and the butterfat differential computed pursuant to section 66, both for the preceding delivery period.

(g) Prepare and disseminate to the public such statistics and information as he deems advisable and as do not reveal confidential information.

REPORTS, RECORDS AND FACILITIES

SEC. 30. Delivery period report of receipts and utilization. (a) On or before the 7th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler, who purchases or receives milk from producers or associations of producers shall report to the market administrator in the detail and on forms prescribed by the market administrator the following information with respect to all milk received from producers, all milk, skim milk, cream and milk products received from producer-handlers and other handlers, and all other source milk (except non-fluid milk products disposed of in the form in which received without further processing or packaging by the handler) received at his fluid milk plants during the delivery period;

(1) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in such receipts and their sources;

(2) The utilization of such receipts; and

(3) Such other information with respect to such receipts and utilization as the market administrator may prescribe.

SEC. 31. Reports of payments to producers. On or before the 17th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler who operates a fluid milk plant shall submit to the market administrator his producer payroll for the delivery period which shall show for each producer:

(a) The total pounds of milk received and the average butterfat content thereof;

(b) The price, amount, and date of payment made pursuant to section 65; and

(c) The nature and amount of each deduction or charge involved in the payments referred to in paragraph (b) of this section.

SEC. 32. Producer-handler reports. Each producer-handler shall make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may request.

SEC. 33. Records and facilities. Each handler shall maintain and make available to the market administrator, or his representative, during the usual hours of business, such accounts and records of his operations, including those of any other persons upon whose utilization the classification of milk depends, and such facilities as, in the opinion of the market administrator, are necessary to verify or to establish the correct data with respect to:

(a) The receipts and utilization of all producer milk and other source milk;

(b) The weights and tests for butterfat and other contents of all milk, skim milk, cream and milk products handled;

(c) Payments to producers or cooperative associations; and

(d) The pounds of skim milk and butterfat contained in or represented by all milk, skim milk, cream and milk products on hand at the beginning and end of each delivery period.

SEC. 34. Retention of records. All books and records required under this order to be made available to the market administrator shall be retained by the handler for a period of three years to begin at the end of the calendar month to which such books and records pertain: Provided, That if, within such three year period the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that the retention of such records or of specified books and records is necessary in connection with proceedings under section 8c (15) (A) of the act or a court action specified in such notice, the handler shall retain such books and records or specified books and records, until further written notification from the market administrator. In either case the market administrator shall give further written notification to the handler promptly upon the termination of the litigation or when the records are no longer necessary in connection therewith.

CLASSIFICATION OF MILK

SEC. 40. Skim milk and butterfat to be classified. Skim milk and butterfat contained in all milk, skim milk, cream and milk products received during the delivery period by a handler and required to be reported pursuant to section 30 (a) shall be classified by the market administrator pursuant to sections 41 to 46, inclusive.

SEC. 41. Classes of utilization. Subject to the conditions set forth in sections 43, 44, and 46, the classes of utilization shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat (1) disposed of in the form of milk, skim milk, buttermilk, yogurt, flavored milk, flavored milk drinks, cream, either sweet or sour (including any mixture of butterfat and skim milk containing more than 6 percent butterfat except mixes for ice cream and frozen desserts) and eggnog, (2) used in the production of concentrated milk not sterilized, for fluid consumption, and (3) not specifically accounted for as Class II milk.

(b) Class II milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat (1) used to produce a milk product not specified in paragraph (a) of this section, (2) in shrinkage up to 2 percent of receipts from producers and cooperative associations, and (3) in shrinkage of other source milk.

SEC. 42. Shrinkage. The market administrator shall allocate shrinkage over a handler's receipts as follows:

(a) Compute the total shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat for each handler; and

(b) Prorate the resulting amounts between the receipts of skim milk and butterfat contained in (1) producer milk, and (2) other source milk.

SEC. 43. Responsibility of handlers and reclassification of milk. (a) In establishing the classification of skim milk and butterfat as required in section 41, the burden rests upon the handler who received such skim milk or butterfat from producers or cooperative associations to prove to the market administrator that such skim milk or butterfat should not be classified as Class I; and

(b) Any skim milk or butterfat which has been classified by the market administrator shall be reclassified if verification discloses that the original classification was incorrect.

SEC. 44. Transfers. (a) Skim milk and butterfat when transferred or diverted by a handler which is not a cooperative association from a fluid milk plant to another fluid milk plant shall be Class I if transferred or diverted in the form of milk, skim milk or cream: Provided, That if the operators of both plants report that such skim milk and butterfat was used in Class II, such skim milk and butterfat may be assigned to Class II up to the amount thereof remaining in such class in the plant of the receiving handler after the subtraction of other source milk pursuant to section 46: Provided further, That, if other source milk has been received at either or both plants, the milk so transferred shall be classified at both plants so as to return the higher class utilization to producer milk;

(b) Skim milk and butterfat when transferred or diverted by a handler to a producer-handler shall be Class I if transferred or diverted in the form of milk, skim milk or cream; and

(c) Skim milk and butterfat when transferred or diverted from a fluid milk plant to a non-fluid milk plant shall be Class I if transferred in the form of milk, skim milk, or cream unless the transferring handler reports that such skim milk or butterfat was used in Class II: Provided, That, if the buyer refuses to permit the market administrator to audit his books and records, such milk, skim milk or cream shall be classified as Class I: Provided further, That, if upon audit of the buyer's records it is found that the use of skim milk and butterfat in the buyer's plant in Class II is less than the amount stated to have been so used, any amount in excess of such Class II use shall be classified as Class I;

(d) Skim milk and butterfat received by a handler as other source milk shall be classified in the lowest class in which such handler has use; and

(e) Skim milk and butterfat of a handler's own production shall be ratably apportioned over such handler's total utilization of producer milk.

SEC. 45. Computation of skim milk and butterfat in each class. For each delivery period the market administrator shall correct for mathematical and other obvious errors the delivery period report submitted by each handler and shall compute the total pounds of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in each class for such handler.

SEC. 46. Allocation of skim milk and butterfat classified. After computing, pursuant to section 45, the classification of all skim milk and butterfat received by a handler, the market administrator shall determine the classification of milk received from producers in the following manner.

(a) Skim milk shall be allocated as follows:

(1) Subtract from the total pounds of skim milk in Class II the pounds of skim milk allocated to shrinkage of producer milk;

(2) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II the pounds of skim milk in other source milk: Provided, That, if the pounds of skim milk in such other source milk are greater than the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II, an amount equal to the difference shall be subtracted from Class I;

(3) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in each class the pounds of skim milk contained in receipts from other fluid milk plants in accordance with its classification as determined pursuant to section 44 (a);

(4) Add to the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II the pounds of skim milk subtracted pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph;

(5) Subtract pro rata from the remaining pounds of skim milk in each class the pounds of skim milk contained in milk of the handler's own production; and

(6) If the remaining pounds of skim milk in all classes exceed the pounds of skim milk received from producers, an amount equal to the difference shall be subtracted from the pounds of skim milk in Class II. Any amount in excess of that in Class II shall be subtracted from Class I. The amounts so subtracted shall be called "overage".

(b) Butterfat shall be allocated in accordance with the same procedure outlined for skim milk in paragraph (a) of this section.

MINIMUM PRICES

SEC. 50. Basic price to be used in computing the Class I price. The basic price to be used in computing the minimum price per hundredweight of Class I milk for each delivery period shall be the higher of the prices computed pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

(a) The average of the basic or field prices reported to have been paid for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received during the preceding delivery period at the following plants or places for which prices are reported to the market administrator or to the Department of Agriculture;

Companies and Location

Borden Co., Mt. Pleasant, Mich.
Borden Co., New London, Wis.
Borden Co., Orfordville, Wis.
Carnation Co., Berlin, Wis.
Carnation Co., Chilton, Wis.
Carnation Co., Oconomowoc, Wis.
Carnation Co., Richland Center, Wis.
Carnation Co., Sparta, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., Belleville, Wis.
Pet Milk Co., Coopersville, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., Hudson, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., New Glarus, Wis.
Pet Milk Co., Wayland, Mich.
White House Milk Co., Manitowoc, Wis.
White House Milk Co., West Bend, Wis.

(b) The price computed pursuant to section 51 (b) for the preceding delivery period for Class II milk containing 3.5 percent butterfat plus 15 cents.

SEC. 51. Class prices. Each handler shall pay at the time and in the manner set forth in section 65 not less than the prices set forth in this section for skim milk and butterfat in milk received from producers during the delivery period at such handler's fluid milk plant.

(a) Class I milk. The price per hundredweight of Class I milk containing 3.5 percent butterfat shall be the basic price computed pursuant to section 50 plus $1.40; and

(b) Class II milk. The price per hundredweight of Class II milk containing 3.5 percent butterfat shall be computed by adding together the sums computed pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph.

(1) Multiply the butter price by 1.25, subtract 8 cents, and multiply by 3.5; and

(2) Add to 17 cents, 3 cents for each full one-half cent that the price of non-fat dry milk solids is above 7 cents per pound. The price per pound of non-fat dry milk solids to be used shall be the simple average of the carlot prices for non-fat dry milk solids both spray and roller process, delivered at Chicago as reported by the Department of Agriculture during the delivery period. In the event the Department does not publish carlot prices for non-fat dry milk solids for human consumption delivered at Chicago, there shall be used the weighted average of carlot prices per pound for non-fat dry milk solids, spray and roller process, for human consumption, f. o. b. manufacturing plants in the Chicago area as published for the period from the 26th day of the immediately preceding month through the 25th day of the current month and 3 cents shall be added for each full one-half cent that the latter price is above 6 cents per pound.

SEC. 52. Butterfat differentials to handlers. If the average butterfat content of the milk of any handler allocated to any class pursuant to section 46 is more or less than 3.5 percent, there shall be added to the respective class prices computed pursuant to section 51 for each one-tenth of one percent that the average butterfat content of such milk is above 3.5 percent, or subtracted for each one-tenth of one percent that the average butterfat content of such milk is below 3.5 percent an amount equal to the applicable butterfat differential computed as follows:

(a) Class I milk. Add 3.1 cents to the value computed pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section for the preceding delivery period; and

(b) Class II milk. From the simple average of the daily wholesale selling prices (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of Grade A (92-score) bulk creamery butter per pound at Chicago as reported by the Department of Agriculture during the delivery period, subtract 6½ cents, multiply by 0.12, and adjust to the nearest tenth cent.

SEC. 53. Emergency price provisions. Whenever the provisions of this order require the market administrator to use a specific price (or prices) for milk or any milk product for the purpose of determining minimum class prices or for any other purpose and the specified price is not reported or published, the market administrator shall use a price determined by the Secretary to be equivalent to or comparable with the prices specified.

APPLICATION OF PROVISIONS

SEC. 55. Producer-handlers. Sections 40 to 46, 50 to 53, 60 to 62, and 65 to 68 shall not apply to a producer-handler.

SEC. 56. Handlers subject to other orders. In the case of any handler who the Secretary determines disposes of a greater portion of his milk as Class I milk in another marketing area regulated by another marketing agreement or order issued pursuant to this act, the provisions of this order shall not apply except as follows:

(a) The handler shall with respect to his total receipts of skim milk and butterfat, make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may require and allow verification of such reports by the market administrator; and

(b) If the price which such handler is required to pay under the Federal order to which he is subject, for skim milk and butterfat which would be classified as Class I milk under this order is less than the price provided by this order, such handler shall pay to the market administrator for pro rata credit to the account of each producer (with respect to all skim milk and butterfat disposed of as Class I milk within the marketing area) an amount equal to the difference between the value of such skim milk or butterfat as computed pursuant to this order and its value as determined pursuant to the other order to which he is subject.

DETERMINATION OF UNIFORM PRICE

SEC. 60. Computation of the value of milk received from producers. The value of the milk received by each handler from producers during each delivery period shall be a sum of money computed by the market administrator by multiplying the pounds of milk in each class computed pursuant to section 46 by the applicable class prices and adding together the resulting amounts and adding any amounts computed pursuant to paragraph 1 of this paragraph.

(1) If the handler had overage of either skim milk or butterfat there shall be added to the above value an amount computed by multiplying the pounds of overage by the applicable class price.

SEC. 61. Computation of uniform price for each handler. For each delivery period the market administrator shall compute the uniform price per hundredweight of milk received by each handler from producers as follows:

From the sum computed for each handler pursuant to section 60;

(a) Subtract during each of the delivery periods of April, May and June, an amount equal to 6 percent of the Class I price;

(b) Subtract, if the average butterfat content of the milk included in these computations is more than 3.5 percent, or add, if such butterfat content is less than 3.5 percent, an amount computed by multiplying the amount by which the average butterfat content of such milk varies from 3.5 percent by the butterfat differential computed pursuant to section 66 and multiplying the result by the total hundredweight of producer milk included in these computations; and

(c) Divide the resulting sum by the total hundredweight of producer milk received by the handler. The result shall be known as the "uniform price" for milk per hundredweight for each handler for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received from producers.

SEC. 62. Notification of handlers. On or before the 9th day of each delivery period the market administrator shall notify each handler of:

(a) The amount and value of his milk in each class computed pursuant to sections 46 and 60;

(b) The uniform price of the handler computed pursuant to section 61;

(c) The total amounts to be paid by each handler pursuant to section 65; and

(d) The amount to be paid by such handler pursuant to section 71.

PAYMENTS

SEC. 65. Time and method of payment. Each handler shall make payment for milk received during the delivery period as follows:

(a) Final payment. On or before the 12th day after the end of the delivery period:

(1) To each producer for milk which was not caused to be delivered by a cooperative association at not less than the uniform price computed in accordance with section 61, subject to the butterfat differential computed pursuant to section 66, and less the amount of the payment made to such producers pursuant to paragraph (b) (1) of this section; and

(2) To a cooperative association for milk which is caused to be delivered to such handler by such cooperative association, an amount equal to not less than the sum of the individual payments otherwise payable to producers for which the cooperative association is authorized to collect payments, less the amount of the payment made pursuant to paragraph (b) (2) of this section;

(b) Mid-delivery period payment. On or before the 27th day of each delivery period:

(1) To each producer for milk which was not caused to be delivered by a cooperative association an amount computed by multiplying the hundredweight of milk delivered during the first 15 days of the delivery period by the uniform price announced by the market administrator for such handler for the immediately preceding delivery period;

(a) To a cooperative association for milk which was caused to be delivered to such handler by such cooperative association an amount computed by multiplying the hundredweight of milk caused to be so delivered during the first 15 days of the delivery period by the uniform price announced by the market administrator for such handler for the immediately preceding delivery period.

SEC. 66. Butterfat differential to producers. If any handler has received from any producer during the delivery period, milk having an average butterfat content other than 3.5 percent, such handler, in making the payment pursuant to section 65 (a) (1) shall add to the uniform price for each one-tenth of 1 percent that the average butterfat content of such milk is above 3.5 percent, not less than, or shall subtract for each one-tenth of 1 percent that the average butterfat content of such milk is below 3.5 percent not more than, an amount computed as follows: Add 20 percent to the butter price, divide the resulting sum by 10 and adjust to the nearest cent.

SEC. 67. Adjustment of errors in payment to producers. Whenever verification by the market administrator of the payment by a handler to any producer or to a cooperative association discloses payment of an amount less than is required by section 65 the handler shall make up such payment to the producer or cooperative association not later than the time of making payment next following such disclosure.

SEC. 68. Payments to the market administrator. On or before the 10th day after the end of each delivery period each handler, who operates a fluid milk plant shall pay to the market administrator the amount, if any, computed pursuant to section 61 (a). The market administrator shall establish and maintain a separate fund into which he shall deposit all payments made by handlers pursuant to section 61, and out of which he shall make all payments pursuant to section 69.

SEC. 69. Payments by the market administrator. (a) On or before the 12th day after the delivery periods of August, September, and October the market administrator shall pay to each producer from whom milk was received by a handler during such delivery period an amount computed as follows: Divide one-third of the total amount held pursuant to section 61 (a) by the total hundredweight of milk received from producers by handlers during the delivery period involved (August, September, and October, as above) and multiply the resulting rate (computed to the nearest full cent per hundredweight) by the milk received from each producer during such delivery period; and

(b) On or before the 10th day after the end of the delivery periods of August, September, and October the market administrator shall pay to a cooperative association for milk it caused to be delivered to a handler from producers and for which such cooperative collects payments, an amount equal to the sum of the individual payments otherwise payable to such producers under (a) of this paragraph.

SEC. 70. Marketing services—(a) Deductions. Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section each handler, in making payment to producers (other than himself) pursuant to section 65 (a) shall deduct 5 cents per hundredweight or such lesser amount as the Secretary from time to time may prescribe, and shall pay such deductions to the market administrator on or before the 12th day after the end of such delivery period. Such moneys shall be used by the market administrator to check weights, samples and tests of milk received from producers and to provide producers with market information; and

(b) In the case of producers for whom a cooperative association is actually performing the services set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, each handler shall make in lieu of the deduction specified in paragraph (a) of this section such deductions from the payments to be made to such producers as may be authorized by the membership agreement or marketing contract between such cooperative association and such producers and on or before the 12th day after the end of such delivery period pay such deductions to the cooperative association rendering such services.

SEC. 71. Expense of administration. As his pro rata share of the expense of administration of this order, each handler who operates an approved plant shall pay to the market administrator, on or before the 14th day after the end of the delivery period, 4 cents per hundredweight or such amount not exceeding 4 cents per hundreweight as the Secretary may prescribe with respect to all receipts within the delivery period of milk from producers and cooperative associations including the handler's own production.

SEC. 72. Termination of obligations. The provisions of this section shall apply to any obligation under this order for the payment of money.

(a) The obligation of any handler to pay money required to be paid under the terms of this order shall, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, terminate two years after the last day of the calendar month during which the market administrator receives the handler's utilization report on milk involved in such obligation unless within such two-year period the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that such money is due and payable. Service of such notice shall be complete upon mailing to the handler's last known address, and it shall contain, but need not be limited to the following information:

(1) The amount of the obligation;

(2) The month(s) during which the milk, with respect to which the obligation exists, was received or handled; and

(3) If the obligation is payable to one or more producer(s) or associations of producers, or if the obligation is payable to the market administrator, the account for which it is to be paid.

(b) If a handler fails or refuses with respect to any obligation under this order to make available to the market administrator or his representative all books and records required by this order to be made available, the market administrator may, within the two-year period provided for in paragraph (a) of this section, notify the handler in writing of such failure or refusal. If the market administrator so notifies a handler the said two-year period with respect to such obligation shall not begin to run until the first day of the calendar month following the month during which all such books and records pertaining to such obligation are made available to the market administrator or his representative;

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, a handler's obligation under this order to pay money shall not be terminated with respect to any transaction involving fraud or willful concealment of a fact, material to the obligation, on the part of the handler against whom the obligation is sought to be imposed; and

(d) Any obligation on the part of the market administrator to pay a handler any money which such handler claims to be due him under the terms of this order, shall terminate two years after the end of the calendar month during which the milk involved in the claim was received if an underpayment is claimed, or two years after the end of the calendar month during which the payment (including deduction or setoff by the market administrator) was made by the handler if a refund on such payment is claimed, unless such handler, within the applicable period of time, files pursuant to section 8c (15) (A) of the act, a petition claiming such money.

EFFECTIVE TIME, SUSPENSION OR TERMINATION

SEC. 80. Effective time. The provisions of this order or any amendment to this order shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated pursuant to section 72.

SEC. 81. Suspension or termination. The Secretary may suspend or terminate this order or any provision of this order whenever he finds this order or any provision of this order, obstructs or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. This order shall terminate in any event whenever the provisions of the act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

SEC. 82. Continuing obligations. If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions of this order, there are any obligations under this order the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any person (including the market administrator), such further acts shall be performed notwithstanding such suspension or termination.

SEC. 83. Liquidation. Upon the suspension or termination of the provisions of this order, except this section, the market administrator, or such other liquidating agent as the Secretary may designate, shall if so directed by the Secretary, liquidate the business of the market administrator's office, dispose of all property in his possession or control, including accounts receivable, and execute and deliver all asignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to effectuate any such disposition. If a liquidating agent is so designated, all assets, books, and records of the market administrator shall be transferred promptly to such liquidating agent. If, upon such liquidation, the funds on hand exceed the amounts required to pay outstanding obligations of the office of the market administrator and to pay necessary expenses of liquidation and distribution, such excess shall be distributed to contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

SEC. 90. Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this order.

SEC. 91. Separability of provisions. If any provision of this order or its application to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the application of such provision and of the remaining provisions of this order to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

Copies of this notice of hearing may be procured from the Hearing Clerk, Room 112, Administration Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., or may be there inspected.

Dated: March 31, 1955.

[Docket No. AO-179-A13]

HANDLING OF MILK IN CLEVELAND, OHIO, MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF RECOMMENDED DECISION AND OPPORTUNITY TO FILE WRITTEN EXCEPTIONS WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT AND TO ORDER, AS AMENDED

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk of the recommended decision of the Deputy Administrator, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, with respect to a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed order, regulating the handling of milk in the Cleveland, Ohio, marketing area. Interested parties may file written exceptions to this decision with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than the close of business the 15th day after publication of this decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Exceptions should be filed in quadruplicate.

Preliminary statement. The hearing, on the record of which the proposed amendments, as hereinafter set forth, to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, were formulated, was conducted at Cleveland, Ohio, during November 30–December 9, 1954, pursuant to notice thereof which was issued on November 9, 1954 (19 F. R. 7352).

The material issues of record were concerned with the following:

1. Extending the marketing area to include all of Lorain, Lake, Geauga, and Ashtabula Counties, in addition to Cuyahoga County, Willoughby township in Lake County, and those portions of Medina County which presently comprise the marketing area;

2. Modifying the producer definition so as not to include a new shipper whose milk is diverted to a nonpool plant during April, May, June or July;

3. Adopting a form of fall quota plan to encourage a more uniform seasonality of production;

4. Modifying the pool plant standards and the provisions relating to unpriced milk;

5. Reassigning the responsibility for making or receiving payments on reclassified milk to the handler who ultimately utilizes the milk, rather than leaving it chargeable to the handler who originally received the milk from producers;

6. Changing the conditions under which other source milk may be prorated with producer milk to the several classes of utilization;

7. Announcing class prices in terms of a hundredweight of milk containing 3.5 percent butterfat, with appropriate butterfat differentials, instead of per hundredweight of butterfat and per hundredweight of skim milk;

8. Changing the Class I price provisions;

9. Changing the classification and pricing of milk now in Class II and Class III;

10. Modifying the rates of location adjustments to handlers;

11. Modifying the rates of the location adjustments to producers and applying them only to eligible milk;

12. Reducing the producer butterfat differentials; and

13. Revising the application of the Cleveland order with respect to milk subject to other Federal orders.

1. Marketing area. The sales territory served by the handlers regulated under the Cleveland order has expanded considerably since the order first became effective in September 1946. One reason for this expansion has been the fact that the consumers themselves have moved to suburban communities and that the greatest increases in population have also occurred in the suburban areas. The expansion in sales territory has also been facilitated by changes in milk distribution which have occurred both in Cleveland and throughout most areas in the United States. The significant changes in distribution include the more wide-scale use of the paper bottle which can be transported more cheaply than glass and which eliminates bottle returns, the increasing proportion of milk sold through stores rather than delivered to homes; the longer distances which it is feasible to serve by wholesale routes as compared with retail routes; and other improvements in transportation and communications which have added to the area over which milk can be economically distributed.

The increased sales by the regulated handlers have been made with milk paid for at the Class prices specified in the order. Apparently the efficiencies in bottling and distribution which the regulated handlers have been able to achieve have largely offset any advantages which the unregulated handlers may have had in the procurement of milk. In recent years, however, the volumes of milk sold by regulated handlers outside of the defined marketing area have become sufficiently large to make it feasible for them to establish separate plants to serve the unregulated sales territories. The principal advantage gained at an unregulated plant is the ability to buy milk from farmers at a blend price, and to sell virtually all of the milk so purchased for Class I purposes by obtaining supplemental milk when needed from the Cleveland pool. In fact, a handler operating both regulated and unregulated plants can probably exploit those advantages more completely at his unregulated plant than an independent unregulated handler, since the independent does not own a source of supplemental milk. The largest handler in the Cleveland market has established two unregulated bottling plants; one located east of Cleveland and one to the southwest. Other handlers are in a position to take similar action, and testified that they were giving it serious consideration.

Such action critically impairs the effectiveness of regulation. The multiple-plant operators are encouraged to develop and maintain a sufficient supply of producer milk at their regulated plant to supply not only their Class I sales from the regulated plant, but also to supply supplemental milk for the unregulated plants. The result is that the blend price to producers under the order is lowered by the extra quantity of surplus milk which must be carried for the unregulated plants, the Class I price must be maintained at a correspondingly higher level in order to keep the blend up to the point where it will attract a full supply of milk, and consumers in the marketing area must absorb the higher Class I price.

An alternative means of meeting the competitive problem would be to establish a somewhat lower Class I price on milk sold outside of the defined marketing area. This would allow the regulated handlers to be competitive with unregulated handlers in the cost of milk sold outside the area. However, consumers in the marketing area would again be bearing an additional cost in the form of a higher Class I price. In the circumstances, it is clearly more equitable to expand the marketing area than to adopt a price differential on the out-of-area sales.

The dairy farmers supplying milk to unregulated plants gain substantial indirect benefits from the Cleveland order. They are usually able to obtain the same blend price as is paid by the regulated handlers. In fact, at the time of the hearing most of the farmers shipping to plants located in one of the counties proposed to be incorporated in the Cleveland marketing area were receiving a temporary premium over the blend prices announced under the order. However, it must be recognized that the Cleveland blend price has already been reduced by the withdrawal of plants with high Class I utilization from the market and would be further reduced if other handlers also established unregulated plants.

The territory to be included in the expanded marketing area should be determined primarily by conditions of competition in the distribution of milk. The expansion should be limited to those localities which can be shown to constitute a part of the Cleveland marketing area through population movements and characteristics, the distribution of milk by regulated handlers, and a reasonable similarity in quality and sanitation requirements.

In Lorain County the added territory should include the townships of Black River, Sheffield, Avon Lake, Avon, Amherst, Elyria, Ridgeville, Carlisle, Eaton, Columbia, and Grafton. These townships comprise the northeastern portion of Lorain County, but exclude the western tier of townships and the southern portion of the county.

The portion of Lorain County to be added to the marketing area will include the sizeable cities of Lorain and Elyria, and an essentially suburban area adjacent to them. The area is served by three handlers from regulated plants in Cleveland, from an unregulated plant operated by a Cleveland handler (as previously mentioned), from a plant at Mansfield which is regulated under the Lima order, and from a number of local dairies, most of which are located in Elyria or Lorain.

In southwestern Lorain County the 10 townships of Henrietta, Russia, Camden, Pittsfield, La Grange, Brighton, Wellington, Penfield, Rochester, and Huntington should not be included. These townships are served almost exclusively by local dealers whose distribution, in turn, does not extend into the northeastern half of the county. Brownhelm township, at the northwest corner of the county, should also be excluded. The major portion of the milk distributed in the township is from dairies located at Sandusky and Vermilion. These dairies do not distribute milk east of Brownhelm, so the eastern boundary of the township appears to constitute a practical boundary between the Cleveland market and marketing areas to the west.

To the east of Cleveland the expansion of the marketing area should be limited to Mentor and Kirtland Townships and the City of Painesville in Lake County and the city of Ashtabula in Ashtabula County.

The total population of Lake County increased by 25,959 between 1940 and 1950. In Willoughby Township, already part of the marketing area, and in the other localities to be included the increase was 20,397 or 78 percent of the total increase. To some extent the Cleveland handlers have followed established clientele out into these rapidly growing places, and have solicited new business in the process. Three regulated handlers have substantial business in Kirtland and Mentor Townships and in Painesville. These localities are also served by the handler who operates a comparatively large unregulated plant in Ashtabula.

The City of Ashtabula, with a 1950 population of 23,696, is the largest center in Ashtabula County, and accounts for nearly one-third of the total population of the county. One of the presently regulated Cleveland handlers has a large wholesale distribution in the city. Also, the handler whose presently unregulated plant is located there has wholesale and retail business, and does the largest volume of any dealer serving the city. On the basis of the present and historical extent of distribution by Cleveland regulated handlers the city is clearly a part of the marketing area.

Geauga County should not be included in the marketing area. It is essentially a rural county, with a total 1950 population of 26,646. Although handlers presently regulated under the Cleveland order serve a major portion of the consumers in the county, it appears that their competitors would also be regulated by reason of distribution in those portions of Lake and Ashtabula Counties which are to be included in the marketing area. Moreover, the absence of a grade A ordinance in Geauga County raises the possibility that milk of lower sanitation requirements than those required elsewhere in the marketing area could be sold. The minimum prices specified in the order would not be applicable to the production of such milk.

In summary: To the present Cleveland marketing area of Cuyahoga County; Willoughby Township, Lake County; and Liverpool, Brunswick, Hinckley, York, Granger, Medina, Lafayette, and Montville in Medina County; there will be added Black River, Sheffield, Avon Lake, Avon, Amherst, Elyria, Ridgeville, Carlisle, Eaton, Columbia and Grafton Townships in Lorain County; Mentor and Kirtland Townships, and Painesville City in Lake County; and the City of Ashtabula in Ashtabula County.

2. Definition of producer. Only one substantive change was proposed in the definition of a producer. This proposal would modify the provision for a handler to divert milk to a nonpool plant during the months of April, May, and June of each year. At present, such diversion is allowed and the shippers maintain their status as producers, payable under the order by the operator of the pool plant for whose account the milk was diverted.

The diversion privilege is designed to reduce the expense of transporting seasonally excess milk to manufacturing plants. Instead of hauling the milk from the farms to the pool plant and re-transporting it to a manufacturing plant, it can be hauled directly to the manufacturing plant by the farm pick-up haulers.

The proposal would interfere with this process to the extent that one new shipper in a hauler's load would prevent the entire load from being diverted as producer milk. Moreover, the proposal is not sufficiently broad to achieve its announced objective of preventing handlers from bringing into the Cleveland pool shippers whose milk was temporarily surplus in some other market. If such practices should constitute a serious problem in the Cleveland market, a proposal should be considered which would completely disqualify shippers primarily associated with other markets, rather than one imposing a restriction on the diversion privilege.

It is concluded that the proposed limitation on the diversion to nonpool plants should not be adopted.

3. Seasonality of production. A quota plan should be adopted as the principal means of encouraging a more uniform production of milk during the year. The essence of the plan is that each producer establishes his eligible milk quota during the low production months. Then, in the following flush season he is paid a blend consisting mainly of the Class I price for his eligible milk and approximately the Class II price for any milk which is in excess of his eligible quota.

The seasonality problem arises from the fact that the consumption of Class I milk is comparatively constant while production is commonly greatest in the spring months when pastures become available and other natural factors are favorable. Fluid milk markets must develop a large enough supply of milk to meet Class I sales in the months of lowest output and then must dispose of the excess supply in the spring. Minimizing the excess production will reduce the amount of plant facilities, needed on a short-time basis, the extra transportation costs, the overtime payments to workers and similar inefficient practices necessary to cope with seasonal surpluses.

Under the present order the primary incentive to level production is a wide seasonal variation in the Class I price differential. This is at a minimum of $1.00 per hundredweight in the three flush months, $1.45 in three intermediate months and $1.90 in the six months when production should be encouraged. There has been some improvement in the seasonality of production since the present schedule of differentials became effective in November 1952. Average production per producer per day in May 1952 was 55.0 percent over the average in November 1951; in May 1953 it was 50.2 percent over November 1952; and in May 1954 it was further reduced to 44.4 percent over November 1953. However, fall production in the United States as a whole has been higher in the last three years than formerly, and it is not possible to determine the extent to which the Cleveland improvement is just part of the general pattern. In any event the flush season supply in Cleveland continues to be excessive.

The producer proponents of the eligible milk quota plan maintained that it will be a more effective means of levelling production. The chief advantage was held to be the fact that each producer sets his own fall quota. In the following flush period he recieves an eligible milk price which is determined solely by the quota milk, without being reduced by excess milk. Any excess milk he produces will be paid for at a manufacturing price and the quantity of his excess is subject, within the limits of natural causes, to his own efforts.

Data prepared by the market administrator at the request of producers disclose a wide range in the seasonality of production of individual producers. These data compared average deliveries per day in May 1954 with deliveries in the previous November. Approximately 24 percent made May deliveries 50 percent or more in excess of November; another 23 percent were between 35 and 50 percent over; 40 percent were between level production and a 35 percent excess; and 13 percent actually delivered more milk in November than in May. The first group contribute far too much spring milk in proportion to their fall season production, while the latter group specializes in producing at the season when milk is most needed and should be rewarded accordingly.

Terminology to be adopted in the quota plan includes definitions of "eligible milk" and "ineligible milk", and involves the assignment of producer milk receipts as either "eligible milk" or "ineligible milk". The three fall months, October through December, would make up a quota-forming period. These three low-production months of the year, are the period during which production drops closest to minimum market requirements for fluid milk. The quantity of milk which a producer furnished to a pool plant during the months of October through December would determine the quota which such producer would be allowed as "eligible milk" during the following April through June, the high production months.

A producer's daily quota would be calculated on the basis of his total milk deliveries made regularly to pool plants during the low production period divided by the number of days on which deliveries were made, but in no event less than 30. Also a producer must have made regular shipments from the date of his first shipment inthe October–December period. This is accomplished by dividing the total pounds of milk delivered during the 3-month quota-forming period by the number of days from the date of first delivery to the end of the 3-month period. These provisions are designed to permit only regular producers to earn eligible quotas and to prevent any evasions based on short-time deliveries.

Producers proposed that the period of payment on eligible and ineligible milk be the eight-month period of February through September. However, a review of the month-to-month variation in producer receipts indicates that the months of April through June are the months of greatest excess. In a market where a quota plan is being introduced for the first time it is highly desirable that its period of application be as limited as possible without destroying the desired effectiveness of the plan. Applying the quota-operating period to the three months when production in relation to fluid sales is most excessive, will offer substantial monetary reward to those producers who level their annual production to meet more nearly the needs of the market. During the remaining months of July through March all producers on the market would receive the market "blend" or uniform price.

No means of earning an eligible milk quota is allowed for a shipper who either fails to ship for the 30-day minimum period during October–December or for producers who join the market subsequent to December. They will receive the ineligible milk price for their deliveries during April, May and June, and the uniform price in all other months. The original proposal for an 8-month plan would have provided an opportunity for a new shipper to earn an eligible quota but an established shipper who either failed to make any quota or made a poor one through circumstances beyond his own control would not have such opportunity. In view of the short operating period adopted herein and the fact that new producers are not commonly signed on until after June, it appears preferable to allow quotas to be formed only in the three fall months.

Under the circumstances which have prevailed in recent years, the ineligible, or over-quota, milk would be paid for at the Class II price. However, it is provided that if the ineligible milk exceeds the Class II and Class III sales, the excess would be valued at Class I and raise the ineligible price to that extent. The Class II price is used because it is more generally representative of manufacturing milk values than the Class III price which is confined to the butterfat used to produce butter. The eligible milk price would be computed by dividing the remaining pool funds by the volume of eligible milk. In recent years it would be somewhat less than the Class I price because the fall deliveries of producer milk have been in excess of the Class I sales.

Operation of the eligible-ineligible plan for paying producers requires certain rules in connection with the establishment and transfer of quotas to provide reasonable administrative workability of the plan. However, to accomplish this purpose and yet preserve the effectiveness of the plan, transfers of quotas should be limited to situations in which producers may die, or enter into military service, or wherein joint production arrangements are dissolved. Since the quota plan herein proposed is to be effective in determining producer payments in only three months of the year, and all producers must establish a new base each year, provisions in addition to those contained herein for the establishment and transfer of quotas to meet unusual situations do not appear necessary. To provide for the possible delivery of producer milk on an every-other-day schedule, both the quota-forming and quota-operating provisions convert such deliveries to a daily average basis.

4. Pool plants. There are two major categories of plants handling milk for fluid use in the marketing area. One is the "distributing" or "city" plant, at which milk is bottled and from which milk is distributed on routes in the area. The second category is composed of "supply" or "country" plants to which milk is delivered from the farms, cooled, and shipped to distributing plants for bottling.

(a) Distributing plants. A distributing plant should be designated as a pool plant if any fluid milk, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk, or flavored milk drinks, is sold from such plant on routes which extend into the marketing area, provided that 50 percent or more of the total receipts at such plant from producers and from supply plants of milk approved for fluid use is distributed on routes either inside or outside the marketing area. An exemption should be provided for plants located outside the marketing area and distributing less than 300 points per day of the specified milk items on routes wholly or partially within the marketing area.

The present definition of distributing plants designates as pool plants all those physically located within the marketing area. Distributing plants located outside the area are not pool plants unless 10 percent or more of the total route sales are on routes operated wholly or partially within the marketing area. A major objective of the 10 percent feature is to measure whether or not a plant is sufficiently associated with the Cleveland market to participate in the equalization pool.

Producers called attention to one potentially serious defect of the provision in this regard. They pointed out that a country supply plant, or an unregulated plant primarily engaged in milk manufacturing, could become a pool plant by bottling only token quantities of milk in such plant, and distributing 10 percent or more of such token quantity to an outlet in a marketing area. To meet this situation, they proposed that the 10 percent of in-area sales be computed against total receipts of milk at a plant instead of on total route sales from such a plant.

Moreover, from evidence presented at the hearing it is apparent that there are several handlers distributing milk in portions of the enlarged marketing area whose route sales in such area are less than 10 percent of their total route sales. These are regular, year-'round sales on established routes and the plants are primarily engaged in milk distribution.

The definition of a distributing pool plant should continue to limit the designation to plants primarily engaged in the distribution of fluid milk. However, it appears that in lieu of the 10 percent of in-area sales provision this purpose can be better accomplished by requiring that the total distribution of milk from the plant on routes operated either inside or outside the marketing area must amount to at least 50 percent of the receipt of milk from producers and from country plants. Any plant which does not qualify on this basis should be deemed primarily a country supply plant and its status in the pool should be judged by the standards applied to such plants. No distinction need be made in this definition as to whether the distributing plant is physically located inside or outside the marketing area. The territory where the milk is distributed should be the controlling factor.

The land boundary of the revised marketing area extends over a large territory and some milk plants (probably involving only those located outside the marketing area) may dispose of relatively small quantities of milk on routes extending into the area. If the amount of such milk is not large, its sale has little or no effect on the marketing of milk in the area. Application of order pricing and payment provisions of these distributors would entail considerable effort and expense and would not contribute to orderly marketing in the area. Handlers operating bottling plants disposing of not more than an average of 300 points of milk per day in the area in any month should be exempt for that month from all except the reporting and auditing provisions of the order. Limitation of the exemption to a plant from which is disposed such a small quantity (less than one economical route), and which transfers no milk to other handlers, would furnish adequate protection from unfair competition to fully regulated handlers, and guard against any threat to orderly milk marketing in the area.

(b) Supply plants. Under the terms of the present order there are two sets of standards relating to the pool status of country supply plants. One set described the conditions under which a country plant which had not previously been associated with the market may obtain pool plant status. The second set describes conditions which must be met for maintaining pool plant status. A new country plant may qualify as a pool plant only if it has furnished to city distributing plants 50 percent or more of its total dairy farm supply of milk during six consecutive fall months. Once it has become qualified it remains a pool plant until the operator specifically requests disqualification under specified conditions, or until the plant fails to meet the performance standards necessary for qualification. These require that at least 50 percent of the dairy farm supply be furnished to city distributing plants in any three of the four months of October through January, and 10 percent of the supply during each of the other months except April, May, June, and July.

Handlers proposed that a pool plant not be disqualified so long as the average quantity of milk furnished to city distributing pool plants during the six-month period, July through December, was equal to 25 percent or more of the dairy farm receipts of eligible quota milk at the country plant during the same months. They contended that it is impossible to specify in advance the months during which maximum shipments must be made to city plants. It had been their experience that city plants might call on virtually all of the country plants' supply during a given month and have relatively little need for milk a month or two later.

The data contained in Table 15 of Exhibit 5, introduced at the hearing by the market administrator, corroborate the handlers' contention. These data show the quantities of milk transferred to city plants and the percentage which the transfers were of total receipts from country plants from January 1949 through October 1954. In the fall and winter of 1949–50, October through January were the four months of greatest shipment. In 1950–51 most shipments were made in November through February. In each of the succeeding years, 1951 through 1953, the four fall months of September through December were the months of largest shipment, also the percentages of transfers varied considerably from month to month but were substantially smaller in 1952 and 1953 than in 1951 or previous years. The shipping experience of individual country plants would, of course, be substantially more variable than the marketwide averages.

It is difficult to establish an objective measure of a country supply plant's contribution to the market which will be valid under all possible conditions. However, it does appear that an average percentage of shipments over a period of months will more realistically measure such contribution than the present requirement that specific quantities be shipped in each of the specified months. It is concluded that in order to maintain year-'round status as a pool plant, a country supply plant should furnish to city pool plants 30 percent or more of its dairy farm supply during the six-month period, August through January. These are the six months when historical data indicate that maximum shipments have been made to city plants. In three of the five short seasons for which the data are available, 1949–50 through 1953–54 these were the months of maximum shipments. They are also the months when the maximum Class I price differential applies. There appears to be no present reason to expect that months of maximum shipment will be materially changed by the eligible allotment program. If the program should make a substantial change in the city plant requirements for country station milk, the period can be reconsidered.

It is difficult to determine from the data of record how nearly comparable a 30 percent average for a six-month period is to present provisions of 50 percent in three of the four specified months, and 10 percent in the five other months, because the new system gives the plant credit for any shipments which may be in excess of the minimum during any particular month. It is intended that the requirements should be somewhat easier to meet than those in the present order because of the discontinuance of Sunday retail distribution. City plants require large quantities of milk on Thursday and Friday, and much smaller quantities than formerly on Saturday and Sunday. Thus, even in a month of active demand a country plant will be unable to ship its full supply of milk and will probably have to manufacture substantial quantities of weekend receipts.

Corresponding changes should be made in the provisions under which a new country plant may originally attain pool status. Under the present provisions a new plant does not acquire status until it has furnished milk for a six-month period. During these months the dairy farmers who supply the milk are not considered "producers" under the terms of the order, the plants are not included in the equalization pool, the milk is not classified or priced under the order, and the milk is "other source" to the city plant handler and is so allocated. The lack of producer status would also prevent the dairy farmers from earning an eligible allotment. These deficiencies can be remedied without any substantial change in the measure of a supply plant's contribution to and identification with the market by having such a plant qualify as a pool plant in the first month that its shipments to city plants were 30 percent or more of its dairy farm supply. This could occur in any month of the year, but a new country plant would, of course, be most likely to start shipments during the normally short period. It would maintain its status in each succeeding month that the 30 percent average was maintained, and would become a pool plant for the entire following year if its total shipments during the August through January period were equal to 30 percent of its dairy farm receipts for the six-month period.

(c) Provisions relating to "other source" milk. Under the terms of the attached amendments to the Cleveland order, the scope of regulation has been increased and the categories of "other source" milk have been correspondingly reduced. The amendments provide that any plant primarily engaged in fluid milk distribution and having a significant volume of sales in the area will be fully subject to the order. The present order, on the other hand, provides that distributing plants physically located outside the defined marketing area not be fully regulated unless 10 percent of their total sales are in the marketing area and that the in-area sales be considered as "other source" milk until they constitute the minimum percentage.

With respect to milk from supply plants, the major change accomplished by the amendments is that new plants which ship the requisite percentage of milk to city distributing plants will be fully regulated and pooled on a month-to-month basis. Under present provisions their milk is "other source" until they have completed six months of shipments.

The provisions for determining the classification of producer milk at plants receiving milk both from producers and from other sources were not reviewed at the hearing. The order provides that other source milk be allocated to the lowest classes of use in such plants. This gives producer milk a priority on the highest available utilization. Any supplemental milk which a Cleveland regulated handler may purchase in bulk or bottled form from any other Federally regulated market is also considered as other source milk under the Cleveland order and is allocated to the lowest available utilization to determine the classification of any producer milk in the handler's plant. This point is covered in more detail in topic 13 hereof.

The Cleveland order provides for a marketwide pool. Under this pooling plan, handlers whose proportion of utilization in Class I is greater than the market as a whole make payments into an equalization fund and those handlers whose proportion of utilization in Class I is less than the average for the market receive payments out of the equalization fund. This method of payments into and out of the equalization fund is the essential mechanism for providing uniformity of payments to farmers irrespective of the handler to whom they deliver their milk and provision for equalized payments to farmers is necessary to the maintenance of stable and orderly marketing conditions in the Cleveland area.

Because handlers with less than the market average proportion of milk in Class I may draw payments out of the producer-settlement, or equalization fund, there is an advantage to any plant operator who has less than the marketwide average proportion of milk in Class I to place himself under regulation in order to obtain these payments and, thereby, make it possible for him to pay the uniform price established under the order to his producers. The smaller the plant operator's proportion in Class I, the greater is the advantage of regulation to him. Under these circumstances, plants which are engaged primarily in the manufacture of milk into dairy products rather than as suppliers of Class I milk to the marketing area, will attempt to place their plants under regulation for the sole purpose of obtaining payments out of the equalization fund. The result of this, however, will be to reduce the returns to those farmers whose milk actually constitutes the regular source of supply of Class I milk for the marketing area.

It is necessary for the reasons stated, therefore, that that milk which in fact constitutes the regular and normal sources of supply for the marketing area be distinguished from other milk which might enter the marketing area. The pool plant definitions of the order, described under (a) and (b) above, are designed to identify the regular and normal sources of supply for the Cleveland marketing area. Any plant, no matter where located, may bring itself under regulation by performing in the manner required, and any plant may relieve itself of regulation when it no longer operates in a way that brings it within the scope of the order. Under the circumstances, the decision as to whether a plant will be fully regulated under the order or will not be subject to regulation is determined by the decision of the plant operator himself.

Any milk sold in the marketing area must, of course, conform to the sanitary requirements imposed by the local health authorities. However, handlers may meet these requirements without becoming regular and dependable sources of supply for the market since their milk may have been obtained as a supplemental supply during temporary periods of emergency or their sales may be an extremely small portion of a primary distribution in some other area. Clearly, it is not possible to identify the regular and normal supply for the Cleveland area solely on the basis of sanitation requirements.

Neither is the shipment of milk to the marketing area for Class I utilization a practical basis for identifying the milk which should be fully regulated under the order. If any small, incidental, or accidental shipment of milk into the marketing area were to bring all of the milk at the plant from whence such shipment was made under total regulation, great hardship could be caused to the operator of such plant and to the farmers delivering milk to such an operator. Small quantities of milk are, in fact, disposed of in the regulated marketing area as Class I from plants which are not normal or regular sources of supply for the marketing area, particularly in the Fall season, when supplies are seasonally lowest. Moreover, the operators of the plants from which such shipments arise may not wish to bring their plants under total regulation. There are many situations in which plant operators may find it economical or desirable to make shipments of small quantities of milk to the marketing area and with respect to which it is neither necessary nor desirable in terms of effective regulation to bring the operators of such plants fully under the regulation. For instance, a plant which is associated with a market outside of the Cleveland area may find it advantageous to ship milk to a plant regulated by the order in order to have such milk converted into manufactured dairy products. It is quite possible, however, through misunderstanding, or from errors of estimating the utilization of milk, for milk which was intended for utilization in Class II or Class III products to be assigned a Class I classification. If through such accident or misunderstanding a plant were placed completely under regulation, considerable hardship, unnecessary to effective regulation, might result. For this reason, it is not practical nor desirable to place a plant totally under regulation merely because a small quantity of milk shipped by it to the market finds its way into a Class I utilization.

Since neither the health regulations nor the possibility that some milk from a plant may be used for Class I purposes in the marketing area provides an adequate measure of a plant's regular status in the market, the pool plant provisions are based on regular performance as previously described. The regular supplies are fully priced under the order and participate in the equalization pool.

The irregular supplies of "other source" milk which may be sold in the market are not priced under the order. The conditions under which unpriced milk has been or would be drawn upon to supply Class I sales in the area have been reviewed. If any handler were able to obtain a price advantage on such milk, he would be in a favorable competitive position relative to the handler's buying producer milk at Class I prices. To prevent such an advantage the attached amendment provides that a payment shall be made into the producer-settlement fund on all other source milk classified as Class I at a rate equal to the difference between the Class I and the Class II price. Payments at this rate are necessary to maintain the integrity of the pricing and pooling provisions of the order. The only exception to these payments is that they are not assessed at times when total supplies of producer milk in the market are not adequate to cover Class I needs and a reasonable reserve. This exception is described in detail in a subsequent paragraph.

It appears from the record that essentially all of the other source milk utilized for Class I purposes in the marketing area has been of Grade A quality and, therefore, similar in quality to that regularly disposed of in the marketing area for Class I. It was produced as part of a supply intended primarily to meet the demand for milk for fluid consumption (or the equivalent of Class I milk uses under the order) in some area other than the area specified to be regulated by this order but it was not used for such purposes in the area for which it was produced. It was, instead, milk which became surplus to the needs for milk for fluid disposition in the area for which it was produced. If the plant operator had not found a sale for such milk within the Cleveland marketing area, it would have been necessary for him to convert the milk into a manufactured product. The most likely surplus disposition of this other source milk would have been to plants engaged in processing milk into such manufactured dairy products as butter, cheese, ice cream, or nonfat dry milk solids.

Its value, therefore, to the plant operator was a surplus milk value. The Class II price for milk under the attached amendments is based on the value of milk when it is converted into butter and nonfat dry milk solids or the prices paid for milk at a group of local dairy products manufacturing plants, and this is the price which regulated handlers are required to pay for milk when they convert it into manufactured products. A further allowance is made on Class III butterfat converted into butter or contained in allowable shrinkage under certain conditions, but does not have general applicability. The Class II price, therefore, represents an accurate and fair representation of the value to the receiving plant operator of surplus milk which is disposed of as other source milk for Class I purposes in the marketing area.

If unregulated plant operators were allowed to dispose of surplus milk for Class I purposes in the regulated marketing area without some compensating, or neutralizing provision in the order, it is clear that the disposition of such milk, because of its price advantage relative to fully regulated milk, would displace the fully regulated milk in Class I uses in the marketing area at whatever time such milk might be available. The plan of Congress, as contemplated under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, of returning minimum uniform prices to the producers for the regulated marketing area, would be defeated. Moreover, inefficiencies in the marketing of milk would be encouraged, for the regulated market would obtain its Class I milk not from the regular and normal sources of supply for the market but from other sources of supply generated solely as a result of the occasional price advantage created for unregulated milk by the regulation itself. Providing for some method of compensating for, or neutralizing the effect of, the advantage created for unregulated milk therefore is an essential and necessary provision of this order. Since the value for Class I milk in a regulated market is established at the level of the Class I price provided for in the order and since the true value of other source milk when disposed of in the marketing area is the Class II value, a payment computed as the difference between the Class I price and the Class II price will remove the advantage which other source milk would have when disposed of for Class I purposes in the marketing area.

A possible alternative method of determining the rate of the compensatory payments was explored at the hearing. Such rate would be equal to the difference between the Class I price and the price actually paid by a handler for other source milk of Grade A quality. Under the circumstances which prevail in the Cleveland marketing area, a handler normally would come into possession of this type of other source milk by purchasing it from an unregulated milk plant. The milk which such a handler receives under these circumstances is at a different stage in the marketing process than is the milk which would be priced under an order. Order prices apply to milk as received at the first plant from individual farmers. The price paid by a handler for other source milk applies to milk which has already been received at the first plant, weighed, tested, cooled and placed in a transportation conveyance. Obviously, the handler generally will pay more for other source milk under this condition than he would for milk received directly from farmers, for the plant operator who first receives the milk from farmers must necessarily obtain a markup if he is to be recompensed for the services which he has performed on the milk. In some situations, the purchase of other source milk might be made from a plant operated by the same company as the regulated plant. Thus, the transaction would be primarily a matter of bookkeeping within the same company and it would be advantageous to the company if the price for the milk were to be stated as the Class I price. For by this means, all compensatory payments into the equalization fund would be avoided. Even between plants controlled by different companies, the advantage of showing that the price at which the milk was exchanged was at least as high as the Class I prices would give great impetus to the effectuation of paper transactions showing a price at least equal to the Class I price while undisclosed payments were made in order to avoid the imposition of the compensatory payments into the equalization fund. Under these circumstances, it is impractical from an administrative standpoint to provide for a payment the actual amount of which is within the control of parties to the transaction. It is essential instead that the payment be computed on an objective basis and that it be equal for all handlers for similar transactions. The proposed method of computing the payments conforms with these requirements but this alternative method fails to do so.

Another possible rate of payment would be based on the difference between the price paid by the first receiver to farmers and the Class I price. However, from evidence presented at the hearing it is clear that this method would also be impractical under the circumstances prevailing in the Cleveland market. The primary reason is that some plants purchase some or all of their milk from other plants rather than directly from dairy farmers. Also the payment plans which are used by unregulated operators include such varying practices as paying uniform prices on a straight utilization basis, paying on a base and excess plan, paying irregular and non-uniform premiums, absorbing transportation charges, and paying on a variety of butterfat and location differentials. This wide variety of payment plans would render impossible an accurate ascertainment of the actual prices paid to farmers by the first receiver. But what is equally as important, as shown above, is that the price actually paid to farmers does not determine the true value of other source milk disposed of in the marketing area. The true value for such milk, irrespective of the price paid for it to farmers, is the manufacturing value because other source milk disposed of in a marketing area is in fact the surplus of milk produced primarily for sale in an area outside of the regulated marketing area. Hence, although other suggestions for computing the rate of the compensatory charge have administrative and other difficulties inherent in them, in the final analysis even if they were administratively feasible, they would not be fully effective in removing the advantage which attaches to other source milk when it is used as Class I milk in the regulated marketing area. Only the difference between the Class I price and the Class II prices accurately reflects this advantage and consequently only this rate will be fully effective in dealing with the problem of integrating other source milk (when used as Class I) into the regulatory plan.

Compensatory payments should not apply to purchases of supplemental milk at times when the market as a whole is short of producer milk. This effect is achieved under the present order by allowing a city plant to purchase up to half of its milk from unregulated sources without making compensatory payments. As previously mentioned, this provision is related to the present order provisions for the qualification of new supply plants, but the exemption from compensatory payments is not confined to purchases of milk from plants which are in process of qualifying. Since the attached amendments would give a new supply plant immediate pool status on a month-to-month basis, the compensatory payments have been made to apply to all other source milk used in Class I at a pool plant, unless the market is short of producer milk.

At times in the past when the Cleveland market has been short of producer milk, supplies of quality milk from other sources have also been limited and more costly than the minimum Class I prices established under the order. The Cleveland market is so large in relation to the other fluid milk markets in northern Ohio and Indiana, and its milkshed so widespread as to make it probable that other source milk would also be expensive during any future situation of short supply.

The Cleveland market should be considered short whenever producer receipts are less than 110 percent of the gross Class I utilization at pool plants. This is below the percentage adopted as "standard" in the supply-demand adjustment, and the market can be considered definitely short of milk at this monthly average percentage because of daily and weekly variations in sales and receipts during the month. The percentage standard is based on marketwide data. No handler can obtain other source milk without an equalizing payment merely by buying short from his own producers. He must either take on sufficient supplies for his own use or depend upon other handlers who have supplies in excess of their own Class I needs.

No compensatory payments are required under the Cleveland order on milk classified and priced under another Federal order. The close relationships between the Cleveland, Akron, and Stark County, Lima, Toledo, Fort Wayne, and Detroit markets have already been described. Since the Class I prices in the competing markets are so closely aligned with those under the Cleveland order, there is no prospect of handlers in any one of the several markets achieving a competitive advantage over any significant period of time.

All funds collected from other source milk should be added to the producer-settlement fund. Since the compensation payments apply only when there are adequate supplies of producer milk in the market, the payments will compensate producers for the loss of income represented by the Class I sales of other source milk.

The regulated handler should be obligated to make the compensatory payments. There will be no difference in actual price paid for milk whether the payment is made by the regulated handler or by the operator of the unregulated plant from which the other source milk is obtained. However, the regulated handler makes the actual distribution of milk and reports its utilization to the market administrator, therefore from an administrative viewpoint he is the logical one to make the payment.

5. Responsibility and reclassifications. Handlers proposed that accountability for the classification of milk be shifted to the ultimate user of the milk instead of being left with the handler who first received the milk from producers.

The handler who had encountered the most difficulty with the present provision operates a country supply plant and sells milk to a number of distributing plant operators. It is apparent that whether the operator of a country plant remained responsible for audit adjustments and other reclassification or whether this responsibility was shifted to the city plant, the two parties would have to agree between themselves on the incidence of such adjustments. Also, it was testified that the amounts involved had been greatly reduced since the market administrator developed a procedure for reconciling the original utilization reports of the country plant and the several city plants. In view of these considerations and the general administrative desirability of keeping the responsibility applicable to the operator of the plant of first receipt, especially in case of transfers to nonpool plants, it is concluded that the proposal should not be adopted.

6. Allocation of milk. The provision for prorating other source milk with producer milk in the allocation of producer milk to the several classes of utilization should be deleted.

The order now provides that other source milk may be allocated on a pro rata basis by each handler to the extent that producer receipts are less than 110 percent of Class I sales at his plant. On the other hand, whenever producer receipts are in excess of 110 percent of the handler's Class I utilization, any purchases of other source milk by the handler must be allocated to the lowest class of utilization, thereby assigning producer milk to the higher classes of utilization.

The amended provisions for qualifying new country supply plants as pool plants on a month-to-month basis will greatly reduce the applicability of the prorating provision. Under the present order the milk from a newly qualifying country plant remains other source until after the 6-month shipping period is completed. Under the prorate provision, any distributing plant which was short of producer milk could purchase the other source milk from the new plant during the months of October through January without having its producer milk allocated to the higher classes. The amended pool plant definitions would designate the country plant milk as producer milk in each month that the minimum percentage requirements were met.

The prorate provision conflicts with the principle that producer milk should be allocated to the highest classes of use because it is the milk which is regularly available for fluid consumption in the marketing area. It permits an individual handler to purchase other source milk and leave proportionate quantities of producer milk in Class II or Class III at a time when there may be abundant supplies of producer milk elsewhere in the market.

It was testified that the Cleveland handlers have been so well supplied with producer milk in recent years that the prorate provision has been virtually inoperative. It appears, therefore, that the deletion of the provision is particularly appropriate at this time since it will not necessitate any major adjustments in the procurement plans of handlers.

7. Method of stating class prices. The order should be revised to provide that Class prices for milk be stated in terms of a hundredweight of milk containing 3.5 percent butterfat, with a differential for each one-tenth of a percent that the actual butterfat test varies from 3.5 percent.

The butterfat and skim milk utilized in each class is accounted for separately under most of the Federal orders, including all the orders in Ohio. The price per hundredweight of milk must, of course, be allocated to the skim milk and butterfat components. In most orders throughout the United States this is accomplished by specifying a basic butterfat test and a butterfat differential, which is the amount to be added or subtracted from the announced price for each one-tenth of one percent variation in butterfat content. Under the present Cleveland order the 3.5 percent price is only an intermediate computation; official class prices are then computed and announced separately per hundredweight of butterfat and per hundredweight of skim milk. There is no substantive difference between the two means of computing and announcing class prices. However, the butterfat differential method is more simply stated, focuses attention on the 3.5 price, and is used in the majority of orders which utilize a butterfat and skim milk accounting system.

8. Class I prices. The three major changes in the Class I price provisions are that (a) the stated Class I differentials should be changed to $1.35 per hundredweight during the six flush months of February through July and to $1.80 during the short production months of August through January; (b) the seasonal pattern of the standard utilization percentages in the supply-demand adjustment should be modified to reflect recent and prospective changes, retaining, however, the present standard of 117 percent in November and the present schedule of price changes; and (c) the Class I butterfat differential should be set at 30 percent over the market price of butter, with the 45-cent per hundredweight discount on cream eliminated.

(a) Stated differentials. Under the present order, seasonal changes in the level of the stated Class I price differentials are relied upon to provide the principal economic incentive for producers to furnish uniform quantities of milk to the market at all seasons of the year. The differential is at a low of $1.00 per hundredweight over basic formula prices in the flush months of April, May, and June; at an intermediate level of $1.45 during February, March, and July; and a peak of $1.90 during the short production season of August through January.

The eligible allotment plan was proposed as a more directly effective means of encouraging level production. It depends upon a maximum difference between the eligible and ineligible prices during the spring flush months to encourage producers to earn as large an eligible allotment as possible in the previous fall and to minimize the production of ineligible excess milk in the spring. Any seasonality in the Class I differential reduces the flush season difference between the eligible and ineligible prices. However, producers proposed that less complete reliance be placed upon the quota plan at its inception. They proposed that a 45-cent seasonal variation be retained. In view of the importance of educational efforts to the success of the plan and the subjective nature of seasonal incentives in general, it is concluded that a 45-cent variation should be adopted. The high price of $1.80 will be effective in the same months, August through January, as the maximum price under the present order, and the $1.35 will prevail in the remaining six months of February through July.

The stated Class I differentials of $1.35 and $1.80, for 6 months each, average virtually the same as at present, $1.57½ as compared with the present $1.56¼. Producers had proposed that the average of the Class I differentials be increased to $1.63¾ and that the supply-demand adjustment, which has reduced the price in most months, be eliminated. However, it is apparent that the present schedule of Class I differentials and the supply-demand factor have been high enough to attract an adequate supply for the needs of the market. A supply equal to 117 percent of Class I sales is considered normal in the month of lowest production; in 1953 the lowest supply in October, was 125.4 percent of sales and in October 1954 the low was 132.5 percent. Developments which may tend to reduce milk supplies include the announcement by the Cleveland health authorities of a requirement that milk be delivered to the plant at such a low temperature that mechanical coolers on the farm would become a virtual necessity. These are not only costly, but also the use of electric power as is required by such cooling equipment is contrary to the religious beliefs of many producers in the area. The Brucellosis eradication program recently undertaken by State authorities may also significantly affect herds in the area. However, if these or other future developments prove that the stated Class I differentials are inadequate to assure a full supply of milk, the supply-demand adjustment will provide automatic price increases for such time as may be required to arrange for review of the entire Class I price structure at a public hearing.

Another gauge of the level of Class I prices is provided by a comparison with prices in the markets with which Cleveland handlers compete for supplies or in the distribution of milk. The Class I prices which have been in effect in Cleveland since the inception of the supply-demand provision (August, 1953) appear to have been in appropriate adjustment with those in competing markets. Official notice is taken of Class I price data showing that during the 17-month period, August 1953 through December 1954 Cleveland prices compared with those in competing markets as follows:

Competitive market		Cleveland market
Market	Class I price	Class I[1] price	Competitive point
Cincinnati, Ohio[2]	$4.53	$4.40	East Liberty, Ohio.
Columbus, Ohio	4.38	4.40	Do.
Dayton-Springfield, Ohio	4.46	4.40	Do.
Detroit, Mich.[3]	4.22	4.32	Coldwater, Mich.
Lima, Ohio	4.44	4.38	Lima, Ohio.
Stark County, Ohio	4.67	4.66	At Cleveland.
Toledo, Ohio	4.44	4.44	Bowling Green, Ohio.

[1] City plant price less location adjustments at the indicated competitive points.
[2] At plants over 45 miles from Cincinnati.
[3] At Litchfield, Mich., the closest Detroit plant to Coldwater, Mich.

It will be seen that Class I prices under the Cleveland order have been very closely in line with those in other Ohio markets and Detroit during the 17-month period. Moreover, during 1954 the Class I prices under the Lima order were related directly to the Cleveland price less location differential, and those in the Stark County were adjusted to stay as closely as possible to 5 cents less than the Cleveland Class I price.

The year 1955 will be a period of transition between the seasonal price plan and the quota plan. Beginning in October 1955, producers will be establishing their eligible milk allotment quotas for use during the period April–June 1956. Their plans for breeding, feeding, purchases of cows, and the like will necessarily precede October by many months. Conceivably the changes in the seasonal pattern of the Class I differential could be postponed until April 1, 1956 on the basis that that is the first date when the eligible allotment plan will be reflected in payments to producers. However, producers strongly recommended that the change in seasonality be made effective as promptly as possible. In view of the fact that advance preparations for the plan are already in progress and that the annual average level of the Class I differential is not significantly affected, it is concluded that the changes should be made effective immediately upon the effective date of the amendments contained herein.

(b) Supply-demand adjustment. The supply-demand adjustment provisions of the present order should be retained, but a substantial modification should be made in its seasonal effects.

The adjustment was not reviewed in as much detail as at the hearing of June 17, 1953 nor was evidence presented which alters the conclusions contained in the final decision issued by the Acting Secretary on July 27, 1953 (18 F. R. 4473). Producers and those handlers who submitted proposed amendments to the Class I price provisions, specifically omitted any supply-demand adjustment. Their principal basis for this omission was a belief that the amounts subtracted from the stated Class I differential over the 15-month history of the present adjustment had resulted in unduly low prices. The preceding analysis of the general level of the Class I prices which have prevailed do not support this conclusion.

However, it is apparent that the seasonal pattern of the present adjustment has not coincided with recent or prospective conditions in the market. From March 1, 1952, when the latest country supply plants became qualified, to date, the seasonality of the utilization percentages has been remarkable uniform and substantially different from the standard percentages incorporated in the order. (In this period supplies have also averaged approximately 13 percentage points above the standard in relation to Class I sales but this is a matter of the production level rather than of seasonal pattern.) In two of the three years October supplies were actually lower than in November, whereas the present standard reflects substantially higher supplies. September supplies have also been lower in relation to sales than is reflected in the standard. On the other hand flush season supplies during 1952–54 have been in almost the same proportion to November supplies as in the order standard.

The average utilization percentages for the three-year period March 1952 through February 1955 (official notice is taken of these data for the last 4 months of the period) ranged from 128.9 percent for October and 129.9 for November to a high of 190.6 for May. Reduced to a November average of 117.0, the present normal for the month of lowest production, the three-year average for May would be correspondingly reduced to 171.7 percent. In anticipation that the eligible quota plan will reduce the flush season excess, it appears that the revised normal utilization percentages should be further reduced to a maximum of 165.0 percent in May.

The revised normal percentages and the new standard utilization percentages, based on the normal percentages for the first and second preceding months, would be as follows:

Month	3-year percentage, adjusted [1]	Normal percentage [2]	Standard utilization percentage [3]
January	130.0	130.0	120
February	133.8	133.8	127
March	143.8	143.8	132
April	150.2	150.2	139
May	171.7	165.0	147
June	162.2	158.0	158
July	140.2	140.2	162
August	133.0	133.0	149
September	123.2	123.2	137
October	116.1	117.0	128
November	117.0	117.0	120
December	123.9	123.9	117

[1] Averages for the period March 1952–February 1955, adjusted to November 117.0.
[2] Percentages for May, June, and October adjusted to reflect anticipated changes in seasonality.
[3] Average of normal percentages for the first and second preceding months, rounded to nearest whole number.

The change in seasonality of the standard utilization percentages should be the only modification in the supply-demand adjustment. The level of the adjustment should continue to be set at 117 for the month of November, the first and second preceding months should continue to measure oversupply or undersupply, and the schedule of price changes should remain as at present. The adjustments which would have prevailed during 1954 under the amended schedule of standard utilization percentages would have been –25 cents in all months except September and October 1954, when it would have been –19 cents.

(c) Butterfat differential. Serious consideration was given at the hearing to possible revision of the relative values of butterfat and skim milk in Class I, with special attention being given to fluid cream. Under the present order, cream is classified as Class I but the price per hundred pounds of 3.5 milk utilized to produce cream is 45 cents less than the price for other Class I uses. In both categories of use 70 percent of the Class I price is assigned as the value of the 3.5 pounds of butterfat and 30 percent as the value of the 96.5 pounds of skim milk. Since the price of Class I milk varies seasonally, the value of the butterfat used in fluid cream also varies. During the 12 months preceding the hearing (November 1953 through October 1954) the price per pound of butterfat in fluid cream ranged from a low of 1.13 times the price of 92-score butter at Chicago in May and June to a high of 1.52 times the price of butter in September and October. The 12-month average was 1.33.

There is a considerable volume of "open market" cream sold through brokers in the Cleveland market area. It was testified that such cream has been available at prices which are below the fluid cream price under the order by as much as $5.00 per 10-gallon can of 40-percent cream. Handlers contended that most users of bulk cream obtained their supplies from brokers rather than from regular handlers. Apparently cream from some plants, not subject to the order may also be of suitable quality for distribution as bottled cream. Such evidence as was presented at the hearing on the prices charged by cream brokers indicates that such prices are maintained at a reasonably consistent relation to the butter market. Although there was conflicting evidence on the exact level of brokerage cream prices, it appears that the value of 1.3 times the butter price will be appropriate. This is somewhat lower than the average order value during the past 12 months and is the same value as specified in the Toledo, Lima, Canton, and Akron orders.

Handlers also indicated that the fundamental problem underlying their proposal for a lower classification on skim milk and butterfat disposed of to bakeries, candy shops, and soup kitchens involved the high valuation of butterfat in fluid cream. It is concluded that the adoption of a Class I butterfat differential at 30 percent over the price of butter for all months of the year will make order prices competitive with brokerage cream and thereby permit handlers to supply those outlets on a fully competitive basis.

During the past 12 months the value of butterfat in Class I items other than fluid cream has ranged from a low of 1.23 times the market price of butter in June 1954 to a high of 1.67 in September and October. In Cleveland, as well as in most markets in the United States, sales of fluid cream and high-test milk have been declining, while sales of skim milk, buttermilk, flavored drinks and other low-testing products have been increasing. This change in consumer habits should be recognized by reducing the value of Class I butterfat and correspondingly increasing the value of the skim milk component. This reapportioning of the values of butterfat and skim milk components is in keeping with continuing reports that butterfat values have been at such high levels as to have had a considerable effect on the downward trend of cream and butter consumption during recent years.

It is concluded that the butterfat differential on all Class I uses should be established at 0.13 times the market price of butter and that the full Class I price should be applied to fluid cream as well as to the other products.

(9) Class II and Class III. The changes made in Class II and Class III may be summarized as follows:

a. The new Class II milk includes all manufacturing uses except butterfat used to produce butter or contained in allowable shrinkage. It is a combination of the present Class II (ice cream and cottage cheese) with the present regular Class III items.

b. The new Class II price will be the higher of the present Class III butter-powder formula price or a local plant price, with the exception that during April, May, and June, 1955, the local plant price will prevail. The butterfat and skim milk contained in Class II milk will have the same proportionate values as in the previous Class III.

c. Butterfat in the present "butter-shrink" subcategory of Class III will constitute a separate Class III.

d. The new Class III price will continue to be 5 cents per pound of butterfat below the value of butterfat in the new Class II, if the local plant price is as much as 17.5 cents per hundredweight below the Class II butter-powder value. If the local plant price is less than 17.5 cents below the Class II butter-powder value, the 5-cent discount will be correspondingly reduced, and if the local plant price is the effective Class II price, the price of butterfat in Class III will be the same as in Class II.

Under the present order the two major uses of Class II milk are ice cream and cottage cheese. The other manufactured dairy products are included in Class III, except that butterfat manufactured into butter or contained in allowable shrinkage of producer milk is included in a special subcategory of Class III and priced at a discount below the regular Class III price. The prices of butterfat used in Class II and Class III (except butter and shrinkage) have been the same since November of 1952. However, the price of skim milk in Class II is based upon market quotations for spray process nonfat dry milk solids at Chicago, whereas the value of Class III skim milk is based upon the value of roller process nonfat dry milk solids, f. o. b. manufacturing plants, resulting in values about 25 cents per hundredweight lower than the price of Class II skim milk.

Milk utilized in the manufacture of cottage cheese and ice cream should be classified and priced in the same classification as uses presently included in Class III. Since the Class II and Class III butterfat values are already the same, this change would put all surplus uses of milk in a single price class with the exception of butterfat utilized in the manufacture of butter or included in shrinkage. Accordingly, the present Class II would be expanded to include the present Class III items. Since butterfat utilized in the manufacture of butter and contained in shrinkage is separately priced, it should also be separately classified. Such utilization constitutes the new Class III in the attached order.

The present provisions for higher classification and prices on skim milk utilized in ice cream than in other manufacturing uses have led to several inequities. Condensed skim milk has been an important outlet for nonfat solids in the Cleveland market. This product is used primarily in the manufacture of ice cream. If it is sold to the operator of an unregulated ice cream plant, either within or outside the marketing area, it is priced at Class III. However, if the condensed skim is utilized in the manufacture of ice cream within a regulated plant, it is reclassified as Class II. It was contended at the hearing that this leaves handlers who manufacture ice cream in their own facilities at a substantial price disadvantage in the manufacture and sale of ice cream. It is concluded, therefore, that the classification and pricing of skim milk utilized for the manufacture of ice cream should be the same as that utilized in such other ice cream ingredients as plain or sweetened condensed skim milk and nonfat dry milk solids.

The largest quantities of skim milk presently classified as Class II have been utilized in the manufacture of cottage cheese. It was testified at the hearing that cottage cheese curd is available from unregulated sources and from other Federal order markets at less than Cleveland order prices. Non-handlers have been able to specialize in the cottage cheese business and have succeeded in taking from regulated handlers virtually all sales of bulk cottage cheese to meat markets, delicatessens and similar outlets for bulk cottage cheese in the marketing area. Regulated handlers are not able to compete for this business by using producer skim milk because of the higher price, nor are they able to meet competition by purchasing curd from other sources if they have producer milk in lower classes which would be moved into Class II through the allocation provisions.

The butterfat portion of the Class III butter-powder formula has been established at 20 percent over the price of 92-score butter at Chicago. As previously explained the skim milk value has been based upon the price of roller process powder at manufacturing plants in the Chicago area. However, the large volumes of milk which have had to be disposed of in many outlets during the flush seasons of 1953 and 1954 have necessitated lower prices during April, May, and June of each of the two years. During these periods the Class III price was reduced to approximately the level of the prices paid for milk at local manufacturing plants.

It appears that Class III prices resulting from the order have not been unduly high and should not be reduced. All of the milk delivered by the producers in excess of fluid needs has been marketed for manufacturing purposes. One of the cooperative associations in the market maintains milk manufacturing facilities. Its membership currently comprises nearly 10 percent of the total number of producers supplying the market. In addition to manufacturing all of the excess milk delivered by its own producers, this cooperative has manufactured milk diverted by other handlers. The manager of this cooperative testified that it has handled such milk without loss and that it has paid order prices for milk purchased from other handlers, except in rare cases involving small quantities, irregular supplies or similar conditions. During 1953 and 1954 the Class III butter-powder prices have been substantially above those paid by local plants. The local plant prices have, in fact, been considered as "distress milk" prices and have been utilized in the order only during the months of April, May, and June when burdensome quantities of milk had to be utilized for manufacture. At any time when prices paid by the local plants may be above the butter-powder formula, as a result of stronger demands for milk to manufacture into evaported milk, cheese, or other products, it is appropriate that such prices be used as the Class II price. It is concluded, therefore, that the new Class II price should be the higher of (1) the old Class III butter-powder formula or (2) an average of the prices paid at a representative group of plants, except that in the months of April, May and June 1955, the local plant prices should be used.

Present indications are that the quantities of milk which must be converted into manufactured dairy products in April, May, and June of 1955 and the problems involved in obtaining favorable prices for such milk will be similar to those that prevailed during the corresponding months of 1953 and 1954.

Production per producer and total receipts from producers have continued to increase more rapidly than Class I sales. Receipts in the market are considered normal when they equal 117 percent of Class I use during November, the month of shortest supply, and to 171 percent in the flush month of May. However, during November 1952, the receipts to sales ratio was 9 points above normal and in the following May was 22 points over. In November 1953 it was 12 points above normal and in the following May 20 points over. In November 1954, the ratio was 17 points above normal, indicating the possibility that the oversupply in the coming flush months may be more burdensome than during the flush periods of 1953 and 1954. In such event, handlers' own facilities will again be unable to accommodate all the milk which is not sold in fluid form, and large quantities may need to be shipped to non-handler manufacturing plants.

A similar price problem is also in prospect. During most months of 1953 and 1954 the prices paid by manufacturing plants were substantially lower than usual in relation to butter and powder prices. As a consequence, handlers who had to dispose of milk to manufacturing plants commonly received lower prices than those resulting from the Class III butter-powder formula. Sizeable transportation charges were also incurred on some of the milk so disposed of. Even those handlers who process those dairy products included in the new Class II in their own plants had to pay more for it than the prices paid for milk at the directly competitive nonhandler plants. To the extent that local plant prices are not as far below butter-powder values in April, May, and June 1955 as in the corresponding months of 1953 and 1954, the reduction in the new Class II price will be correspondingly less.

There should not be any special price for milk in the new Class II for the flush seasons following 1955. It is anticipated that the new plan for achieving a more level seasonal pattern of production will have become effective to an extent which should substantially reduce the quantities of excess milk to be disposed in April, May and June of 1956 and succeeding years.

The local plant price to be used as an alternative Class II formula should be the average of the prices paid for 3.5 milk at all of the local plants listed under the Lima, Toledo and Fort Wayne orders. These plants are all located within the Cleveland milkshed. Their prices are representative of the prices paid for manufacturing milk in the area, are used for such purpose under those other orders, and are readily available to the respective market administrators. The present operators and locations of the plants are as follows:

Defiance Milk Products Co., Defiance, Ohio.
Fisher Dairy & Cheese Co., Wapakoneta, Ohio.
Kraft-Phenix Cheese Corp., Kendallville, Ind.
Nestles Milk Products Co., Marysville, Ohio.
Pet Milk Co., Angola, Ind.
Pet Milk Co., Coldwater, Ohio.
Pet Milk Co., Delta, Ohio.
Pet Milk Co., Garrett, Ind.
Pet Milk Co., Hudson, Mich.
Swift & Co., Lima, Ohio.

The butterfat differential paid by handlers for milk utilized in the new Class II should be equal to 0.119 times the price of 92-score butter at Chicago. This will result in the same relative values of butterfat and skim milk as prevailed under the former Class III price. There was no evidence presented at the hearing which would indicate that any change was desirable in these relative values of butterfat and skim milk.

Reducing the classification and price of the skim milk components of ice cream and cottage cheese will, inevitably, reduce the money received by producers for these products whenever the price of the new combined Class II is based upon butter-powder values. However, to the extent that the price adjustment on ice cream and cottage cheese stimulates greater use of producer milk in these products, correspondingly smaller quantities will be used in the manufacture of butter at the Class III price or diverted to manufacturing plants during April, May, and June. Also, the returns from these and all other Class II and Class III uses of milk would be substantially increased during periods like 1951 and 1952 when local plant prices were in excess of butter-powder values.

The new Class III consisting of butterfat utilized in the manufacture of butter or contained in the allowable shrinkage of producer milk, should continue to be priced at 5 cents per pound of fat below the value of butterfat in the new Class II except that the 5-cent discount should apply only when local plant prices are below the Class II butter-powder formula by 17.5 cents or more. (The figure of 17.5 cents is equal to the value of 3.5 pounds of fat at 5 cents per pound.) Whenever the local plant price is below the new Class II butter-powder formula by less than 17.5 cents per hundredweight of 3.5 milk, the discount on Class III butterfat should be correspondingly reduced. There would be no discount when the local plant price was equal to or above the Class II butter-powder formula price.

The discount of 5 cents per pound of butterfat has been allowed under the order to cover the cost of converting the butterfat into butter. The cooperative association which operates a milk manufacturing plant under the order produced large quantities of butter over the past two years. Based upon their experience it appears that 5 cents allowance has been appropriate. However, the value of milk used in the manufacture of butter and by-products should not at any time be less than the local plant price. The local plant prices represent the minimum value at which handlers should be able to convert producer milk in the manufactured products and the value at which competitive products, such as ice cream, cheese, butter, and condensed and dry milks are available. During the past two years, in particular, butter and powder have represented comparatively favorable outlets for milk for manufacture since butter, nonfat dry milk solids and American cheese have been the products purchased by the government in order to make the support program effective. Butterfat content in allowable shrinkage should continue to be valued at the lowest class price.

10. Location adjustments to handlers. The location adjustments to handlers on milk used for Class I purposes should be increased to reflect increased costs of transportation. The new rates should start with 20 cents at plants located 60 to 74 miles from City Hall in Cleveland, and be increased by 2 cents for each additional 14 miles.

These compare with present rates of 15 cents at plants located in the 60 to 75 mile-zone, 18 cents at 75 to 90 miles, and 2 cents per 15 miles thereafter. These rates apply both to Class I and Class II.

Handlers testified that the present rates are not equal to the amounts charged by contract haulers for transporting milk in bulk from the supply plants to the marketing area. A few supply plant operators maintain their own trucks and tanks, but the majority depend upon contract haulers. The higher wages paid to drivers, increased costs of equipment, and the axle mile tax in Ohio represent additional costs since the hearing of May 1952, when the differentials were last reviewed.

Milk hauling costs can be considered in two steps. One is the minimum cost of providing the equipment and driver, loading, and cleaning. The other is the cost per mile of transporting the milk additional distances. The most direct testimony on the short-haul minimum was presented by the operator of a supply plant in the 60–75 mile zone. He testified that he had a 20-cent rate with a contract hauler, on the basis of regular daily shipments. The second benchmark for which specific hauling cost data were available involved a plant in the 195 to 210-mile zone. The contract haul charge from this plant is 40 cents, as compared with an allowed rate of 34 cents under the present schedule.

It appears that the rates at intervening locations can most appropriately be set at a constant rate per zone since they are primarily a function of the added distance. Accordingly, and in view of the administrative desirability of keeping the rate in terms of whole cents, the mileage zones for each 2-cent change in rate need to be set at 14 miles beginning at plants located more than 60 miles from City Hall. The same rate structure of 2 cents per 14 miles should be extended to distances beyond the 200 to 214-mile zone. The only cost which is avoided at these distances by plants located in Indiana and Michigan is the Ohio axle mile tax, and this amounts to only seven one-hundredths of a cent per hundredweight per 14 miles.

The handler location adjustment should continue to apply to all Class I disposition from a plant whether the milk is sold within the Cleveland marketing area, locally, or to distant points. Also, since all the manufacturing uses except butter and shrinkage have been combined into the new Class II items, the location adjustment to handlers should be confined to Class I. The location adjustment should apply to any plants which may be located within the expanded marketing area, but more than 60 miles from the Cleveland City Hall by road distance.

Under the present order, the location adjustment to handlers applies to the actual weight of all Class I and Class II products moved to the marketing area. The value of the pooled milk is, therefore, reduced to the extent that handlers physically move milk to marketing area plants for other than Class I requirements. Producers should not bear the transportation expense on such movements of milk. Rather, they should bear the cost of transporting on only that milk which is actually used for Class I purposes. A method is provided for determining the order in which milk from various sources should be allocated to Class I for the purpose of computing the location adjustment. The method gives first priority to milk received directly from producers at the plant which has Class I utilization and then assigns receipts from supply plants in the order of their nearness to the Public Square in Cleveland.

11. Location adjustments to producers. The minimum uniform prices to producers delivering milk to plants located more than 60 miles from the Cleveland City Hall should be reduced by the same rate of location adjustments as apply to Class I sales by handlers. This follows the principle that whenever the producers' milk is actually used for Class I purposes, it is worth the market area price less the cost of transporting it to the market. The only modification to this principle is that during April through June, when the eligible allotment plan is operative, the producer location adjustment should be applied only on the eligible milk.

Under the present order the rates of location adjustment to producers and handlers are the same except that an adjustment of 13 cents is provided to producers delivering to plants in the 30 to 60-mile zone. This adjustment is no longer effective. Handlers receiving milk at plants located in this zone testified that they are commonly obliged to pay premiums equal to or in excess of the 13-cent location adjustment. Further, there are no producer location adjustments at the plants regulated under the Akron and Stark County orders which are directly competitive in the 30 to 60-mile zone. These orders have become effective since November 1952 when the location adjustments in the Cleveland order were last reviewed and modified. It is concluded that handlers operating plants in the 30 to 60-mile zone should be obligated to pay producers the city zone price.

Producers proposed that the location adjustment apply only on eligible milk, in those months when the allotment plan is operative. They maintained that the minimum value of ineligible milk is the manufacturing value which does not vary with distance from the market. The attached order does not provide location adjustments to handlers on Class II or Class III milk. It is concluded that the producer location adjustment should apply only to the eligible milk during the operating months of the eligible quota plan.

12. Butterfat differential to producers. The butterfat differential used in paying producers for milk testing above or below 3.5 percent butterfat should continue to be based on the weighted average values of butterfat and skim milk in Classes I, II, and III. This follows the same principle as the payment of a uniform price to all producers. Each producer shares equally in the total value of the handlers' utilization in each class at the basic test of 3.5 percent butterfat. It is equally appropriate that each producer should receive the average utilization value of the butterfat and skim milk components for milk testing above or below 3.5 percent.

A weighted average will give butterfat a somewhat higher value and skim milk a correspondingly lower value than those proposed by producers. However, it will be lower than the present differential in most months because the Class I butterfat differential has been changed from a percentage factor to a fixed relation to the Chicago butter price.

13. Milk from other Federal order markets. The order now provides that milk disposed of as Class I in the Cleveland marketing area from a plant which the Secretary determines to be subject to the pricing and payment provisions of another Federal order are not subject to the pricing and payment provisions of the Cleveland order. Although such sales have been negligible in the past, the Akron marketing area is so close to Cleveland that Akron handlers might increase their Class I sales on routes in Cleveland to such an extent that they would become subject to the Cleveland order, except for the fact that they are already regulated under the Akron order.

A more common example of other Federal milk going into the Cleveland market is represented by the purchase of such milk by Cleveland handlers operating Cleveland pool plants. At any time when the Cleveland market is short of producer milk the handler might be expected to draw upon other Federal markets as well as unregulated sources for a supplemental supply of milk. The order provides that any supplemental or other source milk (whether from the regulated or unregulated sources) shall be allocated to the lowest utilization at the pool plant. However, no compensatory payments are levied on such quantities of other Federal order milk as may be allocated as Class I in the Cleveland pool plant.

Handlers proposed that supplemental milk received at a pool plant from other Federal markets should be allocated under both orders to any class of use agreed upon between the two handlers, in much the same fashion as the transfers between Cleveland handlers. It is apparent, however, that this proposal could lead to serious disruption in the pool. For example, any firm which had plants both under the Cleveland and Lima orders could maintain a 100 percent Class I utilization in the Lima market, which has an individual-handler pool, by the expedient of transferring to its Cleveland plant, as Class I, any flush season surplus of milk which might otherwise be classified as Class II in Lima. Similarly, even between markets with marketwide pools, a handler with a plant in each market could influence the comparative blend prices. So long as the various Federal markets maintain their separate identities and separate pooling arrangements, it is highly desirable that the producers who regularly supply milk to any given plant have a prior claim on that plant's Class I utilization.

It is concluded that there should be no change in the provisions for allocation to the lowest utilization supplemental milk received at a Cleveland pool plant from other Federal markets. Plants regulated under other Federal orders should continue to be permitted to sell milk in the Cleveland market without becoming subject to any of the pricing or payment provisions in the Cleveland order. (Such a plant is, of course, automatically exempt from any allocation in the Cleveland order since no Cleveland producer milk is received at the plant).

Also, for determining which of the two Federal orders should govern a given plant more general provisions should be made than the present provisions for a determination of each case by the Secretary. Under most foreseeable circumstances a plant serving more than one marketing area should be regulated in the market in which the major portion of Class I sales are made. A specific determination by the Secretary can be reserved for cases in which this standard is not appropriate.

General findings. (a) The proposed marketing agreement and the order and all of the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(b) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply of and demand for milk in the marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and the order are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(c) The proposed order will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as, and will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Rulings on proposed findings and conclusions. Briefs were filed on behalf of producers and handlers. The briefs contained proposed findings of fact, conclusions and argument with respect to the proposals discussed at the hearing. Every point covered in the briefs was carefully considered along with the evidence in the record in making the findings and reaching the conclusions hereinbefore set forth. To the extent that such suggested findings and conclusions contained in the briefs are inconsistent with the findings and conclusions contained herein the request to make such findings or to reach such conclusions are denied on the basis of the facts found and stated in connection with the conclusions in this decision.

Recommended marketing agreement and order as amended. The following order as amended, is recommended as the appropriate means by which the foregoing conclusions may be carried out. The recommended marketing agreement is not included in this decision because the regulatory provisions thereof would be identical with those contained in the order:

DEFINITIONS

§ 975.1 Act. "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.).

§ 975.2 Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture or such other officer or employee of the United States authorized to exercise the powers or to perform the duties of the said Secretary of Agriculture.

§ 975.3 Department of Agriculture. "Department of Agriculture" means the United States Department of Agriculture or such other Federal agency as is authorized to perform the price reporting functions specified in this part.

§ 975.4 Market administrator. "Market administrator" means the agency described in § 975.20.

§ 975.5 Person. "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any other business unit.

§ 975.6 Cleveland, Ohio, marketing area. "Cleveland, Ohio, marketing area" hereinafter called the "marketing area," means all territory, including but not being limited to all municipal corporations within Cuyahoga County, and within the following cities and townships of the respective, named counties: townships of Black River, Sheffield, Avon Lake, Avon, Amherst, Elyria, Ridgeville, Carlisle, Eaton, Columbia, and Grafton in Lorain County; Willoughby, Mentor and Kirtland townships and the city of Painesville in Lake County; the city of Ashtabula in Ashtabula County; and the townships of Liverpool, Brunswick, Hinckley, York, Granger, Medina, Lafayette, and Montville in Medina County; all in the State of Ohio.

§ 975.7 Handler. "Handler" means (a) any person who operates a pool plant, (b) any person who operates a nonpool plant from which milk skim milk, flavored milk, or flavored milk drinks are disposed of on a route(s) in the marketing area, or (c) a cooperative association with respect to the milk of any producer which such cooperative association causes to be diverted from producers' farms to a milk plant.

§ 975.8 Producer. "Producer" means any person with respect to milk produced by him having the approval of the health authority of any community in the marketing area for consumption as fluid milk in such community which milk is moved directly from his farm to:

(a) A pool plant;

(b) A nonpool plant within April, May, June, or July for the account of a cooperative association or of a handler operating a pool plant. Milk so diverted shall be deemed to have been received by the handler for whose account it was diverted; or

(c) A pool plant for the account of another pool plant by diversion from the latter pool plant. Milk so diverted shall be deemed to have been received by the pool plant for whose account it was diverted.

§ 975.9 Cooperative association. "Cooperative association" means any cooperative marketing association which the Secretary determines, after application by the association:

(a) To be qualified under the provisions of the act of Congress of February 18, 1922, as amended, known as the "Capper-Volstead Act"; and

(b) To have full authority in the sale of milk of its members and to be engaged in making collective sales or marketing milk or its products for its members.

§ 975.10 Nonhandler. "Nonhandler" means any person not a handler who operates a nonpool plant.

§ 975.11 Producer-handler. "Producer-handler" means any person who:

(a) Produces milk but receives no milk from dairy farmers; and

(b) Operates a route extending into the marketing area.

§ 975.12 Pool plant. "Pool plant" means a plant designated pursuant to § 975.30.

§ 975.13 Nonpool plant. "Nonpool plant" means any milk manufacturing or processing plant not a pool plant.

§ 975.14 Other source milk. "Other source milk" means all skim milk and butterfat received at any pool plant other than from producers.

§ 975.15 Route. "Route" means a delivery (including a sale from a plant store) of milk, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk, or flavored milk drink in fluid form to a wholesale or retail stop(s), including any eating place where such items are disposed of for consumption on or off the premises, other than a pool plant(s) or nonpool plant(s).

§ 975.16 Delivery period. "Delivery period" means the calendar month or the total portion thereof during which this part is in effect.

§ 975.17 Eligible milk. "Eligible milk" means the amount of milk received by a handler from a producer during each of the delivery periods of April through June which is not in excess of such producer's daily average quota computed pursuant to § 975.65 multiplied by the number of days in such delivery period on which such producer delivered milk to such handler: Provided, That with respect to any producer on "every-other-day" delivery to a pool plant, the days of non-delivery shall be considered as days of delivery for purposes of this section and of § 975.65.

§ 975.18 Ineligible milk. "Ineligible milk" means the amount of milk received by a handler from a producer during each of the delivery periods of April through June which is in excess of eligible milk received from such producer during such delivery period, and shall include all milk received from a producer for whom no daily average quota can be computed pursuant to § 975.65.

MARKET ADMINISTRATOR

§ 975.20 Designation. The agency for the administration of this pact shall be a market administrator, selected by the Secretary, who shall be entitled to such compensation as may be determined by, and shall be subject to removal at the discretion of, the Secretary.

§ 975.21 Powers. The market administrator shall have the following powers with respect to this pact:

(a) To administer its terms and provisions;

(b) To make rules and regulations to effectuate its terms and provisions;

(c) To receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violations; and

(d) To recommend amendments to the Secretary.

§ 975.22 Duties. The market administrator shall perform all duties necessary to administer the terms and provisions of this part, including, but not limited to, the following:

(a) Within 30 days following the date on which he enters upon his duties, or such lesser period as may be prescribed by the Secretary, execute and deliver to the Secretary a bond, effective as of the date on which he enters upon such duties and conditioned upon the faithful performance of such duties, in an amount and with surety thereon satisfactory to the Secretary;

(b) Employ and fix the compensation of such persons as may be necessary to enable him to administer its terms and provisions;

(c) Obtain a bond in a reasonable amount and with reasonable surety thereon covering each employee who handles funds entrusted to the market administrator;

(d) Pay, out of funds provided by § 975.86;

(1) The cost of his bond and of the bonds of his employees;

(2) His own compensation; and

(3) All other expenses, except those incurred under § 975.87, necessarily incurred by him in the maintenance and functioning of his office in the performance of his duties;

(e) Keep such books and records as will clearly reflect the transactions provided for in this part, and, upon request by the Secretary surrender the same to such other person as the Secretary may designate;

(f) Publicly announce, unless otherwise directed by the Secretary, by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate, the name of any person who within 10 days after the day upon which he is required to perform such acts, has not made (1) reports pursuant to § 975.40, or (2) payments pursuant to §§ 975.80, 975.84, 975.86, 975.87, or § 975.88;

(g) Submit his books and records to examination by the Secretary and furnish such information and reports as may be requested by the Secretary;

(h) Upon request, supply on or before the 25th day after the end of each delivery period to each cooperative association not a handler with respect to producers whose membership in such cooperative association has been verified by the market administrator, a record of the pounds of milk received by each handler from member producers and the class utilization of such milk. For the purpose of this report such member milk shall be prorated to each class in the proportions that the total receipts of milk from producers by such handler were classified in each class;

(i) Audit all reports and payments by each handler by inspection of such handler's records and of the records of any other handler or nonhandler upon whose utilization the classification of skim milk and butterfat for such handler depends;

(j) Publicly announce, by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate, the prices determined for each delivery period as follows:

(1) On or before the 6th day after the end of such delivery period the minimum prices for Class I, Class II, and Class III milk computed pursuant to §§ 975.61, 975.62, and 975.63, respectively.

(2) On or before the 14th day after the end of such delivery period the uniform price computed pursuant to § 975.73, and for April, May, and June the price for eligible milk and the price for ineligible milk, computed pursuant to §§ 975.74 and 975.75, respectively, and the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 975.82;

(k) On or before April 1 of each year provide written notice to: (1) Each producer who made deliveries of milk during the previous October through December as to his daily average quota computed pursuant to § 975.65, (2) each cooperative association as to the daily average quota of each member of such association, and (3) each handler as to the daily average quota of each producer from whom such handler received milk; and

(l) Prepare and disseminate to the public such statistics and information as he deems advisable and as do not reveal confidential information.

POOL PLANT

§ 975.30 Designation. A pool plant shall be any plant meeting the conditions of paragraph (a) or (b) of this section, except a bottling plant operated by a producer-handler, or the plant of a handler exempted in § 975.90:

(a) Any plant at which milk is bottled and from which milk, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk, or flavored milk drinks is distributed in fluid form during the month on routes operated wholly or partially within the marketing area: Provided, That the total quantity distributed during the month on all routes operated inside or outside the marketing area is equal to 50 percent or more of the receipts from producers or from other plants of milk approved by the appropriate health authority for fluid use; or

(b) Any plant which, having the approval of the appropriate health authority in the marketing area, has during the month furnished to a pool plant(s) described in paragraph (a) of this section an amount of milk equal to 30 percent of its dairy farm supply of milk: Provided, That such plant shall continue to be designated as a pool plant for such consecutive succeeding months as the 30 percent average is maintained: And provided further, That if during the period of August through January such plant has furnished to a pool plant(s) described in paragraph (a) of this section 30 percent of its total dairy farm supply during such period such plant shall, upon written application to the market administrator on or before January 31 of any year, be designated as a pool plant through January 31 of the following year.

All pool plants operated by a handler may be considered as one plant for the purpose of meeting the percentage requirements of this paragraph if the handler submits a written request to the market administrator prior to the delivery period for which such consideration is requested.

§ 975.31 Replacement. A plant which replaces a pool plant shall acquire immediately the pool plant status of the replaced plant if the operator thereof shows to the satisfaction of the market administrator that 50 percent or more of the dairy farmers delivering milk to it previously had been producers at the pool plant so replaced.

§ 975.32 Discontinuance. A plant shall be discontinued as a pool plant upon prior written request made by the plant operator; such discontinuance to be effective at the beginning of the first delivery period (following the market administrator's receipt of such request) within which no milk was furnished by such plant to a pool plant described in § 975.30 (a).

REPORTS, RECORDS, AND FACILITIES

§ 975.40 Reports of receipts and utilization. On or before the 8th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler, except a produce-handler, shall report to the market administrator with respect to, (a) all milk received from producers, (b) all skim milk and butterfat in any form received from other handlers, and (c) all other source milk (except any nonfluid milk product disposed of in the same form as received) received at a pool plant:

(1) The quantities of butterfat and quantities of skim milk contained in (or used in the production of) such receipts and their sources and for the delivery periods of April through June, the aggregate quantities of eligible milk;

(2) The utilization of such receipts; and

(3) Such other information with respect to such receipts and utilization as the market administrator may prescribe.

§ 975.41 Other reports. (a) Each producer-handler shall make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may request.

(b) On or before the 25th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler who received milk from producers shall submit to the market administrator his producer payroll for the delivery period, which shall show:

(1) For the delivery periods of July through March, the pounds of milk, and the percentage of butterfat contained therein, received fom each producer; and for the delivery periods of April through June, the pounds of eligible milk and the pounds of ineligible milk, and the percentage of butterfat contained therein, received from each producer;

(2) The amount and date of payment to each producer (or to a cooperative association not a handler which is authorized to collect payment for the milk of such producer); and

(3) The nature and amount of each deduction or charge involved in the payments referred to in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

§ 975.42 Records and facilities. Each handler shall maintain, and make available to the market administrator during the usual hours of business, such accounts and records of all of his operations and such facilities as, in the opinion of the market administrator, are necessary to verify reports or to ascertain the correct information with respect to:

(a) The receipts and utilization of all skim milk and butterfat required to be reported pursuant to § 975.40 or § 975.41 (a);

(b) The pounds of skim milk and butterfat contained in or represented by all milk, skim milk, cream, and each milk product on hand at the beginning and at the end of each delivery period;

(c) The weights and tests for butterfat and for other contents of all milk and milk products handled; and

(d) Payments to producers and to cooperative associations.

§ 975.43 Retention of records. All books and records required under this part to be made available to the market administrator shall be retained by the handler for a period of three years to begin at the end of the calendar month to which such books and records pertain: Provided, That if, within such three-year period, the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that the retention of such books and records, or of specified books and records, is necessary in connection with a proceeding under section 8c (15) (A) of the act or a court action specified in such notice, the handler shall retain such books and records, or specified books and records, until further written notification from the market administrator. In either case the market administrator shall give further written notification to the handler promptly upon the termination of the litigation or when the records are no longer necessary in connection therewith.

CLASSIFICATION

§ 975.50 Skim milk and butterfat to be classified. All skim milk and butterfat received at a pool plant from any source or diverted pursuant to § 975.8 (b) or (c) shall be classified pursuant to §§ 975.51 through 975.54.

§ 975.51 Classes of utilization. Subject to the conditions set forth in §§ 975.53 and 975.54, skim milk and butterfat described in § 975.50 shall be classified by the market administrator on the basis of the following classes of utilization:

(a) Class I milk shall be all skim milk (including reconstituted skim milk) and butterfat (1) disposed of for fluid consumption as milk, skim milk, buttermilk (except for livestock feed), flavored milk or flavored milk drinks, sweet or sour cream, or eggnog, (2) or used to produce concentrated milk disposed of for fluid consumption, or (3) not accounted for as Class II or Class III utilization.

(b) Class II milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat (1) used to produce any milk product not specified in Class I milk or Class III milk; (2) disposed of for livestock feed or dumped subject to prior notification to and inspection (at his discretion) by the market administrator; and (3) in shrinkage of the skim milk in producer milk up to 2 percent of receipts from producers or in shrinkage of other source milk.

(c) Class III shall be all butterfat used to produce butter or contained in shrinkage of the butterfat in producer milk up to 2 percent of receipts from producers.

§ 975.52 Shrinkage. (a) If producer milk is utilized in conjunction with other source milk, the shrinkage shall be allocated pro rata between the receipts of skim milk and butterfat in producer milk and other source milk.

(b) Producer milk diverted by a handler from his pool plant to another pool plant without first having been received for purposes of weighing in the diverting handler's pool plant shall be included in the receipts at the pool plant to which such milk was diverted for the purpose of computing shrinkage and shall be excluded from the receipts at the diverting handler's pool plant for such purpose.

§ 975.53 Transfers. Skim milk or butterfat transferred from a pool plant shall be classified as follows:

(a) As Class I milk if transferred as any item listed in § 975.51 (a) (1) to the pool plant of another handler, unless utilization in another class is mutually indicated in writing to the market administrator by both handlers on or before the 8th day after the end of the delivery period within which such transfer was made: Provided, That if either or both pool plants have received other source milk, such transfers shall be classified by the market administrator at both plants so as to return the highest-valued class utilization to milk of producers: Provided further, That if transfers are made from a pool plant to more than one other pool plant any other source milk involved in such transfers shall be prorated by the market administrator among the transferee pool plants on the basis of the percentage which the other source milk transferred bears to the total quantity of transfers made pursuant to this subparagraph from the transferor plant.

(b) As Class I milk if transferred as any item listed in § 975.51 (a) (1) to a nonpool plant located more than 265 miles from the Public Square in Cleveland, Ohio, by shortest highway distance as determined by the market administrator.

(c) As Class I milk if transferred as any item listed in § 975.51 (a) (1) to a nonpool plant located less than 265 miles from the Public Square in Cleveland, Ohio, by shortest highway distance as determined by the market administrator, unless (1) other utilization is mutually indicated in writing to the market administrator by both the transferring handler and the receiver on or before the 8th day after the end of the delivery period within which such transfer was made, (2) the receiver maintains books and records showing utilization of all skim milk and butterfat at his plant which are made available to the market administrator for audit, and (3) such receiving plant had actually used not less than an equivalent amount of skim milk or butterfat in the use indicated in such statement: Provided, That if such nonpool plant had not actually used an equivalent amount of skim milk or butterfat in such indicated use, the remaining pounds shall be classified in the next lower-priced available class of utilization as if the classes of utilization set forth in § 975.51 were applicable to such nonpool plants; or

(d) As Class I milk if transferred as bulk milk to (1) a manufacturer of soup, candy or bakery products for use in such manufacturing operations, or (2) any retail establishment which disposes of milk in fluid form.

§ 975.54 Responsibility of handlers and reclassification of milk. (a) All skim milk and butterfat shall be classified as Class I milk unless the handler who first received such skim milk or butterfat proves to the market administrator that such skim milk or butterfat should be classified otherwise.

(b) Any skim milk or butterfat classified (except that classified pursuant to § 975.53 (b)) in one class shall be reclassified if used or reused by such handler or by another handler in another class.

§ 975.55 Computation of the skim milk and butterfat in each class. For each delivery period the market administrator shall correct for mathematical and for other obvious errors the delivery period report submitted by each handler and compute the total pounds of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in Class I milk, Class II milk, and Class III milk for such handler.

§ 975.56 Allocation of butterfat classified. The pounds of butterfat remaining after making the following computations shall be the pounds in each class allocated to milk received from producers:

(a) Subtract from the total pounds of butterfat in the specified class the pounds of butterfat shrinkage in producer milk allowed in classes other than Class I pursuant to § 975.51;

(b) Subtract from the pounds of butterfat remaining in each class in series beginning with the lowest priced utilization the pounds of butterfat received in other source milk;

(c) Subtract from the remaining pounds of butterfat in each class the pounds of butterfat received from other handlers in such classes pursuant to § 975.53; and

(d) Add to the remaining pounds of butterfat in the specified class the pounds subtracted pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section; or if the remaining pounds of butterfat in all classes exceed the pounds of butterfat in milk received from producers, subtract such excess from the remaining pounds of butterfat in each class in series beginning with the lowest-priced utilization.

§ 975.57 Allocation of skim milk classified. Allocate the pounds of skim milk in each class to milk received from producers in a manner similar to that prescribed for butterfat in § 975.56.

MINIMUM PRICES

§ 975.60 Basic formula price. The basic formula price per hundredweight of milk to be used in determining the Class I milk price for each delivery period, pursuant to § 975.61, shall be the highest of the prices per hundredweight of milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content computed by the market administrator pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

(a) The average of the basic (or field) prices ascertained to have been paid per hundredweight for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received from farmers during the delivery period at the following plants or places for which prices have been reported to the market administrator by the Department of Agriculture or by the companies indicated below:

Company and Location

Borden Co., Mt. Pleastant, Mich.
Borden Co., New London, Wis.
Borden Co., Orfordville, Wis.
Carnation Co., Oconomowoc, Wis.
Carnation Co., Richland Center, Wis.
Carnation Co., Sparta, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., Belleville, Wis.
Pet Milk Co., Coopersville, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., Hudson, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., New Glarus, Wis.
Pet Milk Co., Wayland, Mich.
White House Milk Co., Manitowoc, Wis.
White House Milk Co., West Bend, Wis.

(b) The price per hundredweight computed by adding together the plus amounts pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph:

(1) From the average of the daily wholesale selling prices per pound (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of Grade A (92-score) bulk creamery butter for the delivery period as reported by the Department of Agriculture for the Chicago market, subtract 3 cents, add 20 percent of the resulting amount and then multiply by 3.5; and

(2) From the simple average of the weighted averages of the carlot prices per pound of spray and roller process nonfat dry milk solids in barrels for human consumption, f. o. b. manufacturing plants in the Chicago area, as published for the period from the 26th day of the immediately preceding delivery period through the 25th day of the current delivery period by the Department of Agriculture, deduct 5.5 cents, multiply by 8.5 and then multiply by 0.965.

§ 975.61 Class I milk prices. The respective minimum prices per hundredweight to be paid by each handler, f. o. b. his plant for milk received from producers or from a pool plant of a cooperative association, during the delivery period which is classified as Class I milk, shall be as follows as computed by the market administrator:

(a) Add to the basic formula price the following amount for the period indicated:

Delivery period:	Amount
February through July	$1.35
All others	1.80

and add or subtract a "supply-demand adjustment" computed as follows:

(i) Divide the total quantity of milk received from producers during the first and second months preceding the delivery period by the gross quantity of milk utilized as Class I in the same two months, multiply the result by 100, and round to the nearest whole number. The result shall be known as the "current utilization percentage".

(ii) Compute a "deviation percentage" by subtracting from the current utilization percentage as computed in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph, the "standard utilization percentage" shown below:

Month for which the price is being computed:	Standard utilization percentage
January	120
February	127
March	132
April	139
May	147
June	158
July	162
August	149
September	137
October	128
November	120
December	117

(iii) Determine the amount of the suply-demand adjustment from the following schedule:

Deviation percentage:	Amount of supply-demand adjustment (cents)
+13 or over	−25
+10 or +11	−19
+7 or +8	−13
+4 or +5	−7
+2 to −2	0
−4 or −5	+7
−7 or −8	+13
−10 or −11	+19
−13 or below	+25

When the deviation percentage does not fall within the tabulated brackets, the adjustment shall be determined by the adjacent bracket which is the same as or nearest to the bracket used in the previous month.

§ 975.62 Class II Milk prices. The minimum price per hundredweight to be paid by each handler, f. o. b. his plant, for producer milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received from producers or from a cooperative association during the month, which is classified as Class II utilization, shall be the highest of the prices computed pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section: Provided, That during April, May, and June 1955 only the price computed pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section shall apply;

(a) The price per hundredweight computed by adding together the plus values pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph;

(1) Multiply the average price of butter as described in § 975.60 (b) (1) by 1.2 and then 3.5;

(2) From the simple average, as computed by the market administrator of the weekly wholesale carlot prices per pound (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of roller process nonfat dry milk solids in barrels for human consumption, at Chicago, as reported and issued within the month by the Department of Agriculture deduct 5.5 cents and multiply the result by 8.2.

(b) The average of the prices per hundred weight reported to have been paid, or to be paid, for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received from farmers during the month at the following plants for which prices have been reported to the market administrator:

Present Operator and Location

Defiance Milk Products Co., Defiance, Ohio.
Fisher Dairy & Cheese Co., Wapakoneta, Ohio.
Kraft-Phenix Cheese Corp., Kendallville, Ind.
Nestles Milk Products Co., Marysville, Ohio.
Pet Milk Co., Angola, Ind.
Pet Milk Co., Coldwater, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., Delta, Ohio.
Pet Milk Co., Garrett, Ind.
Pet Milk Co., Hudson, Mich.
Swift & Co., Lima, Ohio.

§ 975.63 Class III milk prices. For any month that the amount per hundredweight determined pursuant to § 975.62 (b) is below the amount determined under § 975.62 (a), the minimum price per pound of butterfat in Class III shall be equal to the value per pound of butterfat in Class II less an amount computed by multiplying the difference per hundredweight by 0.2857, but in no event to exceed 5 cents per pound of butterfat. For any month when the average price pursuant to § 975.62 (b) is equal to or above the amount determined under § 975.62 (a) the Class III price shall be the same as the Class II price.

§ 975.64 Butterfat differentials to handlers. If the average butterfat content of the milk of any handler allocated to any class is more or less than 3.5 percent, there shall be added to the prices of milk for each class as computed pursuant to §§ 975.61 and 975.62 for each one-tenth of one percent that the average butterfat content of such milk is above 3.5 percent, or subtracted for each one-tenth of one percent that such average butterfat content is below 3.5 percent, an amount equal to the average daily wholesale price per pound of Grade A (92 score) bulk creamery butter per pound at Chicago as reported by the Department of Agriculture during the month, multiplied by the following factors:

(a) Class I milk. Multiply by 1.3, and divide the result by 10.

(b) Class II milk. Multiply by 1.19, and divide the result by 10.

DETERMINATION OF ELIGIBLE MILK QUOTA

§ 975.65 Determination of eligible milk quota for each producer. Subject to the rules set forth in § 975.66, the market administrator shall determine quotas for producers as follows: During each of the delivery periods of April through June, inclusive, of each year beginning with 1956, the daily quota of each producer whose milk was received by a handler(s) on not less than thirty (30) days during the immediately preceding months of October through December, inclusive, shall be a quantity computed by dividing such producer's total pounds of milk delivered in the 3-month period by the number of days from the date of first delivery to the end of such 3-month period.

§ 975.66 Quota rules. (a) An eligible milk quota shall apply to deliveries of milk by the producer for whose account that milk was delivered during the quota-forming period;

(b) Quotas may be transferred during the period April through June only by notifying the market administrator in writing before the last day of any month that such quota is to be transferred to the person named in such notice as follows:

(1) In the event of death, retirement, or entry into military service of a producer the entire quota may be transferred to a member(s) of such producer's immediate family who carries on the dairy operation.

(2) If a quota is held jointly, and such joint holding is terminated on the basis of written notice to the market administrator from the joint holders, the entire daily quota may be transferred to one of the joint holders, or divided, in accordance with such notice, between the former joint holders if they continue dairy operations.

DETERMINATION OF UNIFORM PRICE

§ 975.70 Computation of value of producer milk. Subject to the location adjustment provided by § 975.71, the value of producer milk received or diverted during each delivery period for each handler operating a pool plant and for each cooperative association with respect to milk for which it is a handler pursuant to § 975.7 (c) shall be a sum of money computed by the market administrator by multiplying by the applicable class prices, determined pursuant to §§ 975.61, 975.62 and 975.63 adjusted pursuant to § 975.64, the total combined hundredweight of skim milk and butterfat received from producers and allocated to each class pursuant to §§ 975.56 and 975.57, and adding together the resulting amounts: Provided, That if such handler, after subtracting all receipts of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, other than in milk received from producers has a utilization of skim milk or butterfat greater than has been accounted for in milk received from producers, there shall be added a further amount computed by multiplying any such excess utilization classified pursuant to § 975.56 (d) and the corresponding step of § 975.57 by the applicable prices.

§ 975.71 Location adjustments to handlers. In computing the value of such quantities of milk as are received from producers at a pool plant and classified as Class I milk, there shall be deducted the amount of 20 cents per hundredweight if the pool plant is located more than 60 miles but not more than 74 miles from the Public Square in Cleveland, Ohio, by the shortest highway distance as determined by the market administrator, and 2 cents additional for each additional 14 miles or fraction thereof: Provided, That for the purpose of determining the respective quantities of Class I milk subject to the location adjustment, each pool handler's utilization of Class I milk during the month shall be allocated first to receipts of milk from producers' farms at pool plants as defined in § 975.30 (a) and then to the receipts of producer milk at pool plants as defined in § 975.30 (b) in the order of their nearness to the Public Square in Cleveland, Ohio, by shortest highway distance as determined by the market administrator.

§ 975.72 Obligation to the producer-settlement fund for other source milk. During any delivery period in which the total receipts from all producers is more than 110 percent of the total Class I utilization at all pool plants, any handler who receives other source milk during the delivery period which is allocated to Class I pursuant to § 975.56 or § 975.57 shall pay to the producer-settlement fund an amount equal to the value of such milk at the Class I price less the value of such milk at the Class II price.

§ 975.73 Computation of uniform price. For each delivery period, the market administrator shall compute the "uniform price" per hundredweight for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content, f. o. b. the marketing area, received from producers by:

(a) Combining into one total the values computed under § 975.70 for all handlers who reported pursuant to § 975.40 for such delivery period, except those in default in payments required pursuant to § 975.84 for the preceding delivery period;

(b) Adding an amount representing the monies received in payment of obligations computed under § 975.72;

(c) Adding the aggregate of the values of all allowable location adjustments computed at the maximum rates for the appropriate zones set forth in § 975.81;

(d) Adding an amount representing not less than one-half of the unobligated balance in the producer-settlement fund;

(e) Subtracting, if the weighted average butterfat test of all milk received from producers represented by the values included in paragraph (a) of this section is greater than 3.5 percent or adding, if the weighted average butterfat test of such milk is less than 3.5 percent, an amount computed by multiplying the total pounds of butterfat represented by the variance of such weighted average butterfat test from 3.5 percent, by the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 975.82 multiplied by 10;

(f) Dividing by the hundredweight of milk received from producers represented by the values included in paragraph (a) of this section; and

(g) Subtracting not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents.

§ 975.74 Computation of ineligible milk price. For each of the delivery periods of April through June the market administrator shall compute the uniform price per hundredweight for ineligible milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content by:

(a) Computing the total value on a 3.5 percent butterfat basis of ineligible milk included in these computations by multiplying the hundredweight of such milk not in excess of the total quantity of Class II and Class III milk included in these computations by the price for Class II milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content, multiplying the hundredweight of such milk in excess of the total hundredweight of such Class II and Class III milk by the price for Class I milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content, and adding together the resulting amounts; and

(b) Dividing the total value of ineligible milk obtained in paragraph (a) of this section by the total hundredweight of such milk, and adjusting to the nearest cent.

§ 975.75 Computation of eligible milk price. For each of the delivery periods of April through June the market administrator shall compute the uniform price per hundredweight for eligible milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content f. o. b. the marketing area, received from producers by:

(a) Subtracting the value of ineligible milk obtained in § 975.74 (a) from the aggregate value of milk computed pursuant to § 975.73 (a) through (c) and adjusting by any amount involved in adjusting the uniform price of ineligible milk to the nearest cent;

(b) Dividing the amount obtained in paragraph (a) of this section by the total hundredweight of eligible milk included in these computations; and

(c) Subtracting not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents from the amount computed pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section.

§ 975.76 Notification. On or before the 14th day after each delivery period the market administrator shall notify each handler who submitted a report for the preceding month pursuant to § 975.40 of:

(a) The classification pursuant to §§ 975.56 and 975.57 of skim milk and butterfat contained in producer milk received by such handler during the delivery period and the value of such milk computed pursuant to § 975.70;

(b) The uniform prices for the delivery period computed pursuant to §§ 975.73, 975.74, and 975.75; and

(c) The amount due such handler pursuant to § 975.85 and the amount to be paid by such handler pursuant to §§ 975.84, 975.86, and 975.87.

PAYMENTS

§ 975.80 Time and method of payment. (a) Except as provided by paragraph (b) of this section, on or before the 20th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler shall pay each producer for milk received from him within such delivery period, not less than an amount of money computed by multiplying the total pounds of such milk by the uniform price(s) pursuant to § 975.73 or to §§ 975.74 and 975.75, less the location adjustment pursuant to § 975.81 and adjusted by the butterfat differential pursuant to § 975.82: Provided, That if by such date such handler has not received full payment for such delivery period pursuant to § 975.85 he may reduce such payments uniformly per hundredweight for all producers, by an amount not in excess of the per hundredweight reduction in payment from the market administrator; however, the handler shall make such balance of payment to those producers to whom it is due on or before the date for making payments pursuant to this paragraph next following that on which such balance of payment is received from the market administrator.

(b) On or before the 19th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler shall pay a cooperative association not a handler, with respect to milk of producers for which it has received written authorization to collect payment, a total amount not less than the sum of the individual amounts otherwise payable to such producers pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) On or before the 15th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler shall pay a cooperative association which is a handler, with respect to milk received by him from a pool plant operated by such cooperative association, not less than an amount computed by multiplying the minimum prices for milk in each class, subject to the applicable location adjustment provided by § 975.71 and the butterfat differential provided by § 975.64, by the hundredweight of milk in each class pursuant to §§ 975.56 and 975.57.

§ 975.81 Location adjustments to producers. In making payments pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 975.80, a handler may deduct 20 cents per hundredweight with respect to all milk received from producers during the months of July through March and with respect to eligible milk received from producers at a plant located more than 60 miles but not more than 74 miles from the Public Square in Cleveland, Ohio, by the shortest highway distance as determined by the market administrator, and 2 cents additional for each additional 14 miles or fraction thereof.

§ 975.82 Butterfat differential. In making payments pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 975.80 there shall be added to or subtracted from, the uniform price per hundredweight, for each one-tenth of 1 percent of such butterfat content in milk above or below 3.5 percent, as the case may be, a butterfat differential computed by the market administrator as follows:

(a) Determine an equivalent butterfat differential for Class III milk by subtracting from the price per pound of butterfat in Class III the value per pound of skim milk in Class II, dividing the result by 10, and rounding the result to the nearest tenth of a cent.

(b) Compute the average of the butterfat differentials determined pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 975.64 and paragraph (a) of this section weighted by the pounds of butterfat in producer milk in Classes I, II, and III, respectively, and round the result to the nearest tenth of a cent.

§ 975.83 Producer-settlement fund. The market administrator shall establish and maintain a separate fund, known as the "producer-settlement fund," into which he shall deposit all payments made pursuant to § 975.84 and out of which he shall make all payments pursuant to § 975.85.

§ 975.84 Payments to the producer-settlement fund. On or before the 16th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler (a) whose value of producer milk is required to be computed pursuant to § 975.70, shall pay to the market administrator any amount by which such value for such delivery period is greater than the total minimum amount required to be paid by him pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 975.80 and (b) whose obligation is required to be computed pursuant to § 975.72, shall pay to the market administrator such obligation for such delivery period.

§ 975.85 Payments out of the producer-settlement fund. On or before the 18th day after the end of each delivery period, the market administrator shall pay to each handler the amount by which such handler's value pursuant to § 975.70 is less than the total minimum amount required to be paid by him pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 975.80 less any unpaid obligations of such handler to the market administrator pursuant to §§ 975.84, 975.86, 975.87, or 975.88: Provided, That if the balance in the producer-settlement fund is insufficient to make all payments to all such handlers pursuant to this paragraph, the market administrator shall reduce uniformly such payments and shall complete such payments as soon as the necessary funds become available.

§ 975.86 Expense of administration. As his pro rata share of the expense incurred pursuant to paragraph (d) of § 975.22, each handler shall pay the market administrator on or before the 16th day after the end of each delivery period, three cents per hundredweight, or such lesser amount as the Secretary may from time to time prescribe, to be announced by the market administrator on or before the 14th day after the end of such delivery period, with respect to all receipts within the delivery period, of milk from producers at pool plants (including such handler's own production) and of all other source milk allocated to Class I pursuant to § 975.56 (b) and the corresponding portion of § 975.57: Provided, That such payment shall not be made with respect to any milk subject to a payment required under the provision for expense of administration of any other Federal milk marketing agreement or order issued pursuant to the act for any fluid milk marketing area.

§ 975.87 Marketing services. (a) Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section each handler in making payments to producers pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 975.80, with respect to all milk received from each producer (except milk of such handler's own production) at a plant, not operated by a cooperative association of which such producer is a member, shall deduct four cents per hundredweight, or such lesser amount as the Secretary may from time to time prescribe, to be announced by the market administrator on or before the 14th day after the end of each delivery period; and, on or before the 16th day after the end of such delivery period, shall pay such deductions to the market administrator. Such moneys shall be expended by the market administrator to verify weights, samples, and tests of the milk of such producers and to provide such producers with market information; such services to be performed in whole or in part by the market administrator, or by an agent engaged by and responsible to him.

(b) In the case of producers whose milk is received at a plant, not operated by a cooperative association of which such producers are members, and for whom a cooperative association is actually performing the services described in paragraph (a) of this section, as determined by the market administrator, each handler shall make, in lieu of the deductions specified in paragraph (a) of this section such deductions from payments required pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 975.80 as may be authorized by such producers, and pay such deductions on or before the 16th day after the end of each delivery period to the cooperative association rendering such services of which such producers are members.

§ 975.88 Adjustment of accounts—(a) Payments. Whenever audit by the market administrator of any handler's reports, books, records, or accounts discloses adjustments to be made, for any reason, which result in monies due (1) the market administrator from such handler, (2) such handler from the market administrator, or (3) any producer or cooperative association from such handler, the market administrator shall promptly notify such handler of any such amount due, and payment thereof shall be made on or before the next date for making payment set forth in the provision under which such error occurred, following the 5th day after such notice.

(b) Overdue accounts. Any unpaid obligation of a handler or of the market administrator pursuant to §§ 975.84, 975.85, 975.86, 975.87 or paragraph (a) of this section shall be increased one-half of one percent on the first day of the calendar month next following the due date of such obligation and, on the first day of each calendar month thereafter until such obligation is paid.

§ 975.89 Termination of obligations. The provisions of this section shall apply to any obligation under this part for the payment of money irrespective of when such obligation arose, except an obligation involved in an action instituted before August 1, 1949, under section 8e (A) of the act or before a court.

(a) The obligation of any handler to pay money required to be paid under the terms of this part shall, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, terminate two years after the last day of the calendar month during which the market administrator receives the handler's utilization report on the milk involved in such obligation, unless within such two-year period the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that such money is due and payable. Service of such notice shall be complete upon mailing to the handler's last known address, and it shall contain but need not be limited to, the following information:

(1) The amount of the obligation;

(2) The month(s) during which the milk, with respect to which the obligation exists, was received or handled; and

(3) If the obligation is payable to one or more producers or to an association of producers; the name of such producer(s) or association of producers, or if the obligation is payable to the market administrator, the account for which it is to be paid.

(b) If a handler fails or refuses, with respect to any obligation under this part, to make available to the market administrator or his representatives all books and records required by this part to be made available, the market administrator may, within the two-year period provided for in paragraph (a) of this section, notify the handler in writing of such failure or refusal. If the market administrator so notifies a handler, the said two-year period with respect to such obligation shall not begin to run until the first day of the calendar month following the months during which all such books and records pertaining to such obligation are made available to the market administrator or his representatives.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, a handler's obligation under this part to pay money shall not be terminated with respect to any transaction involving fraud or willful concealment of a fact, material to the obligation, on the part of the handler against whom the obligation is sought to be imposed.

(d) Any obligation on the part of the market administrator to pay a handler any money which such handler claims to be due him under the terms of this part shall terminate two years after the end of the calendar month during which the milk involved in the claim was received if an underpayment is claimed, or two years after the end of the calendar month during which the payment (including deduction or set-off by the market administrator) was made by the handler if a refund on such payment is claimed, unless such handler, within the applicable period of time, files, pursuant to section 8c (15) (A) of the act, a petition claiming such money.

§ 975.90 Application of provisions—(a) Milk subject to other Federal orders. Milk received at the plant of a handler at which the handling of milk is fully subject during the delivery period to the pricing and payment provisions of another marketing agreement or order issued pursuant to the act and from which the disposition of Class I milk in the other Federal marketing area exceeds that in the Cleveland marketing area shall be exempted for such delivery period from all provisions of this part except §§ 975.41, 975.42, and 975.43 unless the Secretary determines that such plant is more appropriately regulated under this part.

(b) Handler exemption. A handler who operates a plant located outside the marketing area from which an average of less than 300 points (one point being defined as one-half pint of cream or one quart of any other Class I product) of Class I milk per day is disposed of during the month on a route(s) operated wholly or partly within the marketing area.

(c) Milk caused to be delivered by cooperative associations. Milk referred to herein as received from producers by a handler shall include milk of producers caused to be delivered to such handler by a cooperative association which is not a handler and which is authorized to collect payment for such milk.

§ 975.91 Effective time. The provisions of this part, or of any amendment to this part, shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated.

§ 975.92 Suspension or termination. The Secretary shall, whenever he finds that this part, or any provision of this part, obstructs or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, terminate or suspend the operation of this part or any such provision of this part.

§ 975.93 Continuing obligations. If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions of this part, there are any obligations under this part the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any person (including the market administrator), such further acts shall be performed notwithstanding such suspension or termination.

§ 975.94 Liquidation. Upon the suspension or termination of the provisions of this part, except this section, the market administrator, or such other liquidating agent as the Secretary may designate, shall, if so directed by the Secretary, liquidate the business of the market administrator's office, dispose of all property in his possession or control, including accounts receivable, and execute and deliver all assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to effectuate any such disposition. If a liquidating agent is so designated all assets, books, and records of the market administrator shall be transferred promptly to such liquidating agent. If, upon such liquidation, the funds on hand exceed the amounts required to pay outstanding obligations of the office of the market administrator and to pay necessary expenses of liquidation and distribution, such excess shall be distributed to contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

§ 975.95 Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this part.

§ 975.96 Separability of provisions. If any provision of this part or its application to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the application of such provision, and of the remaining provisions of this part, to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

Filed at Washington, D. C., this 31st day of March 1955.

REVOCATION OF DEPARTMENTAL ORDER OF MAY 20, 1907, RESERVING LANDS FOR THE USE OF THE FOREST SERVICE AS AN ADMINISTRATIVE SITE

MARCH 29, 1955.

Upon request of the Department of Agriculture and pursuant to Departmental Order No. 2583 of August 16, 1950, section 2.22 (a), as amended, it is ordered as follows:

The order of the Secretary of the Interior of May 20, 1907, reserving the following-described lands for use of the Forest Service, Department of Agriculture, as a ranger station (now Negrite Addition Administrative Site), is hereby revoked:

NEW MEXICO PRINCIPAL MERIDIAN

T. 9 S., R. 17 W.,
Sec. 36, S½, unsurveyed.

The area described contains 320 acres.

The land is a part of the Gila National Forest, having been reserved for such use by Executive Order No. 5765 of December 24, 1931, and shall become subject to the public-land laws relating to national forest lands at 10:00 a. m. on the 35th day from the date of this order.

ALASKA

SMALL TRACT CLASSIFICATION ORDER NO. 50, AMDT. 1 AND NOTICE OF OPENING

MARCH 29, 1955.

1. Pursuant to authority delegated to me by Bureau Order No. 541, dated April 21, 1954 (19 F. R. 2473), I hereby amend Small Tract Classification Order No. 50, dated January 18, 1952, to read as follows:

FAIRBANKS AREA; CHENA RIVER UNIT NO. 1

FOR LEASE AND SALE; FOR RESIDENCE SITES

Fairbanks Meridian

T. 1 S., R. 2 E.,
Section 9:
Lots 12-29, incl.,
Lots 33, 34, 39-43, incl.

Comprising 25 tracts aggregating 106.29 areas.

2. The classification of the above-described lands as amended by this order segregates them from all appropriations, including locations under the mining laws, except as to applications under the Small Tract Act and applications under the mineral leasing laws.

3. The lands are located approximately ten miles due east of Fairbanks, Alaska, and lie along the south bank of the Chena River. The area is reached by use of the Richardson Highway, Badger Road, Peede Road, Nordale-Tonseth Road, and is located at the end of the Freeman Road. The area is situated on the Chena River floodplain and is generally level. Vegetative cover consists of mixed stands of spruce and birch on the well-drained lands and black-spruce, scrub birch, and willow on the imperfectly drained lands. Climate is that of the extreme continental type characterized by long and cold winters with short days and short and rather warm summers with very long days. The average annual rainfall at Fairbanks is 11.82 inches with approximately two-thirds of the annual precipitation falling during the growing season. Utilities and public services available to the area include the public roads previously mentioned and an electric distribution system operated by the Golden Valley Electric Asociation, an REA Cooperative. The area is within the Fairbanks Independent School District and bus service is available for the transportation of children to and from school. Stores, churches, and other public services are available in Fairbanks.

4. The individual tracts vary in size from 2.50 to 5.10 acres. The supplemental plat of survey showing the location of each tract can be secured for $1.00 from the Area Cadastral Engineering Office, Bureau of Land Management, Juneau, Alaska. Brochures which describe the area and contain sketch maps of the platting of the small tracts can be obtained free of charge from the Manager, Fairbanks Land Office, Fairbanks, Alaska. The appraised values of the tracts vary from $125 to $425 per tract as shown below. Rights-of-way, 50 feet in width, for road purposes will be reserved as shown below.

5. Leases will be issued for a term of two years and will contain an option to purchase in accordance with 43 CFR 257.13 (Circular 1899). Lessees who comply with the general terms and conditions of their leases will be permitted to purchase their tracts at the prices listed above at any time during the term of their leases providing that they have either (a) constructed the improvements specified in paragraph 6 or (b) filed a copy of an agreement in accordance with 43 CFR 257.13 (d). Leases will not be renewable unless failure to construct the required improvements is justified under the circumstances and nonrenewal would work an extreme hardship on the lessee.

6. To maintain their rights under their leases, lessees will be required to either (a) construct substantial improvements on their lands or (b) file a copy of an agreement with their neighbors binding them to construct substantial improvements on their lands. Such improvements must conform with health, sanitation, and construction requirements of local ordinances and must, in addition, meet at least the following minimum standards. The home must be insulated and be suitable for year-around occupancy, be on a permanent foundation, contain at least 192 square feet of floor space (outside measure), and contain a minimum of one door and one window. The home must be built in a workmanlike manner out of attractive materials properly finished. Adequate disposal and sanitary facilities must be installed.

7. Beginning at 10:00 a. m. on April 13, 1955, the lands will be open to filing of drawing-entry cards (Form 4-775) only by persons entitled to veterans' preference. In brief, persons entitled to such preference are (a) honorably discharged veterans who served in the armed forces of the United States for a period of at least 90 days after September 15, 1940, (b) surviving spouse or minor orphan children of such veterans through a legally authorized representative, and (c) with the consent of the veteran, the spouse of living veterans. The 90-day requirement does not apply to veterans who were discharged on account of wounds or disability incurred in the line of duty or the surviving spouse or minor children of veterans killed in the line of duty. Drawing-entry cards (Form 4-775) are available upon request from the Manager, Fairbanks Land Office, Fairbanks, Alaska.

Drawing-entry cards will be accepted if filled out in compliance with the instructions on the form and submitted to the above named official prior to 10:00 a. m. on May 4, 1955. A drawing will be held on that date to select the successful entrants who will be sent copies of the lease form, Form 4-776, with instructions as to their execution and return and as to payment of fees and rentals. All entrants will be notified of the results of the drawing.

For a period of 91 days or until the close of business on August 1, 1955, any tracts remaining unappropriated will be subject to filing in the order received by qualified veteran applicants. Such filings will be executed upon the lease form, Form 4-776.

During the 21 day period extending between 10:00 a. m. on July 12, 1955 and August 2, 1955, drawing-entry cards will be accepted from the general public on any unappropriated parcels of the subject land, however, during this 21 day period veteran priority rights still prevail. A drawing will be held at 10:00 a. m. on August 2, 1955 to select successful entrants, after which the unappropriated portions of the subject land will be open to application under this classification in order of filing. All entrants will be notified of the results of the drawing and successful entrants will be sent copies of the lease forms with instructions as to their execution.

The filing of the lease form, Form 4-776, must be accompanied by a filing fee of $10.00 plus the advance rental specified above. The advance rental is determined as being a sum which amounts to 1/20th of the appraised value of the land for each of two years under lease and rounded to the nearest five dollars. The advance rental for any unexpired full lease year, if any, subsequent to the filing of the application to purchase, will be subtracted from the sale price of the land as shown above. Failure to transmit the filing fee and the advance rental with the application will render the application invalid. Advance rentals will be returned to unsuccessful applicants. All filing fees will be retained by the United States.

8. All valid applications filed prior to January 18, 1952, will be granted the preference right provided for by 43 CFR 257.5 (a).

LOWELL M. PUCKETT,
Area Administrator.

UTAH

DISASTER ASSISTANCE; DELINEATION AND CERTIFICATION OF ADDITIONAL COUNTIES CONTAINED IN DROUGHT AREAS

Pursuant to Public Law 875, 81st Congress (42 U. S. C. 1855 et seq.), the President determined on October 19, 1954 that a major disaster occasioned by drought existed in the State of Utah.

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator, Federal Civil Defense Administration (18 F. R. 4609; 19 F. R. 2148; 19 F. R. 5364), and for the purposes of section 2 (d) of Public Law 38, 81st Congress, as amended by Public Law 115, 83d Congress, and section 301 of Public Law 480, 83d Congress, certain counties in the State of Utah were, on October 19, 1954 (19 F. R. 7119), as amended (19 F. R. 8635; 20 F. R. 992), determined to be the areas affected by the major disaster by drought.

Pursuant to the aforesaid delegations, the Delineations and Certifications of Counties in the Drought Area in the State of Utah, as above described, are herewith amended by adding Rich County on March 7, 1955, to the major disaster area occasioned by drought.

Done at Washington, D. C. this 30th day of March 1955.

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[Reg. SR-380A]

REEVE ALEUTIAN AIRWAYS, INC.

SPECIAL CIVIL AIR REGULATION; PILOT FLIGHT TIME LIMITATIONS

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 31st day of March 1955.

Reeve Aleutian Airways, Inc. (RAA), has filed a request for the extension of the authority granted by Special Civil Air Regulation SR-380 which authorizes RAA to deviate from the flight time limitations of paragraph (a) of § 41.54 of the Civil Air Regulations over its route between Anchorage and Adak, Alaska. Special Regulation SR-330, which expires April 1, 1955, presently contains such authorization. RAA has been operating in accordance with this special regulation since June 1951 and has informed the Board that it is well suited to its operations. The factors which caused the Board to adopt the regulation initially are unchanged, and the CAA concurs in this extension.

The Board recognizes that operating conditions in Alaska differ in certain material respects from those in the continental United States. Accordingly, this regulation allows a certain amount of flexibility from the pilot flight time limitations of Part 41 with certain safeguards to insure a high degree of safety.

This regulation waives the requirements of § 41.54 (a) to permit RAA to schedule 2 pilots accompanied by a certificated A & E mechanic to fly, without a rest period, not more than 8 hours and 30 minutes between Anchorage and Adak during any 24 consecutive hours. If a pilot is scheduled to fly in excess of 8 hours and 30 minutes during any 24 consecutive hours, he must be given an intervening rest period at or before the termination of 8 hours and 30 minutes of such flight duty. This rest period must comply with the requirements of § 41.54 (a) and, where a pilot has flown in excess of 8 hours and 30 minutes, with the requirements of § 41.54 (b).

It is further provided that a certificated A & E mechanic, to be eligible for flight duty in these operations, must meet certain knowledge and skill requirements appropriate to the aircraft flown. The Administrator must examine each such applicant with respect to (1) his knowledge of aircraft performance, aircraft engine operation, and their limitations, mathematical computations of engine and fuel consumption, including an understanding of basic meteorology as it affects engine operations, and mathematical computations pertaining to aircraft loading and center of gravity, and (2) his skill in recognizing and remedying the malfunctioning of aircraft, aircraft engines, propellers, and appliances, and performing emergency duties and procedures relating to aircraft engines, propellers, and appliances.

Records indicate that 97 percent of the flights conducted by RAA have been completed within the scheduled 8 hours and 30 minutes permitted by SR–380. Also, the A & E mechanic has been found to aid the pilots materially, thus helping to reduce the possibility of pilot fatigue. In addition, no information has been received by the Board that the authority granted to RAA by SR–380 and its precedessors has in any way adversely affected the safety of its operations.

It is the Board's opinion that the operating experience acquired by RAA under these special regulations since April 1951 indicates that satisfactory safety standards have been, and can continue to be, maintained by RAA. Therefore, by this regulation the extension of pilot flight time obviates the necessity for intermediate overnight stops at which military facilities are limited and, in many respects, unsuitable to the needs of civilian passengers and crew members.

The temporary certificate of public convenience and necessity that RAA had been operating under expired April 8, 1953. However, timely application for renewal was made by RAA and the latter has been operating pursuant to section 9 (b) of the Administrative Procedure Act pending a final determination of the application by the Board. Therefore, although the regulation is being extended for a period of 3 years, it will terminate upon the expiration of RAA's economic operating authority should it not be renewed.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of this regulation which was published as a notice of proposed rule making, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented. Since this regulation imposes no additional burden on any person, it may be made effective without prior notice.

In consideration of the foregoing, the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby makes and promulgates the following Special Civil Air Regulation effective March 31, 1955:

1. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of § 41.54 of the Civil Air Regulations, Reeve Aleutian Airways, Inc. (RAA), is authorized to schedule a pilot for flight duty between Anchorage and Adak, Alaska, 8 hours and 30 minutes or less during any 24 consecutive hours, without a rest period during such 8 hours and 30 minutes. If a pilot is scheduled for such flight duty in excess of 8 hours and 30 minutes during any 24 consecutive hours, he shall be given an intervening rest period at or before the termination of 8 hours and 30 minutes of his scheduled flight duty. This rest period must comply with the requirements of § 41.54 (a) and, where a pilot has flown in excess of 8 hours and 30 minutes, with the requirements of § 41.54 (b). On these flights the crew shall consist of 2 pilots and a certificated A & E mechanic approved by the Administrator for this duty.

2. The Administrator shall examine each certificated A & E mechanic applying for this duty in respect to his special knowledge and skill appropriate to the aircraft used by RAA in operations over this route before certifying to his competency. The results of this examination shall be a permanent part of RAA's company records.

(a) The knowledge requirements for each applicant shall include the following subjects: aircraft performance, aircraft engine operation, and their limitations; mathematical computations of aircraft engine operation and fuel consumption, together with basic meteorology as it affects aircraft engine operations; and mathematical computations pertaining to aircraft loading and center of gravity.

(b) The skill requirements for each applicant shall include the following abilities: Recognition and repair of malfunctioning aircraft, aircraft engines, propellers, and appliances; and performance of emergency duties and procedures in respect of aircraft engines, propellers and appliances.

3. This regulation shall supersede Special Civil Air Regulation SR–380 and shall terminate on April 1, 1958, or upon the termination of the economic operating authority of Reeve Aleutian Airways, Inc., whichever shall first occur, unless sooner superseded or rescinded by the Board.

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984; 49 U. S. C. 425). Interpret or apply secs. 601, 602, 604, 52 Stat. 1007, 1008, 1010, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 551, 552, 554)

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. E–6611]

DEPARTMENT OF INTERIOR, BONNEVILLE POWER ADMINISTRATION

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

MARCH 29, 1955.

Take notice that on March 18, 1955, the Secretary of the Interior submitted the following contracts for confirmation and approval by the Federal Power Commission in accordance with the provisions of the Bonneville Act, 50 Stat. 731:

Name of customer	Contract No.
Aluminum Company of America	14–03–001–11324
Electro Metallurgical Co	14–03–001–11325
Kaiser Aluminum & Chemical Corp	14–03–001–11326
Pacific Carbide & Alloys Co	14–03–001–11327
Pacific Northwest Alloys Co	14–03–001–11376
Pennsylvania Salt Manufacturing Co. of Washington	14–03–001–11328
Reynolds Metals Co	14–03–001–11329

These contracts provide for utilization by the named industrial organizations, which each have primary contracts providing for the purchase of firm and interruptible power from the Bonneville Power Administration (BPA), of special releases of water storage from the Hungry Horse Project reservoir.

Each of the contracts stipulate that "provisional energy" made available by such releases of storage from Hungry Horse reservoir will be delivered in lieu of interruptible power which may have been requested by the customer under his primary contract, but which BPA is unable to deliver. They further provide that payment for such "provisional energy" will be made on the basis of application of the rate schedules in effect in the primary contract to the total deliveries by BPA (including firm, interruptible and provisional power), less amounts determined by application of the rate schedules to the firm and interruptible power only, as made available in the customers' primary contract.

The amounts of "provisional energy", as may be made available by BPA upon request of the customer, are required to be delivered in accordance with scheduling arrangements made through BPA's power dispatcher. Provisional sales and special deposit accounts are provided in the contracts for purposes of recording and accounting for the replacement and settlement of energy and cost of power transactions under the contracts.

BPA states that these storage releases can be made without jeopardizing the power supply necessary to fulfill its existing contractual obligations.

The application is on file with the Commission and available for public inspection.

Any person desiring to make representation with respect to the foregoing should submit the same on or before the 2d of May 1955, to the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C.

[SEAL] LEON M. FUQUAY,
Secretary.

[Docket No. G–8230]

UNITED GAS PIPE LINE CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

MARCH 30, 1955.

Take notice that United Gas Pipe Line Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation whose address is 1525 Fairfield Avenue, Shreveport, Louisiana, filed on January 27, 1955, an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, as supplemented on March 2, 1955, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing Applicant to render service as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully represented in the application which is on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

Authorization is requested for the following facilities:

1. Baxterville-Hattiesburg Project. Construct 33.8 miles of 16" pipeline, including 0.2 mile of 12" for a by-pass line across Leaf River, and appurtenant facilities beginning near Milepost 41.4 on the 24" pipeline between McComb and Baxterville at the Baxterville Dehydration Plant Site in Section 9, Township 1 North, Range 16 West, Lamar County, Mississippi, and extending in a Northeasterly direction to end near Milepost 8.0 on the 8" lateral pipeline near Hattiesburg in Section 31, Township 5 North, Range 12 West, Forrest County, Mississippi.

2. Mobile-Pensacola Project. (a) Construct 9.0 miles of 20" loop line and appurtenant facilities beginning at United Gas Pipe Line Company's Whistler Junction located Northwest of Mobile in Section 26, Township 3 South, Range 2 West, and extending in a Northeasterly direction parallel with the existing 16" pipeline to the 16" x 14" swage on the existing line located near Milepost 8.8 in Section 1, Township 3 South, Range 1 West, Mobile County, Alabama.

(b) Construct 8.7 miles of 20" loop line and appurtenant facilities through Mobile Swamp, including major single line stream crossings of the Mobile and Tensaw Rivers, Sara and Canot Bayous and Briar Creek, beginning at the 16" x 14" swage near Milepost 8.8 in Section 1, Township 3 South, Range 1 West, Mobile County, Alabama, and extending in an Easterly direction parallel to the existing 14" line to end at a connection with the existing 16" and 12" loop lines near Milepost 17.4 in Section 8, Township 2 South, Range 2 East, Baldwin County, Alabama.

(c) Construct 3.2 miles of 20" loop line and appurtenant facilities beginning at the end of the existing 16" and 12" loop lines near Milepost 56.3 in Section 30, Township 1 North, Range 31 West, and extending in a Southeasterly direction parallel to the existing 12" line to end at the Gulf Power Company tap near Milepost 59.5 in Section 2, Township 1 South, Range 31 West, all in Escambia County, Florida.

3. Escambia Bay Chemical Corporation (formerly Gulf Chemical Company) project. Construct 8.3 miles of 16" pipeline and appurtenant facilities beginning near Milepost 7.2 on the 12" lateral to Chemstrand in Section 30, Township 1 North, Range 30 West, Escambia County, Florida, and extending in a generally Easterly direction across the Escambia River and swamp to end at the site of the proposed Escambia Bay Chemical Corporation (formerly Gulf Chemical Company) Plant in Section 31, Township 1 North, Range 29 West, Santa Rosa County, Florida.

4. Morton Compressor Station Project. Construct 330 horsepower automatic type compressor station and appurtenant facilities near Milepost 27 on the 6" line between Jackson and Philadelphia near Morton in Section 26, Township 6 North, Range 6 East, Scott County, Mississippi.

5. Jackson Storage Project. As initial operation to test the efficiency and adaptability of the Jackson, Mississippi, Gas Field for storage purposes to drill approximately 13 wells and to construct approximately 2.9 miles of 16" pipeline, 3.29 miles of 12" pipeline, 0.46 mile of 8" pipeline, 0.65 mile of 6" pipeline, a dehydration plant, and to make minor adjustments on a 2,000 hp. unit in Applicant's existing Jackson No. 2 Compressor Station.

The purpose of the proposed facilities is to supply increased requirements of Applicant's customers in the Jackson District, including an increase in the maximum daily quantity of 50,000 Mcf to be delivered to Southern Natural Gas Company at Kosciusko, Mississippi. Additionally, the Escambia Bay Project would supply a new customer, Escambia Bay Chemical Corporation.

The estimated total cost of the facilities for which authorization is requested is $8,339,481 to be financed out of current working funds.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before April 15, 1955.

[SEAL] LEON M. FUQUAY,
Secretary.

RUBBER PRODUCING FACILITIES DISPOSAL COMMISSION

INVITATIONS FOR PROPOSALS FOR PURCHASE OF A PLANT AND TANK CARS

Pursuant to the Rubber Producing Facilities Disposal Act of 1953 (67 Stat. 408) (Act), and Public Law 19, 84th Congress, First Session, approved March 31, 1955, the Rubber Producing Facilities Disposal Commission announces that it will receive written proposals for the purchase of the GR-S synthetic rubber producing facility at Baytown, Texas, and for the purchase or lease of any or all of certain pressure tank cars, all as more fully described below.

Contracts between the Commission and various parties for the sale of 24 of the Government-owned rubber producing facilities and the lease of a 25th have recently become fully effective. The Baytown facility and the tank cars will, therefore, when sold, become part of a recently established private synthetic rubber industry.

A detailed descriptive brochure relating to the Baytown facility and pertinent information relating to the tank cars may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Commission.

The Rubber Producing Facilities Disposal Act of 1953, and Public Law 19, 84th Congress, First Session, prescribe in detail, as well as generally, procedural and substantive standards pursuant to which the disposal of the Baytown facility and the tank cars is to be effected. To facilitate compliance with these standards the Disposal Commission has prepared Instructions for the Submission of Proposals which set forth the requirements of the Commission with respect to such proposals; copies thereof will be available upon application to the Secretary of the Commission.

Subject to the foregoing, the following additional information concerning the program of sale is announced:

GR-S Plant, Baytown, Texas. This facility, designated Plancor 877, produces GR-S type synthetic rubber from butadiene and styrene. It has an annual capacity of 44,000 long tons and is presently operated for the Government by The General Tire & Rubber Company.

The Commission will receive proposals for the purchase of this facility. Such proposals shall be in writing and may be submitted at any time through April 29, 1955, at the office of the Commission, 811 Vermont Avenue NW., Washington 25, D. C.

As a condition to sale, the Commission is required to be satisfied that the prospective purchaser actually intends to operate the facility for the purpose of manufacturing synthetic rubber. The purchaser must also agree to comply with the terms of a "National Security Clause" having terms, conditions, restrictions and reservations which will assure the prompt availability of the facility, or a facility of equivalent capacity, for the production of synthetic rubber for a period of ten years from the date the facility is transferred to the purchaser.

Proposals for purchase shall provide for the payment of not less than 25 percent of the purchase price in cash; the unpaid balance may be financed by a first lien purchase money mortgage maturing in not more than 10 years and providing for periodic amortization (amortization in equal annual instalments is not required). The interest rate upon the balance of the purchase price represented by the mortgage shall be 4 percent per annum.

Proposals for purchase shall be accompanied by a deposit of cash or United States Government bonds of face amount equal to 2½ percent of the gross amount proposed to be paid but not exceeding $250,000. Except in the case of a purchaser, deposits shall be refunded without interest. In the case of a purchaser, deposits made hereunder shall be applied without interest to the purchase price.

In the previous sales of the 24 other rubber producing facilities, the Commission used standard forms of contract applicable to cash and mortgage transactions. The same forms of contract will be used for the sale of the Baytown facility. Copies of the contract forms, which incorporate the full text of the National Security Clause, are available upon request from the Secretary of the Commission.

During a period of not to exceed 60 days following the termination of the period for the receipt of proposals, the Commission will negotiate for the sale of the Baytown facility with those who have submitted proposals. Such negotiations will be conducted with due regard to the several purposes of the act, that the disposal of the facility best foster the development of a free competitive synthetic rubber industry, afford small business enterprises and other users the opportunity to obtain a fair share of the end product of the facility and at fair prices, be consistent with national security and realize full fair value for the facility, taking into consideration the policy set forth in section 2 of the act.

Tank cars. Offered for sale or lease are 447 pressure tank cars (ICC Classification—ICC-104AW). Proposals for the purchase or lease of any or all of these tank cars shall be in writing and may be submitted to the Commission at any time through April 29, 1955. Public Law 19 authorizes the Commission to lease or sell the tank cars on such terms as the Commission deems advisable in the public interest. With the exception of the specific terms set out below, final decision on the terms of lease or sale, including lease rental and price terms of sale (whether all cash or cash down payment plus a mortgage) will be made by the Commission after the expiration of the period for the submission of proposals and announced to all prospective purchasers and lessees who file timely proposals. As an aid to the exercise of its statutory right to set the terms of lease or sale, the Commission requests prospective purchasers or lessees to state and discuss in their proposals the terms of lease or sale they desire.

Proposals for purchase shall be accompanied by a deposit of cash or United States Government bonds of face amount equal to 2½ percent of the gross amount proposed to be paid but not exceeding $250,000. Except in the case of a purchaser, deposits shall be refunded without interest. In the case of a purchaser, deposits made hereunder shall be applied without interest to the purchase price.

Upon the receipt of proposals for any or all of the tank cars, the Commission will enter into negotiations looking toward their sale or lease.

Leases shall be for a period of not less than one year.

Each lease or contract of sale shall contain, among other provisions, a "National Security Clause" having terms, conditions, restrictions and reservations which will assure the prompt availability of the tank cars for use in the transportation of raw materials or components of synthetic rubber for a period of time to be announced in the Instructions for the Submission of Proposals. Each lease shall contain provisions for the recapture of the leased tank cars and the termination of the lease if the President determines that the national interest so requires.

For further information and details, apply to Ferris B. Thomas, Secretary.

UNITED STATES TARIFF COMMISSION

[Investigation 6]

PEANUTS

NOTICE OF SUPPLEMENTAL INVESTIGATION AND PUBLIC HEARING

Notice is hereby given that the United States Tariff Commission, on March 31, 1955, instituted an investigation under the provisions of section 22 (d) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act, as amended, supplemental to its investigation No. 6 under section 22 of the said act, to determine whether the deficit in the domestic supply of peanuts is such as to require an increase in the quantity of peanuts, shelled, unshelled, blanched, salted, prepared, or preserved which may be permitted to be entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption during the quota year ending June 30, 1955, and during the quota year beginning July 1, 1955, to meet essential requirements of domestic peanut users, and, if so, what additional quantity or quantities of peanuts may be permitted to be so entered or withdrawn without materially interfering with or rendering ineffective the peanut program of the Department of Agriculture.

Under Presidential proclamation of June 8, 1953 (No. 3019; 67 Stat. C46), issued after investigation by the Tariff Commission pursuant to section 22 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act, imports of peanuts which may be entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption in any year beginning July 1, are limited to 1,709,000 pounds. After a supplemental investigation by the Tariff Commission, the President, by proclamation dated March 9, 1955 (20 F. R. 1549), modified the import restrictions under section 22 by permitting the entry of an additional 51 million pounds of certain peanuts during the remainder of the quota year ending June 30, 1955, subject to an import fee, in addition to the regular duty, of 2 cents per pound. In a letter to the Chairman of the Tariff Commission dated March 31, 1955, the Secretary of Agriculture indicated that the additional quantity of peanuts permitted entry over the basic quota during the remainder of the current quota year is not sufficient to enable the trade to import enough peanuts to meet requirements until supplies become available from the 1955 crop, and stated that information now available discloses that: (1) Less peanuts will be available for commercial edible use from the 1954 crop than was previously estimated; (2) consumption is somewhat higher than was anticipated earlier; (3) except for the larger sizes of the Virginia type peanuts shellers now find that they cannot supply enough peanuts to meet the needs of their customers; (4) the business risk arising from the fact that the present quota may be filled before peanuts purchased abroad reach this country discourages needed imports; (5) the latest peanut stocks report shows that the quantity of peanuts now on hand is less than the quantity needed to meet consumption requirements until supplies become available from the 1955 crop.

After careful consideration of the letter from the Secretary of Agriculture and of other factors, the Commission ordered this supplemental investigation and, at the same time, ordered a public hearing to be held in connection with such supplemental investigation, beginning at 10 a. m., e. s. t., on April 19, 1955, in the Hearing Room, Tariff Commission Building, 8th and E Streets NW., Washington, D. C. Interested parties desiring to appear and to be heard at the hearing should notify the Secretary of the Commission in writing at its offices in Washington, D. C., at least three days in advance of the date set for the hearing.

Issued: April 1, 1955.

By order of the Commission.

[SEAL] DONN N. BENT,
Secretary.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

DENVER AND RIO GRANDE WESTERN RAILROAD CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR UNLISTED TRADING PRIVILEGES, AND OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 30th day of March 1955.

The Boston Stock Exchange pursuant to section 12 (f) (2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-12F-1 thereunder, has made application for unlisted trading privileges in the Escrow Certificates for Common Stock, of Denver and Rio Grande Western Railroad Company, a security listed and registered on the New York Stock Exchange.

Rule X-12F-1 provides that the applicant shall furnish a copy of the application to the issuer and to every exchange on which the security is listed or already admitted to unlisted trading privileges. The application is available for public inspection at the Commission's principal office in Washington, D. C.

Notice is hereby given that, upon request of any interested person received prior to April 15, 1955, the Commission will set this matter down for hearing. In addition, any interested person may submit his views or any additional facts bearing on this application by means of a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D. C. If no one requests a hearing on this matter, this application will be determined by order of the Commission on the basis of the facts stated in the application, and other information contained in the official file of the Commission pertaining to this matter.

NEW ENGLAND ELECTRIC SYSTEM ET AL.

ORDER AUTHORIZING APPLICATION-DECLARATION REGARDING INTRASYSTEM TRANSACTIONS INVOLVING SALE OF GAS ASSETS BY ONE SUBSIDIARY TO ANOTHER SUBSIDIARY AND ISSUE AND SALE OF COMMON STOCK BY SUBSIDIARY TO PARENT

MARCH 30, 1955.

In the matter of New England Electric System, The Mystic Power Company, The Pequot Gas Company; File No. 70-3331.

New England Electric System ("NEES"), a registered holding company, and two of its public-utility subsidiaries, The Mystic Power Company ("Mystic") and The Pequot Gas Company ("Pequot") have filed with this Commission on January 3, 1955 a joint application-declaration and an amendment thereto pursuant to sections 6 (b), 9 (a), 10 and 12 (f) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 (the "act") and Rules U-42 (b), U-43 and U-44 promulgated thereunder regarding the following proposed transactions:

NEES is solely a holding company. It owns all of the outstanding common stock of Mystic and upon consummation of the proposed transactions will own all the outstanding common stock of Pequot, which was recently formed for the purpose of acquiring the gas business and gas assets of Mystic. The latter proposes to sell such assets, which consist principally of a gas distribution system in Pawcatuck, Connecticut, to Pequot for a cash consideration amounting to the depreciated book value of the assets, including conditional gas appliance sales contracts, unbilled revenues and unamortized costs of conversion to natural gas, on the effective date of the sale. As of October 31, 1954, such purchase price is estimated to be $155,660. Pequot proposes (a) to issue and sell 15,000 shares of $10 par value common stock at par to NEES and (b) to borrow not in excess of $29,000 from the Hartford National Bank and Trust Company, such indebtedness to be evidenced by an unsecured promissory note. The note will mature in six months from its issue date and will bear interest at the prime rate of interest at the time of issuance plus ¼ of 1 percent. It is stated in the application-declaration that the present prime rate is 3 percent and that the proposed amount of note indebtedness will be substantially equal to the unamortized balance of Mystic's cost of conversion to the use of natural gas. Pequot also requests authority, should it be necessary when such note matures, to issue a new note, with similar terms, in an amount substantially equal to the then unamortized conversion costs, the proceeds thereof, together with treasury funds, to be used to pay the maturing note.

Mystic will use the proceeds derived from the proposed sale to pay (a) its note indebtedness incurred to pay construction costs and outstanding on October 31, 1954, in the amount of $75,000 and (b) accounts payable for construction costs; any balance will be added to Mystic's general funds.

Applicants-Declarants represent that the separation of Mystic's gas and electric properties is not detrimental to the carrying out of the provisions of Section 11 of the Act and that such separation will facilitate carrying out the eventual disposition of the gas properties in NEES' system.

The application-declaration states that no commissions are to be paid in connection with the proposed transactions. Fees and expenses are estimated not to exceed $4,250 including $3,500 representing incidental services performed at the actual cost thereof by New England Power Service Company, an affiliated service company. The Connecticut Public Utilities Commission by order dated, March 21, 1955, has approved Mystic's sale of its assets and business and Pequot's purchase thereof and issuance of securities.

Applicants-Declarants request that the Commission's order herein become effective forthwith upon issuance.

Due notice having been given of the filing of said application-declaration in the manner prescribed by Rule U-23 and no hearing having been requested of or ordered by the Commission; and the Commission finding that the applicable standards of the act and the rules promulgated thereunder are satisfied and that no adverse findings are necessary; and the Commission deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that said application-declaration, as amended, be granted and permitted to become effective forthwith:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, that said application-declaration, as amended, be, and the same hereby is, granted and permitted to become effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

By the Commission.

Payment in cash, credit to the producer's account or the drawing of a check or draft shall constitute disbursement. The producer shall not present the loan documents for disbursement unless the grain sorghums are in existence and in good condition. If the grain sorghums were not in existence and in good condition at the time of disbursement, the total amount disbursed under the loan shall be promptly refunded by the producer. In the event the amount disbursed exceeds the amount authorized under this subpart, the producer shall be personally liable for repayment of the amount of such excess.

(c) Source. A producer desiring to participate in the reseal loan program should make application to the county committee which aproved his loan or purchase agreement. Disbursements of loans completed on grain sorghums covered by purchase agreements shall be made to producers by ASC county offices by means of sight drafts drawn on CCC or by approved lending agencies under agreements with CCC.

§ 421.538 Eligible producer. An eligible producer shall be any individual, partnership, association, corporation, or other legal entity who produced the grain sorghum in 1954 as landowner, landlord, tenant, or sharecropper and who either completed a farm-storage loan or signed a purchase agreement covering grain sorghums of the 1954 crop.

§ 421.539 Eligible grain sorghums—(a) Requirements of eligibility. The grain sorghums (1) must meet the requirements set forth in § 421.528 (a), (b), (c), and (d) of 1954 C. C. C. Grain Price Support Bulletin 1, Supplement 1, Grain Sorghums but must contain not in excess of 12 percent moisture; (2) must be under price support loan or purchase agreement; and (3) must be of a quality which meets sanitation requirements of the Federal Food and Drug Administration in effect at the time the loan is extended or made. Information concerning such requirements may be obtained at the ASC county office.

(b) Inspection. If a producer makes application to extend his farm-storage loan, or to obtain a farm-storage loan on grain sorghums covered by a purchase agreement, the commodity loan inspector shall inspect the grain sorghums and storage structure, obtain a sample if the grain sorghums and structure appear eligible, and proceed in the regular manner for the inspection of a commodity to be placed under loan.

(c) Determination of quality. Quality determinations shall be made as set forth in § 421.531: Provided, That determinations with respect to the sanitation requirements specified in § 421.539 (a) shall be made in accordance with instructions issued by CCC. Such instructions will be available for examination at the ASC county office.

§ 421.540 Approved storage. Grain sorghums covered by any loans extended and any new loans completed must be stored in structures which meet the requirements for farm-storage loans as provided in § 421.406 (a). Consent for storage for any loans extended or new loans completed must be obtained by the producer for the period ending May 31, 1956, if the structure is owned or controlled by someone other than the producer, or if the lease expires prior to May 31, 1956.

§ 421.541 Approved forms. (a) The approved forms, which together with the provisions of this subpart govern the rights and responsibilities of the producer, shall consist of Producer's Note and Supplemental Loan Agreement, Commodity Loan Form A, secured by a Commodity Chattel Mortgage on Commodity Loan Form AA, and such other forms and documents as may be prescribed by CCC. Notes and chattel mortgages must have State and documentary revenue stamps affixed thereto where required by law. Loan documents executed by an administrator, executor or trustee will be acceptable only where legally valid.

(b) Where required by State law, a new producer's note and chattel mortgage shall be completed when a farm-storage loan is extended.

§ 421.542 Quantity eligible for reseal-ing. (a) The quantity of grain sorghums eligible for reseal on an extended farm-storage loan will be the quantity shown on the original note and chattel mortgage, less any quantity delivered or redeemed.

(b) A producer may obtain a loan on not in excess of the quantity of grain sorghums specified in the purchase agreement, minus any quantity of the grain sorghums under such purchase agreement (1) which has been previously placed under a loan or (2) on which he exercises his option to sell to CCC.

§ 421.543 Additional service charges. (a) When a farm-storage loan is extended, the producer will not be required to pay an additional service charge.

(b) At the time a farm-storage loan is made to the producer on grain sorghums covered by a purchase agreement, the producer shall pay an additional service charge of 1 cent per 100 pounds on the quantity placed under loan, or $1.50, whichever is greater. No refund of service charges will be made.

§ 421.544 Transfer of producer's equity. The producer shall not transfer either his remaining interest in or his right to redeem the grain sorghums mortgaged as security for a loan under this program. A producer who wishes to liquidate all or part of his loan by contracting for the sale of the grain sorghums must obtain written prior approval of the county committee on Commodity Loan Form 12 to remove the grain sorghums from storage when the proceeds of the sale are needed to repay all or any part of the loan. Any such approval shall be subject to the terms and conditions set out in Commodity Loan Form 12, copies of which may be obtained by producers or prospective purchasers at the office of the county committee.

§ 421.545 Storage and track-loading payments—(a) Storage payment. A reseal storage payment will be made as follows:

(1) Storage payment for full reseal period: A storage payment for the full reseal period will be made to the producer on the quantity involved if he (i) redeems grain sorghums from the loan on or after March 31, 1956, (ii) delivers grain sorghums to CCC on or after March 31, 1956, or (iii) delivers grain sorghums to CCC prior to March 31, 1956, pursuant to demand by CCC for repayment of the loan solely for the convenience of CCC, if the commodity was not damaged or otherwise impaired due to negligence on the part of the producer. Such storage payment will be computed at the rate of 26 cents per 100 pounds in the States of Arizona, California, and South Dakota; 27 cents per 100 pounds in the States of Colorado, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, and Nebraska; and 28 cents per 100 pounds in the States of New Mexico, Oklahoma, and Texas.

(2) Prorated storage payment: A storage payment determined by prorating such yearly rate according to the length of time the quantity of grain sorghums involved was in store after May 31, 1955, will be made to the producer (i) in the case of loss assumed by CCC under the provisions of the loan program, (ii) in the case of grain sorghums redeemed from the loan prior to March 31, 1956, and (iii) in the case of grain sorghums delivered by CCC prior to March 31, 1956, pursuant to its demand and not solely for the convenience of CCC, or upon request of the producer and with the approval of CCC: Provided, however, That no storage payment will be made with respect to grain sorghums so delivered to CCC which are damaged or otherwise impaired due to negligence on the part of the producer. The prorated storage payment will be computed at the rate of 0.00085 per 100 pounds a day (but not to exceed 26 cents per 100 pounds) in the States of Arizona, California, and South Dakota; 0.00089 per 100 pounds a day (but not to exceed 27 cents per 100 pounds) in the States of Colorado, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska; 0.00092 per 100 pounds a day (but not to exceed 28 cents per 100 pounds) in the States of New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas. In the case of losses assumed by CCC, the period for computing the storage payment shall end on the date of the loss; and in the case of redemptions, on the date of repayment.

(3) In no case will any storage payment be made where the producer has made any false representation in the loan documents or in obtaining the loan, or where the grain sorghums have been abandoned, or where there has been conversion on the part of the producer.

(b) Track-loading payment. A track-loading payment of 6 cents per 100 pounds will be made to the producer on grain sorghums delivered to CCC, in accordance with instructions of the county committee, on track, at a country point.

§ 421.546 Maturity and satisfaction. (a) Loans will mature on demand but not later than March 31, 1956. The producer must pay off his loan, plus interest, on or before maturity or deliver the Colorado, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, New Mexico, Oklahoma, South Dakota, and Texas. This program provides, under certain circumstances, for the extension of 1954-crop farm-storage loans and the making of farm-storage loans on 1954-crop grain sorghums covered by purchase agreements. Neither warehouse-storage loans nor purchase agreements will be available to producers under this program.

(b) Time. (1) The producer who desires to participate in the reseal loan program must file an application for a farm-storage reseal loan with the county committee.

(2) In the case of a farm-storage loan, the producer will be required to apply for extension of his loan before the final date for delivery specified in the delivery instructions issued to him by the county committee.

(3) The producer who signed a purchase agreement on farm-stored grain sorghums is required, under the 1954 Grain Sorghums Price Support Program, to notify the county committee not later than March 31, 1955, if he intends to sell the grain sorghums to CCC. If the producer has notified the county committee on or before March 31, 1955, of his intention to sell the grain sorghums to CCC, or to participate in this program, he may obtain a farm-storage loan on the grain sorghums. The loan documents must be executed by the producer on or before the final date for delivery specified in the delivery instructions or, before May 31, 1955, if the producer has not requested or received delivery instructions. The loan documents must be presented for disbursement within 15 days after execution. Disbursement of loans will be made to producers by approved lending agencies under an agreement with CCC, or by ASC county offices by means of sight drafts drawn on CCC.

mortgaged grain sorghums in accordance with the instructions of the county committee. Credit will be given at the applicable settlement value according to grade and/or quality for the total quantity eligible for delivery. Delivery of grain sorghums will be accepted only from bin(s) in which the grain sorghums under reseal loan are stored. The provisions of § 421.418 (a), (c), and (e) (2) and (3) and of § 421.535 (a) (1) shall be applicable thereto: Provided, That, if upon delivery, the grain sorghums are of a quality which do not meet the sanitation requirements (§ 421.539 (a) (3)) in effect at the time the loan was extended or at the time the loan was made on grain sorghums covered by a purchase agreement, the grain sorghums shall be sold to the highest bidder for feed, or for industrial uses other than food and beverages, and the basic settlement value, per 100 pounds, shall be the same as the sales price.

§ 421.547 Support rates. (a) The support rate for an extended farm-storage loan shall remain the same as for the original loan, and the support rate for grain sorghums covered by a purchase agreement placed under a farm-storage loan shall be the support rate established for the grain sorghums in § 421.533 (c) (1) and (2): Provided, That, the basic support rate shall be for 100 pounds of grain sorghums of the Classes I to IV, inclusive, grading No. 2 or better and containing not in excess of 12 percent moisture.

(b) Any discounts established for variation in quality as shown in § 421.533 (d) shall apply, except that discounts contained therein for grain sorghums which grade No. 3 or No. 4 and contain not in excess of 13 percent moisture shall apply to grain sorghums which grade No. 3 or No. 4 and contain not in excess of 12 percent moisture.

§ 421.548 CSS commodity offices. The CSS commodity offices and the areas served by them are shown below:

PART 301—DOMESTIC QUARANTINE NOTICES

SUBPART—BLACK STEM RUST

ADMINISTRATIVE INSTRUCTIONS DESIGNATING RUST-RESISTANT SPECIES AND VARIETIES OF BARBERRY, MAHOBERBERIS, AND MAHONIA PLANTS

Pursuant to the authority conferred upon him by § 301.38-5 of the regulations (7 CFR, 1953 Supp., 301.38-5) supplemental to the Black Stem Rust Quarantine (Notice of Quarantine No. 38, 7 CFR, 1953 Supp., 301.38) under section 8 of the Plant Quarantine Act of 1912, as amended (7 U. S. C. 161), the Chief of the Plant Pest Control Branch hereby amends the administrative instructions in 7 CFR, 1953 Supp., 301.38-5a to read as follows:

§ 301.38-5a Administrative instructions designating rust-resistant barberry, mahoberberis, and mahonia plants. (a) The Chief of the Branch, upon the basis of evidence satisfactory to him, has determined that the following species and horticultural varieties of barberry, mahoberberis, and mahonia are resistant to black stem rust, and such species and varieties are hereby designated as rust-resistant:

Scientific name:
Berberis arido-calida.
B. beaniana.
B. buxifolia.
B. buxifolia nana.
B. calliantha.
B. candidula.
B. chenaulti.
B. circumserrata.
B. concinna.
B. darwini.
B. formosana.
B. franchetiana.
B. gagnepaini.
B. gilgiana.
B. horvathi.
B. hybrido-gagnepaini.
B. insignis.
B. julianae.
B. koreana.
B. lempergiana.
B. lepidifolia.
B. linearifolia.
B. linearifolia var. Orange King.
B. lologensis.
B. mentorensis.
B. pallens.
B. potanini.
B. Renton.
B. replicata.
B. sanguinea.
B. sargentiana.
B. stenophylla.
B. stenophylla diversifolia.
B. stenophylla gracilis.
B. stenophylla irwini.
B. stenophylla nana compacta.
B. telomaica artisepala.
B. thunbergi.
B. thunbergi atropurpurea.
B. thunbergi atropurpurea nana.
B. thunbergi erecta.
B. thunbergi "globe".
B. thunbergi "golden".
B. thunbergi maximowiczi.
B. thunbergi minor.
B. thunbergi pluriflora.
B. thunbergi "thornless".
B. thunbergi "variegata".
B. thunbergi xanthocarpa.
B. triacanthophora.
B. verruculosa.
B. virgatorum.
B. xanthoxylon.
Mahoberberis miethkeana.
Mahonia aquifolium.
M. bealei.
M. compacta.
M. dictyota.
M. fortunei.
M. lomarifolia
M. nervosa.
M. pinnata.
M. repens.

(b) Plants of the species and varieties in paragraph (a) of this section may be moved interstate in compliance with the regulations in this subpart.

(c) Under the regulations in this subpart, seeds and fruit of the species and varieties in paragraph (a) of this section, if produced in any of the States of Colorado, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, North Dakota, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin, and Wyoming, may be moved between such States only under permit or, wherever produced, may be moved from the States named to points outside thereof, and between States other than those named, without restriction.

(Sec. 9, 37 Stat. 318; 7 U. S. C. 162. Interprets or applies sec. 8, 37 Stat. 318, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 161)

These instructions shall become effective on April 6, 1955, when they shall supersede B. E. P. Q. 577, revised, effective April 25, 1953 (7 CFR, 1953 Supp., 301.38-5a).

The purpose of this amendment is to add to the list of rust-resistant species and horticultural varieties of barberry, mahoberberis, and mahonia plants the following five additional species and varieties: Berberis lempergiana Ahrendt, B. lepidifolia Ahrendt, B. stenophylla gracilis Hort., B. thunbergi xanthocarpa Hort., and Mahonia lomarifolia Takeda. The designation of such rust-resistant species and varieties in effect constitutes a relaxation of the restrictions of the regulations and depends upon facts within the knowledge of the Plant Pest Control Branch. It has been determined that there is no unwarranted pest risk involved in the permitted movement of such species and varieties. The determination having been made that these species and varieties are rust-resistant, authorization for their movement in accordance with the regulations should be accomplished promptly. Accordingly, under section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003), it is found upon good cause that notice and other public procedure concerning these instructions are impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest, and since the instructions relieve restrictions, they may be made effective less than thirty days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 1st day of April 1955.

[SEAL] W. L. POPHAM,
Chief,
Plant Pest Control Branch.

AUTHORITY: §§ 929.0 to 929.101 issued under sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c.

§ 929.0 Findings and determinations—(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held upon a proposed marketing agreement and proposed order regulating the handling of milk in the Eastern South Dakota marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is hereby found that:

(1) The said order, and all the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply of and demand for milk in the marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in this order are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest;

(3) The said order regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held;

(4) All milk and milk products handled by handlers, as defined in the order, are in the current of interstate commerce or directly burden, obstruct or affect interstate commerce in milk or its products; and

(5) It is hereby found that the necessary expense of the market administrator for the maintenance and functioning of such agency will require the payment by each handler as his pro rata share of such expense, 5 cents per hundredweight or such amount not exceeding 5 cents per hundredweight, as the Secretary may prescribe, with respect to all receipts within the month of (i) producer milk, including such handler's own production, (ii) other source milk at an approved plant which is classified as Class I milk, and (iii) Class I milk disposed of during the month on routes (including routes operated by vendors) to retail or wholesale outlets (except fluid milk plants) located in the marketing area from an approved plant.

(b) Additional findings. Since this order will constitute the original imposition of a regulatory program of this nature for the market and since it is necessary that handlers maintain records and reports to the market administrator their receipts and utilization of milk, the provisions other than those relating to prices and payments to producers, should be put into effect prior to the effective date of the provisions relating to prices and payments to producers in order that handlers may have opportunity to make necessary adjustments in their accounting and other operational procedures to conform with all provisions of the order. It is hereby found and determined, in view of the aforesaid facts and circumstances that good cause exists for making §§ 929.1 through 929.16, 929.20 through 929.22 (g), 929.30 through 929.33, 929.40 through 929.46, 929.60, 929.61, and 929.90 through 929.101 effective on April 16, 1955; and §§ 929.22 (h) (i) and (j), 929.50 through 929.53, 929.70 and 929.71, and 929.80 through 929.84 effective on May 1, 1955; and that it would be contrary to the public interest to delay such effective dates to dates later than those specified.

(c) Determinations. It is hereby determined that handlers (excluding cooperative associations of producers who are not engaged in processing, distributing or shipping the milk covered by this order, which is marketed within the Eastern South Dakota marketing area) refused or failed to sign the proposed marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the Eastern South Dakota marketing area and it is hereby further determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of such handlers to sign said proposed marketing agreement tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

(2) The issuance of this order is the only practicable means, pursuant to the declared policy of the act, of advancing the interests of producers of milk which is produced for sale in the Eastern South Dakota marketing area; and

(3) The issuance of this order is approved or favored by at least three-fourths of the producers who, during the determined representative period (January 1955) were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the Eastern South Dakota marketing area.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered, that on an after the effective date hereof the handling of milk in the Eastern South Dakota marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the following terms and conditions:

DEFINITIONS

§ 929.1 Act. "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.).

§ 929.2 Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States or any officer or employee of the United States authorized to exercise the powers or to perform the duties of the said Secretary of Agriculture.

§ 929.3 Department. "Department" means the United States Department of Agriculture or any other Federal agency authorized to perform the price reporting functions specified in this part.

§ 929.4 Person. "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association or any other business unit.

§ 929.5 Cooperative association. "Cooperative association" means any cooperative marketing association which the Secretary determines, after application by the association:

(a) Is qualified under the provisions of the act of Congress of February 18, 1922, as amended, known as the "Capper-Volstead Act," and

(b) Has full authority in the sale of milk of its members and is engaged in making collective sales of or marketing milk or its products for its members.

§ 929.6 Eastern South Dakota Marketing Area. "Eastern South Dakota marketing area," hereinafter called the "marketing area," means all the territory within the corporate limits of the cities of Aberdeen, Huron, Redfield, and Watertown, all in the State of South Dakota.

§ 929.7 Pool plant. "Pool plant" means (a) any plant from which a volume of Class I milk equal to more than an average of 750 pounds per day or not less than 5 percent of the approved milk of such plant is disposed of during the month on routes (including routes operated by vendors) or through plant stores to retail or wholesale outlets (except other pool plants located in the marketing area, (b) any plant which during the months of February through July ships Grade A milk or skim milk to a plant qualified pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, or (c) any plant which during the months of August through January receives milk from farmers holding dairy farm permits or ratings issued by a health authority having jurisdiction in the marketing area, and from which milk, skim milk or cream is moved during the month to a plant qualified pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section: Provided, That if a portion of a plant is operated separately and no approved milk is received in such portion of the plant, it shall not be considered as part of a pool plant pursuant to this section.

§ 929.8 Approved plant. "Approved plant" means a pool plant or any plant from which Class I milk is delivered (including delivery by a vendor or sale from a plant store) during the month to retail or wholesale outlets (except pool plants) located in the marketing area.

§ 929.9 Nonpool plant. "Nonpool plant" means any milk manufacturing, processing or bottling plant other than a pool plant.

§ 929.10 Handler. "Handler" means any person in his capacity as the operator of an approved plant.

§ 929.11 Producer. "Producer" means any person, except a producer-handler, who produces milk in compliance with Grade A inspection requirements of a duly constituted health authority which milk is (a) received at a pool plant or (b) diverted by the operator of a pool plant for his account to a nonpool plant: (1) Any day during the months of March through July, and (2) on not more than 15 days during any of the months of August through February: Provided, That milk so diverted shall be deemed to have been received by the diverting handler at the location of the plant from which it was diverted.

§ 929.12 Producer milk. "Producer milk" means only that skim milk or butterfat contained in milk (a) received at the pool plant directly from producers, or (b) diverted from a pool plant to a nonpool plant in accordance with the conditions set forth in § 929.11.

§ 929.13 Approved milk. "Approved milk" means any skim milk or butterfat contained in producer milk or in milk, skim milk or cream which is received from a pool plant, except the plant of a producer-handler, and which is approved by the appropriate health authority for distribution as Class I milk in the marketing area.

§ 929.14 Other source milk. "Other source milk" means all skim milk and butterfat contained in:

(a) Receipts during the month in the form of products designated as Class I milk pursuant to § 929.41 (a), except (1) such products approved by the appropriate health authority for distribution as Class I milk in the marketing area received from pool plants or (2) producer milk; and

(b) Products designated as Class II milk pursuant to § 929.41 (b) (1) from any source (including those from a plant's own production), which are reprocessed or converted to another product in the plant during the month.

§ 929.15 Producer-handler. "Producer-handler" means any person who produces milk and who operates an approved plant from which Class I milk is disposed of in the marketing area but who receives no milk from other dairy farmers.

§ 929.16 Chicago butter price. "Chicago butter price" means the simple average as computed by the market administrator of the daily wholesale selling prices (using the midpoint of any range as one price) per pound of 92-score bulk creamery butter at Chicago as reported during the month by the Department of Agriculture.

MARKET ADMINISTRATOR

§ 929.20 Designation. The agency for the administration of this order shall be a market administrator, selected by the Secretary, who shall be entitled to such compensation as may be determined by, and shall be subject to removal at the discretion of, the Secretary.

§ 929.21 Powers. The market administrator shall have the following powers with respect to this order:

(a) To administer its terms and provisions;

(b) To receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violations;

(c) To make rules and regulations to effectuate its terms and provisions; and

(d) To recommend amendments to the Secretary.

§ 929.22 Duties. The market administrator shall perform all duties necessary to administer the terms and provisions of this order, including but not limited to, the following:

(a) Within 30 days following the date on which he enters upon his duties, or such lesser period as may be prescribed by the Secretary, execute and deliver to the Secretary a bond, effective as of the date on which he enters upon such duties and conditioned upon the faithful performance of such duties, in an amount and with surety thereon satisfactory to the Secretary;

(b) Employ and fix the compensation of such persons as may be necessary to enable him to administer its terms and provisions;

(c) Obtain a bond in a reasonable amount and with reasonable surety thereon covering each employee who handles funds entrusted to the market administrator;

(d) Pay out of the funds provided by § 929.83 the cost of his bond and of the bonds of his employees, his own compensation, and all other expenses necessarily incurred by him in the maintenance and functioning of his office and in the performance of his duties;

(e) Keep such books and records as will clearly reflect the transactions provided for in this order, and, upon request by the Secretary, surrender the same to such person as the Secretary may designate;

(f) Publicly announce, at his discretion, unless otherwise directed by the Secretary, by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate, the name of any person who, after the date upon which he is required to perform such acts, has not made reports pursuant to §§ 929.30 and 929.31 or payments pursuant to §§ 929.80 through 929.83;

(g) Submit his books and records to examination by the Secretary and furnish such information and reports as may be requested by the Secretary;

(h) Prepare and disseminate publicly such statistics and information as he deems advisable and as do not reveal confidential information;

(i) Verify all reports and payments by each handler by audit, if necessary, of such handler's records and the records of any other handler or person upon whose utilization the classification of skim milk and butterfat for such handler depends; and

(j) Publicly announce and notify each handler in writing on or before: (1) the 5th day of each month the Class I milk price pursuant to § 929.51 (a) and the Class I butterfat differential pursuant to § 929.52 (a), both for the current month; and the Class II milk price pursuant to § 929.51 (b) and the Class II butterfat differential pursuant to § 929.52 (b) both for the preceding month; and (2) the 8th day after the end of each month, the uniform price pursuant to § 929.71 and the butterfat differentials to be paid pursuant to § 929.81.

REPORTS, RECORDS AND FACILITIES

§ 929.30 Reports of receipts and utilization. On or before the 6th day after the end of each month each handler, except a producer-handler, shall report to the market administrator in the detail and on forms prescribed by the market administrator for each of his approved plants for such month as follows:

(a) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in receipts of producer milk;

(b) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in products designated as Class I milk pursuant to § 929.41 (a) (1) received from other handlers;

(c) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in other source milk;

(d) Inventories of products designated as Class I milk pursuant to § 929.41 (a) (1) on hand at the beginning and end of the month; and

(e) The utilization of all skim milk and butterfat required to be reported pursuant to this section, including a separate statement of the disposition of Class I milk outside the marketing area.

§ 929.31 Other reports. (a) Each producer-handler shall make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may prescribe.

(b) Each handler, except a producer-handler, shall report to the market administrator in detail and on forms prescribed by the market administrator:

(1) On or before the 20th day after the end of the month for each of his pool plants, his producer payroll for such month which shall show for each producer: (i) his name and address, (ii) the total pounds of milk received from such producer, (iii) the number of days on which milk was received from such producer, if less than a full calendar month, (iv) the average butterfat content of such milk, and (v) the net amount of such handler's payment together with the price paid and the amount and nature of any deductions;

(2) On or before the first day other source milk is received in the form of milk, fluid skim milk or cream at his pool plant(s), his intention to receive such product and on or before the last day such product is received, his intention to discontinue receipt of such milk; and

(3) Such other information with respect to the utilization of butterfat and skim milk as the market administrator may prescribe.

§ 929.32 Records and facilities. Each handler shall maintain and make available to the market administrator during the usual hours of business such accounts and records of his operations and such facilities as are necessary for the market administrator to verify or establish the correct data with respect to:

(a) The receipt and utilization of all skim milk and butterfat handled in any form;

(b) The weights and tests for butterfat and other content of all milk, skim milk, cream, and milk products handled;

(c) The pounds of skim milk and butterfat contained in or represented by all milk, skim milk, cream, and milk products on hand at the beginning and end of each month; and

(d) Payments to producers, including any deductions authorized by producers, and disbursement of money so deducted.

§ 929.33 Retention of records. All books and records required under this order to be made available to the market administrator shall be retained by the handler for a period of 3 years to begin at the end of the calendar month to which such books and records pertain: Provided, That if, within such 3-year period, the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that the retention of such books and records, or of specified books and records, is necessary in connection with a proceeding under section 8c (15) (A) of the act or a court action specified in such notice, the handler shall retain such books and records, or specified books and records, until further written notification from the market administrator. In either case, the market administrator shall give further written notification to the handler promptly upon the termination of the litigation or when the records are no longer necessary in connection therewith.

CLASSIFICATION

§ 929.40 Skim milk and butterfat to be classified. The skim milk and butterfat at pool plants which is required to be reported pursuant to § 929.30 shall be classified each month by the market administrator, pursuant to the provisions of §§ 929.41 through 929.46.

§ 929.41 Classes of utilization. Subject to the conditions set forth in §§ 929.43 and 929.44, the classes of utilization shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk. Class I milk shall be all skim milk (including concentrated and reconstituted skim milk) and butterfat (1) disposed of in the form of milk, skim milk, buttermilk, milk drinks (plain or flavored), cream (except frozen cream) and any mixture in fluid form of skim milk and cream (except ice cream, ice cream mixes, and sterilized products in hermetically sealed containers); and not accounted for as Class II milk;

(b) Class II milk. Class II milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat (1) used to produce any product other than those designated as Class I milk pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section; (2) contained in inventory of products designated as Class I milk pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section on hand at the end of the month; and (3) in shrinkage allocated to receipts of producer milk (except milk diverted to a nonpool plant pursuant to § 929.11) but not in excess of 2 percent of such receipts of skim milk and butterfat, respectively; and (4) in shrinkage in other source milk.

§ 929.42 Shrinkage. The market administrator shall allocate shrinkage over a handler's receipts as follows:

(a) Compute the total shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat for each handler; and

(b) Prorate the resulting amounts between the receipts of skim milk and butterfat contained in producer milk and in other source milk.

§ 929.43 Transfers. Skim milk or butterfat disposed of from a pool plant shall be classified:

(a) As Class I milk if transferred in the form of products designated as Class I milk in § 929.41 (a) (1) to a pool plant of another handler, except a producer-handler, unless utilization as Class II milk is claimed by both handlers in the reports submitted by them to the market administrator pursuant to § 929.30: Provided, That the skim milk or butterfat so assigned to Class II milk shall be limited to the amount thereof remaining in Class II milk in the plant of the transferee-handler after the subtraction of other source milk pursuant to § 929.46, and any additional amounts of such skim milk or butterfat shall be assigned to Class I milk: And provided further, That if either or both handlers have received other source milk, the skim milk or butterfat so transferred shall be classified at both plants so as to allocate the greatest possible Class I milk utilization to the producer milk of both handlers.

(b) As Class I milk if transferred to a producer-handler in the form of products designated as Class I milk in § 929.41 (a).

(c) As Class I milk if transferred or diverted in bulk form as milk or skim milk to a nonpool plant located in the marketing area or not more than 100 miles by the shortest highway distance as determined by the market administrator from the nearest point in the marketing area unless:

(1) The handler claims Class II on the basis of utilization mutually indicated in writing to the market administrator by both buyer and seller on or before the 6th day after the end of the month within which such transaction occurred;

(2) The buyer maintains books and records showing the utilization of all skim milk and butterfat at his plant which are made available, if requested by the market administrator for the purpose of verification; and

(3) Not less than an equivalent amount of skim milk and butterfat was actually used as Class II milk in such buyer's plant.

(d) As Class I milk if transferred in bulk form as cream to a nonpool plant unless:

(1) Such cream is transferred without Grade A certification of any health authority;

(2) The handler claims Class II in his report submitted to the market administrator pursuant to § 929.30 on or before the 6th day after the end of the month within which such transaction occurred;

(3) The buyer maintains books and records showing the utilization of all skim milk and butterfat at his plant which are made available, if requested by the market administrator, for the purpose of verification; and

(4) Not less than an equivalent amount of skim milk and butterfat was actually used as Class II milk in such buyer's plant.

§ 929.44 Responsibility of handlers and reclassification of milk. (a) In establishing the classification of skim milk and butterfat as required in § 929.41 the burden rests upon the handler who receives such skim milk or butterfat from producers to prove to the market administrator that such skim milk or butterfat should not be classified as Class I milk.

(b) Any skim milk or butterfat shall be reclassified if verification by the market administrator discloses that the original classification was incorrect.

§ 929.45 Computation of the skim milk and butterfat in each class. For each month, the market administrator shall correct for mathematical and for other obvious errors the reports of receipts and utilization for the pool plants of each handler and shall compute the pounds of butterfat and skim milk in each class for such handler: Provided, That if any of the water contained in the milk from which a product is made is removed before the product is utilized or disposed of by a handler, the pounds of skim milk used or disposed of in such product shall be considered to be an amount equivalent to the nonfat milk solids contained in such product, plus all of the water originally associated with such solids.

§ 929.46 Allocation of skim milk and butterfat classified. After making the computations pursuant to § 929.45, the market administrator shall determine the classification of producer milk for each handler as follows:

(a) Skim milk shall be allocated in the following manner:

(1) Subtract from the total pounds of skim milk in Class II milk the pounds of skim milk assigned to producer milk pursuant to § 929.41 (b) (3);

(2) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II milk the pounds of skim milk in other source milk: Provided, That if the receipts of skim milk in other source milk are greater than the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II milk, an amount equal to the difference shall be subtracted from the pounds of skim milk in Class I milk;

(3) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II milk the pounds of skim milk contained in inventory of products designated as Class I milk pursuant to § 929.41 (a) (1) on hand at the beginning of the month: Provided, That if the pounds of skim milk in such inventory are greater than the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II milk, an amount equal to the difference shall be subtracted from the pounds of skim milk in Class I milk;

(4) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in each class the skim milk received from the pool plants of other handlers in the form of products designated as Class I milk in § 929.41 (a) (1), according to its classification as determined pursuant to § 929.44 (a);

(5) Add to the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II milk the pounds of skim milk subtracted pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph; and

(6) If the remaining pounds of skim milk in both classes exceed the pounds of skim milk contained in producer milk, subtract such excess from the remaining pounds of skim milk in series beginning with Class II milk. Any amount so subtracted shall be known as "overage."

(b) Butterfat shall be allocated in accordance with the same procedure outlined for skim milk in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Determine the weighted average butterfat content of the Class I and Class II milk allocated to producer milk.

MINIMUM PRICES

§ 929.50 Basic formula price. The higher of the prices computed pursuant to paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section, rounded to the nearest whole cent, shall be known as the basic formula price.

(a) The average of the basic of field prices per hundredweight reported to have been paid or to be paid for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received from farmers during the month at the following plants or places for which prices have been reported to the market administrator or to the Department:

Present Operator and Location

Borden Co., Mt. Pleasant, Mich.
Borden Co., New London, Wis.
Borden Co., Orfordville, Wis.
Carnation Co., Oconomowoc, Wis.
Carnation Co., Richland Center, Wis.
Carnation Co., Sparta, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., Belleville, Wis.
Pet Milk Co., Coopersville, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., Hudson, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., New Glarus, Wis.
Pet Milk Co., Wayland, Mich.
White House Milk Co., Manitowoc, Wis.
White House Milk Co., West Bend, Wis.

(b) The price computed pursuant to § 929.51 (b).

§ 929.51 Class prices. Subject to the provisions of § 929.52 the class prices per hundredweight shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk price. The Class I milk price shall be the basic formula price for the preceding month, plus $1.40.

(b) Class II milk price. The Class II milk price shall be the price obtained by adding the amounts computed pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph and rounding to the nearest cent.

(1) Multiply the Chicago butter price by 1.25, subtract 8 cents, and multiply by 3.5.

(2) For each full one-half cent that the price of nonfat dry milk solids is above 7 cents per pound multiply by 3 cents and add 17 cents thereto. The price per pound of nonfat dry milk solids to be used shall be the simple average of carlot prices for nonfat dry milk solids for human consumption, both spray and roller process, delivered at Chicago as reported by the Department during the month. In the event the Department does not publish carlot prices for nonfat dry milk solids for human consumption delivered at Chicago, there shall be used the weighted average of carlot prices per pound for nonfat dry milk solids, spray and roller process, for human consumption, f. o. b. manufacturing plants in the Chicago area as published for the period from the 26th day of the immediately preceding month through the 25th day of the current month, and 3 cents shall be added for each full one-half cent that the latter price is above 6 cents per pound.

§ 929.52 Butterfat differentials to handlers. If the weighted average butterfat content of the milk received from producers classified, respectively, in Class I milk or Class II milk for a handler is more or less than 3.5 percent, there shall be added to, or subtracted from, the respective class price computed pursuant to § 929.51 for each one-tenth of 1 percent that such weighted average butterfat content is above or below 3.5 percent, a butterfat differential computed as follows:

(a) Class I milk. Add 2.8 cents to the butterfat differential computed pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section for the preceding month.

(b) Class II milk. Multiply the Chicago butter price for the current month by 0.125, subtract 0.8 cent, and round to the nearest one-tenth cent.

§ 929.53 Use of equivalent prices. If for any reason a price quotation required by this order for computing class prices or for other purposes is not available in the manner described, the market administrator shall use a price determined by the Secretary to be equivalent to the price which is required.

APPLICATION OF PROVISIONS

§ 929.60 Producer-handlers. Sections 929.40 through 929.46, 929.50 through 929.52, 929.70, 929.71, 929.80 through 929.84, and 929.90 through 929.93 shall not apply to a producer-handler.

§ 929.61 Plants subject to other Federal orders. A plant specified in paragraph (a) or (b) of this section shall be considered as a nonpool milk plant except that the operator of such plant shall, with respect to the total receipts and utilization or disposition of skim milk and butterfat at the plant, make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may require (in lieu of the reports required pursuant to § 929.30), and allow verification of such reports by the market administrator.

(a) Any plant qualified pursuant to § 929.7 (a) which would be subject to the classification and pricing provisions of another order issued pursuant to the act unless the Secretary determines that a greater volume of Class I milk is disposed of from such plant to retail or wholesale outlets (except pool plants) in the Eastern South Dakota marketing area than in the marketing area regulated pursuant to such other order.

(b) Any plant qualified pursuant to § 929.7 (b) or (c) which would be subject to the classification and pricing provisions of another order issued pursuant to the act unless such plant has qualified as a pool plant pursuant to § 929.7 (c) for each month during the preceding August through January period.

DETERMINATION OF UNIFORM PRICE

§ 929.70 Net obligation of handlers. The net obligation of each handler for producer milk received at his pool plant(s) during each month shall be a sum of money computed by the market administrator as follows: (a) Multiply the pounds of such milk in each class by the applicable class price; (b) add together the resulting amounts; (c) add the amounts computed by multiplying the pounds of overage deducted from each class by the applicable class price; (d) add or subtract, as the case may be, an amount necessary to correct errors discovered by the market administrator in the verification of reports of such handler of his receipts and utilization of skim milk and butterfat for previous months; and (e) add the amount obtained in multiplying the difference between the Class II price for the preceding month and the Class I price for the current month by the hundredweight of producer milk classified in Class II during the preceding month, or the hundredweight of milk subtracted from Class I pursuant to § 929.46 (a) (3) and (b), whichever is less.

§ 929.71 Computation of uniform prices for handlers. For each month the market administrator shall compute a uniform price for the producer milk received by each handler as follows:

(a) Add or subtract for each one-tenth percent that the average butterfat content of producer milk received by such handler is less or more, respectively, than 3.5 percent, an amount computed by multiplying such difference by the butterfat differential to producers, and multiplying the result by the total hundredweight of producer milk;

(b) Add if a deduction was made, or subtract if an addition was made, in computing the uniform price for such handler to the nearest cent for the preceding month the amount of such adjustment; and

(c) Divide the resulting amount by the total hundredweight of producer milk received by such handler. The quotient, adjusted to the nearest cent, shall be known as the uniform price for such handler for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content.

PAYMENTS

§ 929.80 Time and method of payment for producer milk. (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, each handler shall make payment to each producer for milk received during the month as follows:

(1) On or before the 27th day of each month to each such producer who did not discontinue shipping milk to such handler before the 25th day of the month an amount equal to not less than the uniform price for the preceding month multiplied by the hundredweight of milk received from such producer during the first 15 days of the month, less proper deductions authorized by such producer to be made from payments due pursuant to this subparagraph; and

(2) On or before the 12th day of the following month, an amount equal to not less than the uniform price adjusted by the butterfat differential to producers multiplied by the hundredweight of milk received from such producer during the month, subject to the following adjustments: (i) less payments made such producer pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, (ii) plus or minus adjustments for errors made in previous payments made to such producer, and (iii) less proper deductions authorized in writing by such producer.

(b) In the case of a cooperative association which is authorized to receive payment for the milk of its members and which has so requested any handler in writing, such handler shall make payment to the cooperative association for milk received during the month from the producer members of such association as follows:

(1) On or before the 25th day of the month an amount equal to not less than the uniform price for the preceding month multiplied by the hundredweight of milk received during the first 15 days of the month from producer members who did not discontinue delivering milk to such handler before the 25th day of the month, less proper deductions authorized in writing by such cooperative association to be made from payments due pursuant to this subparagraph; and

(2) On or before the 10th day of the following month, an amount equal to not less than the uniform prices adjusted by the butterfat differential to producers multiplied by the hundredweight of milk received from such producer members during the month, subject to the following adjustments: (i) less payments made such cooperative association pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, (ii) plus or minus adjustments for errors made in previous payments to such cooperative association, and (iii) less proper deductions authorized in writing by such cooperative association.

(c) In making the payments to producers pursuant to this section, each handler shall furnish each producer from whom he has received milk with a supporting statement in such form that it may be retained by the producer, which shall show for each month:

(1) The month and identity of the handler and of the producer;

(2) The daily and total pounds and the average butterfat content of milk received from such producer;

(3) The minimum rate or rates at which payment to such producer is required pursuant to the order;

(4) The rate which is used in making the payment, if such rate is other than the applicable minimum rate;

(5) The amount or the rate per hundredweight and nature of each deduction claimed by the handler; and

(6) The net amount of payment to such producer.

§ 929.81 Butterfat differential to producers. The applicable uniform prices to be paid each producer pursuant to § 929.80 shall be increased or decreased for each one-tenth of one percent which the butterfat content of his milk is above or below 3.5 percent, respectively, at the rate determined by multiplying the pounds of butterfat in the producer milk of such handler allocated to Class I and Class II milk pursuant to § 929.46 (b) by the respective butterfat differential for each class, dividing the sum of such values by the total pounds of such butterfat, and rounding the resultant figure to the nearest one-tenth of a cent.

§ 929.82 Adjustment of accounts. Whenever audit by the market administrator of any handler's reports, books, records, accounts, or verification of weights and butterfat tests of milk or milk products disclose errors resulting in money due a producer or the market administrator from such handler, or due such handler from the market administrator, the market administrator shall notify such handler of any amount so due and payment thereof shall be made on or before the next date for making payments, as set forth in the provisions under which such error occurred.

§ 929.83 Expense of administration. As his pro rata share of the expense of administration hereof, each handler shall pay to the market administrator on or before the 15th day after the end of the month for such month 5 cents per hundredweight, or such amount not exceeding 5 cents per hundredweight, as the Secretary may prescribe with respect to all (a) receipts of producer milk including such handler's own production, (b) other source milk at an approved plant which is classified as Class I milk, and (c) Class I disposed of during the month on routes (including routes operated by vendors) to retail or wholesale outlets (except fluid milk plants) located in the marketing area from an unapproved plant.

§ 929.84 Termination of obligations. The provisions of this section shall apply to any obligation under this part for the payment of money.

(a) The obligation of any handler to pay money required to be paid under the terms of this subpart shall, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, terminate two years after the last day of the calendar month during which the market administrator receives the handler's utilization report on milk involved in such obligation, unless within such two-year period the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that such money is due and payable. Service of such notice shall be complete upon mailing to the handler's last known address, and it shall contain, but need not be limited to, the following information:

(1) The amount of the obligation;

(2) The month(s) during which the milk, with respect to which the obligation exists, was received or handled; and

(3) If the obligation is payable to one or more producers or to an association of producers, the name of such producer(s) or association of producers, or if the obligation is payable to the market administrator, the account for which it is to be paid.

(b) If a handler fails or refuses, with respect to any obligation under this part, to make available to the market administrator or his representative all books and records required by this subpart to be made available, the market administrator may, within the two-year period provided for in paragraph (a) of this section, notify the handler in writing of such failure or refusal. If the market administrator so notifies a handler, the said two-year period with respect to such obligation shall not begin to run until the first day of the calendar month following the month during which all such books and records pertaining to such obligation are made available to the market administrator or his representatives.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, a handler's obligation under this part to pay money shall not be terminated with respect to any transaction involving fraud or willful concealment of a fact, material to the obligation, on the part of the handler against whom the obligation is sought to be imposed.

(d) Any obligation on the part of the market administrator to pay a handler any money which such handler claims to be due him under the terms of this subpart shall terminate two years after the end of the calendar month during which the milk involved in the claim was received if an underpayment is claimed, or two years after the end of the calendar month during which the payment (including deduction or set-off by the market administrator) was made by the handler if a refund on such payment is claimed, unless such handler, within the applicable period of time, files pursuant to section (15) (A) of the act, a petition claiming such money.

EFFECTIVE TIME, SUSPENSION OR TERMINATION

§ 929.90 Effective time. The provisions of this part or any amendment to this order shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated pursuant to § 929.91.

§ 929.91 Suspension or termination. The Secretary may suspend or terminate any or all of the provisions of this order whenever he finds that they obstruct or do not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. This part shall terminate, in any event, whenever the provisions of the act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

§ 929.92 Continuing power and duty of the market administrator. If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions of this part, there are any obligations arising under this order, the final accrual or ascertainment of which require further acts by any person (including the market administrator), such further acts shall be performed notwithstanding such suspension or termination.

§ 929.93 Liquidation after suspension or termination. Upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions of this order, except this section, the market administrator, or such liquidating agent as the Secretary may designate, shall, if so directed by the Secretary, liquidate the business of the market administrator's office, dispose of all property in his possession or control, including accounts receivable, and execute and deliver all assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to effectuate such disposition. If a liquidating agent is so designated, all assets, books and records of the market administrator shall be transferred promptly to such liquidating agent. If, upon such liquidation, the funds on hand exceed the amounts required to pay outstanding obligations of the office of the market administrator and to pay necessary expenses of liquidation and distribution, such excess shall be distributed to contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 929.100 Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this part.

§ 929.101 Separability of provisions. If any provision of this part, or its application to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the application of such provision and of the remaining provisions of this part to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 1st day of April 1955.

Sections 929.1 through 929.16, 929.20 through 929.22 (g), 929.30 through 929.33, 929.40 through 929.46, 929.60 and 929.61, and 929.90 through 929.101 shall be effective on and after the 16th day of April 1955 and §§ 929.22 (h) (i) and (j), 929.50 through 929.53, 929.70 and 929.71, and 929.80 through 929.84 shall be effective on and after May 1, 1955.

TITLE 16—COMMERCIAL PRACTICES

Chapter I—Federal Trade Commission

[Docket 6204]

PART 3—DIGEST OF CEASE AND DESIST ORDERS

COLUMBIAN BRONZE CORP. ET AL.

Subpart—Combining or conspiring: § 3.430 To enhance, maintain or unify prices. In connection with the offering for sale and distribution in commerce, of marine propellers, and on the part of respondent corporation, Columbian Bronze Corporation, and respondent Michigan Wheel Company, also trading as The Federal Propellers, and on the part of their respective officers, etc., and any subsidiary or affiliate, entering into, continuing, cooperating in, or carrying out any planned common course of action, agreement, understanding, or arrangement between themselves or by and between either or both of them and others not parties, to: (1) Fix or maintain the prices, bids, discounts, or other terms or conditions upon which their respective propellers are sold or distributed; (2) fix or maintain charges for or in connection with the boring of their respective propellers; (3) exchange or otherwise supply competitors or potential competitors with price information, including discounts and other terms of sale of said products and boring charges, in advance of the announcement of prices, discounts, and other terms of sale or boring charges; prohibited, subject to the proviso, that it is understood that the order prohibits exchanging of price information, including discounts and other terms of sale of said products and boring charges, only when done in advance of the public announcement of such information; except that such proviso shall not be deemed to authorize the exchanging of such information at other times if done pursuant to a planned common course of action, agreement, understanding, or arrangement to do the things prohibited in "(1)" and "(2)" above.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 721; 15 U. S. C. 46. Interprets or applies sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 45) [Cease and desist order, Columbian Bronze Corporation (Freeport, L. I., N. Y.) et al., Docket 6204, February 24, 1955.]

In the Matter of Columbian Bronze Corporation, a Corporation, and Michigan Wheel Company, a Corporation, Also Trading as The Federal Propellers

This proceeding was heard by John Lewis, hearing examiner, which charged respondents with the use of unfair methods of competition and unfair acts and practices in commerce, in violation of the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act; respondents' answers; and a stipulation, which was thereafter signed by the parties, provided for the entry of a consent order disposing of all the issues in the proceeding, and was submitted to said hearing examiner, theretofore duly designated by the Commission, for his consideration in accordance with Rule V of the Commission's rules of practice.

Pursuant to the aforesaid stipulation, respondents admitted all the jurisdictional allegations of the complaint and agreed that the record in the matter might be taken as if the Commission had made findings of jurisdictional facts in accordance with such allegations, and said stipulation further provided that the answer theretofore filed by respondents was to be withdrawn and that the parties expressly waived a hearing before said hearing examiner or the Commission, and all further and other procedure to which respondents might be entitled under the Federal Trade Commission Act or the rules of practice of the Commission.

Respondents also agreed that the order to cease and desist issued in accordance with said stipulation should have the same force and effect as if made after a full hearing, and specifically waived any and all right, power, or privilege to challenge or contest the validity of said order, and further stipulated and agreed that the complaint in the matter might be used in construing the terms of the order provided for in said stipulation, and that the signing of said stipulation was for settlement purposes only and did not constitute an admission by respondents that they had violated the law as alleged in the complaint.

Thereafter, the matter having come on for final consideration by said hearing examiner on the complaint and Stipulation for Consent Order, said examiner made his initial decision in which he set forth the aforesaid matters, that the answer previously filed by respondents was thereby deemed withdrawn, his conclusion that the aforesaid stipulation provided for an appropriate disposition of the proceeding and his acceptance thereof, which was ordered filed as part of the record in the matter, and in which he made certain findings for jurisdictional purposes and order to cease and desist.

No appeal having been filed from said initial decision of said hearing examiner, as provided for in Rule XXII of the Commission's rules of practice, nor any other action taken as thereby provided to prevent said initial decision becoming the decision of the Commission thirty days from service thereof upon the parties, said initial decision, including said order, accordingly, under the provisions of said Rule XXII, became the decision of the Commission on February 24, 1955.

Said order is as follows:

It is ordered, That the respondents, Columbian Bronze Corporation, a corporation, and Michigan Wheel Company, a corporation, also trading as The Federal Propellers, their respective officers, agents and employees, and any subsidiary or affiliate, in connection with the offering for sale and distribution in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, of their said products, namely, marine propellers, do forthwith cease and desist from entering into, continuing, cooperating in or carrying out any planned common course of action, agreement, understanding or arrangement between themselves or by and between either or both of them and others not parties hereto, to do or perform the following acts or things, namely:

(1) Fixing or maintaining the prices, bids, discounts or other terms or conditions upon which their respective propellers are sold or distributed.

(2) Fixing or maintaining charges for or in connection with the boring of their respective propellers.

(3) Exchanging or otherwise supplying competitors or potential competitors with price information, including discounts and other terms of sale of said products and boring charges, in advance of the announcement of prices, discounts and other terms of sale or boring charges.

Provided, It is understood that this order prohibits exchanging of price information, including discounts and other terms of sale of said products and boring charges, only when done in advance of the public announcement of such information; except that this proviso shall not be deemed to authorize the exchanging of such information at other times if done pursuant to a planned common course of action, agreement, understanding or arrangement to do the things prohibited in subparagraphs (1) and (2) hereof.

By "Decision of the Commission and Order to File Report of Compliance," Docket 6204, February 24, 1955, which announced and decreed fruition of said initial decision, report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That the respondents herein shall within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with the order to cease and desist.

Issued: February 24, 1955.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] ROBERT M. PARRISH,
Secretary.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 721; 15 U. S. C. 46. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended, sec. 8, 65 Stat. 175; 15 U. S. C. 45, 69f) [Cease and desist order, Joseph Baum, New York, N. Y., Docket 6265, February 22, 1955.]

This proceeding was heard by J. Earl Cox, hearing examiner, upon the complaint of the Commission, which charged respondent with violating the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act and the Fur Products Labeling Act by falsely and deceptively labeling and invoicing fur trimmings, scarves, stoles, and other fur products which respondent manufactured, sold, and distributed in commerce; and upon a Stipulation for Consent Order, which was entered into by respondent with counsel supporting the complaint, prior to the filing of an answer and prior to the date set in the complaint for initial hearing, and which was approved by the Director and Assistant Director of the Commission's Bureau of Litigation and transmitted to the hearing examiner.

Said stipulation provided, among other things, that respondent admitted all the jurisdictional allegations set forth in the complaint and that the record in the matter might be taken as if findings of jurisdictional facts had been made in accordance with such allegations; that the stipulation, together with the complaint, should constitute the entire record in the matter; that the complaint might be used in construing the order agreed upon, which might be altered, modified, or set aside in the manner provided by the statute for orders of the Commission; and that the signing of the stipulation was for settlement purposes only and did not constitute an admission by respondent that he had violated the law as alleged in the complaint.

It was also set forth that the order provided for in the stipulation and included in the initial decision should have the same force and effect as if made after a full hearing, presentation of evidence, and findings and conclusions thereon, and all parties waived the filing of answer, hearings before a hearing examiner or the Commission, the making of findings of fact or conclusions of law by the hearing examiner or the Commission, the filing of exceptions and oral argument before the Commission, and all further and other procedure before the hearing examiner and the Commission to which respondent might be entitled under the Federal Trade Commission Act or the rules of the Commission, including any and all right, power, or privilege to challenge or contest the validity of the order entered in accordance with the stipulation.

Thereafter said hearing examiner made his initial decision in which he set forth the aforesaid matter, noted that the order agreed upon conformed to that contained in the "Notice" accompanying the complaint, and disposed of all the issues raised therein, accordingly accepted said Stipulation for Consent Order, and found the proceeding to be in the public interest, and issued order to cease and desist.

No appeal having been filed from said initial decision of said hearing examiner, as provided for in Rule XXII of the Commission's Rules of Practice, nor any other action taken as thereby provided to prevent said initial decision becoming the decision of the Commission thirty days from service thereof upon the parties, said initial decision, including said order, accordingly, under the provisions of said Rule XXII became the decision of the Commission on February 22, 1955.

Said order is as follows:

It is ordered, That respondent Joseph Baum, an individual, and respondent's representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the introduction or manufacture for introduction into commerce, or the sale or offering for sale in commerce, or the transportation or distribution in commerce, of any fur product; or in connection with the manufacturing for sale, sale, offering for sale, transportation or distribution of any fur product which is made in whole or in part of fur which has been shipped and received in commerce, as "commerce," "fur" and "fur product" are defined in the Fur Products Labeling Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

A. Misbranding fur products by:

1. Falsely or deceptively labeling or otherwise identifying any such product as to the name or names of the animal or animals that produced the fur from which such product was manufactured.

2. Failing to affix labels to fur products showing:

(a) The name or names of the animal or animals producing the fur or furs contained in the fur product as set forth in the Fur Products Name Guide and as prescribed under the rules and regulations;

(b) That the fur product contains or is composed of used fur, when such is a fact;

(c) That the fur product contains or is composed of bleached, dyed or otherwise artificially colored fur, when such is a fact;

(d) That the fur product is composed in whole or in substantial part of paws, tails, bellies, or waste fur, when such is a fact;

(e) The name, or other identification issued and registered by the Commission, of one or more persons who manufactured such fur product for introduction into commerce, introduced it into commerce, sold it in commerce, advertised or offered it for sale in commerce, or transported or distributed it in commerce;

(f) The name of the country of origin of any imported furs used in the fur product.

3. Mingling non-required information with required information on labels attached to fur products in violation of Rule 29 of the rules and regulations.

4. Failing to show, on labels attached to fur products, the item number of such fur products, as required by Rule 40 of the rules and regulations.

B. Falsely or deceptively invoicing fur products by:

1. Failing to furnish invoices to purchasers of fur products showing:

(a) The name or names of the animal or animals producing the fur or furs contained in the fur product, as set forth in the Fur Products Name Guide and as prescribed under the rules and regulations;

(b) That the fur product contains or is composed of used fur, when such is the fact;

(c) That the fur product contains or is composed of bleached, dyed or otherwise artificially colored fur, when such is the fact;

(d) That the fur product is composed in whole or in substantial part of paws, tails, bellies, or waste fur, when such is the fact;

(e) The name and address of the person issuing such invoice;

(f) The name of the country of origin of any imported furs contained in a fur product.

2. Using on invoices the name or names of any animal or animals other than the name or names provided for in paragraph B (1) (a) above, or furnishing invoices which contain any form of misrepresentation or deception, directly or by implication, with respect to such fur product.

3. Failing to show the item number or mark of each fur product on the invoice pertaining to such product, as required by Rule 40 of the rules and regulations.

By "Decision of the Commission and Order to File Report of Compliance," Docket 6265, February 21, 1955, which announced and decreed fruition of said initial decision, report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That respondent Joseph Baum, an individual, shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon him of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which he has complied with the order to cease and desist.

Issued: February 21, 1955.

By the Commission.

TITLE 22—FOREIGN RELATIONS

Chapter II—Foreign Operations Administration

PART 202—OCEAN SHIPMENTS OF SUPPLIES BY VOLUNTARY NONPROFIT RELIEF AGENCIES

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

JANUARY 28, 1955.

Pursuant to authority contained in sections 409 and 521 of the Mutual Security Act of 1954 (P. L. 665, 83d Congress) (22 U. S. C. 1781, 1929), and Executive Order No. 10575 of November 6, 1954; 22 CFR 202 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 202.1 Definition of terms. * * *

(c) "Supplies" shall include relief and rehabilitation supplies shipped in support of programs registered with the Committee as well as administrative supplies and equipment shipped in support of such programs. In no case shall such supplies include items for the personal use of representatives of the registered agency.

§ 202.2 Scope of the regulations in this part. This part provides the rules under which the Director, in order to further the efficient use of United States voluntary contributions for relief in the nations or areas listed below, may pay ocean freight charges from United States ports to initial foreign ports of entry of such nations or areas on supplies, as well as administrative supplies and equipment, donated to, or purchased by, United States voluntary nonprofit relief agencies registered with the Committee, for distribution or use in Afghanistan, Austria, Bolivia, Egypt, France, Formosa, the Federal Republic of Germany, Greece, Hong Kong, India, Iran, Italy, Jordan, Korea, Pakistan, Peru, Trieste, Yugoslavia, Vietnam, and when the Director determines it necessary and expedient, in any country elegible for economic or technical assistance under the Mutual Security Act of 1954, as amended (68 Stat. 832, 22 U. S. C. 1751 et seq.).

§ 202.5 Refund by agencies. Any agency reimbursed under this part will refund promptly to the Director upon demand the entire amount, or any lesser amount specified, of ocean freight charges reimbursed, and to the recipient country upon demand the entire amount, or any lesser amount specified, of inland transportation costs reimbursed, (1) whenever the Director determines that the reimbursements were improper as being in violation of any of the provisions of the Mutual Security Act of 1954 (P. L. 665, 83rd Congress), any acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto, any relevant appropriation acts, or any rules, regulations or procedures of the Foreign Operations Administration, and (2) unless such agency files, within sixty days after reimbursement has been made, a certificate stating that all supplies for which such reimbursement was made were admitted by the country of ultimate destination free of all customs duties, other duties, tolls and taxes.

(Sec. 521, 68 Stat. 855; 22 U. S. C. 1929. E. O. 10575, 19 F. R. 7249. Interpret or apply sec. 409, 68 Stat. 845; 22 U. S. C. 1789)

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE 1954

Chapter I—Internal Revenue Service, Department of the Treasury

Subchapter E—Alcohol, Tobacco, and Other Excise Taxes

PART 194—LIQUOR DEALERS

On December 31, 1954, a notice of proposed rulemaking with respect to regulations designated as Part 194 of Title 26 (1954) of the Code of Federal Regulations was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (19 F. R. 9404). The purposes of the proposal were to adopt Regulations 20, 1953 edition (26 CFR (1939) Part 194) and to amend such adopted regulations (a) to implement the regulatory provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, (b) to implement a number of administrative decisions, and (c) to delete certain administrative instructions which are to be incorporated in internal management documents. After consideration of all relevant matter presented by interested parties, regarding the regulations proposed, the regulations so published are hereby adopted, subject to the changes set forth below:

PARAGRAPH 1. The preamble is amended as follows:

(A) Paragraph 1 is revised.

(B) A new paragraph 3 is added.

PAR. 2. Subpart B is revised as follows:

(A) Section 194.6 is amended by striking out the phrase "of internal revenue" at the end of the section.

(B) Sections 194.8 through 194.13 are renumbered as §§ 194.9 through 194.14, respectively.

(C) A new § 194.8 is added.

(D) Section 194.14 is renumbered as § 194.16.

(E) A new § 194.15 is added.

PAR. 3. Subpart D is amended by changing the second sentence of § 194.67 to read, "For example, different areas in a hotel such as banquet rooms, meeting rooms, guest rooms, etc., operated by the proprietor, collectively constitute a single place of business."

PAR. 4. Subpart H is amended by adding at the end of the last sentence of § 194.252 the phrase "or for other disposition in accordance with the provisions of Part 175 of this title."

[SEAL] T. COLEMAN ANDREWS, Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Approved: March 31, 1955.

H. CHAPMAN ROSE, Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

Preamble: 1. The regulations in this part shall supersede Regulations 20, 1953 Edition (26 CFR (1939) Part 194; 18 F. R. 8749).

2. These regulations shall not affect any act done or any liability or right accruing, or accrued, or any suit or proceeding had or commenced before the effective date of these regulations.

3. The regulations in this part shall be effective on the first day of the first month which begins not less than 30 days after the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

§ 194.5 Meaning of terms. As used in this part, unless the context otherwise requires, terms shall have the meanings ascribed in this subpart.

§ 194.6 Assistant Regional Commissioner. "Assistant regional commissioner" shall mean an assistant regional commissioner, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax, who is responsible to, and functions under the direction and supervision of, a regional commissioner.

§ 194.7 Beer. "Beer" shall mean beer, ale, porter, stout, and other similar fermented beverages (including sake or similar products) of any name or description containing one-half of 1 percent or more of alcohol by volume, brewed or produced from malt, wholly or in part, or from any substitute therefor.

(68A Stat. 612; 26 U. S. C. 5052)

§ 194.8 Commissioner. "Commissioner" shall mean the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

§ 194.9 Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division. "Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division" shall mean the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, Internal Revenue Service, Treasury Department, Washington, D. C.

§ 194.10 District Director. "District director" shall mean a district director of internal revenue.

§ 194.11 Fiscal year. "Fiscal year" shall mean the period from July 1 of each calendar year to and including June 30 of the following calendar year.

§ 194.12 Gallon. "Gallon" or "wine gallon" shall mean a United States gallon of liquid measure equivalent to the volume of 231 cubic inches.

§ 194.13 I. R. C. "I. R. C." shall mean the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

§ 194.14 Person. "Person" shall include a natural person, corporation, partnership, trust or estate, joint-stock company, association or other unincorporated organization or group, fiduciary, a State, city, county, municipality, or other political subdivision.

§ 194.15 Regional commissioner. "Regional commissioner" shall mean the regional commissioner of internal revenue in each of the internal revenue regions.

§ 194.16 U. S. C. "U. S. C." shall mean the United States Code.

SUBPART C—SPECIAL TAXES

§ 194.20 Basis of tax. Special taxes are imposed upon the engaging in or carrying on the business or occupation of selling or offering for sale alcoholic liquors fit for use as a beverage. No person shall be engaged in or carry on any business or occupation hereinafter mentioned unless he has paid special tax therefor in the manner provided in this part.

(68A Stat. 624; 26 U. S. C. 5142)

§ 194.21 Agents and auctioneers. A person who sells merely as the agent or employee of another is not subject to special tax. Auctioneers selling on behalf of others are within this category.

§ 194.22 Selling or offering for sale. Whether the activities of any person constitute selling or offering for sale is to be determined by the facts in each case, but any course of selling, though to a restricted class of persons or without a view to profit, is within the meaning of the statute.

§ 194.23 Single sale. A single sale, unattended by circumstances showing the one making the sale to be engaged in business, does not create special tax liability.

§ 194.24 Brokers or agents. A broker or agent may solicit orders for liquors in the name of a customer or principal, receive a commission for his services and make collections for his customer or principal without incurring liability to special tax. A retail dealer in liquors, or a retail dealer in beer, receiving and transmitting to a wholesale dealer orders for liquors or beer, as the case may be, in wholesale quantities does not incur liability to special tax as a wholesale dealer if he merely transmits the orders and the liquors or beer, as the case may be, are billed, charged, and shipped to the customers by the wholesaler. No special tax liability is incurred even though the retail dealer receives a commission on such sales or guarantees the payment of the accounts.

§ 194.25 Classification of alcoholic liquors. There are three general classifications of alcoholic liquors for purposes of special tax: (a) distilled spirits, (b) wines, and (c) beer. Distilled spirits include alcohol, whisky, brandy, gin, rum, vodka, cordials, liqueurs, cocktails, etc. Wines include still wines, champagne, sparkling and carbonated wines, vermouth, etc. Beer includes such products as beer, ale, stout, porter, sake, etc.

§ 194.26 Retail dealers in liquors; persons liable. Every person who sells, or offers for sale, foreign or domestic distilled spirits or wines, otherwise than as provided in this part, in less quantities than 5 wine gallons to the same person at the same time is a retail dealer in liquors and shall pay the special tax imposed.

(68A Stat. 621; 26 U. S. C. 5122)

§ 194.27 Lawful sales by retail dealer in liquors. A person who pays special tax as a retail dealer in liquors may sell either distilled spirits, wines, or beer, or any two or all three of them. He may sell all three classes of liquors to the same person at the same time: Provided, That the quantity of each class is less than 5 wine gallons. For example, he may sell 4 gallons of distilled spirits, 4 gallons of wine, and 4 gallons of beer in one transaction. He may not sell either distilled spirits, wines, or beer in quantities of 5 wine gallons or more to the same person at the same time without incurring liability to special tax as a wholesale dealer in liquors, or a wholesale dealer in beer, as the case may be.

(68A Stat. 618, 621; 26 U. S. C. 5112, 5122)

§ 194.28 Wholesale sales by retail dealer in liquors. Where a retail dealer in liquors accepts an order for 5 wine gallons or more of distilled spirits or wines, a transaction has been made in a wholesale quantity, notwithstanding the order is filled and delivery is made in parcels of less than 5 wine gallons and on different dates. Except as provided in § 194.180, liability to special tax as a wholesale liquor dealer is incurred where two or more orders for 5 wine gallons or more are accepted under such conditions during a fiscal year, or where circumstances surrounding acceptance of a single order show the person is engaged in business as a wholesale liquor dealer. Similarly, liability to special tax as a wholesale dealer in beer is incurred by a retail dealer in liquors when he accepts orders for 5 wine gallons or more of beer, except as provided in § 194.181.

(68A Stat. 618; 26 U. S. C. 5111, 5112)

§ 194.29 Wholesale dealers in liquors; persons liable. Every person who sells, or offers for sale, foreign or domestic distilled spirits or wines in quantities of 5 wine gallons or more to the same person at the same time is a wholesale dealer in liquors and shall pay the special tax imposed.

(68A Stat. 618; 26 U. S. C. 5112)

§ 194.30 Retail sales by wholesale dealers in liquors. A wholesale dealer in liquors who sells or offers for sale distilled spirits, wines, or beer in quantities of less than 5 wine gallons to the same person at the same time must pay special tax as a retail dealer in liquors or a retail dealer in beer, as the case may be.

(68A Stat. 620; 26 U. S. C. 5121)

(68A Stat. 621; 26 U. S. C. 5122)

§ 194.32 Wholesale sales by retail dealers in beer. A retail dealer in beer who sells, or offers for sale, beer in quantities of 5 gallons or more to the same person at the same time subjects himself to special tax as a wholesale dealer in beer.

(68A Stat. 618; 26 U. S. C. 5111)

§ 194.33 Retail dealer in beer selling other classes of alcoholic liquors. When a retail dealer in beer sells, or offers for sale, other classes of alcoholic liquors in quantities of less than 5 wine gallons to the same person at the same time, he must pay special tax as retail dealer in liquors.

(68A Stat. 621; 26 U. S. C. 5122)

§ 194.34 Wholesale dealers in beer; persons liable. Every person who sells, or offers for sale, beer in quantities of 5 gallons or more to the same person at the same time, and who does not sell or offer for sale distilled spirits or wines at wholesale, shall be regarded as a wholesale dealer in beer and shall pay the special tax imposed.

(68A Stat. 618; 26 U. S. C. 5112)

§ 194.35 Retail sales by wholesale dealers in beer. A wholesale dealer in beer may not sell or offer for sale such liquors in quantities of less than 5 gallons to the same person at the same time without incurring liability to special tax as a retail dealer in beer.

(68A Stat. 620; 26 U. S. C. 5121)

§ 194.36 Wholesale dealer in beer selling other classes of alcoholic liquors. A wholesale dealer in beer may not sell, or offer for sale, distilled spirits or wines without incurring liability to special tax as a retail or wholesale dealer in liquors, depending upon the quantity sold to the same person at the same time.

(68A Stat. 618; 26 U. S. C. 5111)

§ 194.37 Sales to members by clubs or similar organization. A club or similar organization furnishing liquors to its members under conditions constituting sale is required to pay special tax.

(68A Stat. 618, 621; 26 U. S. C. 5111, 5121)

§ 194.38 Club or similar organization accepting orders from members. A club or similar organization which sells liquors to its members by accepting orders therefor, furnishing the liquors so ordered and collecting the price thereof, is required to pay special tax.

(68A Stat. 618, 621; 26 U. S. C. 5111, 5121)

(68A Stat. 620; 26 U. S. C. 5121

(68A Stat. 621; 26 U. S. C. 5122)

§ 194.41 Restaurants serving liquors with meals. Proprietors of restaurants and other persons who serve liquors with meals to customers, though no separate or specific charge for the liquors is made, are required to pay special tax.

(68A Stat. 621; 26 U. S. C. 5122)

§ 194.42 Hospitals. Hospitals and similar institutions furnishing liquors to patients are not required to pay special tax, provided no specific or additional charge is made for the liquors so furnished.

(68A Stat. 621; 26 U. S. C. 5122)

§ 194.43 States, counties, and municipalities. A State, county, city, municipality, or other political subdivision engaged in the business of selling, or offering for sale, liquors is not exempt from the payment of special tax.

(68A Stat. 620; 26 U. S. C. 5121)

§ 194.44 Sales in violation of State law. Persons who engage in the sale, or offering for sale, of liquors in violation of State laws, are required to pay special tax. The special tax stamp is not a license or permit, and does not protect such persons from prosecution under the State laws.

(68A Stat. 626; 26 U. S. C. 5148)

§ 194.45 Sales of denatured alcohol or articles. Any person who sells denatured alcohol, denatured rum, or any substance or preparation made with or containing denatured alcohol or denatured rum, for use, or for sale for use, for beverage purposes, or who sells any of such products under circumstances from which it might reasonably appear that it is the intention of the purchaser to procure the same for sale or use for beverage purposes, shall pay special tax.

(68A Stat. 595; 26 U. S. C. 5001)

§ 194.46 Sales by agencies and instrumentalities of the United States. Unless specifically exempted by law, any agency or instrumentality of the United States, including post exchanges, ship's stores, ship's service stores, and commissaries established and conducted under the regulations of the Department of Defense, engaging in the business of selling, or offering for sale, alcoholic liquors, must pay special tax for the carrying on of such business. Any canteen, club, mess or similar organization operated under regulations of the Department of Defense, whether or not located on the premises of the Department of Defense, selling, or offering for sale, liquors, is liable to special tax for any period during which the organization carries on the business.

(68A Stat. 624; 26 U. S. C. 5144)

(68A Stat. 618; 26 U. S. C. 5111)

§ 194.48 Single sale of warehouse receipts by an investor. A single sale involving one or more warehouse receipts by an investor, as distinguished from one who is engaged in the business of selling warehouse receipts, does not subject the vendor to special tax.

(68A Stat. 618; 26 U. S. C. 5111)

Limited Special Tax

§ 194.49 Sales of wines and beer at fairs, picnics and similar entertainments. Each person desiring to sell beer or wine, or both, at retail to members, guests, or patrons of bona fide fairs, reunions, picnics, carnivals, or similar outings, and each fraternal, civic, church, labor, charitable, benevolent, or ex-service men's organizations desiring to sell beer or wine, or both, on the occasion of any kind of entertainment, dance, picnic, bazaar, or festival held by it, may obtain from the district director for each calendar month for which any such sales are to be made (a) a retail dealer in beer limited special tax stamp, if beer only is to be sold, or (b) a retail dealer in liquors limited special tax stamp, if wine only, or wine and beer only, are to be sold. Application on Form 11, and payment of the special tax of $2.20 shall be made to the district director before any such sales are made.

(68A Stat. 620; 26 U. S. C. 5121)

(68A Stat. 620; 26 U. S. C. 5121)

§ 194.51 Change of location. A person holding a limited ($2.20) special tax stamp as a retail dealer in liquors or as a retail dealer in beer may, during the calendar month for which the stamp is issued, remove his business to a location other than that stated on the stamp and continue such business for the remainder of the calendar month without paying additional special tax, provided the removal is registered with the district director, as provided in §§ 194.150–194.152.

(68A Stat. 624; 26 U. S. C. 5144)

Subpart D—Places Subject to Special Tax

§ 194.60 Each place of business taxable. Except as provided in §§ 194.182 and 194.183, liability to special tax is incurred at each and every place of business where distilled spirits, wines, or beer are sold or offered for sale: Provided, That, by place of business is meant the entire office, plant or area of the business in any one location under the same proprietorship, and passageways, streets, highways, rail crossings, waterways, or partitions dividing the premises shall not be deemed sufficient separation to require additional special tax, if the various divisions of the premises are otherwise contiguous.

(68A Stat. 624; 26 U. S. C. 5144)

§ 194.61 Place of sale. The place at which ownership of liquors is transferred, actually or constructively, is the place of sale.

(68A Stat. 624; 26 U. S. C. 5144)

(68A Stat. 624; 26 U. S. C. 5144)

§ 194.63 Place of storage. Special tax is not required to be paid for warehouses and similar places which are used by dealers merely for the storage of liquors and which are not places where orders for liquors are accepted. Where orders for liquors are received and duly accepted at a place where a special tax stamp is held, the subsequent actual delivery of the liquors from a place of storage does not require the payment of special tax at such place of storage. A dealer holding a special tax stamp at a given place, who permits actual delivery of liquors from a warehouse at another place, without prior constructive delivery by the acceptance of an order therefor at the place covered by the special tax stamp, is liable for special tax at the place of delivery.

(68A Stat. 624; 26 U. S. C. 5144)

§ 194.64 Caterers. Where the contract of a caterer for the furnishing of a dinner, including liquors, is made at his place of business where he holds a special tax stamp, no liability to special tax is incurred by the serving of the liquors at a different location.

(68A Stat. 624; 26 U. S. C. 5144)

§ 194.65 Peddling. Except as set forth in §§ 194.182 and 194.183, internal revenue laws do not contemplate the peddling of distilled spirits, wines, or beer, nor permit the issuance of any special tax stamp to cover peddling activities. Persons peddling liquors and not meeting the exemption in §§ 194.182 and 194.183, are subject to special tax at each place where sales are consummated.

(68A Stat. 624; 26 U. S. C. 5144)

Sales at Two or More Locations on the Same Premises

§ 194.66 General. Where liquors are sold by a proprietor at two or more locations within his place of business, only one special tax stamp is required. Where the proprietor of premises, other than those described in § 194.68, lets to another person or persons the privilege of selling liquors at two or more locations within his place of business, whether such privilege is exercised separately or simultaneously with the proprietor or another concessionaire, each such person shall be required to pay but one special tax.

§ 194.67 Hotels. The proprietor of a hotel who conducts the sale of liquors throughout the hotel premises is required to pay but one special tax. For example, different areas in a hotel such as banquet rooms, meeting rooms, guest rooms, etc., operated by the proprietor, collectively constitute a single place of business. Where any concessionaire conducts the sale of liquors at two or more locations in a hotel, such location shall be regarded as a single place of business, and he shall be required to pay but one special tax.

§ 194.68 Ball park, race track, etc.; sales throughout the premises. The proprietor of a ball park, race track, stadium, pavilion, or other similar enclosure constituting one premises, who engages in the business of selling liquors throughout such enclosure, including sales from baskets or containers by his employees in his behalf, is required to pay but one special tax for such enclosure. Each concessionaire having the same privilege throughout the enclosure, whether such privilege is exercised separately or simultaneously with the proprietor or another concessionaire, or concessionaires, is likewise required to pay but one special tax for such enclosure.

(68A Stat. 624; 26 U. S. C. 5144)

Subpart E—Each Business Taxable

§ 194.80 Different businesses of same ownership and location. Where more than one taxable business is conducted by the same person at the same place, special tax for each business must be paid at the rates severally prescribed.

(68A Stat. 624; 26 U. S. C. 5144)

§ 194.81 Retail and wholesale dealer in liquors at same location. A person who engages in or carries on the businesses of a retail and wholesale dealer in liquors (different businesses under the law) at the same place is subject to special tax for each business.

(68A Stat. 624; 26 U. S. C. 5144)

§ 194.82 Retail and wholesale beer dealer at same location. A person who engages in or carries on the business of a retail and wholesale beer dealer (different businesses under the law) at the same place is subject to special tax for each business.

(68A Stat. 624; 26 U. S. C. 5144)

§ 194.83 Retail dealer in beer and retail dealer in liquors at same location. A person who begins business as a retail dealer in beer and procures the requisite special tax stamp as such, and thereafter during the same or a subsequent month begins business as a retail dealer in liquors (a different business under the law) must pay special tax and procure a special tax stamp as a retail dealer in liquors.

(68A Stat. 621; 26 U. S. C. 5122)

§ 194.84 Mixing cocktails. A retail dealer in liquors who mixes cocktails or compounds any alcoholic liquors in advance of sale, except for the purpose of filling, for immediate consumption on the premises, orders received at the bar or in the expectation of the immediate receipt of such orders, incurs liability to special tax as a rectifier.

(68A Stat. 624; 26 U. S. C. 5144)

Subpart F—Partnerships

§ 194.90 Liability of partners. Any number of persons carrying on one business in partnership at any one place during any fiscal year shall be required to pay but one special tax for such business.

(68A Stat. 624; 26 U. S. C. 5144)

§ 194.91 Preparation of special tax stamp. In issuing a special tax stamp to a partnership, the district director shall show thereon the name of each and every partner, followed by the firm or trade name, if any. The issuance by the district director of a special tax stamp in a firm or trade name only is not authorized.

(68A Stat. 846; 26 U. S. C. 7011)

§ 194.92 Addition of partners or incorporation of partnership. Where a number of persons who have paid special tax as partners admit one or more new members to the firm or form a corporation (a separate legal entity) to take over the business, the new firm or corporation so formed shall pay special tax computed from the first day of the month in which it commenced business.

(68A Stat. 618, 620; 26 U. S. C. 5111, 5121)

§ 194.93 Formation of a partnership by two dealers. Where two persons, each holding a special tax stamp for a business carried on by himself, form a partnership, the firm must pay special tax to cover the business conducted by the partnership.

(68A Stat. 618, 620; 26 U. S. C. 5111, 5121)

§ 194.94 Withdrawal of one or more partners. When a member, or members, withdraw from the partnership the remaining partner, or partners, may, without incurring additional special tax liability, carry on the same business at the same address for the balance of the taxable period for which special tax was paid, provided the partner, or partners, remaining file with the district director from whom the special tax stamp was purchased, within 30 days after the date he or they begin to carry on the business, a return on Form 11, showing the basis of succession. If the notice of succession is not filed with the district director within 30 days from the date the remaining partner, or partners, begin to carry on the business, he or they will become liable to additional special tax computed from the 1st day of the calendar month in which he or they began to carry on the business to and including June 30 following. (See §§ 194.168–194.171.)

(68A Stat. 846; 26 U. S. C. 7011)

SUBPART G—PAYMENT OF SPECIAL TAX

§ 194.100 Special tax rates. Special taxes are imposed upon liquor dealers at the following annual (fiscal year) rates:

Retail dealers in liquors	$50.00
Wholesale dealers in liquors	200.00
Retail dealers in beer	22.00
Wholesale dealers in beer	100.00

(68A Stat. 618, 620; 26 U. S. C. 5111, 5121)

§ 194.101 Date special tax is due. All special taxes become due on the 1st day of July of each year, or on the 1st day of the month in which a taxable business or occupation is commenced.

(68A Stat. 624; 26 U. S. C. 5142)

§ 194.102 Computation of special tax. In the case of a person engaged in business during the month of July, the liability shall be reckoned for the entire fiscal year beginning July 1 and ending June 30 following. Where business is commenced subsequent to July, the liability shall be reckoned proportionately from the 1st day of the month in which business is commenced to June 30 following. For example, a person commencing business in August is liable to special tax for 11 months, or eleven-twelfths of the annual tax. If business is discontinued before the end of the fiscal year, the amount of tax is not thereby reduced.

(68A Stat. 624; 26 U. S. C. 5142)

§ 194.103 Filing of return and payment of special tax. Persons liable to special tax shall render their returns on Form 11, with remittances to the district director of the district in which the business is carried on, at such time within the calendar month in which the special tax liability commenced as shall enable the district director to receive such return and remittance not later than the last day of the month: Provided, That where the United States postmark stamped on the cover shows that the return was deposited in the mail in the United States within the time prescribed for filing, or within any extension of such time, in an envelope or other appropriate wrapper which was properly addressed, with postage prepaid, the return must be considered as timely filed. In the event the last day for filing falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, a postmark showing the next succeeding day which is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, must be considered as evidence of timely filing.

(68A Stat. 624; 26 U. S. C. 5143)

§ 194.104 Method of payment. Payment for special tax stamps may be made in cash, or by check or money order. If a check or money order so tendered is not honored when presented for payment, the person who tendered such check or money order shall remain liable for the payment of the special tax, and for all penalties and additions, to the same extent as if the check or money order had not been tendered. In addition, unless the person who tendered the check or money order can show that such check or money order was issued in good faith, and with reasonable cause to believe that it would be duly paid, there shall be paid as penalty an amount equal to 1 percent of the amount of the check or money order, except that if the amount of the check or money order is less than $500, the penalty shall be $5, or the amount of the check or money order, whichever is lesser.

(68A Stat. 777, 826; 26 U. S. C. 6311, 6657)

SPECIAL TAX RETURN, FORM 11

§ 194.105 Data required. Special tax returns shall be made on Form 11, which may be procured from the district director of internal revenue of the district in which the business is located, and shall disclose, in the space provided, the following:

(a) The true name of the taxpayer, which may be followed by the words "trading as" and any trade name under which the business may be conducted.

(b) In the case of a partnership, the true names of each and every person comprising the partnership.

(c) The exact location of the place of business, as by name and number of building or street and, where these do not exist, by some particularization in addition to the post office address.

(d) The kind of liquor business carried on.

(68A Stat. 846; 26 U. S. C. 7011)

§ 194.106 Execution of Form 11. The return of an individual proprietor shall be signed by the proprietor; the return of a partnership shall be signed by a member of the firm; and the return of a corporation shall be signed by an officer thereof. In each case, the person signing the return shall designate his capacity as "individual owner," "member of firm," or, in the case of a corporation, the title of the officer. Receivers, trustees, assignees, executors, administrators, and other legal representatives who continue the business of a bankrupt, insolvent, deceased person, etc., will indicate the fiduciary capacity in which they act. Returns signed by persons as agents will not be accepted unless they file with the district director a power of attorney, authorizing them so to act. Form 11 must be verified by a written declaration that the return has been executed under the penalties of perjury.

(68A Stat. 748, 749; 26 U. S. C. 6061, 6065)

§ 194.107 Extensions of time for filing returns. The district director may grant such reasonable extension of time for the filing of Form 11 as he deems proper. Application for extension of time for filing the return must be made in writing and addressed to the district director of the district in which the business is located and must contain a full recital of the causes of delay. Except in the case of taxpayers who are abroad, no such extension shall be for more than 6 months.

(68A Stat. 624, 751; 26 U. S. C. 5143, 6081)

§ 194.108 Penalty for failure to file return. Any person liable to special tax who, without reasonable cause, fails to file a return on Form 11 within the calendar month in which special tax liability commenced shall be subject to a delinquency penalty computed on the amount of special tax due. The penalty shall be 5 percent if the failure is not for more than 1 month, and an additional 5 percent for each additional month or fraction thereof during which the delinquency continues, but not to exceed 25 percent in the aggregate.

(68A Stat. 821; 26 U. S. C. 6651)

DELINQUENT RETURNS

§ 194.109 Reasonable causes for delinquency. The penalty set forth in § 194.108 will be asserted and collected in every case in which a special tax return is not filed within the calendar month in which the tax liability commenced, unless an extension of time is granted under § 194.107 or a reasonable cause for delinquency is clearly established by the taxpayer. The following, when clearly established, may be accepted by district directors and assistant regional commissioners as reasonable causes:

(a) Where return was filed within the legal period but in the wrong internal revenue district, or in the wrong office in the proper district.

(b) Where the delay or failure to file was due to erroneous information given the taxpayer by an internal revenue officer or employee.

(c) Where the delay was caused by death or serious illness of the taxpayer or by serious illness in his immediate family.

(d) Where the delay was caused by unavoidable absence of the taxpayer.

(e) Where delinquency was caused by the destruction by fire or other casualty of the taxpayer's place of business or business records.

(f) Where the taxpayer, prior to the time for filing return, made timely application to the district director's office for proper blanks and these were not furnished him in sufficient time to permit the executed return to be filed on or before its due date.

(g) Where the taxpayer proves that he personally visited the office of the district director or other collection officer before the expiration of the time within which to file return for the purpose of securing information or aid properly to make out his return, and through no fault of his own was unable to see the representatives of the Service.

(68A Stat. 895, 896; 26 U. S. C. 7502, 7503)

§ 194.110 Other alleged causes. Where other grounds are alleged as reasonable causes for delinquency in filing a return on Form 11, a statement in explanation thereof shall be filed by the taxpayer with the district director with the Form 11, except as provided in § 194.111. The reasonableness of other alleged causes will be determined by the district director on the facts submitted. The policy generally to be followed is that a cause for delinquency which appeals to a man of ordinary prudence and intelligence as a reasonable cause for delay in filing the return and which clearly negatives a willful intent to disobey the taxing statutes, or gross negligence, will be accepted as reasonable. Mere ignorance of the law will not be considered a reasonable cause.

(68A Stat. 821; 26 U. S. C. 6651)

(68A Stat. 821; 26 U. S. C. 6651)

§ 194.112 Causes not considered reasonable. Where grounds other than those listed in § 194.109 are alleged as reasonable causes, but it is determined by the assistant regional commissioner or district director, as the case might be, that the cause is not one to be considered as reasonable within the provisions of §§ 194.110 and 194.111 the penalty shall be asserted, entered on the district director's excise tax list, and collected.

(68A Stat. 821; 26 U. S. C. 6651)

SUBPART H—SPECIAL TAX STAMPS

§ 194.120 Issuance of stamps. Upon receipt of a return properly executed on Form 11, together with a remittance in the proper amount, the district director will issue an appropriately designated stamp to the taxpayer. District directors and collection officers shall not issue special tax stamps before the tax is fully paid.

(68A Stat. 625; 26 U. S. C. 5145)

§ 194.121 Receipt in lieu of stamp prohibited. District directors and collection officers are prohibited from issuing a receipt in lieu of a stamp. A receipt may be furnished only pending the issuance of a stamp, or where the tax liability relates to a prior fiscal year.

(68A Stat. 778; 26 U. S. C. 6314)

§ 194.122 Stamps covering business in violation of State law. District directors are without authority to refuse to issue a special tax stamp to a liquor dealer engaged in business in violation of State law. The stamp is not a Federal permit or license, but is merely a receipt for the tax. The stamp affords the holder no protection against prosecution for violation of State law.

(68A Stat. 626; 26 U. S. C. 5148)

§ 194.123 Stamps not transferable. A special tax stamp may not be sold or transferred to another dealer.

STAMPS FOR PASSENGER TRAINS, AIRCRAFT, AND VESSELS

§ 194.124 General. Special tax stamps may be issued to persons carrying on the business of retail dealers in liquors or retail dealers in beer upon passenger trains or upon aircraft, steamboats, or other vessels engaged in the business of carrying passengers. The regular retail liquor dealer and retail beer dealer stamps shall be issued in such cases.

(68A Stat. 621; 26 U. S. C. 5123)

§ 194.125 Transfer of special tax stamps. Special tax stamps issued for the retailing of liquors on passenger carrying aircraft, trains and vessels are to be made in general terms "In the United States." The taxpayer may transfer such stamps from one passenger carrier to another on which he does business without registering the transfer with a district director.

(68A Stat. 621; 26 U. S. C. 5123)

§ 194.126 Sales on passenger carriers. The provision of § 194.68 is equally applicable to passenger trains and to aircraft, steamboats or other vessels engaged in the business of carrying passengers.

(68A Stat. 621, 624; 26 U. S. C. 5123, 5144)

§ 194.127 Carriers not engaged in passenger service. A special tax stamp may not be issued for the retailing of liquor on any railroad train, aircraft, or boat that is not engaged in the business of carrying passengers.

(68A Stat. 621; 26 U. S. C. 5123)

STAMPS FOR RETAIL DEALERS "AT LARGE"

§ 194.128 General. A retail liquor dealer or retail dealer in beer whose business is such as to require him to travel from place to place in different States of the United States, such as those who sell at carnivals or circuses, may procure a special tax stamp "At Large" covering his activities throughout the United States with the payment of but one special tax as a retail dealer in liquors or as a retail dealer in beer, as the case may be.

(68A Stat. 621; 26 U. S. C. 5123)

§ 194.129 Form 11 to show nature of business. A retail liquor dealer or retail dealer in beer who desires a special tax stamp "At Large" will so note on Form 11 filed with the district director to whom the special tax is paid, and will state thereon the nature of his business. Before issuing a special tax stamp "At Large," the district director will satisfy himself that the applicant is entitled to obtain a stamp so designated.

(68A Stat. 621; 26 U. S. C. 5123)

§ 194.130 Business in more than one State. A special tax stamp "At Large" may not be issued to a dealer whose business does not require him to travel from place to place in more than one State.

(68A Stat. 621; 26 U. S. C. 5123)

STAMPS FOR DEALERS IN WINES ONLY, OR WINES AND BEER ONLY

§ 194.131 General. Retail and wholesale dealers in liquors who sell or offer for sale wines only, or wines and beer only, may obtain stamps as retail or wholesale dealers in liquors, as the case may be, under the following designations upon application and payment of special tax at the annual (fiscal year) rates indicated:

Retail dealer in wines	$50.00
Retail dealer in wines and beer	50.00
Wholesale dealer in wines	200.00
Wholesale dealer in wines and beer	200.00

(68A Stat. 618, 621; 26 U. S. C. 5112, 5122)

§ 194.132 Stamps as receipts for special taxes. Special tax stamps as dealers in wines only, or dealers in wine and beer only, are receipts for the special taxes imposed upon retail and wholesale liquor dealers, and the holders of such stamps are subject to all provisions of internal revenue laws and regulations relating to such dealers, except as provided in §§ 194.210–194.232, inclusive.

(68A Stat. 618, 621; 26 U. S. C. 5112, 5122)

§ 194.133 Sales of distilled spirits by dealers in wines or wines and beer. A qualified retail dealer in wines, or in wines and beer, may also sell distilled spirits in less quantities than 5 wine gallons without payment of additional special tax. A qualified wholesale dealer in wines, or in wines and beer, may also sell distilled spirits in quantities of 5 wine gallons or more without payment of additional special tax.

(68A Stat. 618, 621; 26 U. S. C. 5112, 5122)

§ 194.134 Stamps not exchangeable. The holders of special tax stamps as dealers in wines only, or dealers in wine and beer only, may not exchange them for the regular retail and wholesale liquor dealer stamps. In the absence of specific demand or application for such stamps, district directors shall issue the regular stamps to persons paying special tax as retail or wholesale dealers in liquors.

(68A Stat. 618, 621; 26 U. S. C. 5112, 5122)

MEDICINAL SPIRITS STAMPS

§ 194.135 Stamps for drug stores and pharmacies selling through licensed pharmacists. Proprietors of drug stores and pharmacies making sales of distilled spirits through duly licensed pharmacists, may procure stamps designated "Medicinal Spirits Stamp Tax" upon application and payment of special tax at the $50 annual rate. The holders of such stamps are subject to all provisions of internal revenue laws relating to retail liquor dealers. District directors shall, in the absence of specific demand or application for such stamps, issue the regular retail liquor dealer special tax stamp.

(68A Stat. 621; 26 U. S. C. 5122)

STAMP TO BE POSTED

§ 194.136 General. A special-tax payer shall conspicuously display his special tax stamp in his place of business. A person holding a special tax stamp as a retail dealer in liquors or a retail dealer in beer "At Large" must place and keep the stamp conspicuously posted at the place where he is conducting such business.

(68A Stat. 831; 26 U. S. C. 6806)

MISSING STAMPS

§ 194.137 Lost or destroyed. If a special tax stamp has been lost or destroyed, the taxpayer should immediately notify the district director of internal revenue. A "Certificate in Lieu of Lost or Destroyed Special Tax Stamp" will be issued to the taxpayer who submits an affidavit showing to the satisfaction of the district director that the stamp was lost or destroyed. The certificate must be posted in place of the stamp, otherwise, liability for failure to post the stamp will be incurred.

§ 194.138 Seizure by State authorities. Where a stamp designated "Retail Dealer in Liquors" is seized by State authorities because it does not conform to the dealer's local license or permit (wine, or wine and beer), the district director will, upon request, issue a "Certificate in Lieu of Lost or Destroyed Special Tax Stamp" to show that the dealer has paid special tax as a "Retail Dealer in Wine" or "Retail Dealer in Wines and Beer," as the case may require. However, where a special tax stamp has been seized by State authorities because the dealer has operated in violation of local law, a "Certificate in Lieu of Lost or Destroyed Special Tax Stamp" will not be issued by the district director.

CORRECTION OF ERRORS ON SPECIAL TAX STAMPS

§ 194.139 Errors disclosed by taxpayers. On receipt of a special tax stamp, the taxpayer will examine it to insure that the name and address are correctly stated. If an error has been made, the stamp should be returned to the district director, with a statement showing the nature of the error and the proper name or address. The district director, on receipt of such stamp and statement, will compare the data with that on Form 11, and if an error on the part of the district director has been made, will make the necessary correction and return the stamp to the taxpayer. If the Form 11 agrees with the data on the stamp, the district director will require the taxpayer to file a new Form 11, designated "Amended Return," disclosing the proper name and address, and, on receipt of the amended Form 11, will make the proper correction on the stamp, and return it to the taxpayer.

§ 194.140 Errors discovered on inspection. When an internal revenue officer ascertains that an error appears on the special tax stamp as to the name, ownership, address, etc., he will require the taxpayer to prepare a new Form 11, designated "Amended Return," showing the proper name, address, or other correction. Where a special tax stamp is issued in the name of an individual and the business is owned and conducted by a partnership from the beginning of the period of liability covered by the stamp, the names and addresses of all partners will be shown on the amended Form 11. The body of the amended Form 11 must show the reasons for requesting the correction of the special tax stamp. The officer should also obtain the special tax stamp from the taxpayer, giving him a receipt therefor on Form 1670 (which receipt shall be kept on the dealer's premises), and forward the amended Form 11, the special tax stamp, the duplicate copy of the Form 1670, and the inspection report to the assistant regional commissioner. Upon receipt of the amended Form 11, the special tax stamp, etc., the assistant regional commissioner will examine the amended Form 11 to determine whether correction of the stamp is in order and all necessary data appear on the amended Form 11. If the assistant regional commissioner is satisfied that the papers are in order, he will write or stamp the word "approved" followed by his signature, in any available space on the face of the amended Form 11 and on the inspection report and forward the amended form with the special tax stamp to the proper district director. Upon receipt of these documents, the district director will make the proper correction on the special tax stamp and return the special tax stamp to the taxpayer.

STAMPS FOR IMPROPER PERIODS

§ 194.141 General. Where a dealer has paid special tax and received a stamp for a certain period, whereas he actually incurred liability to special tax for one or more months prior to such period, the procedure outlined in §§ 194.142–194.144 will govern.

§ 194.142 Liability within current fiscal year. When the period of the liability not covered by the special tax stamp is within the current fiscal year, a remittance should be secured from the taxpayer covering the full period of the liability to June 30 following, plus the delinquency penalty described in § 194.108, computed on the difference between the net amount of tax actually due and the net amount of tax previously paid. When the remittance is received in the district director's office, an appropriate stamp for the full period of the liability should be issued. The taxpayer should be advised of his privilege of filing a claim on Form 843 for redemption of the stamp covering the shorter period.

(68A Stat. 821; 26 U. S. C. 6651)

§ 194.143 Liability within a past fiscal year. When the period of the liability not covered by the special tax stamp is within a past fiscal year, the additional amount due for such period, plus the delinquency penalty described in § 194.108, computed on the basis of the additional amount due, should be collected and listed for assessment by the district director on his current excise tax list. When the remittance covering such liability is received by a collection officer, a serially-numbered receipt on Form 809 should be issued to the taxpayer in order that he may have evidence of taxpayment for such additional period.

(68A Stat. 821; 26 U. S. C. 6651)

§ 194.144 Amended return required. In each instance the taxpayer will file a new return on Form 11, designated "Amended Return," showing the proper period of liability.

RECORD 10

§ 194.145 Public list of taxpayers. The district director shall maintain and keep conspicuously in his office on Record 10, for public inspection, a list of all persons who have paid special taxes within his district, and shall state thereon the time, place, and business for which such special taxes have been paid. The names on this list shall be the true names and not the fictitious ones under which persons may elect to do business.

(68A Stat. 756; 26 U. S. C. 6107)

§ 194.146 Use of Record 10. All persons shall be entitled to inspect Record 10 in the district director's office at reasonable and proper times, and are not prohibited from copying the names and addresses of special-tax payers, but no person shall use the record to the extent of interfering with the district director's use thereof, or unduly to the exclusion of other persons.

(68A Stat. 756; 26 U. S. C. 6107)

§ 194.147 Furnishing copy of Record 10. Upon application of any prosecuting officer of any State, county, or municipality, the district director shall furnish a certified copy of Record 10, or such portions thereof as may be requested, for which a fee of $1 for each hundred words or fraction thereof in the copy or copies so requested shall be charged.

(68A Stat. 756; 26 U. S. C. 6107)

SUBPART I—CHANGE OF LOCATION

§ 194.150 Amended return, Form 11. A special-tax payer who, during the taxable period for which special tax was paid, removes his business to a place other than that specified in his original return on Form 11, and stated on his special tax stamp, must register the change with the district director from whom the special tax stamp was purchased, within 30 days after he begins to sell or offer for sale liquors at the new location, by executing a new return on Form 11, designated as "Amended Return," setting forth the time when and the place to which such removal was made, and shall surrender the special tax stamp to the district director for endorsement of the change in location.

(68A Stat. 624, 846; 26 U. S. C. 5144, 7011)

§ 194.151 Removal within same internal revenue district. When a special-tax payer removes his business to another address within the same internal revenue district, the district director will note the change on the face of the special tax stamp, stating clearly thereon the new location where said business is to be carried on, and will return the special tax stamp to the taxpayer.

(68A Stat. 624, 846; 26 U. S. C. 5144, 7011)

§ 194.152 Removal to another internal revenue district. When a taxpayer removes his business to a location within an internal revenue district other than that in which the special tax stamp was issued, the district director who issued the special tax stamp will transmit the stamp to the district director in charge of the district to which the taxpayer removed. The district director of that district will make entry on his Record 10, as in the case of a new registrant, and note the taxpayer's new address and the district director's name, title, and district, and the date on the special tax stamp, which will be returned to the taxpayer.

(68A Stat. 624, 846; 26 U. S. C. 5144, 7011)

§ 194.153 Failure to register change of address within 30 days. A person who removes his place of business and fails to register such removal with the district director, within 30 days after he begins to sell or offer for sale liquors at the new location, will be liable to special tax at the new location computed from the 1st day of the calendar month in which he began business at the new location.

(68A Stat. 624, 846; 26 U. S. C. 5144, 7011)

§ 194.154 Certificate in lieu of lost or destroyed special tax stamp. The provisions of this part shall apply to certificates issued to taxpayers in lieu of special tax stamps lost or destroyed in accordance with §§ 194.137 and 194.138.

SUBPART J—CHANGE IN PROPRIETORSHIP OR CONTROL

§ 194.160 Sale of business. A special tax stamp is a receipt for tax, personal to the one to whom issued, and is not transferable from one dealer to another. Where there occurs a change in the proprietorship of a business for which special tax has been paid, a new special tax liability is incurred, except as provided in §§ 194.168–194.169.

(68A Stat. 618, 620; 26 U. S. C. 5111, 5121)

§ 194.161 Incorporation of business. Where an individual or a firm engaged in business requiring payment of special tax forms a corporation to take over and conduct the business, the corporation (a separate legal entity) must pay special tax and procure a stamp in its own name.

(68A Stat. 618, 620; 26 U. S. C. 5111, 5121)

§ 194.162 New corporation. Where a new corporation is formed to take over and conduct the business of one or more corporations which have paid special tax, the new corporation must pay special tax and procure a stamp in its own name.

(68A Stat. 618, 620; 26 U. S. C. 5111, 5121)

§ 194.163 Stockholder continuing business of corporation. A special tax stamp held by a corporation as a liquor dealer cannot cover the same business carried on by one or more of its stockholders after dissolution of the corporation.

(68A Stat. 618, 620; 26 U. S. C. 5111, 5121)

§ 194.164 Change in trade name or style of business. The payment of but one special tax is required from the person who carries on the same business at the same place during the same special tax period. A person who pays the requisite special tax upon his business does not incur liability to additional special tax by reason of a mere change in the trade name or style under which such business is conducted, nor by reason of a change in management which involves no change in the proprietorship of the business.

(68A Stat. 618, 620; 26 U. S. C. 5111, 5121)

§ 194.165 Change of name or increase in capital stock of a corporation. Additional special tax is not required by reason of a change of name or increase in the capital stock of a corporation if the laws of the State of incorporation provide for such changes without the creation of a new corporation.

§ 194.166 Change in ownership of capital stock. No additional special tax is required by reason of the sale or transfer of all or a controlling interest in the capital stock of a corporation.

§ 194.167 Change in membership of unincorporated club. Additional special tax is not required of an unincorporated club by reason of changes in membership, where such changes do not result in the dissolution thereof and the formation of a new club.

§ 194.168 Change of control; right of succession. Certain persons other than the special taxpayer may, without incurring additional special tax liability, carry on the same business at the same address for the remainder of the taxable period for which the special tax was paid. To secure such right, the person or persons continuing the business must file with the district director from whom the special tax stamp was purchased, within 30 days after the date on which the successor begins to carry on the business, a return on Form 11, showing the basis of the succession.

Death—The widowed spouse or child, or executor, administrator, or other legal representative of the taxpayer.

Husband and wife—A husband or wife succeeding to the business of his or her spouse (living).

Insolvency—A receiver or trustee in bankruptcy, or an assignee for benefit of creditors.

Withdrawal from firm—The partner or partners remaining after death or withdrawal of a member.

(68A Stat. 619, 624, 846; 26 U. S. C. 5113, 5144, 7011)

§ 194.170 Failure to register right of succession within 30 days. A person succeeding, as provided in § 194.169, to a business for which special tax has been paid, and who fails to register such succession with the district director, within 30 days from the date he begins to carry on the business, will become liable to additional special tax computed from the 1st day of the calendar month in which he began to carry on such business.

(68A Stat. 624, 846; 26 U. S. C. 5144, 7011)

§ 194.171 Certificate in lieu of lost or destroyed special tax stamp. The provisions of this part apply to certificates issued to taxpayers in lieu of special tax stamps lost or destroyed in accordance with §§ 194.137 and 194.138.

SUBPART K—EXCEPTIONS AND EXEMPTIONS

§ 194.180 Sales of liquors for immediate consumption on premises. A retail dealer in liquors will not be required to pay special tax as wholesale dealer in liquors solely by reason of making sales of liquors in quantities of 5 wine gallons or more to the same person at the same time if such sales are made for immediate consumption of the liquors on the premises where sold.

(68A Stat. 618; 26 U. S. C. 5111)

§ 194.181 Sales of beer for immediate consumption on premises. A retail dealer in beer will not be required to pay special tax as wholesale dealer in beer solely by reason of making sales of beer in quantities of five gallons or more to the same person at the same time if such sales are made for immediate consumption of the liquors on the premises where sold.

(68A Stat. 618; 26 U. S. C. 5111)

§ 194.182 Dealers consummating sales of beer at premises of other dealers. A retail or wholesale dealer in liquors, or a retail or wholesale dealer in beer, who has paid the requisite special tax imposed upon his business, may, without incurring liability for additional special tax, consummate sales of beer to other retail or wholesale dealers in liquors or beer, at the purchaser's place of business.

(68A Stat. 621; 26 U. S. C. 5123)

§ 194.183 Deliveries of beer from place of storage not covered by special tax stamp. Deliveries of beer may be made by a retail or wholesale dealer in beer from a place of storage, not covered by his special tax stamp, without incurring liability to special tax at such place, provided orders therefor are not accepted at such place of storage.

(68A Stat. 624; 26 U. S. C. 5144)

§ 194.184 Distillers selling in original packages. No distiller who has given the required bond and who sells only distilled spirits of his own production at the place of manufacture, or at the place of storage in bond, in the original packages on which the tax has been determined, shall be required to pay the special tax as wholesale liquor dealer on account of such sales.

(68A Stat. 619; 26 U. S. C. 5113)

§ 194.185 Distillers selling in other than original packages. The expression "in the original packages on which the tax has been determined" excludes from the exemption provided in § 194.184 sales of distilled spirits in any packages other than the original packages covered by the filling gauge reported under section 5193, I. R. C. The sale of distilled spirits in bottles or other containers by distillers necessitates the payment of special tax.

(68A Stat. 619; 26 U. S. C. 5113)

§ 194.186 Brewers selling in their own barrels or kegs. A brewer is not required to pay special tax as dealer in beer by reason of selling in barrels or kegs, whether at the place of manufacture or elsewhere, beer manufactured by him, or purchased and procured by him pursuant to Part 245 of this chapter from another brewer in his own barrels or kegs.

(68A Stat. 619, 621; 26 U. S. C. 5113, 5123)

§ 194.187 Agent of a brewer. Any person holding himself out as an agent of a brewer in selling beer packaged in barrels or kegs will become liable to special tax unless it is shown that the beer is the property of the brewer and is sold by him for and on account of the brewer, and not on his own account.

(68A Stat. 619; 26 U. S. C. 5113)

§ 194.188 Brewers selling in containers other than their own barrels or kegs. A brewer is required to pay special tax as a dealer in beer if he sells beer packaged in bottles or cans, or in containers other than his own barrels or kegs.

(68A Stat. 619; 26 U. S. C. 5113)

§ 194.189 Sales by executor, administrator, or other fiduciary. No special tax shall accrue on a sale of distilled spirits, wines, or beer made by a person who is not otherwise a dealer in liquors, where such liquors have been received by him as executor, administrator, or other fiduciary, if such liquors are sold by such person in one parcel only, or at public auction in parcels of not less than 20 wine gallons.

(68A Stat. 619; 26 U. S. C. 5113)

§ 194.190 Sales of liquors received as security for or in payment of a debt. A person, not otherwise a dealer in liquors, who receives a stock of distilled spirits, wines, or beer as security for or in payment of a debt, may sell such liquors in one parcel only, or at public auction in parcels of not less than 20 wine gallons, without paying special tax.

(68A Stat. 619; 26 U. S. C. 5113)

§ 194.191 Sales of liquors levied on by public officer under order of any court or magistrate. No special tax shall accrue on a sale of distilled spirits, wines, or beer by a person who is not otherwise a dealer in liquors, where such liquors have been levied on by any officer under order of any court or magistrate, and are sold in one parcel only, or at public auction in parcels of not less than 20 wine gallons.

(68A Stat. 619; 26 U. S. C. 5113)

§ 194.192 Sales of liquors by retiring partner or by representative of a deceased partner. No special tax as retail or wholesale dealer shall accrue on a sale made by a retiring partner or the representative of a deceased partner to the incoming, remaining, or surviving partner or partners of a firm.

(68A Stat. 619; 26 U. S. C. 5113)

§ 194.193 Sales of entire stock by retail liquor dealer in liquidation. A retail dealer in liquors may, without incurring special tax as a wholesale dealer in liquors, sell out his entire stock of alcoholic liquors in one parcel or in a number of parcels composing his entire stock, which parcels may contain distilled spirits, wines, or beer, or a combination of any or all such liquors.

(68A Stat. 621; 26 U. S. C. 5123)

§ 194.194 Sales of entire stock by retail beer dealer in liquidation. A retail dealer in beer may sell out his stock of beer in one parcel or in parcels embracing not less than his entire stock of beer without incurring special tax as a wholesale dealer in beer.

(68A Stat. 621; 26 U. S. C. 5123)

(68A Stat. 619; 26 U. S. C. 5113)

§ 194.196 Sales by apothecaries and druggists. Apothecaries and druggists who use wines or spirituous liquors for compounding medicines and in making tinctures which are unfit for use for beverage purposes are not liable to special tax as liquor dealers by reason of the sale of such compounds or tinctures.

(68A Stat. 607; 26 U. S. C. 5025)

§ 194.197 Sales by proprietors of industrial alcohol plants or warehouses. A proprietor of an industrial alcohol plant or a bonded warehouse established under the provisions of sections 5301 or 5302, I. R. C., may sell, or offer for sale, alcohol stored in such plant or warehouse without payment of special tax as a retail or wholesale liquor dealer.

(68A Stat. 657; 26 U. S. C. 5306)

SUBPART L—REFUND AND REDEMPTION OF SPECIAL TAXES

§ 194.200 Claims. Claims for abatement or refund of special taxes and delinquency penalties erroneously or illegally assesed or collected, and claims for the redemption of special tax stamps shall be filed on Form 843, in duplicate, with the district director. The claim must set forth in detail and state each ground upon which it is made, and facts sufficient to apprise the assistant regional commissioner of the exact basis thereof. If the claim is for redemption of a special tax stamp, such stamp shall be attached to and made a part of the claim.

(68A Stat. 791, 830; 26 U. S. C. 6402, 6805)

§ 194.201 Time limit on filing of claim. No claim for the refund of a special tax or penalty or for the redemption of a special tax stamp shall be allowed unless presented within 3 years next after the payment of such tax or penalty or the purchase of such stamp, except that where special tax has been paid prior to January 1, 1955, claim for refund or redemption may be allowed if such claim is filed within 4 years from the date of such payment.

(68A Stat. 830; 26 U. S. C. 6805)

§ 194.202 Discontinuance of business. A special-tax payer who for any reason discontinues business is not entitled to any refund for the unexpired portion of the fiscal year for which the special tax stamp was issued.

(68A Stat. 624; 26 U. S. C. 5142)

§ 194.203 Dealer in beer who sells distilled spirits or wines. A person who pays a special tax as a dealer in beer and who at the time is liable as a dealer in liquors on account of sales of distilled spirits or wines in addition to beer, and thereafter pays the requisite special tax as a dealer in liquors for the same taxable period, may file a claim for redemption of the special tax stamp issued to him as a dealer in beer.

(68A Stat. 830; 26 U. S. C. 6805)

§ 194.204 Dealer in liquors who actually sells only beer. A person who pays special tax as a dealer in liquors but who actually sells or offers for sale beer only, and later during the same or a subsequent month pays the special tax as a dealer in beer, may redeem the special tax stamp issued to him as a dealer in liquors.

(68A Stat. 830; 26 U. S. C. 6805)

SUBPART M—MAINTENANCE OF RECORDS AND POSTING OF SIGNS

WHOLESALE LIQUOR DEALER RECORDS

§ 194.210 General requirements, Record 52. Except as provided in § 194.214, every wholesale dealer in liquors who sells distilled spirits shall keep Record 52, and render monthly transcripts, Forms 52A and 52B, and Form 338, of the physical receipt and disposition of distilled spirits by him. Daily entries shall be made on Record 52 of all distilled spirits received and disposed of, as indicated by the headings of the columns and lines of the form and the instructions printed thereon or issued in respect thereto, as required by the provisions of this part, before the close of the business day next succeeding the day on which the transactions occur. Where the wholesale dealer defers the making of the entries to the next business day, as authorized herein, he shall keep a separate record such as invoices, of the removals of distilled spirits, showing the removal data required to be entered on Record 52, and appropriate memoranda of other transactions required to be entered on such record, for the purpose of making the entries correctly.

(68A Stat. 619; 26 U. S. C. 5114)

§ 194.211 Warehouse receipts, Form 52F. Except as provided in § 194.214, every wholesale dealer in liquors who sells, or offers for sale, distilled spirits by warehouse receipts, shall keep a separate record, and render a monthly transcript, of all purchases and sales of warehouse receipts, on Form 52F. There need not be reported on Form 52F transactions in warehouse receipts not involving the purchase or sale of distilled spirits, such as the receipt from a warehouseman of warehouse receipts covering the deposit or bottling of the spirits in his warehouse or the surrender of warehouse receipts for the bottling of the spirits in bond or their transfer in bond to another warehouse. Entries on Form 52F shall be made as indicated by the headings of the columns and lines of the form and the instructions printed thereon or issued in respect thereto, and as required by the provisions of this part. The provisions of § 194.210 with respect to the time of making entries, and of § 194.233 with respect to forms to be provided by users, are hereby made applicable to Form 52F. The monthly transcript on Form 52F shall be forwarded to the assistant regional commissioner on or before the 10th day of the succeeding month.

(68A Stat. 619; 26 U. S. C. 5114)

§ 194.212 Dealer selling distilled spirits at retail only. A dealer who sells wines or beer, or both, in wholesale quantities, and who sells distilled spirits in retail quantities, is not required to keep Record 52 or to file monthly transcripts, Forms 52A and 52B, and report, Form 338.

(68A Stat. 619; 26 U. S. C. 5114)

§ 194.213 Dealers not selling distilled spirits. Wholesale liquor dealers who sell wines and beer only, and wholesale beer dealers are not required to keep Record 52 or to file monthly transcripts, Forms 52A and 52B, and report, Form 338.

(68A Stat. 619; 26 U. S. C. 5114)

§ 194.214 Proprietors. The proprietor of an industrial alcohol plant or industrial alcohol bonded warehouse shall keep records in his capacity as a wholesale dealer in liquors in accordance with Part 182 of this chapter. The proprietor of a registered distillery shall keep records in his capacity as a wholesale dealer in liquors in accordance with Part 220 of this chapter. The proprietor of a fruit distillery shall keep records in his capacity as a wholesale dealer in liquors in accordance with Part 221 of this chapter. The proprietor of an internal revenue bonded warehouse shall keep records in his capacity as a wholesale dealer in liquors in accordance with Part 225 of this chapter. The proprietor of a tax-paid bottling house shall keep records in his capacity as a wholesale dealer in liquors in accordance with Part 230 of this chapter. The proprietor of a rectifying plant shall keep records in his capacity as a wholesale dealer in liquors in accordance with Part 235 of this chapter. An importer shall keep records in his capacity as a wholesale dealer in liquors in accordance with Part 251 of this chapter. Any person bringing distilled spirits into the United States from Puerto Rico or the Virgin Islands shall keep records in his capacity as a wholesale dealer in liquors in accordance with Part 250 of this chapter.

(68A Stat. 619, 637, 652; 26 U. S. C. 5114, 5197, 5282)

§ 194.215 Entries on Record 52. Where more than one shipment of distilled spirits is received from the same consignor during any month, there will be entered on Record 52 for the first shipment received, the name and address of such consignor, followed by the registry number (preceded by appropriate identifying symbols) and the State of the consignor's plant or warehouse (for example, IRBW–4–Ky.) or, in the case of shipments received from wholesale liquor dealers or importers, the permit number of the consignor (for example, 3–I–1234). For the remaining shipments received from such consignor during the month, there may be entered in the column designated "Name" such registry number or permit number, as the case may be, and the name and address of the consignor may be omitted. Likewise, where more than one shipment of distilled spirits is sent to the same consignee during any month, there will be entered on Record 52 for the first shipment made the name and address of such consignee followed by the registry number or permit number of the consignee. For the remaining shipments made to such consignee during the month, there may be entered in the column designated "Name" such registry number or permit number, as the case may be, and the name and address of the consignee may be omitted. Where the consignor or consignee is a retail dealer in liquors, the name and address must be entered on Record 52 for each shipment received or sent.

(68A Stat. 619; 26 U. S. C. 5114)

§ 194.216 Entry of miscellaneous items. Wholesale liquor dealers may enter on Record 52 as one item the total quantity of different kinds of spirits made up from broken cases sold to the same person on the same day, provided such total quantity is not in excess of 10 gallons. The entry of such items shall be stated as "Miscellaneous" or "Misc." and shall show the date, the name and address of the person to whom sold, and the quantity. The total quantity of such miscellaneous spirits so disposed of during the month shall be reported in the monthly summary, Form 338, as "Miscellaneous": Provided, That the wholesale liquor dealer determines by actual inventory the quantity of each kind of spirits remaining on hand at the end of the month.

(68A Stat. 619; 26 U. S. C. 5114)

(68A Stat. 619; 26 U. S. C. 5114)

§ 194.218 Separate record of serial numbers of cases. Serial numbers of cases of distilled spirits received, or disposed of, need not be entered on Record 52, and the serial numbers of packages and cases purchased or sold by warehouse receipts need not be entered on Form 52 F, provided that the wholesale dealer in liquors keeps at his place of business a separate record, showing such serial numbers, with necessary identifying data, including the date of the physical receipt or disposition of distilled spirits and the name and address of the person from whom received or to whom sent, and the date of purchase or sale of warehouse receipts and the name and address of the purchaser or seller, as the case may be, and provided further, that the keeping of such record is approved by the assistant regional commissioner.

(68A Stat. 619; 26 U. S. C. 5114)

§ 194.219 Form of separate records. The separate records prescribed by §§ 194.217 and 194.218 may be kept in book form (including loose-leaf books) or may consist of commercial papers, such as invoices or bills. Such books, invoices, and bills shall be preserved for a period of 2 years and in such manner that the required information may be readily ascertained therefrom, and, during such period, shall be available during business hours for inspection and the taking of abstracts therefrom by internal revenue officers. If a record in book form is kept, entries shall be made on such separate record before the close of the business day next succeeding the day on which the transactions occur. Where the making of the entries is deferred to the next business day, as authorized herein, appropriate memoranda shall be maintained for the purpose of making the entries correctly. The dealer shall note on Record 52, and on Form 52 F, in the column for reporting serial numbers, "Serial numbers shown on commercial record per authority, dated ----------"

(68A Stat. 619; 26 U. S. C. 5114)

§ 194.220 Place where Record 52 shall be kept; general. Except as provided in § 194.221, the wholesale dealer in liquors shall keep Record 52 at the place where liability is incurred, if spirits are received and sent out from such premises.

(68A Stat. 619; 26 U. S. C. 5114)

§ 194.221 Exception. If the place where liability is incurred is not the same premises where the spirits are received and sent out, the wholesale liquor dealer shall keep his Record 52 at the latter place and render transcripts from such place on Forms 52A and 52B and summary report on Form 338: Provided, That, if approved by the assistant regional commissioner, a wholesale liquor dealer may keep his Record 52 at the place of business covered by the special tax stamp and render transcripts on Forms 52A and 52B and summary report on Form 338 from such place. If, however, the place of business covered by the special tax stamp is not in the same region as the place where the spirits are received and sent out, Record 52 must be kept at the latter place and transcripts on Forms 52A and 52B and summary report on Form 338 rendered to the assistant regional commissioner of that region.

(68A Stat. 619; 26 U. S. C. 5114)

§ 194.222 Place where Form 52F shall be kept. Every wholesale dealer in liquors shall keep Form 52F at the place of business where warehouse receipts are sold or offered for sale.

§ 194.223 Requirements when wholesale liquor dealer maintains a retail department. A wholesale liquor dealer who sells distilled spirits at wholesale and at the same premises sells distilled spirits at retail in his capacity as a retail dealer in liquors, and who maintains a separate retail department, shall keep Record 52 at his wholesale department of all distilled spirits there received and disposed of. Distilled spirits transferred from the wholesale department to the retail department shall be reported on Record 52, part 2, as "Transferred to Retail Department." Where it is necessary in the filling of a wholesale order to take liquor out of the retail department, the quantity removed from the retail department must be shown on Record 52, part 1, as "Transferred from Retail Department," and the entire sale shown in Record 52, part 2, as a disposal. The retail department need not be maintained in a separate room or be partitioned off from the wholesale department, but the retail department must in fact be separate from the wholesale department. Where a wholesale liquor dealer sells at both wholesale and retail, and does not maintain a separate retail department, all distilled spirits received and disposed of shall be entered on Record 52.

(68A Stat. 619; 26 U. S. C. 5114)

§ 194.224 Records to be kept by States. The provisions of §§ 194.210–194.223, 194.225 and 194.228–194.233, shall not apply to States and Commonwealths and liquor stores operated by such entities that maintain and make available for inspection by internal revenue officers such records as will enable such officers to trace readily all distilled spirits received and disposed of by them: Provided, That such States and Commonwealths, and the liquor stores operated by them, shall, on request of the assistant regional commissioner, furnish such transcripts, summaries, and copies of their records as he shall require.

RETAIL LIQUOR DEALERS

§ 194.225 Requirements where wholesale department is kept. A liquor dealer engaged in the business of selling primarily at retail, who at the same premises also makes occasional sales of distilled spirits in quantities of 5 wine gallons or more in his capacity as a wholesale liquor dealer, need not enter in Record 52 all distilled spirits received at the premises as required by § 194.223. As used in this subpart, the term "selling primarily at retail" shall mean that sales at retail must normally represent at least 90 percent of the volume of distilled spirits sold during a month. Where a liquor dealer is engaged in such business, all distilled spirits at the premises may be considered as having been received in the retail department. When a sale of 5 wine gallons or more is made, the distilled spirits involved in the transaction must be shown in Record 52 as received from the retail department and as disposed of. Entries will be made in the various columns of the record pursuant to the provisions of §§ 194.210–194.214 and 194.216. The provisions of §§ 194.215, 194.217–194.219, 194.228, 194.231 and 194.232, relative to separate records, the daily filing of transcripts of Record 52 and certain additional requirements, are not applicable to such liquor dealers. The wholesale department need not be maintained in a separate room or be partitioned off from the retail department, but sales at wholesale must be made in a part of the premises designated as the wholesale department.

(68A Stat. 619; 26 U. S. C. 5114)

§ 194.226 Requirements for dealers in distilled spirits. Each retail dealer in liquors shall provide, at his own expense, and keep in his place of business a record in book form, or shall keep all invoices or bills for distilled spirits, wines, or beer received, showing the quantity thereof, from whom and the date received. Such records, bills, or invoices shall be kept for two years after the date of the transactions to which they relate and shall be open to inspection during business hours of the dealer by internal revenue officers upon identification and request.

(68A Stat. 622; 26 U. S. C. 5124)

§ 194.227 Requirements for dealers in beer. Retail dealers in beer are not required to keep records of beer received.

REPORTS

§ 194.228 Time of filing. Except as otherwise provided in this subpart, a wholesale liquor dealer shall file, daily, transcripts of Record 52 on Forms 52A and 52B with the assistant regional commissioner by delivering or mailing them to such officer on the date the transactions entered therein occurred: Provided, That in any case in which the assistant regional commissioner shall direct, the transcripts shall be so filed with the supervisor in charge instead of with the assistant regional commissioner. The transcripts shall bear the following certification signed by the person or officer authorized to execute Form 338:

I hereby certify that these transcripts, consisting of ------ pages, disclose all the transactions which occurred during the period covered thereby, and that each entry is correct.

If in any case the assistant regional commissioner shall so authorize, the transcripts, in lieu of being filed daily, may be filed with him on or before the 10th day of the month succeeding the month in which the transactions in distilled spirits occurred. In such event, transactions will be entered on Record 52 in accordance with the provisions of § 194.210. Summary report on Form 338 shall be filed with the assistant regional commissioner on or before the 10th day of the month succeeding the month in which the transactions in distilled spirits occurred. Record 52 shall be preserved for a period of 2 years and, during such period, shall be available during business hours for inspection and the taking of abstracts therefrom by any internal revenue officer.

(68A Stat. 619; 26 U. S. C. 5114)

§ 194.229 No transactions during month. If there were no receipts and disposals of distilled spirits by a wholesale liquor dealer during a month, it will not be necessary to prepare Forms 52A and 52B. However, a summary on Form 338 must be prepared and forwarded to the assistant regional commissioner, showing the quantity on hand the first day of the month and the quantity on hand the last day of the month and marked "No transactions during month." Wholesale liquor dealers maintaining records in the simplified manner prescribed by § 194.225 should show in the summary on Form 338 that no distilled spirits were on hand the first day and the last day of the month.

(68A Stat. 619; 26 U. S. C. 5114)

§ 194.230 Discontinuance of business. When a wholesale liquor dealer discontinues business as such, he shall render monthly reports, Forms 52A and 52B and the summary report on Form 338, covering transactions for the month in which business is discontinued, and mark such reports "Final." Record 52 shall be preserved by the dealer for a period of 2 years.

(68A Stat. 619; 26 U. S. C. 5114)

REPORT OF THIRD PARTY TRANSACTIONS

§ 194.231 Additional requirements. The wholesale liquor dealer shall report on Record 52, part 2, and on transcript, Form 52B, the name and address of each consignee, in the column now designated "Name." In the column now designated "Address," there will be reported the name and address of the person, firm, or corporation paying (by advancement or reimbursement) either tax, bottling charge, brokerage fee, handling charge, or clearance fee, indicating which are included. The heading of both columns will be amended accordingly.

(68A Stat. 619; 26 U. S. C. 5114)

§ 194.232 Shipment or delivery to third party. Where a wholesale liquor dealer ships or delivers distilled spirits to a consignee on the order of another wholesale liquor dealer detailed records of the transactions shall be kept on Record 52 by (1) the wholesale liquor dealer making the shipment or delivery, (2) the wholesale liquor dealer giving the order, and (3) the consignee if he is a wholesale liquor dealer. For example, assuming that wholesale dealer (A) ships or delivers the distilled spirits to consignee (C) on the order of wholesale dealer (B), entries will be made in Record 52 by the parties involved as follows:

(a) Wholesale dealer (A) will show in his Record 52 the name and address of wholesale dealer (B), who ordered the distilled spirits, as well as the name and address of consignee (C), the person to whom the distilled spirits are actually shipped or delivered;

(b) Wholesale dealer (B) will show in his Record 52 that the distilled spirits were purchased from wholesale dealer (A), giving both the name and address of (A), and will at the same time make an entry showing that the distilled spirits were shipped or delivered by (A) to consignee (C), giving the name and address of (C); and

(c) Consignee (C), if a wholesale liquor dealer, will show in his Record 52 that the distilled spirits were purchased from wholesale dealer (B) and received by him from wholesale dealer (A), giving name and address of both. Transcripts of Record 52 on Forms 52A and 52B, required to be filed with the assistant regional commissioner, will similarly show the details of such transactions.

(68A Stat. 619; 26 U. S. C. 5114)

PROCUREMENT OF FORMS

§ 194.233 Forms to be provided by users at own expense. Record 52, Forms 52A, 52B, and 338 will be provided by users at their own expense, but must be in the form prescribed by the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division: Provided, That, with the approval of the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, they may be modified to adapt their use to tabulating or other mechanical equipment: Provided further, That where the form is printed in book form, including looseleaf books, the instructions may be printed on the cover or the fly leaf of the book instead of on the individual form.

(68A Stat. 619; 26 U. S. C. 5114)

POSTING OF SIGNS

§ 194.234 By wholesalers. Every person engaged in business as wholesale dealer in liquors shall place and keep conspicuously on the outside of his place of business a sign exhibiting in plain, durable and legible letters, not less than 3 inches in height and of a proper and proportionate width, the name or firm of the dealer, with the words "Wholesale Liquor Dealer." In the case of a wholesale liquor dealer who procures and posts a special tax stamp designated "Wholesale Dealer in Wines" or "Wholesale Dealer in Wines and Beer," the requirements of this section will be met by the posting of a sign of the character and dimensions prescribed herein, but with words conforming to the designation of the special tax stamp.

(68A Stat. 620; 26 U. S. C. 5116)

§ 194.235 By retailers. Internal revenue laws do not require the posting of signs by retail dealers in liquors, retail dealers in beer, or wholesale dealers in beer.

SUBPART N—STRIP STAMPS

§ 194.240 Strip stamps required on all bottles. Except as provided in subpart P, all distilled spirits, whether domestic or imported, in the possession of wholesale dealers in liquors or retail dealers in liquors must be in bottles or similar containers of a capacity of 1 gallon or less and must bear either a green or red strip stamp affixed in such manner as to be broken when the container is opened.

(68A Stat. 602; 26 U. S. C. 5008)

§ 194.241 Breaking of strip stamp on opening bottle. The strip stamp affixed to containers of distilled spirits shall be broken on the opening of the container. A portion of the strip stamp must be left attached to the container while any part of the contents remain therein.

(68A Stat. 602; 26 U. S. C. 5008)

§ 194.242 Mutilated or missing red strip stamps. Unopened bottles containing distilled spirits required to be stamped under section 5008 (b), I. R. C., from which the red strip stamps are missing, or any unopened bottle on which the red strip stamp is mutilated to the extent that the contents of the bottle are accessible without breaking the stamp, or on which the red strip stamp is so mutilated that the genuineness thereof cannot be determined, may be restamped pursuant to §§ 194.243–194.246.

(68A Stat. 602, 603; 26 U. S. C. 5008, 5010)

§ 194.243 Replacement of mutilated or missing red strip stamps found by dealer. The bottle should be set aside by the dealer and application for the necessary stamps submitted with Form 428, in duplicate, to the assistant regional commissioner. Copies of Form 428 may be obtained from the assistant regional commissioner. The application must contain or be verified by a written declaration that it has been executed under the penalties of perjury. Such application shall be signed by the dealer or his authorized agent and immediately above the signature there will appear the following statement: "I declare under the penalties of perjury that this application has been examined by me and to the best of my knowledge and belief is true and correct." In every case the application shall state the cause of mutilation or absence of the stamps and submit evidence that the spirits are eligible for stamping under the provisions of section 5008 (b), I. R. C. Such evidence may consist of the invoices covering the purchase of the spirits, in addition to other available documents. The assistant regional commissioner will approve the requisition, Form 428, if he is satisfied from the evidence submitted that the mutilation or absence of the stamps has been satisfactorily explained. The district director will furnish the stamps to the assistant regional commissioner, who will deliver the stamps to the applicant, either by mail or by a representative of his office, together with instructions in regard to affixing them to the containers.

(68A Stat. 602, 603; 26 U. S. C. 5008, 5010)

§ 194.244 Mutilated or missing red strip stamps found by internal revenue officer. When an internal revenue officer discovers an unopened bottle containing distilled spirits, to which no red strip stamp is affixed, or on which the red strip stamp is mutilated to the extent that the contents of the bottle are accessible without breaking the stamp, or on which the red strip stamp is so mutilated that the genuineness thereof cannot be determined, the officer will direct that the bottle be set aside. If the officer is satisfied that the spirits in the bottle have been lawfully stamped, and the original contents of the bottle have not been replaced or increased by the addition of any substance, he shall secure an affidavit from the proper person setting forth the reason for the absence or mutilation of the stamp, accompanied by documentary evidence, if any, in support thereof. The officer shall assist the person in executing an application on Form 428 in order to procure a red strip stamp to be affixed to the bottle, pursuant to the procedure outlined in § 194.243. When the internal revenue officer has good reason to believe that the distilled spirits have not been lawfully stamped, or that the original contents of the bottle have been replaced or increased by the addition of a substance, he will seize the spirits for forfeiture.

§ 194.245 Replacement not required. It will not be necessary to require the replacement of strip stamps where an immaterial portion of the stamp is missing, or where the strip stamp has dropped off a bottle and may be reaffixed thereto by the dealer.

§ 194.246 Strip stamp missing; open bottle. In the case of an opened bottle of distilled spirits from which all portions of the strip stamp have been removed, there will be no necessity to require the restamping of the bottle if the internal revenue officer is satisfied the bottle contains all or a part of its original tax-paid contents only.

SUBPART O—MISCELLANEOUS

§ 194.250 Purchase or sale of used containers. The purchase or sale of used liquor bottles, and other authorized marked containers bearing the penalty clause, "Federal Law Forbids Sale or Reuse of This Bottle," and other indicia is prohibited.

(68A Stat. 639; 26 U. S. C. 5214)

§ 194.251 Reuse or refilling containers. No liquor bottle or other authorized container shall be reused for the packaging of distilled spirits, nor shall the original contents, or any portion of such original contents, remaining in a liquor bottle or other authorized container, be increased by the addition of any substance.

(68A Stat. 639; 26 U. S. C. 5214)

§ 194.252 Possession of used containers. The possession of used liquor bottles or other authorized marked containers by any person other than the person who empties the contents thereof is prohibited. This shall not prevent the dealer upon whose premises such bottles or containers may lawfully be emptied from assembling the containers in reasonable quantities upon such premises for the purpose of destruction or for other disposition in accordance with the provisions of Part 175 of this title.

(68A Stat. 639; 26 U. S. C. 5214)

§ 194.253 Destruction of marks and brands on wine containers. A dealer who empties any cask, barrel, keg, or similar container holding wine shall scrape or obliterate all marks or brands affixed to such containers immediately upon emptying.

§ 194.254 Wine bottling. Every person desiring to bottle, package, or repackage taxpaid wines at premises other than a rectifying plant or taxpaid distilled spirits bottling house shall, before carrying on such operations, make application to, and receive permission from, the assistant regional commissioner, as required under Part 231 of this title. The decanting of wine by caterers or other retail dealers for table or room service, or for banquets, etc., shall not be considered as "bottling", if the decanters are not furnished for the purpose of carrying wine away from the area where served.

(68A Stat. 663; 26 U. S. C. 5352)

SUBPART P—PACKAGING ALCOHOL FOR INDUSTRIAL PURPOSES

§ 194.260 Requirements and procedure. Wholesale dealers in liquors may package alcohol for industrial purposes in containers in excess of 1 wine gallon and less than 5 wine gallons and shall be governed by those provisions of Part 230 of this chapter which pertain to the filing of notice on Form 27 E, the procurement, overprinting as to denomination, attachment, and accounting of strip stamps, and the maintenance of Form 52 D. Form 27 E, properly modified, and requisitions on Form 428 for strip stamps will be submitted to and approved by the assistant regional commissioner. The strip stamps will be transmitted directly by the district director to the wholesale dealer in liquors. The wholesale dealer in liquors shall keep records and render monthly reports on Form 182 showing strip stamps received, used, mutilated, and on hand. Bottling operations will be carried on without supervision of a storekeeper-gauger. Form 52 D, properly modified, will be used for accounting for alcohol received, dumped, and packaged. Preparation of Forms 230 will not be required.

(68A Stat. 602, 639; 26 U. S. C. 5008, 5214)

§ 194.261 Labeling. The wholesale dealer in liquors packaging alcohol for industrial purposes will affix to such package a label bearing the word "Alcohol," and in conspicuous type the words "For Industrial Use," and showing the proof, the capacity of the container, and his name and address. The wholesaler may incorporate in the label other appropriate statements: Provided, That such statements shall not obscure or contradict the data required hereby to be shown on such labels.

(68A Stat. 639; 26 U. S. C. 5214)

AUTHORITY: §§ 173.1 to 173.31 issued under 68A Stat. 917; 26 U. S. C. 7805. Interpret or apply 68A Stat. 596, 639, 657, 685, 700, 895; 26 U. S. C. 5001 (a) (6), 5213 (a), 5305, 5609, 5686, 7502.

SUBPART A—SCOPE OF REGULATIONS

§ 173.1 Returns of substances or articles of the character used in the manufacture or recovery of distilled spirits. This part relates to the returns and records of dispositions of substances or articles of the character used in the manufacture or recovery of distilled spirits.

§ 173.2 Forms prescribed. The Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, is authorized to prescribe all forms required by this part, including demand letters, reports, and returns. Information called for shall be furnished in accordance with the instructions on the forms or issued in respect thereto.

SUBPART B—DEFINITIONS

§ 173.5 Meaning of terms. As used in this part, unless the context otherwise requires, terms shall have the meanings ascribed in this subpart.

§ 173.6 Article. "Article" shall mean denatured alcohol, denatured rum, or any product or preparation which contains more than 25 percent by volume of denatured alcohol or denatured rum.

§ 173.7 Assistant regional commissioner. "Assistant regional commissioner" shall mean the Assistant Regional Commissioner, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax, who is responsible to and functions under the direction and supervision of the Regional Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

§ 173.8 Demand letter. The "demand letter" is the formal requirement of the assistant regional commissioner that a person disposing of any substance or article shall render a correct return.

§ 173.9 Dispose. "Dispose" and all forms of the word shall mean and include, but not by way of limitation, consign, sell, transfer, deliver, destroy, or lose, and all forms of those words.

§ 173.10 Distilled spirits. "Distilled spirits" is that substance known as ethyl alcohol, hydrated oxide of ethyl, or spirits of wine, produced or recovered from any source or material.

§ 173.11 Person. The term "person" shall mean and include an individual, trust, estate, partnership, association, company, or corporation.

§ 173.12 Plurals. Words in the singular shall include the plural.

§ 173.13 Render. "Render" shall mean to deliver the completed return to the office indicated in the demand letter, not later than the date required by the demand letter, or to mail such completed return, in an envelope properly addressed and stamped, in sufficient time for such envelope to be postmarked by the Post Office Department not later than the date required by the demand letter. The time and date of the United States postmark shall constitute the time and date of delivery of the return to the designated office.

§ 173.14 Substance. The term "substance" shall mean and include, but not by way of limitation, any of the following: Any grade or type of sugar, sirup, or molasses derived from sugar cane, sugar beets, corn, sorghum, or any other source; starch; potatoes; grain, or corn meal, corn chops, cracked corn, rye chops, middlings, shorts, bran, or any other grain derivative; malt; malt sugar, or malt sirup; oak chips, charred or not charred; charred kegs or barrels; yeast; cider; honey; fruits; grapes; berries; fruit, grape or berry juices or concentrates; wine; caramel; burnt sugar; gin flavor; Chinese bean cake or Chinese wine cake; urea; ammonium phosphate, ammonium carbonate, ammonium sulphate, or any other yeast food; ethyl acetate or any other ethyl ester; any other material of the character used in the manufacture of distilled spirits, or any chemical or other material suitable for promoting or accelerating fermentation; any chemical or material of the character used for the production of distilled spirits by chemical reaction; or any combination of such materials or chemicals.

§ 173.15 United States. "United States" shall mean the States, the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii, and the District of Columbia.

§ 173.16 U. S. C. "U. S. C." shall mean the United States Code.

SUBPART C—REQUIREMENT OF RETURNS

§ 173.20 Returns required. Every person in the United States who disposes of any substance or article, as defined in §§ 173.14 or 173.6, shall, when required by a demand letter issued by the assistant regional commissioner, and until notified to the contrary in writing by such officer, for the purpose of enabling the determination in accordance with law as to whether all taxes due with respect to any distilled spirits produced or recovered from such substances or articles have been paid, render in writing on Form 169, for the periods specified in the demand letter, correct returns showing (a) the date of each disposition of such substances or articles, and in such quantities, as may be specified by the assistant regional commissioner in the demand letter; (b) the quantity and kind of each substance or article disposed of; (c) the name and complete address of each purchaser, consignee, and other person actually receiving such substances or articles, and of any other person for, by, or through whom the substances or articles were ordered or disposed of; (d) the date and method of shipment or delivery; and (e) if delivered or shipped by truck or other conveyance, the State or city registration number of such truck or conveyance, and the name and complete address of the operator of such truck or conveyance as shown by his operator's license, giving the number of such operator's license and the date of its issuance. Where shipment is made by a common carrier, such as a railroad, trucking company, steamboat line, etc., the information required by (e) of this section need not be reported, but in lieu thereof there shall be furnished the complete routing of the shipment, full name and address of first carrier, and railroad car number or name of ship.

§ 173.21 Rendition of returns. The return, Form 169, shall be rendered to the officer or employee of the Internal Revenue Service designated in the demand letter. The return shall be prepared and rendered in accordance with the instructions contained in such demand letter.

SUBPART D—RECORDS TO BE MAINTAINED

§ 173.25 Records required. Every person in the United States who disposes of any substance or article, as defined in §§ 173.14 or 173.6, and who has been required to render returns, shall maintain at his place of business such books, records, documents, papers, invoices, bills of lading, etc., relating to or connected with any such disposition, as will enable such person to make the required return. Such books, records, documents, papers, invoices, bills of lading, etc., shall be maintained for a period of three years and shall be kept readily available for, and open to, inspection by any Internal Revenue Officer during the hours of business of such person.

SUBPART E—TAX AND PENALTIES

§ 173.30 Tax. Any person who produces, withdraws, sells, disposes of, or uses, denatured alcohol, denatured rum, or articles, as defined in § 173.6, in violation of law shall be required to pay the tax on such denatured alcohol, denatured rum, or articles, as provided by section 5001 (a) (6), Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

§ 173.31 Penalties. Any person who willfully violates any provision of section 5213 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or of these regulations with respect to substances, as defined in § 173.14, shall, upon conviction, be fined or imprisoned as provided by section 5609 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. Any person who willfully violates any provision of section 5305 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or of these regulations, with respect to articles, as defined in § 173.6, shall, upon conviction, be fined or imprisoned as provided in section 5686 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Bureau of Land Management

WASHINGTON

NOTICE OF PROPOSED WITHDRAWAL AND RESERVATION OF LANDS

MARCH 29, 1955.

An application, serial number Wash. 01935, for the withdrawal from all forms of appropriation under the public land laws, including the mining laws of the United States of the lands described below was filed on February 10, 1955, by the Department of Agriculture, Forest Service.

The purposes of the proposed withdrawal: To protest and provide for administrative sites, recreation areas, camp sites and reservoir sites.

For a period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice, persons having cause to object to the proposed withdrawal may present their objections in writing to the State Supervisor, Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior, at Room 209, Federal Building, Spokane, Washington. In case any objection is filed and the nature of the opposition is such as to warrant it, a public hearing will be held at a convenient time and place, which will be announced, where opponents to the order may state their views and where proponents of the order can explain its purpose.

The determination of the Secretary on the application will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, either in the form of a public land order or in the form of a Notice of Determination if the application is rejected. In either case, a separate notice will be sent to each interested party of record.

The lands involved in the application are:

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket Nos. G-8688, G-8689]

LA GLORIA OIL AND GAS CO. ET AL.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATIONS FOR REHEARING

In the matter of La Gloria Oil and Gas Company, Irene Sheerin, et al., Wiltex Corporation, C. C. Small and Binford Arney, Trustees, Docket No. G-8688; Continental Oil Company, Docket No. G-8689.

La Gloria Oil and Gas Company, Irene Sheerin, et al., Wiltex Corporation, and C. C. Small and Binford Arney, Trustees on March 8, 1955 and Continental Oil Company on March 9, 1955, filed applications for rehearing of the Commission's order issued February 14, 1955, rejecting applicants' proposed notices of termination of rate schedules. As herein specified, Continental Oil Company submitted for filing with the Commission a letter of termination dated September 10, 1954, and each of the other applicants herein submitted for filing notices of proposed termination in addition to letters of termination dated September 10, 1954, whereby each applicant proposes to terminate its respective sale to Texas Illinois Natural Gas Pipeline Company of natural gas produced in the La Gloria Area field, Jim Wells and Brooks Counties, Texas.

In the applications for rehearing it is alleged, among other matters, that the Commission by its order of February 14, 1955, has wrongfully prejudged without notice and without hearing, one of the issues presented by the Commission's order to show cause issued January 10, 1955, In the Matter of Argo Oil Corporation, et al., Docket Nos. G-6810, et al., to which each of the applicants herein is a party. Applicants contend that the Commission's rejection of their respective filings concerning the proposed termination of service to Texas Illinois on the basis of their failure to first obtain authorization for the proposed abandonment of service pursuant to section 7 (b) of the Natural Gas Act, is a prejudgment that they are natural-gas companies within the meaning of the act, and therefore subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission.

Upon consideration of the applications for rehearing filed by the parties herein, it appears desirable and in the public interest that the Commission hold a public hearing on the matters and issues presented by these applications for rehearing.

The Commission further finds:

(1) A hearing should be granted La Gloria Oil and Gas Company, Irene Sheerin, et al., Wiltex Corporation, C. C. Small and Binford Arney, Trustees, and Continental Oil Company respecting the matters involved and the issues presented by their applications.

(2) It is appropriate and good cause exists to consolidate the application for rehearing filed by La Gloria Oil and Gas Company, Irene Sheerin, et al., Wiltex Corporation, and C. C. Small and Binford Arney, Trustees, in Docket No. G-8688 with the application for rehearing filed by Continental Oil Company in Docket No. G-8689 for purposes of hearing.

The Commission orders:

(A) A public hearing be held, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 15, 16 and 19 (a) of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, commencing on May 9, 1955, at 10:00 a. m., (e. d. s. t.), in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved and the issues presented by the applications for rehearing herein.

(B) The application for rehearing in Docket No. G-8688 be and the same hereby is consolidated with the application for rehearing in Docket No. G-8689 for purpose of hearing.

Adopted: March 30, 1955.

Issued: March 31, 1955.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

AUTHORITY AND ASSIGNED RESPONSIBILITIES OF GENERAL COUNSEL OF NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD

Pursuant to the provisions of section 3 (a) of the Administrative Procedures Act (Pub. Law 404, 79th Cong., 2d Sess.), the National Labor Relations Board hereby separately states and currently publishes in the FEDERAL REGISTER the following board memorandum describing the authority and assigned responsibilities of the general counsel of the National Labor Relations Board (effective April 1, 1955).

Dated: Washington, D. C., April 1, 1955.

By direction of the Board.

FRANK M. KLEILER,
Executive Secretary.

BOARD MEMORANDUM DESCRIBING THE AUTHORITY AND ASSIGNED RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE GENERAL COUNSEL OF THE NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD (EFFECTIVE APRIL 1, 1955)

The statutory authority and responsibility of the General Counsel of the Board are defined in section 3 (d) of the National Labor Relations Act as follows: "There shall be a General Counsel of the Board who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, for a term of four years. The General Counsel of the Board shall exercise general supervision over all attorneys employed by the Board (other than trial examiners and legal assistants to Board members) and over the officers and employees in the regional offices. He shall have final authority, on behalf of the Board, in respect of the investigation of charges and issuance of complaints under section 10, and in respect of the prosecution of such complaints before the Board, and shall have such other duties as the Board may prescribe or as may be provided by law."

This memorandum is intended to describe the statutory authority and to set forth the prescribed duties and authority of the General Counsel of the Board, effective April 1, 1955:

I. Case handling—A. Complaint cases. The General Counsel of the Board has full and final authority and responsibility, on behalf of the Board, to accept and investigate charges filed, to enter into and approve informal settlement of charges, to dismiss charges, to determine matters concerning consolidation and severance of cases before complaint issues, to issue complaints and notices of hearing, to appear before Trial Examiners in hearings on complaints and prosecute as provided in the Board's rules and regulations, and to initiate and prosecute injunction proceedings as provided for in section 10 (1) of the act. After issuance of Intermediate Report by the Trial Examiner, the General Counsel may file exceptions and briefs and appear before the Board in oral argument, subject to the Board's rules and regulations.

B. Court litigation. The General Counsel of the Board is authorized and has responsibility, on behalf of the Board, to seek and effect compliance with the Board's orders and make such compliance reports to the Board as it may from time to time require.

On behalf of the Board, the General Counsel of the Board will, in full accordance with the directions of the Board, petition for enforcement and resist petitions for review of Board Orders as provided in section 10 (e) and (f) of the act, initiate and prosecute injunction proceedings as provided in section 10 (j), seek temporary restraining orders as provided in section 10 (e) and (f), and take appeals either by writ of error or on petition for certiorari to the Supreme Court: Provided, however, That the General Counsel will initiate and conduct injunction proceedings under section 10 (j) or under section 10 (e) and (f) of the act and contempt proceedings pertaining to the enforcement of or compliance with any order of the Board only upon approval of the Board, and will initiate and conduct appeals to the Supreme Court by writ of error or on petition for certiorari when authorized by the Board.

C. Representation and other election cases. The General Counsel of the Board is authorized and has responsibility, on behalf of the Board, to receive and process, in accordance with the decisions of the Board and with such instructions and rules and regulations as may be issued by the Board from time to time, all petitions filed pursuant to section 9 of the National Labor Relations Act as amended. He is also authorized and has responsibility to conduct secret ballots pursuant to section 209 (b) of the Labor Management Relations Act of 1947, whenever the Board is required to do so by law; and to enter into consent election agreements in accordance with section 9 (c) (4) of the act.

The authority and responsibility of the General Counsel of the Board in representation cases shall extend, in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Board, to all phases of the investigation through the conclusion of the hearing provided for in section 9 (c) and section 9 (e) (if a hearing should be necessary to resolve disputed issues), but all matters involving decisional action after such hearing are reserved by the Board to itself.

In the event a direction of election should issue by the Board, the authority and responsibility of the General Counsel, as herein prescribed, shall attach to the conduct of the ordered election, the initial determination of the validity of challenges and objections to the conduct of the election and other similar matters; except that if appeals shall be taken from the General Counsel's action on the validity of challenges and objections, such appeals will be directed to and decided by the Board in accordance with such procedural requirements as it shall prescribe. If challenged ballots would not affect the election results and if no objections are filed within five days after the conduct of a Board-directed election under the provisions of section 9 (c) of the act, the General Counsel is authorized and has responsibility, on behalf of the Board, to certify to the parties the results of the election in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Board.

Appeals from the refusal of the General Counsel of the Board to issue a notice of hearing on any petition, or from the dismissal by the General Counsel of any petition, will be directed to and decided by the Board, in accordance with such procedural requirements as it may prescribe.

In processing election petitions filed pursuant to section 9 (e) of the act, the General Counsel of the Board is authorized and has responsibility, on behalf of the Board, to conduct an appropriate investigation as to the authenticity of the 30 percent showing referred to and, upon making his determination to proceed, to conduct a secret ballot. If there are no challenges or objections which require a hearing by the Board, he shall certify the results thereof as provided for in such section, with appropriate copies lodged in the Washington files of the Board.

D. Jurisdictional dispute cases. The General Counsel of the Board is authorized and has responsibility, on behalf of the Board, to perform all functions necessary to the accomplishment of the provisions of section 10 (k) of the act, but in connection therewith the Board will, at the request of the General Counsel, assign to him for the purpose of conducting the hearing provided for therein, one of its staff Trial Examiners. This authority and responsibility and the assignment of the Trial Examiner to the General Counsel shall terminate with the close of the hearing. Thereafter the Board will assume full jurisdiction over the matter for the purpose of deciding the issues in such hearing on the record made and subsequent hearings or related proceedings and will also rule upon any appeals.

II. Internal regulations. Procedural and operational regulations for the conduct of the internal business of the Board within the area that is under the supervision and direction of the General Counsel of the Board may be prepared and promulgated by the General Counsel.

III. State agreements. When authorized by the Board, the General Counsel may initiate and conduct discussions and negotiations, on behalf of the Board, with appropriate authorities of any of the States or Territories looking to the consummation of agreements affecting any of the States or Territories as contemplated in section 10 (a) of the act: Provided, however, That in no event shall the Board be committed in any respect with regard to such discussions or negotiations or the entry into of any such agreement unless and until the Board and the General Counsel have joined with the appropriate authorities of the State or Territory affected in the execution of such agreement.

IV. Liaison with other governmental agencies. The General Counsel of the Board is authorized and has responsibility, on behalf of the Board, to maintain appropriate and adequate liaison and arrangements with the office of the Secretary of Labor, with reference to the reports required to be filed pursuant to section 9 (f) and (g) of the act and availability to the Board and the General Counsel of the contents thereof.

The General Counsel of the Board is authorized and has responsibility, on behalf of the Board, to maintain appropriate and adequate liaison with the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service and any other appropriate Governmental Agency with respect to functions which may be performed in connection with the provisions of section 209 (b) of the act. Any action taken pursuant to the authority and responsibility prescribed in this paragraph shall be promptly reported to the Board.

V. Anti-communist affidavits. The General Counsel of the Board is authorized and has responsibility, on behalf of the Board, to receive the affidavits required under section 9 (h) of the act, to maintain an appropriate and adequate file thereof, and to make available to the public, on such terms as he may prescribe, appropriate information concerning such affidavits, but not to make such files open to unsupervised inspection.

VI. Miscellaneous litigation involving board and/or officials. The General Counsel of the Board is authorized and has responsibility, on behalf of the Board, to appear in any court to represent the Board or any of its Members or agents, unless directed otherwise by the Board.

VII. Personnel. In order better to ensure the effective exercise of the duties and responsibilities described above, the General Counsel of the Board, subject to applicable laws and the rules and regulations of the Civil Service Commission, is authorized and has responsibility, on behalf of the Board, to select, appoint, retain, transfer, promote, demote, discipline, discharge, and take any other necessary and appropriate personnel action with regard to, all personnel engaged in the field offices and in the Washington office (other than Trial Examiners, Legal Assistants to Board Members, the personnel in the Information Division, the personnel in the Division of Administration, the Solicitor of the Board and personnel in his office, the Executive Secretary of the Board and personnel in his office, including the Docket, Order and Issuance Section, and secretarial, stenographic and clerical employees assigned exclusively to the work of trial examiners and the Board Members); provided, however, that no appointment, transfer, demotion or discharge of any Regional Director or Officer in Charge shall become effective except upon the approval of the Board.

In connection with and in order to effectuate the exercise of the powers herein delegated (but not with respect to those powers herein reserved to the Board), the General Counsel is authorized, using the services of the Division of Administration, to execute such necessary requests, certifications, and other related documents, on behalf of the Board, as may be needed from time to time to meet the requirements of the Civil Service Commission, the Bureau of the Budget, or any other governmental agency. The Board will at all times provide such of the "housekeeping" functions performed by the Division of Administration as are requested by the General Counsel for the conduct of his administrative business, so as to meet the stated requirements of the General Counsel within his statutory and prescribed functions.

The establishment, transfer or elimination of any Regional or Sub-Regional Office shall require the approval of the Board.

VIII. To the extent that the above-described duties, powers and authority rest by statute with the Board, the foregoing statement constitutes a prescription and assignment of such duties, powers and authority, whether or not so specified.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 70-3352]

CONSOLIDATED NATURAL GAS CO. AND EAST OHIO GAS CO.

ORDER WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED ACQUISITION BY SUBSIDIARY OF ASSETS OF NON-AFFILIATE, ASSUMPTION OF LIABILITIES BY SUBSIDIARY, ISSUANCE AND SALE OF COMMON STOCK BY PARENT AND SUBSIDIARY, AND ACQUISITION OF COMMON STOCK OF SUBSIDIARY BY PARENT

MARCH 31, 1955.

Consolidated Natural Gas Company ("Consolidated"), a registered holding company, and its wholly owned public-utility subsidiary, the East Ohio Gas Company ("East Ohio"), have filed a joint application-declaration and an amendment thereto with this Commission pursuant to sections 6 (b), 7, 9 (a), 10, and 12 (f) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") and Rule U-43 promulgated thereunder regarding the following proposed transactions:

Under the provisions of an Agreement and Plan of Reorganization dated February 25, 1955 among Consolidated, East Ohio and the Lake County Gas Company ("Lake County"), a non-affiliate, all of the assets of Lake County are to be acquired by East Ohio in consideration for shares of capital stock of Consolidated and the assumption by East Ohio of the liabilities of Lake County. The agreed value of such shares of Consolidated stock and the liabilities of Lake County as at December 31, 1954 aggregated $1,266,988. East Ohio will issue additional shares of its capital stock to Consolidated. Upon the acquisition of the stock of Consolidated, Lake County will distribute the same to its shareholders and liquidate and dissolve.

Under said Agreement and Plan of Reorganization, Consolidated proposes to issue to Lake County 20,631 shares of capital stock. In arriving at this number of shares the parties to the Agreement agreed on a per-share value of $34.5591 for the capital stock of Consolidated, the aggregate value of such shares being $712,988. The assumed value of the shares of Consolidated is stated to be equal to the average price of such stock on the New York Stock Exchange for the month of January 1955. If the closing of the proposed purchase does not occur until after April 15, 1955, the number of shares of Consolidated stock to be issued will be increased to 20,855.

East Ohio will assume Lake County's liabilities on the date of closing which at December 31, 1954, consisted of $13,000 of net current liabilities and outstanding First Mortgage 5 percent Notes, in the principal amount of $541,000, which notes are secured by a real estate and chattel mortgage dated April 1, 1953, as supplemented and amended. East Ohio states that it expects to pay the First Mortgage 5 percent Notes promptly after consummation of the proposed transactions. In addition, East Ohio will issue to Consolidated 7,129 shares of the former's $100 par value common stock aggregating $712,900 but if the closing does not occur until after April 15, 1955, then East Ohio will issue 7,207 shares having an aggregate value of $720,700.

The Public Utilities Commission of Ohio has approved the proposed transactions by East Ohio and Lake County including the accounting therefor. According to the filing no other State Commission or Federal Commission other than this Commission has jurisdiction over the proposed transactions.

It is represented that the only fees, commissions and expenses to be incurred in connection with the proposed transactions will be the issue taxes on the stock to be issued by Consolidated and East Ohio which are estimated at $227 and $784, respectively, and a counsel fee to be paid by East Ohio not to exceed $1,000.

Applicants-declarants request that this Commission's order become effective upon issuance.

Due notice of filing of said application-declaration having been given pursuant to the provisions of Rule U-23 promulgated under the act, and no hearing having been requested of, or ordered by, the Commission; the Commission finding that the applicable provisions of the act and the rules thereunder are satisfied; and that said application-declaration as amended, should be granted and permitted to become effective forthwith:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, that said application-declaration, as amended, be, and the same hereby is, granted and permitted to become effective forthwith.

By the Commission.

ARKANSAS POWER & LIGHT CO.

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER PURSUANT TO RULE U-50 REGARDING SALE OF 93,500 SHARES OF PREFERRED STOCK

MARCH 31, 1955.

The Commission by order dated March 23, 1955 (Holding Company Act Release No. 12829), having granted and permitted to become effective the application-declaration of Arkansas Power & Light Company ("Arkansas"), a public-utility subsidiary of Middle South Utilities, Inc., a registered holding company, with respect to, among other things, the issuance by Arkansas of $18,000,000 principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds, 3⅜ percent Series due 1985, and 93,500 shares of a new series of Preferred Stock, $100 par value, and the offer to exchange such new shares of Preferred Stock for its presently outstanding shares of $7 Preferred Stock and $6 Preferred Stock, subject to the condition, among others, that the exchange and sale of the new series of Preferred Stock should not be consummated until the dividend rate and results of competitive bidding should have been filed with this Commission and a further order should have been issued in the light of the record so completed, which order might contain such further terms and conditions as might then be deemed appropriate, and also subject to a reservation of jurisdiction over the payment of all fees and expenses in connection with the proposed transactions; and

An amendment having been filed stating that Arkansas has fixed the dividend rate at 4.72 percent, and setting forth the action taken by Arkansas to comply with the requirements of Rule U-50, and stating that pursuant to the invitation for competitive bids for the undertaking to form and manage a group of security dealers to solicit exchanges of the $7 and the $6 Preferred Stock and to purchase any unexchanged shares of the new series of Preferred Stock, the following bids have been received:

Name of representative(s):	Aggregate compensation
Equitable Securities Corp. and Union Securities Corp	$36,465.00
White, Weld & Co	43,851.50
Blyth & Co., Inc., and Smith, Barney & Co	55,071.50
Lehman Bros	60,000.00

Said amendment to the application-declaration also setting forth that Arkansas has accepted the bid of Equitable Securities Corporation and Union Securities Corporation, resulting in a gross underwriting spread of 39 cents per share applicable to the new series of Preferred Stock; and

The Commission having examined said amendment and having considered the record herein and finding no reason for the imposition of additional terms and conditions with respect to the dividend rate or to the results of competitive bidding for said new series of Preferred Stock; and

It further appearing that the estimated fees and expenses (exclusive of underwriters' compensation and fees payable to soliciting dealers) in connection with the sale of the Bonds and Preferred Stock are as follows:

Federal stamp taxes:
Bonds	$19,800
Preferred stock	10,285
		$30,085
Filing fees, Securities and Exchange Commission:
Bonds	1,849.50
Preferred stock	1,028.50
		2,878
Mortgage recording fees		$2,500
Fees of trustee		10,000
Fees of exchange agents		10,000
Fees of transfer agent and registrar		3,000
Fees of bond redemption agent		5,000
Auditors' fees (Haskins & Sells)		4,000
Printing, including Form S-9, prospectuses, etc		22,000
Printing and engraving securities		6,500
Charges of Ebasco Services, Inc		7,500
Miscellaneous expenses:
Reid & Priest		200
Haskins & Sells		400
Ebasco Services, Inc		475
Other (including Blue Sky)		8,762
Fees of Company's counsel:
Reid & Priest		15,000
House, Moses & Holmes		7,500
		135,800

It further appearing that the fee of White & Case, counsel for the successful bidders, is estimated at $13,000, and their expenses, at $200, of which amounts $7,000 for fees and $100 for expenses will be paid by the successful bidders for the Bonds and $6,000 for fees and $100 for expenses will be paid by the successful bidders for the Preferred Stock; and

The Commission finding that such fees and expenses as set forth above, if they do not exceed the estimates, are not unreasonable and that the jurisdiction with respect thereto should be released:

It is ordered, That the jurisdiction heretofore reserved with respect to the dividend rate, the results of competitive bidding, and the fees and expenses be, and the same hereby is, released.

By the Commission.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

[Notice 54]

MOTOR CARRIER APPLICATIONS

APRIL 1, 1955.

Protests, consisting of an original and two copies, to the granting of an application must be filed with the Commission within 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER and a copy of such protest served on the applicant. Each protest must clearly state the name and street number, city and state address of each protestant on behalf of whom the protest is filed (49 CFR 1.240 and 1.241). Failure to seasonably file a protest will be construed as a waiver of opposition and participation in the proceeding unless an oral hearing is held. In addition to other requirements of Rule 40 of the general rules of practice of the Commission (49 CFR 1.40), protests shall include a request for a public hearing, if one is desired, and shall specify with particularity the facts, matters and things, relied upon, but shall not include issues or allegations phrased generally. Protests containing general allegations may be rejected. Requests for an oral hearing must be supported by an explanation as to why the evidence cannot be submitted in the form of affidavits. Any interested person, not a protestant, desiring to receive notice of the time and place of any hearing, prehearing conference, taking of depositions, or other proceedings shall notify the Commission by letter or telegram within 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Except when circumstances require immediate action, an application for approval, under section 210a (b) of the act, of the temporary operation of motor carrier properties sought to be acquired in an application under section 5 (2) will not be disposed of sooner than 10 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. If a protest is received prior to action being taken, it will be considered.

Y., serving certain intermediate and off-route points, between Baltimore, Md., and Scranton, Pa., serving no intermediate points; general commodities, with certain exceptions, including household goods, over irregular routes, from, to, and between numerous points in New York. Eastern Freight Ways, Inc., is authorized to operate in New Jersey, New York, Vermont and Pennsylvania. Application has been filed for temporary authority under section 210a (b).

CORRECTION

The notice of filing of MC–F–5940, appearing on page 1601 of March 16, 1955 issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER should be corrected to show that Buch Express, Inc., in lieu of Zeno Bros., Trucking Co., Inc., is authorized to operate in Pennsylvania, Maryland, New York, New Jersey, Virginia, Delaware and the District of Columbia.

STEEL ROOFING OR SHEATHING BETWEEN IN OFFICIAL TERRITORY

APPLICATION FOR RELIEF

APRIL 1, 1955.

The Commission is in receipt of the above-entitled and numbered application for relief from the long-and-short-haul provision of section 4 (1) of the Interstate Commerce Act.

Filed by: H. R. Hinsch, Agent, for carriers parties to his tariff schedule listed below.

Commodities involved: Roofing or sheathing, steel, asbestos and asphalt coated, carloads.

Between: Points in trunk-line, central and New England territories, and between points in the latter territories, on the one hand, and certain points in Illinois territory, on the other.

Grounds for relief: Circuitous routes, rates constructed on the basis of the short line distance formula, and competitive with asbestos roofing or sheathing.

Schedules filed containing proposed rates: H. R. Hinsch, Agent, I. C. C. 4607, supp. 17.

Any interested person desiring the Commission to hold a hearing upon such application shall request the Commission in writing so to do within 15 days from the date of this notice. As provided by the general rules of practice of the Commission, Rule 73, persons other than applicants should fairly disclose their interest, and the position they intend to take at the hearing with respect to the application. Otherwise the Commission, in its discretion, may proceed to investigate and determine the matters involved in such application without further or formal hearing. If because of an emergency a grant of temporary relief is found to be necessary before the expiration of the 15-day period, a hearing, upon a request filed within that period, may be held subsequently.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter II—Civil Aeronautics Administration, Department of Commerce

[Amdt. 137]

PART 609—STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURES

PROCEDURE ALTERATIONS

The standard instrument approach procedure alterations appearing hereinafter are adopted to become effective when indicated in order to promote safety. Compliance with the notice, procedures, and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act would be impracticable and contrary to the public interest, and therefore is not required.

Part 609 is amended as follows:

NOTE: Where the general classification (LFR, VAR, ADF, ILS, GCA or VOR), location, and procedure number (if any) of any procedure in the amendments which follow, are identical with an existing procedure, that procedure is to be substituted for the existing one, as of the effective date given, to the extent that it differs from the existing procedure; where a procedure is canceled, the existing procedure is revoked; new procedures are to be placed in appropriate alphabetical sequence within the section amended.

1. The low frequency range procedures prescribed in § 609.6 are amended to read in part:

LFR STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURE

Bearings, headings, and courses are magnetic. Distances are in statute miles unless otherwise indicated. Elevations and altitudes are in feet, MSL. Ceilings are in feet above airport elevation. If an ILS, radar, or timed approach is conducted in accordance with a different procedure authorized by the Administrator for Civil Aeronautics for such airport, initial approaches shall be made over specified routes. Minimum altitude(s) shall correspond with those established for en route operation in the particular area or as set forth below.

NOTE: ADF procedure not authorized.

2. The automatic direction finding procedures prescribed in § 609.8 are amended to read in part:

ADF STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURE

Bearings, headings, and courses are magnetic. Distances are in statute miles unless otherwise indicated. Elevations and altitudes are in feet, MSL. Ceilings are in feet above airport elevation.
If an ADF instrument approach is conducted at the below named airport, it shall be in accordance with the following instrument approach procedure, unless an approach is conducted in accordance with a different procedure authorized by the Administrator for Civil Aeronautics for such airport. Initial approaches shall be made over specified routes. Minimum altitude(s) shall correspond with those established for en route operation in the particular area or as set forth below.

TITLE 15—COMMERCE AND FOREIGN TRADE

Chapter III—Bureau of Foreign Commerce, Department of Commerce

Subchapter B—Export Regulations

[7th Gen. Rev. of Export Regs., Amdt. 24]

PART 373—LICENSING POLICIES AND RELATED SPECIAL PROVISIONS

PART 380—AMENDMENTS, EXTENSIONS, TRANSFERS

1. Section 373.41 Nonferrous commodities, including ores, concentrates, or unrefined products is amended in the following particulars:

a. Paragraphs (b) Containing radium, (c) Nonferrous metal alloys, (e) Nickel alloy and nickel-bearing cobalt scrap, (g) Refined copper, copper scrap and copper-base alloy scrap are redesignated respectively as paragraphs (a), (b), (c), and (d).

b. Paragraph (d), as redesignated, is amended in the following particulars:

The title of the paragraph is amended to read: "Refined copper, copper scrap, copper-base alloy scrap and copper-base alloy ingots and other crude forms."

Subparagraph (1) General is amended to read as follows:

(1) General. License applications to export refined copper in cathodes, billets, ingots, wire bars and other crude forms (including anodes but excluding copperweld rods), Schedule B No. 641200 (hereinafter referred to as refined copper); copper scrap (new and old), Schedule B No. 641300; copper-base alloy scrap (new and old), Schedule B No. 644000; and copper-base alloy ingots and other crude forms, Schedule B No. 644100, will be considered for approval in accordance with the procedures described below.

Subparagraph (2) Refined copper, Schedule B No. 641200 remains unchanged.

Subparagraph (3) Copper scrap and copper-base alloy scrap is amended to read as follows:

(3) Copper scrap, copper-base alloy scrap and copper-base alloy ingots and other crude forms. (i) License applications to export copper scrap (new and old), Schedule B No. 641300, copper-base alloy scrap (new and old), Schedule B No. 644000 and copper-base alloy ingots and other crude forms, Schedule B No. 644100, shall identify the foreign consumer by use of one of the applicable statements shown in subparagraph (d) (2) (iii) above and shall include the applicable certification of availability for export shown in subparagraph (d) (2) (ii) above. In addition, in order that the Bureau of Foreign Commerce may provide an equitable basis for distributing available export quotas for these materials applicants are required to submit to the Bureau of Foreign Commerce a Statement of Past Participation in Exports of these commodities on Form IT– or FC–821 in accordance with the procedure set forth in § 373.4. A separate report on Form IT– or FC–821 shall be filed for each Schedule B number and broken down by countries of destination and shall cover the quantity in Schedule B units of exports from the United States made during the fourth calendar quarter of 1953 and the calendar year 1954, where the total for such exports to all countries for each Schedule B number was $5,000 or over for the five quarters. In preparing Form IT–or FC–821 the heading above items (c) and and (d) shall be changed to read "4th quarter 1953" and the heading above items (e) and (f) shall read "calendar year 1954."

(ii) In order that license applications for the exportation of copper-base alloy ingots and other crude forms, Schedule B No. 644100 may be considered against the available export quotas established for the period ending June 30, 1955, Form IT– or FC–821 must be submitted to the Bureau of Foreign Commerce not later than April 22, 1955.

SECOND QUARTER OF 1955 [1]

Dept. of Commerce Schedule B No.	Commodity	Submission dates, second quarter, 1955
641300	Copper scrap (new and old)	Before June 1, 1955
644000	Copper-base alloy scrap (new and old)
644100	Copper-base alloy ingots and other crude forms

[1] Applications for licenses to export commodities for which no specified filing dates are announced may be submitted at any time (see § 372.5 (c)). Export applications for commodities requiring a validated license when moving in transit through the United States may be submitted at any time and are not subject to specified filing dates (see Note following § 372.6 (d)).

(iii) License applications covering copper-base alloy scrap (new and old), Schedule B No. 644000, shall include the copper content of the scrap.

Subparagraphs (4) Validity period and (5) Amendments to export licenses remain unchanged.

A new subparagraph (6) is added to read as follows:

(6) Time for submission of applications. Applications for licenses to export copper scrap (new and old), Schedule B No. 641300, copper-base alloy scrap (new and old), Schedule B No. 644000 and copper-base alloy ingots and other crude forms, Schedule B No. 644100, shall be submitted in accordance with the time schedules set forth in § 373.71.

2. Section 373.71 Supplement 1; Time schedules for submission of applications for licenses to export certain Positive List commodities is amended to read as follows:

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION

[10 CFR Part 80]

GENERAL RULES OF PROCEDURE ON APPLICATIONS FOR DETERMINATION OF REASONABLE ROYALTY FEE, JUST COMPENSATION, OR GRANT OF AWARD FOR PATENTS, INVENTIONS OR DISCOVERIES

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Pursuant to the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 (P. L. 703, 83d Congress; 68 Stat. 947 ff) and to section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedures Act of 1946 (P. L. 404, 79th Congress) and in accordance with § 80.5 of Title 10, Chapter I, Part 80, Code of Federal Regulations, entitled "General Rules of Procedure on Applications for Determination of Reasonable Royalty Fee, Just Compensation or Grant of Award for Patents, Inventions or Discoveries", promulgated on June 18, 1948 and published in Volume 13, No. 91, Pages 2487 et seq. of the FEDERAL REGISTER for May 8, 1948, as amended February 1, 1953 (18 F. R. 619) proposed changes in the general rules are set forth hereunder.

A. Section 80.1 is to be revised to read as follows:

§ 80.1 Scope of part. The regulations in this part provide the rules of procedure to be followed by any person making application to the Atomic Energy Commission for the determination of a reasonable royalty fee, just compensation, or the grant of an award,

TITLE 15—COMMERCE AND FOREIGN TRADE

Chapter III—Bureau of Foreign Commerce, Department of Commerce

Subchapter B—Export Regulations

[7th Gen. Rev. of Export Regs., Amdt. 24]

PART 373—LICENSING POLICIES AND RELATED SPECIAL PROVISIONS

PART 380—AMENDMENTS, EXTENSIONS, TRANSFERS

1. Section 373.41 Nonferrous commodities, including ores, concentrates, or unrefined products is amended in the following particulars:

a. Paragraphs (b) Containing radium, (c) Nonferrous metal alloys, (e) Nickel alloy and nickel-bearing cobalt scrap, (g) Refined copper, copper scrap and copper-base alloy scrap are redesignated respectively as paragraphs (a), (b), (c), and (d).

b. Paragraph (d), as redesignated, is amended in the following particulars:

The title of the paragraph is amended to read: "Refined copper, copper scrap, copper-base alloy scrap and copper-base alloy ingots and other crude forms."

Subparagraph (1) General is amended to read as follows:

(1) General. License applications to export refined copper in cathodes, billets, ingots, wire bars and other crude forms (including anodes but excluding copperweld rods), Schedule B No. 641200 (hereinafter referred to as refined copper); copper scrap (new and old), Schedule B No. 641300; copper-base alloy scrap (new and old), Schedule B No. 644000; and copper-base alloy ingots and other crude forms, Schedule B No. 644100, will be considered for approval in accordance with the procedures described below.

Subparagraph (2) Refined copper, Schedule B No. 641200 remains unchanged.

Subparagraph (3) Copper scrap and copper-base alloy scrap is amended to read as follows:

(3) Copper scrap, copper-base alloy scrap and copper-base alloy ingots and other crude forms. (i) License applications to export copper scrap (new and old), Schedule B No. 641300, copper-base alloy scrap (new and old), Schedule B No. 644000 and copper-base alloy ingots and other crude forms, Schedule B No. 644100, shall identify the foreign consumer by use of one of the applicable statements shown in subparagraph (d) (2) (iii) above and shall include the applicable certification of availability for export shown in subparagraph (d) (2) (ii) above. In addition, in order that the Bureau of Foreign Commerce may provide an equitable basis for distributing available export quotas for these materials applicants are required to submit to the Bureau of Foreign Commerce a Statement of Past Participation in Exports of these commodities on Form IT– or FC–821 in accordance with the procedure set forth in § 373.4. A separate report on Form IT– or FC–821 shall be filed for each Schedule B number and broken down by countries of destination and shall cover the quantity in Schedule B units of exports from the United States made during the fourth calendar quarter of 1953 and the calendar year 1954, where the total for such exports to all countries for each Schedule B number was $5,000 or over for the five quarters. In preparing Form IT–or FC–821 the heading above items (c) and and (d) shall be changed to read "4th quarter 1953" and the heading above items (e) and (f) shall read "calendar year 1954."

(ii) In order that license applications for the exportation of copper-base alloy ingots and other crude forms, Schedule B No. 644100 may be considered against the available export quotas established for the period ending June 30, 1955, Form IT– or FC–821 must be submitted to the Bureau of Foreign Commerce not later than April 22, 1955.

(iii) License applications covering copper-base alloy scrap (new and old), Schedule B No. 644000, shall include the copper content of the scrap.

Subparagraphs (4) Validity period and (5) Amendments to export licenses remain unchanged.

A new subparagraph (6) is added to read as follows:

(6) Time for submission of applications. Applications for licenses to export copper scrap (new and old), Schedule B No. 641300, copper-base alloy scrap (new and old), Schedule B No. 644000 and copper-base alloy ingots and other crude forms, Schedule B No. 644100, shall be submitted in accordance with the time schedules set forth in § 373.71.

2. Section 373.71 Supplement 1; Time schedules for submission of applications for licenses to export certain Positive List commodities is amended to read as follows:

SECOND QUARTER OF 1955 [1]

Dept. of Commerce Schedule B No.	Commodity	Submission dates, second quarter, 1955

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION

[10 CFR Part 80]

GENERAL RULES OF PROCEDURE ON APPLICATIONS FOR DETERMINATION OF REASONABLE ROYALTY FEE, JUST COMPENSATION, OR GRANT OF AWARD FOR PATENTS, INVENTIONS OR DISCOVERIES

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Pursuant to the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 (P. L. 703, 83d Congress; 68 Stat. 947 ff) and to section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedures Act of 1946 (P. L. 404, 79th Congress) and in accordance with § 80.5 of Title 10, Chapter I, Part 80, Code of Federal Regulations, entitled "General Rules of Procedure on Applications for Determination of Reasonable Royalty Fee, Just Compensation or Grant of Award for Patents, Inventions or Discoveries", promulgated on June 18, 1948 and published in Volume 13, No. 91, Pages 2487 et seq. of the FEDERAL REGISTER for May 8, 1948, as amended February 1, 1953 (18 F. R. 619) proposed changes in the general rules are set forth hereunder.

A. Section 80.1 is to be revised to read as follows:

§ 80.1 Scope of part. The regulations in this part provide the rules of procedure to be followed by any person making application to the Atomic Energy Commission for the determination of a reasonable royalty fee, just compensation, or the grant of an award, and for the consideration of such applications pursuant to section 157 of chapter 13 of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 (68 Stat. 947; 42 U. S. C. 2187) and section 173 of chapter 15 of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 (68 Stat. 953; 42 U. S. C. 2223).

B. Paragraph (b) of § 80.2 is to be revised to read as follows:

(b) "Board" shall mean the Patent Compensation Board designated by the Commission pursuant to subsection (a) of section 157 of chapter 13 of the act.

C. Section 80.4 is to be revised to read as follows:

§ 80.4 Security. In any proceeding under the regulations in this part, the Commission may issue any general or specific order, directive, or further regulation which it determines to be appropriate pursuant to chapter 12 of the act to assure the common defense and security.

D. Section 80.10 (a), (b) and (c) is to be revised to read as follows:

§ 80.10 Applicants. (a) Any person claiming just compensation for any patent revoked in whole or in part by paragraphs (a) and (b) of section 151 of the act may file an application for just compensation.

(b) Any owner of a patent licensed under section 158 or subsections 153 (b) or 153 (e) or any patent licensee thereunder may file an application for the determination of a reasonable royalty fee.

(c) Any person making any invention or discovery useful in the production or utilization of special nuclear material or atomic energy, who is not entitled to compensation or royalty therefor under this act, and who has complied with the provisions of section 151 (c) thereof, may file an application for an award.

E. There is to be added to § 80.10 a new paragraph designated as (d) reading as follows:

(d) Any owner of a patent application that contains restricted data not belonging to the United States which the Commission has communicated to any foreign nation may make application for just compensation pursuant to section 173.

F. Section 80.11 (c) (3) is to be revised to read as follows:

(3) Form and content. In the case of an invention or discovery as to which a report has been filed with the Commission pursuant to subsection (c) of section 151 of chapter 13 of the act, a copy of such report.

G. There is to be added to § 80.11 (c) a new subparagraph designated as (9) reading as follows:

(9) In the case of an application for just compensation pursuant to section 173 the ownership of the invention that is the subject matter of the patent application at the time of the communication shall be set forth as well as the restricted data contained in said application specifically identified.

H. Section 80.21 is to be revised to read as follows:

§ 80.21 Recommendation for acquisition by purchase. At any time following the filing of an application and prior to final determination, the applicant may be requested in writing to meet with one or more members of the Commission staff to discuss the possibility of acquisition by purchase of the invention or discovery or patent or patent application, as the case may be. The time prescribed in § 80.22 for the filing of the response shall be extended by a time equivalent to any period in which negotiations are being conducted (beginning with the initial communication to the applicant and ending either with acceptance or rejection of a proposal or with a written communication by the applicant stating that negotiations are to be terminated).

I. There is to be added a new section designated as § 80.32 reading as follows:

§ 80.32 Interrogatories by the Board. The Board in its discretion may submit to either party interrogatories for the purpose of eliciting and placing upon the record any facts which the Board considers relevant to the consideration and disposition of the application, and may require answers to these interrogatories to be made under oath. The interrogatories and answers thereto shall become part of the record.

J. There is to be added to § 80.50 a new paragraph designated as (c) reading as follows:

(c) In the event that the application and any response filed by the Office of the General Counsel, and any answers to interrogatories which may be submitted to the applicant by the Board under § 80.32 disclose that the application does not present a basis for the payment of just compensation, the determination of a reasonable royalty fee, or the grant of an award, the Board may prepare and serve upon the parties its proposed findings and proposed determination with a statement of the reasons or basis therefor, with a notice that the proposed findings and proposed determination will be entered unless the applicant or Office of the General Counsel, within thirty (30) days after receipt of the notice, requests a hearing upon the application. If a hearing is requested under this section, the hearing prescribed in § 80.40 shall be ordered by the Board. If no hearing is requested in response to the notice of the proposal to enter the proposed findings and proposed determination, the order of the Board shall be entered.

Interested persons are hereby given an opportunity to submit their views or other relevant information with respect to the proposed changes in the Rules in writing to the Atomic Energy Commission, Washington 25, D. C., Attention: Chief, Patent Branch, Office of the General Counsel, within thirty (30) days from the date of publication of this Notice of Intention in the daily issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Dated at Washington, D. C., this 30th day of March 1955.

K. D. NICHOLS,
General Manager.

CLASS B FM BROADCAST STATIONS

REVISED TENTATIVE ALLOCATION PLAN

In the matter of amendment of the Revised Tentative Allocation Plan for Class B FM Broadcast Stations; Docket No. 11329.

1. Notice is hereby given of further proposed rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. It is proposed to amend the Revised Tentative Allocation Plan for Class B FM Broadcast Stations in the following manner:

General area	Channels
	Delete	Add
Jackson, Tenn.	284	281
Memphis, Tenn.	282

3. The purpose of the proposed amendment is to provide a Class B channel in Jackson, Tennessee, thereby facilitating consideration of a pending application from station WTJS-FM to change its channel assignment to eliminate television interference in the Jackson area from its present operations.

4. Authority for the adoption of the proposed amendment is contained in sections 4 (i), 301, 303 (c), (d), (f), and (r), and 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

5. Any interested party who is of the opinion that the proposed amendment should not be adopted or should not be adopted in the form set forth herein, may file with the Commission on or before April 29, 1955, a written statement or brief setting forth his comments. Comments in support of the proposed amendment also may be filed on or before the same date. Comments or briefs in reply to the original comments may be filed within 10 days from the last day for filing said original comments or briefs. The Commission will consider all such comments that are submitted before taking action in this matter, and if any comments appear to warrant the holding of a hearing or oral argument, notice of the time and place of such hearing or oral argument will be given.

6. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.764 of the Commission's rules and regulations, an original and 14 copies of all statements, briefs, or comments shall be furnished the Commission.

Adopted: March 30, 1955.

Released: April 1, 1955.

CLASS B FM BROADCAST STATIONS

REVISED TENTATIVE ALLOCATION PLAN

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 30th day of March 1955;

The Commission having under consideration a proposal to amend the Revised Tentative Allocation Plan for Class B FM Broadcast Stations; and

It appearing, that notice of proposed rule making (FCC 55-225) setting forth the above amendment was issued by the Commission on February 17, 1955 and was duly published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (20 F. R. 1156), which notice provided that interested parties might file statements or briefs with respect to the said amendment on or before March 18, 1955; and

It further appearing, that no comments were received either favoring or opposing the adoption of the proposed reallocation;

It further appearing, that the immediate adoption of the proposed reallocation would facilitate consideration of a pending application requesting a Class B assignment in Norton, Virginia;

It further appearing, that authority for the adoption of the proposed amendment is contained in sections 4 (i), 301, 303 (c), (d), (f), and (r), and 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended;

It is ordered, That effective immediately, the Revised Tentative Allocation Plan for Class B FM Broadcast Stations is amended as follows in respect to the two following cities:

TELEVISION BROADCAST STATIONS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

In the matter of amendment of the Commission's rules and regulations governing television broadcast stations to permit the operation of co-channel amplifying transmitters in conjunction with the main transmitter; Docket No. 11331.

1. Notice is hereby given of proposed rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. The Commission has been concerned with how it can best insure the fullest development of the television industry's potentialities in line with the needs and desires of the American public and the abilities and ingenuity of the American broadcasters. The Commission has noted in this connection that there are substantial obstacles presently hindering the bringing of a first television service to many small communities as well as the expanding of multiple, competing services in larger economic and population centers. One of the major obstacles is the failure of UHF stations, thus far, to become fully integrated with established VHF stations into an economically sound, nation-wide television service. The Commission noted in its recent Preliminary Report on the UHF matter to the Senate Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce that the Commission has taken, and is contemplating, a number of specific actions calculated to enhance the potentialities for television's growth within the existing allocation system. The Commission expressed its view that the only practicable course of action lies in doing what is possible to promote the present allocation plan utilizing both VHF and UHF channels.

3. It has become apparent that, as compared with VHF, the signals from UHF transmitters have less tendency to fill in areas which are not in direct line of sight with the transmitting antenna. Consequently, there are areas which, although lying within the area that would normally be served by a UHF station, are effectively "shadowed" by intervening terrain and are thereby deprived of service. One means of providing UHF television coverage in such shadow areas may be the use of amplifying transmitters operating on the same channel as the main transmitter and dependent upon the main transmitter for the generation of carrier frequencies and modulation.[1] The Commission's rules and regulations do not presently authorize the operation of amplifying transmitters. The purpose of this proceeding is to determine whether such operation would present a feasible means for increasing the effective coverage of UHF stations by filling in shadow areas within the stations' service area; and whether the Commission should amend its Rules to authorize such operation.

4. For the purpose of this Notice, the term "amplifying transmitter" will denote a small transmitter operating on the same channel as the main transmitter and dependent on the main transmitter for the generation of carrier frequencies and modulation. The amplifying transmitters would have different operating requirements from the main transmitter and would be tailored to serve a particular restricted area. The term "station" encompasses both the main transmitter and one or more amplifying transmitters.

5. During recent years, a number of experimental operations have been conducted for the purpose of obtaining data with respect to the technical operation of amplifying transmitters operating in conjunction with the main UHF transmitter of a television station, and the results of these tests have been made available to the Commission. Radio Corporation of America has conducted such experiments utilizing UHF Station WJTV on Channel 25 at Jackson, Mississippi, as the main station. This station was purported to be having trouble covering the entire city of Vicksburg, Mississippi, located some 35 miles from Jackson and shielded by a ridge of hills. RCA concludes on the basis of its experimentation that there are no major difficulties involved in the operation of amplifying transmitters as a means of providing better coverage in weak signal areas. Adler Communications Laboratories, Inc. has experimented successfully with a UHF amplifying transmitter in the city of Waterbury, Connecticut, and Sylvania Electric Products, Inc. has conducted successful tests with UHF amplifying transmitters in Emporium, Pennsylvania. WSM, Inc. has contributed extensively to the general knowledge on the subject as a result of similar experimentation on the VHF frequencies.[2]

6. The Radio - Electronics - Television Manufacturers Association (RETMA) has established a Committee to study this general problem and has submitted an Interim Report to the Commission. The RETMA Report states that it is the Committee's opinion that improved and extended coverage can be achieved by means of amplifying transmitters without causing objectionable interference to either the normal service rendered by the main station, or to the service area of other co-channel or adjacent-channel stations authorized in accordance with the Table of Assignments set out in § 3.606 of the rules.

7. The Commission is of the view that the institution of rule-making proceedings looking toward the authorization of amplifying transmitters operating in conjunction with the main transmitter of a UHF television station is now warranted. The Commission desires that all interested parties submit comments to the Commission with respect to this problem in order that it may have the benefit of such views prior to taking further action in this matter.

8. The Commission desires that the comments submitted in the proceeding present information and data with respect to the following aspects of amplifying transmitter operation:

(a) Complete technical data with respect to amplifying transmitters and associated equipment and operation, including full information as to the complexity and dependability of amplifiers, antennas, etc.

(b) Data with respect to the extent, if any, of the degradation caused by operation of amplifying transmitters on color or monochrome signals and what changes, additions or deletions would be required in the Commission's rules to establish minimum separations (1) between the amplifying transmitters and the main transmitters; (2) between amplifying transmitters of the same main station; (3) between amplifying transmitters of different main stations, both co-channel and adjacent channel; and (4) between amplifying transmitters of one station and the transmitters of a station not having amplifying transmitters.

(c) Data relating to the cost of equipment for such operation, including installation and maintenance.

(d) Information with respect to the technical specifications required to assure that only the authorized television channel would be amplified by the amplifying transmitters.

(e) Information as to the technical specifications required to assure linear rebroadcast of the signal and to protect against the radiation of spurious signals resulting from internal cross modulation or self oscillation.

(f) Information with respect to plans and proposals of interested persons who intend to engage in such operation.

(g) What hours of operation should be required of amplifying transmitters?

(h) Whether amplifying transmitters should be permitted to operate unattended; and if so, under what conditions?

(i) What is the maximum distance from the main transmiter that amplifying transmitters should be permitted?

(j) What minimum power and antenna height requirements should be established for amplifying transmitter operation?

(k) What requirements should be provided for station identification of amplifying transmitters?

(l) Whether amplifying transmitters should be required to maintain a minimum field strength over a specific area?

(m) Whether amplifying transmitters should be required, or permitted, to employ vertical polarization?

(n) Whether (1) the number of amplifying transmitters should be limited in any particular area; (2) the number of amplifying transmitters operating in conjunction with a particular main station should be limited; and (3) whether and by what manner the rules governing multiple ownership of television broadcast stations should apply to the operation of such amplifying transmitters?

(o) Whether any technical standards prescribed by the rules should be amended for such operation, and how the standards should be so amended?

8. Authority for the issuance of the instant Notice is contained in sections 4 (i), 301, 303 (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), (p) and (r) and 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

9. Any interested person who is of the view that the proposal herein should not be adopted may file with the Commission on or before May 20, 1955, written data, views, or arguments setting forth his comments. Comments in support of the proposal may also be filed on or before the same date. Comments or briefs in reply to such original comments as may be submitted should be filed within 20 days from the last day for filing said original comments or briefs. No additional comments may be filed unless (1) specifically requested by the Commission or (2) good cause for filing such additional comments is established. The Commission will consider all such additional comments submitted before taking further action in this matter, and if any comments appear to warrant the holding of a hearing, oral argument, or demonstration, notice of the time and place of such hearing, oral argument or demonstration will be given.

10. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.764 of the Commission's rules and regulations, an original and 14 copies of all statements, briefs or comments shall be furnished the Commission.

Adopted: March 30, 1955.

Released: March 31, 1955.

TELEVISION BROADCAST STATIONS

TABLE OF ASSIGNMENTS

1. Notice is hereby given that the Commission has received a proposal for rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. The Commission has before it for consideration the request of two UHF broadcasters in Peoria, Illinois, for rule making to remove the intermixture of commercial VHF and UHF assignments from Peoria. Four television channels are assigned to Peoria—VHF Channel 8 and UHF Channels 19, 37 and 43—with Channel 37 reserved for noncommercial educational use. West Central Broadcasting Company operates UHF Station WEEK-TV on Channel 43 and Hilltop Broadcasting Company operates UHF Station WTVH-TV on Channel 19. No applications have been filed for Channel 37, the educational frequency. Two applications have been filed for the sole VHF channel in Peoria, Channel 8, by WIRL Television Company and WMBD, Inc.; and these mutually exclusive applications are involved in a comparative hearing. The record in the Channel 8 proceeding has been closed, and an Initial Decision was issued on November 15, 1954.

3. On September 21, 1954, West Central Broadcasting Company (WEEK-TV) and Hilltop Broadcasting Company (WTVH-TV) filed a joint petition requesting rule making to amend the Table of Assignments by reserving VHF Channel 8 in Peoria for noncommercial educational use in place of UHF Channel 37; or, in the alternative, by deleting Channel 8 from Peoria and substituting Channel 31, 78 or 82, Channel 8 being shifted to some other community. Oppositions to the above petition were filed by WIRL Television Company and WMBD, Inc., the two applicants for Channel 8. On November 4, 1954, the Commission issued a Memorandum Opinion and Order (FCC 54-1386) denying the petitioner's request for rule making.

4. On December 3, 1954, West Central Broadcasting Company and Hilltop Broadcasting Company filed a Petition for Reconsideration requesting that the Commission set saide its action denying their request and urging that rule making proceedings be instituted to achieve deintermixture in Peoria. Oppositions to the Petition for Reconsideration have been filed by WMBD, Inc., and WIRL Television Company.[1]

5. Upon reconsideration of our prior action, we have concluded that the public interest, convenience and necessity would be served by the institution of a rule making proceeding in this matter in order that we may afford all interested parties the opportunity of presenting their views to the Commission and that the Commission may have the benefit of such views prior to taking further action. We have therefore decided to institute a rule making proceeding in this matter inviting all interested parties to submit their comments on petitioners' proposal.

6. The Commission desires that the comments filed in this proceeding direct their attention and submit data, among other things, to the following matters:

(a) The Grade A and Grade B contours of the stations presently operating in Peoria, as well as the proposed Grade A and Grade B contours of the VHF applicants for Channel 8.

(b) The estimated number of families in Peoria and the surrounding area residing within the service ranges of both operating and potential television stations in Peoria. The information should specify the estimated number of families residing within the Grade A and Grade B contours of the stations and the estimated number of families beyond the Grade B contours capable of receiving a satisfactory signal. (The basis for indicating service beyond the Grade B contour should be specified.)

(c) The estimated total number of television receivers in Peoria and the surrounding area, including the percentage of sets capable of receiving UHF transmissions. This information should specify the number of sets within the Grade A and Grade B contours of the stations, and the number of sets beyond the Grade B contour that receive satisfactory transmissions from Peoria.

(d) Insofar as data may be available, the estimated percentage of time that set owners within the Grade B and Grade A service area of Peoria stations view VHF and UHF stations located outside Peoria, and the quality of the signal received. Information should also be submitted indicating the number and signal quality of any outside VHF or UHF services that may be expected to be received in Peoria and the surrounding area in accordance with the present assignment table.

(e) Data indicating whether, and to what extent, any areas and populations surrounding Peoria would lose potential commercial television service in the event Channel 8 is reserved for education in Peoria or is deleted from that community. Information should also be submitted indicating what other services are received in such areas, and to what extent other services may be expected to be received under the present assignment table.

(f) Information indicating whether Channel 8 can be used in another community in accordance with the Commission's rules and regulations if it is deleted from Peoria.

(g) Information with respect to television network relations in Peoria, including complete information as to present and proposed network affiliations; the extent of network programs currently received in Peoria on a regular basis; the terms of existing network contracts, including cancellation provisions; the prospects of UHF stations for continued network affiliation after authorization of a VHF station; prospective network affiliations in the event three commercial UHF and no commercial VHF stations are authorized in Peoria; the availability of program material and advertiser support for UHF stations in Peoria in the absence of network programs; and information indicating the impact on future sales of UHF-equipped receivers and UHF conversions in the event the UHF stations curtail transmission of network programs.

7. Authority for the issuance of this Notice is contained in sections 4 (i), 301, 303 (c), (d), (f) and (r), and 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

8. All interested parties desiring to submit their comments with respect to petitioners' proposal, both in support and in opposition, may file with the Commission on or before May 2, 1955, written statements or briefs setting forth their comments. Comments or briefs in reply to such original comments that are filed should be filed with the Commission within 10 days from the last day for filing original comments. No additional comments may be filed unless (1) specifically requested by the Commission, or (2) good cause for the filing of such additional comments is established. In accordance with § 1.764 of the rules, an original and 14 copies of all statements, briefs or comments should be submitted.

9. The Commission believes that subsequent to the filing of written comments in this proceeding, an oral argument before the Commission en banc would assist the Commission in reaching its final determination. Accordingly, the Commission will specify in a subsequent notice the time and place for such oral argument and the particular matters to which the oral argument will be directed.

Adopted: March 30, 1955.

Released: March 31, 1955.

TELEVISION BROADCAST STATIONS

TABLE OF ASSIGNMENTS

1. Notice is hereby given that the Commission has received a proposal for rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. The Commission has before it for consideration the request of two UHF broadcasters in the Evansville, Indiana area for rule making to remove intermixture of VHF and UHF assignments. Four television channels are assigned to Evansville—VHF Channel 7 and UHF Channels 50, 56 and 62—with Channel 56 reserved for non-commercial educational use. Premier Television, Inc., operates Station WFIE on Channel 62 in Evansville, and Ohio Valley Television Co. operates UHF Station WEHT on Channel 50 in Henderson, Kentucky, a community within 15 miles of Evansville. No applications have been filed for Channel 56, the educational assignment. Three applications have been filed for the sole VHF channel in Evansville, Channel 7, by Evansville Television, Inc., On The Air, Inc., and WFBM, Inc.; and these mutually exclusive applications are involved in a comparative hearing. The record in the Channel 7 proceeding was closed on March 23, 1954 and an Initial Decision was issued on October 6, 1954.

3. On October 20, 1954, Premier Television, Inc. (WFIE) and Ohio Valley Television Co. (WEHT) filed a joint petition requesting rule making to amend the table of assignments by shifting the educational reservation in Evansville from UHF Channel 56 to VHF Channel 7. Oppositions to the above petition were filed by the three applicants for VHF Channel 7—Evansville Television, Inc., On The Air, Inc., and WFBM, Inc. On January 11, 1955, the Commission issued a Memorandum Opinion and Order (FCC 55-7) denying the petitioners' request for rule making.

4. On February 4, 1955, Premier Television, Inc., and Ohio Valley Television Co. filed a Petition for Rehearing and Further Request for Rule Making requesting the Commission to rescind its prior action denying their request and urging that rule-making proceedings be instituted. In their Petition for Rehearing petitioners, in addition to requesting that the educational reservation in Evansville be shifted from UHF Channel 56 to VHF Channel 7, also request that VHF Channel 9 be deleted from Hatfield, Indiana. Two applicants, Owensboro On The Air, Inc., and Owensboro Publishing Company have filed applications for Channel 9 in Hatfield; and these mutually exclusive applications are involved in a comparative hearing. The record in the Channel 9 proceeding in Hatfield was closed on January 7, 1955. Petitioners suggest that Channel 14, presently assigned to Owensboro, Kentucky, is available for assignment to the successful applicant in the Channel 9 proceeding in Hatfield. Petitioners state that they seek this additional modification in the table of assignments in order to de-intermix the Evansville-Hatfield-Henderson-Owensboro area. Oppositions to petitioners' Petition for Rehearing and Further Request for Rule Making have been filed by the VHF applicants in the Channel 7 proceeding in Hatfield—Evansville Television, Inc., Consolidated Television and Radio Broadcasters, Inc. (formerly WFBM, Inc.), On The Air, Inc., Owensboro Publishing Company and Owensboro On The Air, Inc.

5. Upon reconsideration of our prior action, we have concluded that the public interest, convenience and necessity would be served by the institution of a rule-making proceeding in order that we may afford all interested parties the opportunity of presenting their views to the Commission and that the Commission may have the benefit of such views prior to taking further action. We have therefore decided to institute a rule-making proceeding in this matter inviting all interested parties to submit their comments on petitioners' proposal.

6. The Commission desires that the comments filed in this proceeding direct their attention and submit data, among other things, to the following matters:

(a) The Grade A and Grade B contours of the stations presently operating in Evansville,[2] as well as the proposed Grade A and Grade B contours of the VHF applicants for Channel 7 in Evansville and Channel 9 in Hatfield.

(b) The estimated number of families in Evansville and the surrounding area residing within the service ranges of both operating and potential stations in Evansville and Hatfield. The information should specify the estimated number of families residing within the Grade A and Grade B contours of the stations and the estimated number of families beyond the Grade B contours but capable of receiving a satisfactory signal. (The basis for indicating service beyond the Grade B contour should be specified.)

(c) The estimated total number of television receivers in Evansville and Hatfield and their surrounding areas, including the percentage of sets capable of receiving UHF transmissions. This information should specify the number of sets within the Grade A and Grade B contours of the stations, and the number of sets beyond the Grade B contour that receive satisfactory transmissions from Evansville.

(d) In so far as data may be available, the estimated percentage of time that set owners within the Grade A and Grade B service areas of Evansville stations view VHF or UHF stations located outside Evansville, and the quality of the signal received. This data should also indicate the same information with respect to set owners in Hatfield. Information should also be submitted indicating the number and signal quality of any outside VHF or UHF services that may be expected to be received in Evansville and Hatfield and the surrounding areas in accordance with the present assignment table.

(e) Data indicating whether, and to what extent, any areas and populations surrounding Evansville and Hatfield would lose potential commercial television service in the event Channel 7 in Evansville is reserved for education and Channel 9 in Hatfield is deleted from that community. Information should also be submitted indicating what other services are received in such areas, and to what extent other services may be expected to be received under the present assignment table.

(f) Information indicating whether Channel 9 in Hatfield and Channel 7 in Evansville can be used in other communities in accordance with the Commission's rules and regulations if they are deleted from these communities.

(g) Information with respect to television network relations in Evansville and Hatfield, including complete information as to present and proposed network affiliations; the extent of network programs currently received in these communities on a regular basis; the terms of existing network contracts, including cancellation provisions; the prospects of UHF stations for continued network affiliation after authorization of a VHF station; prospective network affiliations in the event no commercial VHF stations are authorized in Evansville and Hatfield; the availability of program material and advertiser support for UHF stations in these communities in the absence of network programs; and information indicating the impact on future sales of UHF-equipped receivers and UHF conversions in the event the UHF stations curtail transmission of network programs.

7. Authority for the issuance of this notice is contained in sections 4 (i), 301, 303 (c), (d), (f) and (r), and 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

8. All interested parties desiring to submit their comments with respect to petitioners' proposal, both in support and in opposition, may file with the Commission on or before May 2, 1955, written statements or briefs setting forth their comments. Comments or briefs in reply to such original comments as may be filed should be submitted to the Commission within 10 days from the last day for filing original comments or briefs. No additional comments may be filed unless (1) specifically requested by the Commission, or (2) good cause for the filing of such additional comments is established. In accordance with § 1.764 of the rules, an original and 14 copies of all statements, briefs or comments should be submitted.

9. The Commission believes that subsequent to the filing of written comments in this proceeding, an oral argument before the Commission en banc would assist the Commission in reaching its final determination. Accordingly, the Commission will specify in a subsequent Notice the time and place for such oral argument and the particular matters to which the oral argument will be directed.

TELEVISION BROADCAST STATIONS

TABLE OF ASSIGNMENTS

1. Notice is hereby given that the Commission has received proposals for rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. The Commission has before it for consideration the request of a UHF broadcaster in Madison, Wisconsin, for rule making to remove the intermixture of commercial VHF and UHF assignments from Madison. Four television channels are assigned to Madison—VHF Channel 3 and UHF Channels 21, 27 and 33—with Channel 21 reserved for noncommercial educational use. Monona Broadcasting Company operates UHF television station WKOW-TV on Channel 27; Station WMTV operates on Channel 33; and non-commercial educational station WHA-TV operates on Channel 21. Two applications have been filed for the sole VHF channel in Madison, Channel 3, by Radio Wisconsin Incorporated and Badger Television Company; and these mutually exclusive applications are involved in a comparative hearing. The record in the Channel 3 proceeding was closed on December 22, 1953, and an Initial Decision was issued on August 3, 1954.

3. On August 30, 1954, Monona Broadcasting Company filed a petition requesting rule making to amend the Table of Assignments by shifting the educational reservation in Madison from UHF Channel 21 to VHF Channel 3 in order to achieve de-intermixture. Monona requested that educational station WHA-TV be directed to show cause why it should not shift its operation from Channel 21 to Channel 3. Oppositions to the above petition were filed by the two applicants for VHF Channel 3, Radio Wisconsin Incorporated and Badger Television Company, Inc. On November 1, 1954, the Commission issued a memorandum Opinion and Order (FCC 54-1355) denying petitioner's request for rule making.

4. On February 16, 1955, Monona Broadcasting Company filed a petition resubmitting its request for rule making to achieve de-intermixture in Madison. Oppositions to Monona's new petition have been filed by both Radio Wisconsin and Badger.

5. On March 30, 1955, Winnebago Television Corporation, permittee of UHF Station WTVO operating on Channel 39 in Rockford, Illinois, filed a petition requesting rule making to amend the Table of Assignments so as to assign Channel 3 to Beloit, Wisconsin, by deleting this assignment from Madison, Wisconsin, in order to achieve de-intermixture of VHF and UHF assignments in the Rockford-Beloit and Madison areas as follows:

City	Channel No.
	Delete	Add
Madison, Wis.	3	39
Beloit, Wis.		3
Rockford, Ill.	39
Fond du Lac, Wis.	54	68

Petitioner further requests that the Commission order it to show cause why its outstanding authorization for Station WTVO should not be modified to specify operation on Channel 3 at Beloit instead of on Channel 39 at Rockford. Petitioner further suggests that the Rockford area may be de-intermixed by making it an all-UHF area by removing Channel 13 from Rockford, as follows:

City	Channel No.
	Delete	Add
Rockford, Ill.	13	51
Aurora or Elgin, Ill.		13

6. Since the Winnebago petition would delete Channel 3 from Madison, it conflicts with the foregoing request of Monona Broadcasting Company. It should therefore be considered in this proceeding.

7. Upon reconsideration of our prior action on the basis of the new petition submitted by Monona Broadcasting Company and the Oppositions thereto and the petition of Winnebago Television Corporation, we have concluded that the public interest, convenience and necessity would be served by the institution of rule making in order that we may afford all interested parties the opportunity of presenting their views to the Commission and that the Commission may have the benefit of such views prior to taking further action. We have therefore decided to institute a rule making proceeding in this matter inviting all interested parties to submit their comments on petitioners' proposals.

8. The Commission desires that the comments filed in this proceeding direct their attention and submit data, among other things, to the following matters:

(a) The Grade A and Grade B contours of the stations presently operating in Madison as well as the proposed Grade A and Grade B contours of the VHF applicants for Channel 3.

(b) The estimated number of families in Madison and the surrounding area residing within the service ranges of both operating and potential television stations in Madison. The information should specify the estimated number of families residing within the Grade A and Grade B contours of the stations and the estimated number of families beyond the Grade B contours but capable of receiving a satisfactory signal. (The basis for indicating service beyond the Grade B contour should be specified.)

(c) The estimated total number of television receivers in Madison and the surrounding area, including the percentage of sets capable of receiving UHF transmissions. This information should specify the number of sets within the Grade A and Grade B contours of the stations, and the number of sets beyond the Grade B contour that receive satisfactory transmissions from Madison.

(d) Insofar as data may be available, the estimated percentage of time that set owners within the Grade A and Grade B service area of Madison stations view VHF or UHF stations located outside Madison, and the quality of the signal received. Information should also be submitted indicating the number and signal quality of any outside VHF or UHF services that may be expected to be received in Madison and the surrounding area in accordance with the present Assignment Table.

(e) Data indicating whether, and to what extent, any areas and populations surrounding Madison would lose potential commercial television service in the event Channel 3 is reserved for education in Madison or is deleted from that community. Information should also be submitted indicating what other services are received in such areas, and to what extent other services may be expected to be received under the present assignment table.

(f) Information indicating whether Channel 3 can be used in another community in accordance with the Commission's rules and regulations if it is deleted from Madison.

(g) Information with respect to television network relations in Madison including complete information as to present and proposed network affiliations; the extent of network programs currently received in Madison on a regular basis; the terms of existing network contracts, including cancellation provisions; the prospects of UHF stations for continued network affiliations after authorization of a VHF station; prospective network affiliations in the event three commercial UHF and no commercial VHF stations are authorized in Madison; the availability of program material and advertiser support for UHF stations in Madison in the absence of network programs; and information indicating the impact on future sales of UHF-equipped receivers and UHF conversions in the event the UHF stations curtail transmission of network programs.

(h) Similar data and information with respect to the foregoing matters should also be submitted in light of the proposal of Winnebago Television Corporation to shift Channel 3 from Madison to Beloit or to shift Channel 13 from Rockford to Aurora or Elgin.

8. Authority for the issuance of this Notice is contained in sections 4 (i), 301, 303 (c), (d), (f), and (r), 307 (b) and 316 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

9. As noted above, the request of Monona Broadcasting Company would shift the existing authorization of educational Station WHA-TV now operating on Channel 21 in Madison to VHF Channel 3. Accordingly, Station WHA-TV is ordered to show cause in this proceeding why its outstanding authorization should not be modified to specify operation on Channel 3 in place of Channel 21. The Reply to the Order to Show Cause should be filed in this proceeding by the same date for the submission of written comments herein. Winnebago Television Corporation is also ordered to show cause in this proceeding why its outstanding authorization for Station WTVO should not be modified to specify operation on Channel 3 in Beloit, Wisconsin, in place of Channel 39 at Rockford, Illinois.

10. All interested parties desiring to submit their comments with respect to petitioners' proposals, both in support and in opposition, may file with the Commission on or before May 2, 1955, written statements or briefs setting forth their comments. Comments or briefs in reply to such original comments as may be filed should be submitted to the Commission within 10 days from the last day for filing original comments. No additional comments may be filed unless (1) specifically requested by the Commission, or (2) good cause for the filing of such additional comments is established. In accordance with Section 1.764 of the Rules, an original and 14 copies of all statements, briefs or comments should be submitted.

11. The Commission believes that subsequent to the filing of written comments in this proceeding, an oral argument before the Commission en banc would assist the Commission in reaching its final determination. Accordingly, the Commission will specify in a subsequent Notice the time and place for such oral argument and the particular matters to which the oral argument will be directed.

Adopted: March 30, 1955.

Released: March 31, 1955.

TELEVISION BROADCAST STATIONS

TABLE OF ASSIGNMENTS

1. Notice is hereby given that the Commission has received proposals for rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. The Commission has before it for consideration the request of four UHF broadcasters in the Connecticut River Valley for rule making to remove the intermixture of commercial VHF and UHF assignments from Hartford, Connecticut. Three television channels are assigned to Hartford—VHF Channel 3 and UHF Channels 18 and 24, with Channel 24 reserved for noncommercial educational use. General-Times Television Corporation operates UHF Station WGTH-TV on Channel 18, and a construction permit for an educational station (WEDH) on Channel 24 has been issued to the Connecticut State Board of Education. Two applications have been filed for the sole VHF channel in Hartford, Connecticut, Channel 3, by the Travelers Broadcasting Service Corporation and Hartford Telecasting Company, Inc.; and these mutually exclusive applications are involved in a comparative hearing. The record in this proceeding was closed on June 4, 1954, and an Initial Decision is being awaited.

3. On October 7, 1954, permittees of four UHF television stations situated in the Connecticut River Valley—General-Times Television Corporation (WGTH-TV), Hartford; New Britain Broadcasting Company (WHNB-TV), New Britain, Connecticut; Hampden-Hampshire Corporation (WHYN-TV), Springfield, Massachusetts; and Springfield Television Broadcasting Corporation (WWLP), Springfield, Massachusetts—filed a joint petition requesting rule making to amend the Table of Assignments by shifting the educational reservation in Hartford from UHF Channel 24 to VHF Channel 3, in order to achieve a deintermixture of commercial VHF and UHF channels in that area. Petitioners requested that the Connecticut State Board of Education, which holds a permit to construct an educational station on Channel 24 in Hartford, be directed to show cause why its authorization for Station WEDH should not be modified to specify operation on VHF Channel 3. Oppositions to the above petition were filed by the two competing applicants for VHF Channel 3 in Hartford, Hartford Telecasting Company, Inc., and the Travelers Broadcasting Service Corporation. On December 7, 1954, the Commission issued a Memorandum Opinion and Order (FCC 54-1506) denying petitioners' request for rule making.

4. On January 5, 1955, the petitioners filed a Petition for Reconsideration requesting that the Commission set aside its action denying their request and urging that a rule making proceeding be instituted to achieve deintermixture in the Connecticut River Valley. Oppositions to the above Petition for Reconsideration have been filed by Hartford Telecasting Company, Inc., and the Travelers Broadcasting Service Corporation.

[1] Dissenting statement of Commissioner Hennock filed as part of original document.

5. On March 18, 1955, Channel 16 of Rhode Island, Inc., permittee of UHF Station WNET on Channel 16 in Providence, Rhode Island, filed a conflicting petition requesting the Commission to amend the Table of Assignments by shifting VHF Channel 3 from Hartford to Westerly, Rhode Island; and requesting, further, that it be directed to show cause why its authorization should not be modified to specify operation on Channel 3 in Westerly in place of Channel 16 in Providence. Petitioner urges that its proposal would affect a deintermixture of VHF and UHF assignments in the Connecticut River Valley area. On March 28, 1955, the Travelers Broadcasting Service Corporation filed an Opposition to this petition. Since petitioner's proposal conflicts with the request to shift the educational reservation in Hartford from UHF Channel 24 to VHF Channel 3, it should be considered in this proceeding.

6. Four channels are presently assigned to Providence—VHF Channels 10 and 12 and UHF Channels 16 and 22—with Channel 22 reserved for non-commercial educational use. Station WJAR–TV (The Outlet Company) is operating on VHF Channel 10 and petitioner's station, WNET, operates on Channel 16. Cherry & Webb Broadcasting Company holds an STA to operate on Channel 12. An application for Channel 22, the educational frequency, is pending. There are no assignments presently made to Westerly, a community of 12,380 persons located in the Southwest portion of Rhode Island.

7. Channel 16 of Rhode Island suggests four alternative methods for accomplishing its proposal, as follows:

PLAN I [1]

City	Add	Delete
Westerly, R. I.	3
Hartford, Conn.	47	3
New Brunswick, N. J.	41	47
Trenton, N. J.	29	41
Philadelphia, Pa.	70	29
Hammonton, N. J.	64	70
Bridgeton, N. J.	78	64

PLAN II

Westerly, R. I.	3
Hartford, Conn.	76	3
Northampton, Mass.	82	36
Amherst, Mass.	42	82
Norwich, Conn.	47	67
New Brunswick, N. J.	41	47
Trenton, N. J.	47	41

PLAN III

Westerly, R. I.	3
Hartford, Conn.	76	3
Northampton, Mass.	82	36
Amherst, Mass.	64	82
Pittsfield, Mass.	74	64
Bennington, Vt.	61	74

PLAN IV

Westerly, R. I.	3
Hartford, Conn.	59	3
New Haven, Conn.	75	59
Patchogue, N. Y.	54	75

[1] Plan I is defective, in part, in that Channel 64 cannot be assigned to Hammonton, N. J., with Channel 78 assigned to Bridgeton, N. J., in view of the requirements that assignments which are separated by 14 channels must have a minimum spacing of 60 miles (sound image).

8. It is noted that pursuant to Plan IV advanced by petitioner, Channel 75 would be assigned to New Haven, Connecticut, in place of Channel 59. Connecticut Radio Foundation, Inc., presently holds an authorization for Station WELI–TV on this frequency. The station has not yet been constructed. Petitioner requests that the Commission direct WELI–TV to Show Cause why its authorization should not be modified to specify operation on Channel 75 in place of Channel 59.

9. Upon reconsideration of our prior action, we have concluded that the public interest, convenience and necessity would be served by the institution of a rule making proceeding in order that all interested parties may be afforded the opportunity of presenting their views to the Commission and that the Commission may have the benefit of such views prior to taking further action. We have, therefore, decided to institute a rule making proceeding in this matter inviting all interested parties to submit their comments on the proposals advanced by the four UHF broadcasters in the Connecticut River Valley and by Channel 16 of Rhode Island, Inc. with respect to Channel 3 in Hartford.

10. The Commission desires that the comments filed in this proceeding direct their attention to and submit data on, among other things, the following matters:

(a) The Grade A and Grade B contours of the stations presently operating in the Connecticut River Valley, as well as the proposed Grade A and Grade B contours of the VHF applicants for Channel 3 in Hartford. The Grade A and Grade B contours of a VHF station operating at Westerly, Rhode Island, should also be indicated.

(b) The estimated number of families in Hartford and the surrounding area residing within the service ranges of both operating and potential television stations in Hartford. This information should specify the estimated number of families residing within the Grade A and Grade B contours of the station and the estimated number of families beyond the Grade B contour capable of receiving a satisfactory signal. (The basis for indicating service beyond the Grade B contour should be specified.)

(c) The estimated total number of television receivers in Hartford and the Connecticut River Valley; including the percentage of sets capable of receiving UHF transmissions. This information should specify the number of sets within the Grade A and Grade B contours of the stations, and the number of sets beyond the Grade B contours that receive satisfactory transmissions from Hartford.

(d) Insofar as data may be available, the estimated percentage of time that set owners within the Grade A and Grade B service areas of stations in the Connecticut River Valley view VHF and UHF stations located in other areas, and the quality of the signal received. Information should also be submitted indicating the number and signal quality of any outside VHF or UHF services that may be expected to be received in the Connecticut River Valley in accordance with the present assignment table.

(e) Data indicating whether, and to what extent, any areas and populations in the Connecticut River Valley would lose potential commercial television service in the event that Channel 3 is reserved for education in Hartford, is shifted to Westerly, Rhode Island, or is otherwise deleted from Hartford. Information should also be submitted indicating what other services are received in such areas, and to what extent other services may be expected to be received under the present assignment table.

(f) Information indicating whether Channel 3 can be used in Westerly, Rhode Island, or any other community in accordance with the Commission's rules and regulations if deleted from Hartford.

(g) Information with respect to television network relations in the Connecticut River Valley, including complete information as to present and proposed network affiliations; the extent of network programs currently received in the Connecticut River Valley on a regular basis; the terms of existing network contracts, including cancellation provisions; the prospects of UHF stations for continued network affiliation after authorization of a VHF station in Hartford; prospective network affiliations in the event no commercial VHF stations are authorized in Hartford; the availability of program material and advertiser support for UHF stations in the Connecticut River Valley in the absence of network programs; and information indicating the impact on future sales of UHF-equipped receivers and UHF conversions in the event the UHF stations curtail transmission of network programs.

11. Authority for the issuance of this Notice is contained in sections 4 (i), 301, 303 (c), (d), (f), and (r), 307 (b) and 316 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

12. The Connecticut State Board of Education presently holds an authorization to operate educational station WEDH on Channel 24 in Hartford. One of the proposals herein would shift the operation of this station to VHF Channel 3. Accordingly, the Connecticut State Board of Education is directed to show cause in this proceeding why its outstanding authorization for Station WEDH should not be modified to specify operation on Channel 3 in place of Channel 24. The proposal of Channel 16 of Rhode Island, Inc., contemplates Station WNET on Channel 16 in Providence shifting its operation to VHF Channel 3 in Westerly, Rhode Island. Accordingly, Channel 16 of Rhode Island is directed to show cause why its outstanding authorization for WNET should not be modified to specify operation on Channel 3 in Westerly in place of Channel 16 in Providence. Finally, one of the alternative methods for achieving the assignment of Channel 3 in Westerly advanced by Channel 16 of Rhode Island is the substitution of Channel 75 for Channel 59 in New Haven, Connecticut. Since Connecticut Radio Foundation, Inc. holds a permit for Station WELI–TV on Channel 59 in New Haven, it is also directed to show cause in this proceeding why its outstanding authorization should not be modified to specify operation on Channel 75 in lieu of Channel 59. Replies to the aforesaid orders to show cause should be filed by the same date for the submission of written comments in this proceeding.

13. All interested parties desiring to submit their comments with respect to petitioners' proposals, both in support or in opposition, may file with the Commission on or before May 2, 1955, written statements or briefs setting forth their comments. Comments or briefs in reply to such original comments as may be filed should be submitted to the Commission within 10 days from the last day for filing original comments. No additional comments may be filed unless (1) specifically requested by the Commission, or (2) good cause for the filing of such additional comments is established. In accordance with § 1.764 of the rules, an original and 14 copies of all statements, briefs or comments should be submitted.

14. The Commission believes that subsequent to the filing of written comments in this proceeding, an oral argument before the Commission en banc would assist the Commission in reaching its final determination. Accordingly, the Commission will specify in a subsequent notice the time and place for such oral argument, and will specify the particular matters to which the oral argument will be directed.

Adopted: March 30, 1955.

Released: March 31, 1955.

TELEVISION AUXILIARY BROADCAST STATIONS

FURTHER NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

In the matter of amendment of Part 4 of the Commission's rules and regulations governing Television Auxiliary Broadcast Stations; Docket No. 11164.

1. On September 16, 1954, the Commission issued its Notice of Proposed Rule Making in the above-entitled proceeding. The Notice of September 16 recited that the Commission had received a petition filed by North Dakota Broadcasting Company, Inc., requesting amendment of §§ 4.631 and 4.632 of the Commission's rules so as to give the Commission discretion to grant applications for private television intercity relay stations notwithstanding the fact that common carrier facilities may be available. The petition stated that the cost of common carrier facilities was in many cases prohibitive to broadcasters, and that because of this fact large areas may be deprived of network television service. The Commission's Notice cited its awareness of the problems of certain television stations located in relatively small communities at a distance from existing program service points where, under existing tariffs, the common carrier mileage charges for connection of such stations with the networks may not be commensurate with the economic prospects of the stations for profitable operation.

2. In response to the Commission's Notice, a number of comments were filed. In general the comments of broadcasters cited the economic hardships of the stations and the high cost to them resulting from the tariff rates of the telephone companies for television program transmission services. The comments indicated a desire on the part of many stations to accomplish an interconnection with other stations by receiving their signals off the air at a favorable point and relaying such signals the remaining distance for broadcasting by a second station. This off-the-air pickup is, according to the comments, in use by a majority of the broadcasters who are today authorized to operate private relay systems under the present rules.

3. American Telephone and Telegraph Company, on December 15, 1954, filed a reply to the comments of the radio broadcasters. In its reply, A. T. & T., among other things suggested that, if the off-the-air pickup method of service was acceptable to the broadcasters and the public viewers, this type of service could be provided by common carriers at charges substantially less than the present charges for direct network connection. In further development of this suggestion, A. T. & T. addressed a letter to the Commission, dated February 24, 1955, which reads, in part, as follows:

> Where the stations in the smaller and more remote areas desire a lower cost means of obtaining network programs, the Telephone Company will furnish an arrangement, whereby programs of a network station are picked up off-the-air and relayed over a common carrier channel to the remote station using lower grade facilities than employed in the nationwide network. Considerable savings can be realized by this means through the elimination of the facilities spanning the distance between the television broadcast station and pickup point, coupled with the elimination of the monitoring, supervision and some equipment features which are necessary to protect the quality and continuity of service on the regular network facilities on which the programs of many television stations depend.
> The cases for which these channels may be found advantageous will vary widely as regards distances, terrain and other characteristics which affect the physical facilities required. Pending experience with actual cases, it is desirable therefore to determine the charge for each channel reflecting the particular conditions involved. The specific charge for each channel will be published as a tariff rate and will be filed with the Commission as service is required.
> Taking into account the savings due to the off-the-air feature and the further economies mentioned above, it is estimated that the charges in cases involving distances of about 100 to 125 miles between the two television stations probably will average about half of those which would apply for direct connections to the network. In individual cases the differences may vary substantially from this average—in general they tend to be larger for shorter distances. Such charges should go a long way toward making it economically practicable for the stations in the more remote areas to obtain network programs.
> Discussions are being undertaken with a number of the broadcasting stations who have previously indicated an interest in this service, which is described in more detail in the attached memorandum.

The detailed description of the proposed service referred to in the quoted portion of A. T. & T.'s letter is set forth below.

4. In the light of the new proposal by A. T. & T., the Commission feels it desirable to obtain further comment from interested parties, in order to determine to what extent the proposed new service will alleviate the problems of the broadcasters referred to in previous comments. Any interested party may file with the Commission on or before April 29, 1955, a written statement or brief setting forth his views on the matters at issue herein. Comments or briefs in reply to the original comments may be filed within 10 days from the last day for filing said original comments and briefs. No additional comments may be filed unless (1) specifically requested by the Commission or (2) good cause for the filing of such additional comments is established. The Commission will consider all such comments that are submitted before taking action in this matter, and if any comments appear to warrant the holding of a hearing or oral argument, notice of the time and place of such hearing or oral argument will be given.

5. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.764 of the Commission's rules, an original and 14 copies of all statements, briefs, or comments shall be furnished the Commission.

Adopted: March 30, 1955.

Released: April 1, 1955.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,

[SEAL] MARY JANE MORRIS, Secretary.

Off-the-air channels. This memorandum describes the off-the-air channels to be furnished by the Telephone Company with the objective of extending network television service at lower cost to those more remote areas which, under present conditions, cannot justify the cost of direct network connections.

The off-the-air arrangement involves the pickup of broadcast signals (video and audio) at a receiver and the transmission of these signals to the customer at a distant location. The more important features of this arrangement are outlined below:

It is contemplated that the types of construction will be selected with a view to permitting lower charges and it is not intended to provide channels of the quality or reliability of directly connected facilities.

The channels are expected to be satisfactory for "receiving only" side legs or end links. They will not be provided for use as an intermediate link between interexchange channels of the Telephone Company.

The provision of all facilities, including the receiving equipment at the pickup point, will be the responsibility of the Telephone Company; except that the provision of all station equipment and station wiring, other than that necessary for the suitable termination of the channel facilities on the customer's premises, will be the responsibility of the customer.

No central office operation, monitoring or supervision will be provided.

Emergency power arrangements will be more limited than those furnished with regular interconnected facilities.

The design of the physical facilities, e. g., the type of equipment, the spacing between relay towers, and the location of the pickup point, will be determined by the Telephone Company, reflecting to the fullest extent practicable the customer's views in each case.

Channels for both monochrome and color services will be available.

The channels will be furnished for the full time use of the customer, subject to release for maintenance.

The channels will be provided for a minimum initial period of three years. A termination charge will apply when the use of the channels is discontinued before the end of the initial period.

Reasonable diligence will be exercised by the Company in restoring service in the event of interruptions of failures, with the customer recognizing the probability of greater delays than experienced with the normal directly connected facilities. No credit will be allowed for interruptions of less than two hours.

The customer will be responsible for making all arrangements with stations, networks or other parties for the necessary authorizations for the off-the-air pickup and use for rebroadcast of television program material, and the Telephone Company shall be indemnified and saved harmless by the customer from any liability arising out of failure to make such arrangements.

A review of the television stations now on the air but not connected with the nationwide network, of the construction permits already granted for stations not yet on the air, and of applications for new stations pending before the Commission, indicates a wide variation in the conditions under which the channels might be provided. Among these are the distance of the customer's location from the television station whose signals are desired to be picked up, the distance from such station to the point at which the receiver may be located for the pickup of satisfactory signals, the type of terrain, access to sites, reliability of local power supply, etc.

Engineering design considerations which are affected by these conditions are the spacing between radio relay stations, the height of the radio relay towers, the size and type of antenna system, the type of radio relay equipment (e. g., power output, modulation and demodulation arrangements, etc.), construction of access roads, type of emergency power plant, etc. Sufficient experience with this type of construction in the more remote areas is not available to permit the evaluation of these varied factors. The practical procedure pending such experience is to determine the charge for each channel, reflecting the particular conditions involved. The specific charge for each channel will be published as a tariff rate and filed with the Commission as service is required.

The channels will provide opportunities for the television stations located in the more remote areas to obtain network service at a lower cost than would be involved with direct connections to the networks. A large portion of this difference arises from the use of the off-the-air pickup feature, that is, the elimination of line facilities for a considerable portion of the distance between existing network facilities and the customer's location, and the balance from the omission of the central office operation, monitoring and supervision required for network facilities and of some of the equipment and features which are necessary to protect the continuity of service on the regular network facilities on which service to a large number of television stations depends. These lower charges, therefore, will be at the cost of less stable and less reliable pictures and the limitations on programming inherent to the off-the-air feature.

CHARGES FOR U. S. GOVERNMENT TELEGRAPH COMMUNICATIONS

TERM

In the matter of Charges for United States Government Telegraph Communications, amendment of Part 64 of the Commission's rules and regulations (Miscellaneous Rules Relating to Common Carriers); Docket No. 11315.

1. Notice is hereby given of proposed rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. It is proposed to amend § 64.310 Term of Subpart C (United States Government Foreign and Overseas Telegraph Communications), of Part 64 of the Commission's rules and regulations, to read as follows:

§ 64.310 Term. The provisions of this subpart shall continue in effect through June 30, 1956, unless changed by order of the Commission.

Reason for change: It is necessary under the applicable cable landing licenses that the Commission act annually, and the Section in its present form provides that the provisions of Subpart C shall continue in effect through June 30, 1955.

3. No changes are now being proposed in the other provisions of Subpart C.

4. The proposed amendment is issued under authority of sections 4 (i) and 601 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and pursuant to the provisions of the pefmits or licenses granted by the President of the United States, giving the Postmaster General authority to fix rates and charges for United States Government telegraph communications transmitted by any carrier or carriers subject to the terms of such permits or licenses, which authority was transferred to the Commission by section 601 (b) of the Communications Act.

5. Any interested person who is of the opinion that the proposed amendment should not be adopted, or should not be adopted in the form set forth herein, may file with the Commission on or before April 29, 1955, written data, views or arguments setting forth his comments. Comments in support of the proposed amendment may also be filed on or before the same date. Comments in reply to the original comments may be filed within 10 days from the last day for filing said original data, views or arguments. No additional comments may be filed unless (1) specifically requested by the Commission or (2) good cause for the filing of such additional comments is established. The Commission will consider all such comments prior to taking final action in this matter, and if comments are submitted warranting oral argument, notice of the time and place of such oral argument will be given.

6. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.764 of the Commission's rules, an original and 14 copies of all statements, briefs or comments shall be furnished the Commission.

Adopted: March 30, 1955.

Released: April 1, 1955.

NOTICES

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

Civil Aeronautics Administration

[Amdt. 6]

ORGANIZATION AND FUNCTIONS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

In accordance with the public information requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act, the description of the Organization and Functions of the Civil Aeronautics Administration (published on April 10, 1954, in 19 F. R. 2098, as amended on August 17, 1954, in 19 F. R. 5633) is further amended by redefining the duties and responsibilities of the principal officers of the Office of the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics; establishing a Budget and Finance Office; abolishing the Budget Office and the Organization and Methods Office; reassigning security functions from the Office of General Services to the Office of the Assistant Administrator for Administration; reassigning accounting functions from the Office of General Services to the Budget and Finance Office; changing the Office of General Services to the General Services Office; and abolishing the Planning Staff Division, Office of Federal Airways.

1. Section 11 (b) is amended to read:

(b) The Civil Aeronautics Administration shall consist of the following organizational units:

(1) Office of the Administrator, which includes the:

Immediate Office of the Administrator.
Office of the Assistant Administrator for Administration.
Office of the Assistant Administrator for Operations.
Office of the Assistant Administrator for Planning, Research and Development.
Office of the Executive Assistant.

(2) Staff and Program Offices, including:

General Counsel's Office.
Aviation Information Office.
Budget and Finance Office.
Personnel Office.
General Services Office.
Office of Airports.
Office of Aviation Safety.
Office of Federal Airways.

(3) Major Field Organizations, including:

Regional Offices.
Washington National Airport.
Aeronautical Center.
Technical Development and Evaluation Center.

2. Section 14 is amended to read:

SEC. 14. Functions of the Office of the Administrator. (a) The functions of the Office of the Administrator are as follows:

(1) Plans or approves, and promulgates the basic programs, policies, and public rules to accomplish the functions and objectives of the Civil Aeronautics Administration;

(2) Prescribes the organization structure and the assignment of responsibilities within the Administration;

(3) Directs, coordinates, and controls the execution of the Administration's programs in accordance with the directives of the Congress, the President, and the Secretary of Commerce; and

(4) Maintains liaison with other agencies of the Government, the Congress, State aviation officials, the aviation industry, and the flying public.

(b) The duties and responsibilities of the principal officers of the Office of the Administrator are as follows:

(1) The Administrator in conformity with the policies and directives of the Secretary of Commerce and other legal requirements determines the policies of the Civil Aeronautics Administration; directs the development of and controls the execution of its programs; promulgates General Orders, policy statements, rules, and such other instructions as he deems necessary for the effective administration of the CAA.

(2) The Assistant Administrator for Administration discharges the functions of the Office of the Administrator in the area of general administration with particular reference to the managerial processes involved in personnel administration, fiscal management, organization planning, and the administration of general services throughout the organization; exercises direction and control over the administration of the Personnel Office, the Budget and Finance Office, the General Services Office, and the Aeronautical Center; directs and controls the activities of the Executive Controls Officer, the Security Officer, and the Administrative Coordination Officer.

(3) The Assistant Administrator for Operations discharges the functions of the Office of the Administrator in the area of technical operations with particular reference to the agency's federal airways, airports, and aviation safety programs, and their administration within and outside of the continental United States; exercises direction and control over the administration of the Office of Federal Airways, Office of Aviation Safety, Office of Airports, and the Washington National Airport.

(4) The Assistant Administrator for Planning, Research, and Development discharges the functions of the Office of the Administrator in the area of research and development and technical program planning, domestic and international; exercises direction and control over the administration of the Technical Development and Evaluation Center; monitors the agency's long-range planning activities, conducts top-level liaison with external planning organizations such as the Air Coordinating Committee, Air Navigation Development Board, Radio Technical Commission for Aeronautics, and other technical organizations, conducts planning activities not exclusively or clearly the responsibility of any one program office, and renders special staff assistance to the Administrator upon request; directs, coordinates, and controls the activities of a staff of specialists assigned to assist him in discharging the above responsibilities.

(5) The Executive Assistant assists the Administrator in matters that require his personal attention; and represents the Administrator in negotiations and contacts with members of Congress, other government agencies, and the aviation industry on problems in which the Administrator is personally concerned.

3. Section 15 (c) is amended to read:

(c) The Budget and Finance Office provides staff assistance to the Office of the Administrator in the development, application, and execution of fiscal and budgetary policies and procedures; preparation of regular and supplemental budget estimates, and presentation and justification thereof; allocation of funds for authorized activities controlled by definitive fiscal work programs; development, establishment, and maintenance of a system of accounts throughout the agency; the execution of CAA's financial responsibility under the Federal-aid Airport Act; and performs related fiscal and budgetary activities, including the preparation of financial reports, and the provision to Washington offices of accounting, payroll, individual earnings, leave, retirement, and bond purchase services. The Budget and Finance Office has a Budget Estimates Division, Accounting Division, and Fiscal Management Division.

4. Section 15 (d), which relates to the Organization and Methods Office, is rescinded.

5. Sections 15 (e) through 15 (i) are renumbered 15 (d) through 15 (h) respectively.

6. Section 15 (f), renumbered 15 (e), is amended to read:

(e) The General Services Office provides staff assistance to the Office of the Administrator in the discharge of its responsibilities for procurement, property management, defense production and mobilization, the control and utilization of Civil Aeronautics Administration aircraft, procurement and distribution of printed and reproduced material, and mail and telegraphic activities, machine tabulation and similar activities; in connection therewith, formulates policies and programs, establishes standards, and prepares instructions for both Washington and field offices, and performs general service functions for the Washington office. The General Services Office has a Supply Division, an Aircraft Control Division, and a Special Services Division.

7. Section 15 (i), renumbered as 15 (h), is amended by striking out "Planning Staff Division".

This amendment shall become effective March 27, 1955.

[SEAL] S. A. KEMP,
Acting Administrator of Civil Aeronautics.

Approved:

SINCLAIR WEEKS,
Secretary of Commerce.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT

ESTABLISHMENT OF REGIONAL HEADQUARTERS AT ATLANTA, GA., FOR GEORGIA, FLORIDA, SOUTH CAROLINA, NORTH CAROLINA, PUERTO RICO, AND THE VIRGIN ISLANDS

The following supersedes the notice relating to this subject published in the March 26, 1955, issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER, at pages 1853, 1854:

The following is the text of Order No. 55840 of the Postmaster General, dated March 2, 1955:

Pursuant to the authority of section 1 (b) of Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1949, the following changes will become effective on March 7, 1955:

1. On the effective date there will be established a regional headquarters at Atlanta, Georgia under a Regional Director who will exercise the powers, duties, functions and jurisdiction delegated by Order No. 55809 dated January 3, 1955, and Order No. 55810 dated January 3, 1955 (20 F. R. 276). Pending appointment of a Regional Director the postal affairs affecting the Bureau of Operations and Bureau of Personnel in the region shall be under the direction of the Regional Operations Manager who will be responsible to the Assistant Postmaster General, Bureau of Post Office Operations. The Regional Operations Manager will be subject to all policy affecting regional operations prescribed by the Department in Washington. There will also be a Regional Controller in the regional office who will be responsible to the Assistant Postmaster General and Controller, Bureau of Finance. The Regional Personnel Manager will be administratively responsible to the Regional Operations Manager so far as Bureau of Operations activities are concerned, and functionally to the Assistant Postmaster General, Personnel. Functions such as those listed below which were formerly discharged by various headquarters, bureaus and offices in Washington will now be discharged by the regional staff.

A. Personnel functions, including such items as recruitment, selection and placement of personnel; training activities; labor relations; safety and health programs; classification of positions; awards and efficiency rating systems; review and disposition of disciplinary actions; and liaison with the Civil Service Commission in the region.

B. Service functions, including recommendations to the Department for the establishment or discontinuance of post offices, classified stations and branches; approval of requests for allowances of funds; maintenance of high standards of service in all post offices; and effective control of costs.

C. Industrial engineering functions, including administration of cost reduction programs; improvement in work methods; endorsement of requests for capital expenditures; maintenance of work standards; layout of facilities; provision of work simplification methods and training; and development of systems and procedures, other than accounting and fiscal procedures.

D. Controller functions, including the direction of accounting, budget and cost analysis activities.

E. Public information functions, including encouragement of public cooperation and participation in improving postal methods; and maintaining good relations with Federal, State and municipal officials.

2. Pending the appointment of a Regional Director, this order does not affect the bureaus and offices of the Department other than:

A. Bureau of Operations;
B. Bureau of Personnel;
C. Bureau of Finance (and Controller).

All other bureaus and offices, however, are expected to coordinate and cooperate with this new regional organization.

3. The region will be divided into eight districts. All postmasters in each district will report directly to their district manager.

4. Previous orders or instructions concerning the routing of communications from postmasters to the above-mentioned bureaus in Washington are hereby superseded. All communications, with respect to the functions set forth in this order will be directed to the appropriate district manager, with the exceptions of monthly and quarterly accounts, which will continue to be routed as at present.

APRIL 1, 1955.

An application, serial number W-01619, for the withdrawal from all forms of appropriation under the public land laws, including the mining laws of the United States, of the lands described below was filed on October 12, 1954, by The Department of Agriculture, Forest Service, Missoula, Montana. The purposes of the proposed withdrawal: To provide for and protect administrative sites, public service sites, recreation sites.

For a period of 30 days from the date of the Interior, at Room 209, Federal having cause to object to the proposed withdrawal may present their objections in writing to the State Supervisor, Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior, at Room 209, Federal Building, Spokane, Washington. In case any objection is filed and the nature of the opposition is such as to warrant it, a public hearing will be held at a convenient time and place, which will be announced, where opponents to the order may state their views and where proponents of the order can explain its purpose.

The determination of the Secretary on the application will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, either in the form of a public land order or in the form of a Notice of Determination if the application is rejected. In either case, a separate notice will be sent to each interested party of record.

The lands involved in the application are:

SPARTAN RADIOCASTING CO. (WSPA-TV)

ORDERS DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re application of The Spartan Radiocasting Company (WSPA–TV), Spartanburg, South Carolina, for modification of construction permit; Docket No. 11314, File No. BMPCT–2042.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C. on the 30th day of March 1955;

The Commission having under consideration (a) the above-entitled application filed on April 6, 1954 and granted without hearing on April 30, 1954; (b) a protest against said grant filed on May 6, 1954, pursuant to section 309 (c) of the

Communications Act of 1934, as amended, by Greenville Television Company (Greenville), permittee of television station WGVL, Channel 23, Greenville, South Carolina; (c) a protest against said grant filed on June 1, 1954, pursuant to said section 309 (c) by Wilton E. Hall (Hall), permittee of television station WAIM-TV, Channel 40, Anderson, South Carolina; (d) the Commission's Memorandum Opinions and Orders released June 3, 1954 (FCC 54-692) and July 2, 1954 (FCC 54-804) denying said protests on the ground that the protesting parties had not alleged facts showing them to be parties in interest; and (e) the decision issued on March 24, 1955, by the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit in Greenville Television Company v. Federal Communications Commission (No. 12284) and Wilton E. Hall v. Federal Communications Commission (No. 12356); and

It appearing that the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit reversed the Commission's decisions and remanded the cases to the Commission for hearing; and

It further appearing that Hall's proposed issues "(a)", "(c)" and "(d)" are similar in substance to Greenville's issues "7", "1" and "8", respectively, and that said issues have been merged in the issues set forth below:

It is ordered, That effective immediately, the effective date of the grant of the above-entitled application is postponed pending a final determination by the Commission after hearing; and the above-entitled application is designated for hearing at the offices of the Commission in Washington, D. C., on the following issues:

(1) To determine whether a grant of the application of Spartan Radiocasting Company would contravene the requirements of § 3.607 of the Commission's rules (47 CFR 3.607), the principles of a fair, efficient and equitable distribution of television broadcast facilities specified in section 307 (b) of the act, and the principles upon which the assignment of television broadcast channels has been made by the Commission.

(2) To determine whether a grant of such application would result in a monopoly of television service, or would impair the ability of authorized existing or prospective UHF stations in the Spartanburg, Greenville and Anderson areas to compete effectively with the station proposed by Spartan in said application or to deprive the public of the service of such stations.

(3) To determine whether Spartan misrepresented the temporary nature of, or concealed material facts with respect to, the operation proposed in its request for special temporary authorization granted by the Commission on January 27, 1954 and whether in the light of the facts adduced, Spartan possesses the requisite qualifications to be a permittee or licensee of a television broadcast station.

(4) To determine whether the changed proposal of transmitter and antenna location had occurred as a result of Spartan's independent choice or was dictated in large measure by other organizations or institutions.

(5) To determine whether the changed transmitter and antenna location was proposed, in large part, for the purpose of obtaining a Columbia Broadcasting System affiliation.

(6) To determine whether the use of Channel 7 as proposed meets the needs of communities and areas within the Spartanburg trade area.

(7) To determine whether the proposed economic injury to Greenville UHF stations, if any, and the loss of reception service to portions of Spartanburg's trade area, if any, is outweighed by the need for the service proposed by Spartan.

(8) To determine whether the proposed operation will be located in practical effect at Greenville, South Carolina.

(9) To determine whether, in the light of the facts adduced upon the foregoing issues, public interest, convenience or necessity would be served by a grant of said application.[1]

The burden of proof as to each of the above issues shall be on the protestants.

It is further ordered, That the protestants herein and the Chief of the Broadcast Bureau are hereby made parties to the proceedings herein and that

(1) The hearing on the above issues commence at 10:00 a. m. on April 25, 1955, before an Examiner to be specified by the Commission; and

(2) The parties to the proceedings herein shall have fifteen (15) days after the issuance of the Examiner's decision to file exceptions thereto and seven (7) days thereafter to file replies to any such exceptions; and

(3) The appearances by the parties intending to participate in the above hearing shall be filed not later than April 11, 1955.

It is further ordered, That this Order is subject to stay, withdrawal or other appropriate action in the event that the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit does not issue its mandate in the above cases in the usual course.

Released: April 1, 1955.

ROALD W. DIDRIKSEN ET AL.

ORDER DESIGNATING MATTERS FOR CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In the matter of Roald W. Didriksen, 221 Stillings Avenue, San Francisco, California, Docket No. 11317; Carlton R. Schwarz, 127 DuBoise Street, San Rafael, California, Docket No. 11318; Anthony Severdia, 239 Longford Street, South San Francisco, California, Docket No. 11319; suspension of radiotelephone first class operator licenses.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 30th day of March 1955;

The Commission having under consideration the suspension of the radiotelephone first class operator licenses issued to Roald W. Didriksen, Carlton R. Schwarz and Anthony Severdia; and

It appearing that acting in accordance with the provisions of section 303 (m) (2) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, each of the above-named parties filed with the Commission within the time provided therefor an application requesting a hearing on the Commission's orders released February 18, 1955, suspending for a period of 90 days their radiotelephone first class operator licenses; and

It further appearing that under the provisions of section 303 (m) (2) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the said licensees are entitled to a hearing in the matter, and that, upon the filing of a timely written application therefor, the Commission's orders of suspension are held in abeyance until the conclusion of the proceedings in the said matters.

It is ordered, That the matter of the suspensions of the radiotelephone first class operator licenses of Roald W. Didriksen, Carlton R. Schwarz and Anthony Severdia are hereby designated for a consolidated hearing in San Francisco, California at 10:00 a. m., on the 3d day of May 1955 before hearing examiner J. D. Bond upon the following issues:

1. To determine whether Roald W. Didrikson, Carlton R. Schwarz and Anthony Severdia, on December 14, 1954, willfully damaged or permited radio apparatus or installations at KPIX to be damaged within the meaning of section 303 (m) (1) (C) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

2. To determine whether Roald W. Didriksen, Carlton R. Schwarz and Anthony Severdia, on December 14, 1954, willfully or maliciously interfered with radio communications of station KPIX in violation of § 13.69 of the Commission's rules (47 CFR 13.69).

3. In the light of the evidence adduced in the preceding issues to determine whether the terms of the original orders of suspension should be made final, rescinded or modified.

It is further ordered, That a copy of this order be transmitted by Registered Mail, Return Receipt Requested, to Roald W. Didriksen, Carlton R. Schwarz and Anthony Severdia, and that each of said parties notify the Commission in writing within 15 days after receipt of this order that they will appear in person or by counsel at said hearing.

Released: April 1, 1955.

HOWARD A. CHAMBERLIN AND FRED P. MULLER

ORDER DESIGNATING MATTERS FOR CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In the matter of Howard A. Chamberlin, 182 Warren Road, Burlingame, California, Docket No. 11320; Fred P. Muller, 779 19th Avenue, San Francisco, California, Docket No. 11321; suspension of radiotelephone first class operator licenses.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 30th day of March 1955:

The Commission having under consideration the suspension of the radiotelephone first class operator licenses issued to Howard A. Chamberlin and Fred P. Muller; and

It appearing that acting in accordance with the provisions of section 303 (m) (2) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, each of the above-named parties filed with the Commission within the time provided therefor an application requesting a hearing on the Commission's orders released February 18, 1955, suspending for a period of 60 days their radiotelephone first class operator licenses; and

It further appearing that under the provisions of section 303 (m) (2) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the said licensees are entitled to a hearing in the matter, and that, upon the filing of a timely written application therefor, the Commission's orders of suspension are held in abeyance until the conclusion of the proceedings in the said matters.

It is ordered, That the matter of the suspensions of the radiotelephone first class operator licenses of Howard A. Chamberlin and Fred P. Muller are hereby designated for a consolidated hearing in San Francisco, California at 10:00 a. m., on the 6th day of May 1955 before hearing examiner J. D. Bond upon the following issues:

1. To determine whether Howard A. Chamberlin and Fred P. Muller on October 5, 1954, willfully or maliciously interfered with radio communications of station KEAR in violation of § 13.69 of the Commission's rules (47 CFR 13.69).

2. In the light of the evidence adduced in the preceding issue to determine whether the terms of the original orders of suspension should be made final, rescinded or modified.

It is further ordered, That a copy of this order be transmitted by Registered Mail, Return Receipt Requested to Howard A. Chamberlin and Fred P. Muller, and that each of said parties notify the Commission in writing within 15 days after the receipt of this order that they will appear in person or by counsel at said hearing.

GRANITE STATE BROADCASTING CO., INC. (WDNH)

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re application of Granite State Broadcasting Company, Inc. (WDNH), Dover, New Hampshire, for construction permit; Docket No. 11322, File No. BP-9417.

1. The Commission has before it separate protests filed on February 28, 1955, by the Strafford Broadcasting Corporation, licensee of Station WWNH, Rochester, New Hampshire (930 kc, 5 kw, Day); and Vic Diehm Associates, Inc., licensee of Station WVDA, Boston, Massachusetts (1260 kc, 5 kw, DA-N, Unl.), pursuant to section 309 (c) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, protesting the Commission's action of January 27, 1955 (released January 28, 1955), granting without hearing the above-entitled application of Granite State Broadcasting Company, Inc. (hereinafter referred to as Granite State) for a construction permit for a new standard broadcast station (WDNH) to operate on 1270 kilocycles with a power of 5 kilowatts, directional antenna, unlimited time, at Dover, New Hampshire; and oppositions to the said protests filed by WDNH on March 11, 1955, and a reply to the WDNH opposition filed by WVDA on March 18, 1955.

2. The protestant WVDA claims standing as a party in interest under section 309 (c) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, because of the interference that Station WVDA would receive from the operation in question. With its protest, WVDA submitted an engineering affidavit to show that WDNH, the station authorized in the Commission's action in question would cause objectionable interference to the present operation of WVDA. The engineering affidavit included field strength measurements on the WVDA signal along several radials to establish the fact that the 0.5 mv/m contours of Stations WVDA and WDNH would overlap in a small area along the seacoast at a distance of over 50 miles from the WVDA site. It is computed by WVDA that the overlap would cause an interference area to WVDA of 112 square miles within which 7,964 persons reside. This population loss, according to the protestant, represents 0.31 percent of the population served by protestant's station. Thus, WVDA has established itself as a party in interest within the meaning of section 309 (c).

3. WVDA has specified the following issues on which it asks for an opportunity to present evidence:

1. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain or lose service from the operation of the proposed station and the availability of other services to such areas.

2. To determine whether the operation of the proposed station would involve objectionable interference with the operation of Station WVDA licensed to Vic Diehm Associates, Inc., Boston, Massachusetts, and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, and the areas and populations affected thereby.

3. To determine, on a comparative basis, whether or not the proposed operation would best serve the public interest, convenience and necessity of the areas involved in the light of the evidence adduced under the issues herein and the record made with respect to the significant differences between the proposed program service, background and experience and management proposals of Granite State and the existing service being rendered by Vic Diehm Associates, Inc. (Station WVDA, Boston, Massachusetts).

4. To determine the stock ownership and management interests of the officers, directors, and stockholders of Granite State Broadcasting Company, Inc. in other businesses as well as in other broadcasting stations, and whether such interests result in a concentration of control contrary to or inconsistent with the public interest and/or the Commission's Multiple Ownership Rules.

4. Issues 1 and 2 as specified by protestant WVDA pertain to the coverage and interference areas of the proposed WDNH operation in question. As set forth in paragraph 2 above, the engineering showing submitted by WVDA establishes the fact that the proposed WDNH operation will cause interference to WVDA. Consequently WVDA has specified facts, matters and things relied upon so as to warrant the designation of the Granite State application for hearing upon the issues of coverage and interference.

5. With respect to Issue 3, we believe it necessary, in view of Issues 1 and 2, that evidence also be taken on the program service of Station WVDA in the interference area. See Democrat Printing Co. v. Federal Communications Commission, 91 U. S. App. D. C. 72, 202 F. 2d 298. However, the other matters on which the protestant seeks to have evidence taken, i. e., the comparative backgrounds, experience and management proposals of itself and Granite State, are not properly in issue and are unsupported by any facts, matters or things relating to them. They will be deleted from the issue.

[1] It should be noted that this order does not constitute a determination that all of the above issues are relevant to the question of whether the application should be granted. The issues relating to economic injury to the protesting parties have been included in the interests of expedition, inasmuch as evidence must in any event be taken on other relevant issues supported by facts, matters and things relied upon. However, the question of the relevance of economic injury is one which we have designated for preliminary oral argument in other proceedings (see In re American Southern Broadcasters, 11 Pike & Fischer, RR1054), and it remains open for decision in this case. So too, the opportunity to offer evidence with respect to areas to be served is not a determination that such evidence will be sufficiently reliable to form the basis for any findings of fact based upon a proper record. Inclusion of all of the above issues, therefore, is specifically not intended in this case (where expedition is of considerable importance) to foreclose a later determination with respect to their relevance.

6. With respect to Issue 4, WVDA states that "It is known that the officers, directors, and stockholders of Granite State Broadcasting Company, Inc. have other broadcast interests as well as other business interests (Granite State Network, Inc.; Grandview, Inc.; WTSL, Inc.; Mt. Washington TV, Inc.; Collins Radio Inc.; and Rust Industrial Company)." WVDA concludes that these interests should be considered in any determination as to whether a grant of the application in issue would serve the public interest. The matter of concentration of control of interests of stockholders of Granite State Broadcasting Company, Inc., treated more completely in the WWNH protest, will be considered in conjunction with the WWNH protest.

7. In support of its protest WWNH contends that it will suffer economic injury as a result of the Commission's action. WWNH states that although its licensed location is Rochester, New Hampshire, it has also identified itself with the Dover area by programming its station in the interest of Dover (Dover is approximately 10 miles south of Rochester) with such broadcasts as Thanksgiving Day Dover High School football games, grand openings of new businesses in Dover, a local Talent Folk Song Festival, programs from the University of New Hampshire at Durham (a part of the Dover area), remote broadcasts of the University's Christmas Concert, adult education courses, interviews, news broadcasts of items of interest to the Dover-Durham area, broadcasts of the Durham High School basketball games. WWNH further states that in January 1954 it serviced 18 accounts in Dover and 12 additional accounts in Somersworth, Somersworth Falls, Durham and Berwick, towns comprising the Dover area; that these accounts and their attendant revenues accounted for 47.82 per cent of the total WWNH revenue and 53 per cent of the total local revenue of WWNH; that in December 1954 WWNH serviced 28 accounts in Dover and 14 accounts in the neighboring towns in the Dover area with an attendant revenue accounting for 41.21 per cent of the total revenue of WWNH and approximately 46 per cent of the total local revenue of WWNH; and that for the twelve-month period from January to December 1954, comparable accounts numbers and revenue figures existed within the above-stated limits. WWNH concludes that the establishment of a station in Dover would seriously reduce WWNH's revenue therefrom.

8. Granite State contends that WWNH is not a party in interest since it is in Rochester and "• • • the Commission has not previously indulged in the assumption that economic injury will result to a protestant in a community other than that where the station being protested is to be constructed," Granite State asserts that WWNH's showing that it receives revenue from Dover doesn't substantiate a claim that this would be lost because of the proposed station at Dover.

9. In light of WWNH's showing set forth in Paragraph 7 above and the fact that the protestant is licensee of Station WWNH, Rochester, New Hampshire; that the protestant derives operating revenue from the Dover area; that the grant herein protested establishes the first standard broadcast station in Dover in direct competition with WWNH; and that the protestant has alleged that it has been and will continue to be financially injured by the grant complained of, it is the Commission's opinion that WWNH is a "party in interest" within the meaning of section 309 (c) of the Communications Act.

10. WWNH has specified the following issues on which it asks for an opportunity to present evidence:

1. To determine whether, in the light of the multiplicity of service rendered New Hampshire by Granite State at the present time and the service proposed in the Dover area by the station applied for by Granite State, and in the light of the common ownership of such stations, a grant of said application would be consistent with section 3.35 (b) of the Commission's rules (47 CFR 3.35).

2. To determine whether, in the light of the ownership by Granite State Network, it would be in the public interest to further strengthen its hold on the New Hampshire market by adding an additional powerful radio station to the Granite State controlling group.

3. To determine whether the Granite State group, through its multiple ownership of radio stations, have engaged in any practices such as establishing exclusive programming policies for Associated Grocers in order that illegal rebates otherwise prohibited by the Robinson-Patman Act might be effectuated.

4. To determine whether Granite State's policy of multiple station joint rates with substantial discounts as more stations are added is in the public interest; whether this policy will be established in the proposed operation at Dover; and, whether such policy covering four broadcast stations in the small New Hampshire market unreasonably restrains competition by precluding the single station licensee from access to the regional and national market.

5. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced upon the foregoing issues, whether the public interest, convenience or necessity would be served by a grant of the application of Granite State for a station at Dover, and whether the parties in interest in said company are qualified to receive a grant of the application.

11. The WWNH protest alleges that William J. Barkley is President, Director and 35.3 percent stockholder; William F. Rust is Vice-President, Treasurer, Director and 49.9 percent stockholder; and Ralph Gottlieb is Director, General Manager and 14.8 percent stockholder of Granite State. Granite State is also the licensee of Station WKBR (1240 kc, 250 w, Unl.) and WKBR-FM, Manchester, New Hampshire; and is 3 percent stockholder of Mt. Washington TV, Inc., licensee of television Station WNTW, Poland Spring, Maine, Channel 8. Also, William J. Barkley is President, Director and 32.94 percent stockholder; William F. Rust is Treasurer, Director and 46.53 percent stockholder of Grandview, Inc., licensee of Station WTSV (1230 kc, 250 w, Unl.) and WTSV-FM, Claremont, New Hampshire. William J. Barkley is President, Director and 35.3 percent stockholder; William F. Rust is Vice-President, Director and 49.4 percent stockholder; and Ralph Gottlieb is Director, General Manager and 15.3 percent stockholder of WTSL, Inc., licensee of WTSL, Hanover, New Hampshire (1400 kc, 250 w, Unl.). Granite State Network, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Granite State, is a regional network serving the aforementioned stations.

12. It is further alleged that Capitol Broadcasting Corporation, Inc., of which H. Scott Killgore is the 100 percent stockholder, was an applicant for the same facilities specified in the application in issue. Mr. Killgore's application, File No. BP-9333, was withdrawn on January 14, 1955, in accordance with an agreement whereby, after a grant to Granite State, a new corporation would be formed, to which the construction permit would be assigned. Under this agreement, H. Scott Killgore would receive an option to buy 25 percent of the stock of the corporation to be formed. H. Scott Killgore is applicant for a new standard broadcast station at Plymouth, Massachusetts (File No. BP-8940, 990 kc, 1 kw, Day) and 100 percent stockholder of Tele Broadcasters, Inc., licensee of Station WKXL (1450 kc, 250 w, Unl.), Concord, New Hampshire. Central Broadcasting Corporation, a wholly owned subsidiary of Tele Broadcasters, Inc., is licensee of Station WARE (1250 kc, 1 kw, Day), Ware, Massachusetts.[1]

13. With respect to Issues 1, 2 and 4 as specified by WWNH and Issue 4 as specified by WVDA, it is contended that stockholders in Granite State have so concentrated their interests in standard broadcast stations within the state of New Hampshire that their grant of an additional station in New Hampshire is in contravention of the provisions of § 3.35 of the Commission's rules. WVDA also contends that said stockholders' interests in other businesses such as Collins Radio, Inc., manufacturers of radio broadcast equipment, Rust Industrial Company and Granite State Network, Inc., further tighten their alleged concentration of control of standard broadcast interests. WWNH alleges that "The debilitating and adverse economic effect upon WWNH which will be caused by the entry of Granite State into the Dover market will be substantially aggravated by virtue of the multiple ownership and cross-connections in various other radio broadcast stations in the State of New Hampshire, which will further preclude its access to the necessary advertising revenues for the operation of its station (WWNH)." WWNH states that New Hampshire consists of ten counties with a total population of 533,242 persons according to the 1950 Bureau of Census. WWNH alleges that Granite State dominates and intends to further dominate New Hampshire through control by ownership, cross-ownerships or net work ownership of the radio media in seven of the ten counties in New Hampshire, which seven counties reportedly contain over 80 percent of the total population of the entire state. WWNH further contends that these seven counties account for 85 percent of the estimated effective buying income in New Hampshire; 85 percent of the state's retail sales; 83 percent of the state's total payroll.

14. It is contended by WWNH that "the combine of stations by Granite State uses its joint leverage to produce revenue and deny access to the advertisers to other radio station competitors. For example, an advertiser can purchase time on WTSV, Claremont, and obtain WKBR, Manchester, as well, and the combination of two stations results in a substantial discount to the advertiser. If the advertiser wants WTSV, Claremont, and WKBR, Manchester, he can add Brattleboro and obtain a third station and further increase his discount privileges. Should the advertiser want WTSV, Claremont; WKBR, Manchester, and WTSL, Lebanon (Hanover), the advertiser's discount is further increased. In the event Granite State adds a fourth wholly owned station at Dover, the discount arrangements might well result in discounts that would give the advertiser one station free if he bought the remaining three, • • • such extreme economic leverage in such a small state area cannot be regarded in the public interest."

15. In its reply Granite State asserts that "• • • the State of New Hampshire has a total of twelve AM stations, of which seven (including that of the protestant) operate with power in excess of 1 kilowatt. The only stations licensed to Granite State or its principals are 250 watt stations whose coverage is, of course, materially restricted by this lower power. • • • that a 250 watt station at best covers the community to which it has been assigned. • • • that residents of New Hampshire receive a multiplicity of radio broadcast signals from the stations located in the nearby states of Massachusetts, Vermont, Maine, and, of course, the signals of the clear channel stations from New York and other large eastern cities." Granite State further states that buying of time on two stations owned by Granite State at a discount "• • • is hardly evidence that advertisers are denied access to other radio stations in New Hampshire." Granite State contends that common ownership of four standard broadcast stations is not uncommon and is not contrary to the provisions of § 3.35 or the public interest. We find, upon the basis of the foregoing, that the protestants have specified with particularity facts, matters and things which warrant a hearing on the issues raised. However, the Commission is not adopting, within the meaning of section 309 (c), Issues 1, 2 and 4 as specified by WWNH and Issue 4 as specified in WVDA, and therefore the burden of proof will rest with WWNH and WVDA.

16. With respect to Issue 3, WWNH alleges, upon information and belief that Granite State Network, Inc. engages in practices that constitute violations of the Robinson-Patman Act. WWNH states that Granite State Network is the only operating and effective regional network in New Hampshire; that this network is a wholly owned subsidiary of Granite State, which owns between 4 and 5 percent of Mt. Washington TV, Inc., licensee of WMTW, Poland Spring, Maine, on VHF Channel 8; that the predominant feature on the Granite State Network is the Connie Stackpole show; that all commercial time on this program is made available to Associated Grocers; that the "advertising allowance made to Associated Grocers was in effect not a true advertising allowance"; that the "exclusive availability of the program puts Associated Grocers in a preferred position"; that "comparable advertising allowances are not made to grocers in competition with Associated Grocers"; that "any other radio station in the State of New Hampshire not affiliated with the network cannot obtain any advertising business from the Associated Grocers combination". From this recitation it is not clear to the Commission what the alleged violations of the Robinson-Patman Act are or how the matter complained of is material to WWNH's request for reconsideration of the grant of the construction permit for WDNH. Therefore, this issue is one which we would ordinarily set for oral argument. Hyman Rosenblum et al, 11 Pike & Fischer, RR 826. However, in view of the fact that an evidentiary hearing is necessary on the other issues involved, this issue will also be set for evidentiary hearing.

17. Granite State, in its replies to the WVDA and WWNH protests, states that if its application is designated for hearing, the proceeding should be in the form of an oral argument before the Commission as on demurred instead of an evidentiary hearing. While such a procedure is feasible in certain cases, and the Commission in the past has ordered oral arguments in cases involving the Commission's multiple ownership rules, the data and material submitted and the questions and issues raised here are such as to require an evidentiary hearing in this case. This is not a case where, as in Ohio Valley Broadcasting Corp., 10 Pike & Fischer, RR 500, the nature of the factual allegations permits us to treat them as on demurrer. We believe that an evidentiary hearing on the present allegations is appropriate.

18. In view of the foregoing: It is ordered, That the subject protests of WVDA and WWNH are granted, and that pursuant to section 309 (c) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, effective immediately, the effective date of the grant of the above-entitled application is postponed pending a final determination by the Commission with respect to the hearing described below, and that the above-entitled application is designated for hearing at the offices of the Commission in Washington, D. C. on the following issues: [2]

1. To determine the areas and populations which will be served by the proposed operation, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine whether the operation of the proposed station would involve objectionable interference with the operation of Station WVDA, Boston, Massachusetts, and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, and the areas and populations affected thereby.

3. To determine the proposed program service of the proposed station and the program service being rendered to the interference area by Station WVDA.

4. To determine whether a grant of the above-entitled application would be in contravention of the provisions of § 3.35 of the Commission's rules in light of the ownership interests in and the operating practices employed at other broadcast stations and a regional network by parties to the above-entitled applicant corporation and H. Scott Killgore.

5. To determine whether in the operation of the Granite State Network, Inc., the above-entitled applicant corporation or parties thereto have engaged in any practices prohibited by the Robinson-Patman Act.

6. To determine whether in light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues the Granite State Broadcasting Company, Inc. is qualified to be the licensee of a broadcast station and whether a grant of the above-entitled application would serve the public interest, convenience and necessity.

The burden of proof as to Issues 1 and 2 is placed on Granite State Broadcasting Company, Inc. The burden of proof on Issue 3 is placed jointly on Granite State Broadcasting Company, Inc., and Vic Diehm Associates, Inc. The burden of proof on Issue 4 is placed jointly on Vic Diehm Associates, Inc. and the Strafford Broadcasting Corporation. The burden of proof on Issue 5 is placed on Strafford Broadcasting Corporation.

19. It is further ordered, That Vic Diehm Associates, Inc.; Strafford Broadcasting Corporation; and the Chief of the Broadcast Bureau are made parties to the proceeding herein and that:

(a) The hearing on the above issues shall commence at 10:00 a. m. on April 27, 1955, before an Examiner to be specified by the Commission; and

(b) The parties to the proceeding shall have fifteen (15) days after the issuance of the Examiner's decision to file exceptions thereto and seven (7) days thereafter to file replies to any such exceptions; and

(c) The appearances by the parties intending to participate in the above

FEDERAL REGISTER

VOLUME 20 NUMBER 69

Washington, Friday, April 8, 1955

TITLE 1—GENERAL PROVISIONS

Appendix A—Guide to Record Retention Requirements

EDITORIAL NOTE: The following editorial finding aid, designated Appendix A, is hereby added to Title 1 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Introduction. The following list was compiled as a guide to generally applicable provisions of Federal laws and regulations relating to the retention of records by the public. The list is derived from the laws contained in the United States Code as amended by the laws enacted in 1954, and from the regulations contained in the Code of Federal Regulations as amended in the daily issues of the FEDERAL REGISTER through December 31, 1954. It represents an effort to show (1) what published requirements there are on the keeping of non-Federal records, (2) what records must be kept and who must keep them, and (3) how long they must be kept.

The list does not have the effect of law, regulation, or ruling. It is merely a guide to requirements that appear to be in effect at the end of 1954.

Coverage. The list is confined to generally applicable published requirements on record retention. Not included are requirements applying to named individuals and corporations such as professional or patriotic associations, port or bridge authorities. Also not included are requirements as to the furnishing of reports to Government agencies, the filing of tax returns, the submission of supporting evidence with applications or claims, and similar materials. Likewise the provisions of individual Government contracts may require the keeping of records, but no attempt has been made to include all such provisions.

In many laws and regulations there is an implied responsibility to keep copies of reports and other papers furnished to Federal agencies, or to keep working papers necessary to the preparation of a report. Such implied requirements are not included.

The list also does not contain requirements as to the keeping of papers furnished by the Government, such as passports, licenses, permits, and similar documents, unless they are closely related to other records which must be kept. It does not include requirements as to the display of posters, notices, or other signs in factories, hotels, or other places of business.

Arrangement. The list is arranged alphabetically by the names of the Departments or major agencies imposing or having a special interest in the requirements, and thereunder by the bureau or office immediately concerned with the requirements. Individual items are numbered to simplify indexing, but they are not alphabetically arranged.

Four supplements to the list contain generalized information about certain requirements under the Defense Production Act of 1950 and the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942; a detailed listing of National Production Authority orders and regulations that were still in effect on October 20, 1954; a detailed listing of requirements of the Petroleum Administration for Defense, some of which are still in effect; and detailed information on requirements imposed by the Civil Aeronautics Board relative to the availability of credentials for inspection.

An index to the list follows the last supplement.

Supplement I—Requirements Under the Defense Production Act of 1950, Executive Order 10160 of September 9, 1950, the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, and the Second War Powers Act of 1942

Excluded from detailed listing in this compilation are the many requirements contained in regulations issued by the Office of Price Stabilization under the provisions of the Defense Production Act of 1950. Broadly considered these requirements fell into 2 groups:

1. Requirements that those selling goods or services covered by price controls retain for 2 years records of sales. The longest that any of these records need be kept is to April 30, 1955.

2. Requirements that certain records relating to determining prices and other records not relating to individual sales transactions be retained until 2 years after expiration of Title IV of the Defense Production Act.

Persons dealing in goods or services the prices of which were controlled by the OPS should consult the appropriate regulations (Title 32A, CFR) to determine applicability of these requirements to their records. (See also GOR 44, OPS, 18 F. R. 1477.)

Executive Order 10160 of September 9, 1950, requires that every individual, corporation, partnership, association, or other organized group which sold or delivered goods or services, or offered them for sale or delivery, in the course of trade or business during the period from May 24 to June 24, 1950, inclusive, shall preserve all records relating to prices received or asked for such goods or services and the labor, material, acquisition, and other costs incurred in connection with such goods or services (with certain exceptions). The Defense Production Act (sec. 705 (a)) empowers the President to require that these records be kept until 2 years after the expiration of the Act.

Requirements contained in World War II price control regulations have expired, except insofar as the records may be pertinent to unsettled claims or litigation. (See 11 F. R. 12568, 18 F. R. 33 and 8698.)

The Second War Powers Act of March 27, 1942 (56 Stat. 185) provided that contractors with defense contracts placed after September 8, 1939 could be required to produce any books or records deemed relevant for audit and inspection by any agency or officer designated by the President or the Chairman of the War Production Board. The effectiveness of this Act was continued by the Act of June 30, 1953 (67 Stat. 120), for the duration of the national emergency proclaimed December 16, 1950, and for 6 months thereafter.

INDEX

Explanation. The index is a guide to the persons, groups, or products covered by the subject titles in the list. It does not purport to bring together under a given entry a complete analysis of all requirements relating to a given business or product. Thus a requirement affecting corporations in liquidation will be found under "corporation" because the word appears in the subject title in the list. There are many other requirements, however, affecting corporations which must be sought under "taxes", "manufacturers", "employers", "contractors", name of product, or other subject. In the same way general categories of persons to whom requirements may apply (such as manufacturers or importers) have been included only if they are particularly necessary in identifying the applicability of the requirements.

The following key to abbreviations should be used to distinguish the items for each Governmental unit. References are to agency and item number, not to FEDERAL REGISTER page.

AUTHORITY: §§ 434.601 to 434.626, issued under sec. 4, 62 Stat. 1070 as amended; 15 U. S. C. 714b. Interpret or apply Sec. 5, 62 Stat. 1072, secs. 201, 401, 63 Stat. 1052, 1054; 15 U. S. C. 714c, 7 U. S. C. 1446, 1421.

§ 434.601 Administration. This subpart will be administered by the Sugar Division, CSS, under the general direction and supervision of the Executive Vice-President, CCC. In the field the program will be carried out by State and County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation offices (hereinafter called State and county offices) under the supervision of State and County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committees (hereinafter called State and county committees) and by CSS commodity offices. Producers interested in participating in the program should contact their county offices, through which the price support documents will be distributed. All documents will be completed and approved by the county offices, which will retain copies thereof. State and county committees and offices and CSS commodity offices do not have authority to modify or waive any of the provisions of this subpart, or any amendments or supplements to this subpart.

§ 434.602 Availability of price support—(a) Method of support. Price support on extracted honey will be made available to producers through loans on such honey stored in approved farm storage, and through purchase agreements.

(b) Area. Farm-storage loans and purchase agreements will be available wherever eligible honey is produced in the continental United States.

(c) Where to apply. Application for price support should be made at the county office of the county in which the producer's place of operation is located or, if producer has more than one place of operation, at the county office of the county in which the honey is stored.

(d) When to apply. Loans and purchase agreements will be available from April 1, 1955 through December 31, 1955, in Florida, Georgia, South Carolina, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, New Mexico, Arizona, and California. In all other States, loans and purchase agreements will be available from July 1, 1955 through December 31, 1955. Applicable documents must be signed by the producer and delivered to the county office not later than December 31, 1955.

(e) Eligible producer. (1) An eligible producer shall be any person, including a partnership, association or corporation, who, in 1955, extracts honey produced by bees owned by him.
